

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 295

"Dad, don't you love Mellie the most? Do you really want to see them being treated like this?" Queena became more and more anxious. If Nelson was unwilling to pay attention to it, it would be in a state of unsolved.

Nelson stopped holding the stick. He didn't answer Queena's question, but rubbed the dragon head on the top of the stick with his finger.

"Alston always does everything in the proper way." Nelson was helpless. This was his son's character. Once he decided, it was difficult to change his mind.

He thought it was the best choice to let Jonas make a concession in this matter.

In view of Melinda's current condition, it was not appropriate for them to get involved in this matter at all.

Queena was hopeless. She felt she had no choice but to call Melinda after hesitating for a long time.

What she could do now was to count on Jonas coming back home early to stop it happening.

Melinda went to bed very early these days due to her pregnancy reaction. In a daze, she heard the sound of the phone ringing. She wanted to let Jonas answer the phone, but she didn't wake up until she stretched her hand to the other side of the bed and felt a little cool.

"Mom."

Seeing that the person who called was Queena, Melinda picked up the phone. Then she put on her shoes, ready to go to the study to look for Jonas.

"Linda, where do you live now?" Queena asked in concern. Hearing Melinda's voice, she realized that it was late. She was a little annoyed at her impatience.

But the current situation made her too anxious to calm herself down.

"We just live in the apartment near the company. What happened?" Melinda asked as she stopped putting on her shoes.

Her brain gradually started to move. Queena's call at late night must be for something.

"Linda, please ask Jonas to come back as soon as possible. His father is going to transfer thirty percent of his shares to Jerry," Queena said in an anxious voice.

She sat in the living room of the Gu family, only she was left alone. It was like the last stubbornness in her and her heart.

Melinda was also surprised to hear that, but then she distracted her attention.

"Jonas doesn't have those shares, right?" Melinda was not stupid. Listening to Queena's voice, she could analyze some things.

"Right,"
