

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 296

Melinda had been waiting for news at home in the past two days. She had gotten many information from the private detective, but none of them was about Jerry.

"You mean, this matter has nothing to do with Emily?" Melinda asked calmly. It seemed that she didn't care much about this matter, but the private detective had already felt that she had been asking questions from time to time.

So she knew that in fact, Melinda cared a lot about this.

"I have done my survey. They have no contact at all." The private detective answered. He was a famous detective in A City.

It was said that his news was fast and true. Melinda was a straightforward person. He liked to make friends with those people, so he was patient.

Hearing this, Melinda was lost in thought. 'Since it was not Emily, what on earth was I investigating?'

"But I have another piece of news that might be useful to you." The private detective said with a tinge of guilt in his heart for finding out nothing useful to her.

Hearing that, Melinda's eyes turned bright all of a sudden. She could not wait to ask, "what news?"

"When I searched Jerry's social network, I found that his fiancée is Stacy Wang, the daughter of David Wang." The private detective said. He had been shocked for quite a while when he had heard the news.

The bastard of Gu family had got a fiancée who came from a rich family.

"David Wang?"

She didn't know who he was, but judging from the detective's tone, she was told that he was a high-ranking person.

"Hey, don't look down upon him. He is the master of investment in A City." The private detective probably guessed that Melinda was not sensitive to those people, so she did not know who he was, so explained to her.

Hearing this, Melinda took a deep breath. Sure enough, they did have great status.

So, did Alston's series of actions have anything to do with Jerry's fiancée.

"Thank you. I think this news is really important." Melinda quickly ended the call.

She took a look at the time on the wall. Thinking that it was almost time for Jonas to go home, she didn't call to urge him, beginning to analyze the news.

She didn't know much about business, so she wanted to know the details of it from Jonas.
