

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 299

He, Jonas, had become a hypocrite who talked behind one's back.

When Melinda thought of such a comment on Jonas, she felt very uncomfortable.

"He doesn't know Jerry. That's why he came to me. Now that he came to me, he must trust me." That was why he dared to tell everything to David.

Besides, even if there were misunderstandings, it wouldn't have much impact on him. The one who was affected most should be Jerry.

"I don't think it's a good idea. What if..." She wanted to say that if Jerry and Miss Wang really loved each other, then it meant that Jonas was trying to separate them by saying that?

"That's the best way,"

Since he had to deal with Jerry now, but he couldn't do anything about him. What he could do was to see how David was going to deal with him and what if there was something bad happening between David and Jerry, and what if Alston did something to protect Jerry? Would Jerry treat his father more kindly in the future?

Melinda didn't say anything, but she still felt that it was not good. Then she comforted herself that Jonas just told the truth to someone else. What if Jerry was really took advantage of Stacy?

Jerry, the victim, did not know about all this. The atmosphere between the Wang family and the Wang family was tense, making people compromise.

Stacy was spoiled ever since she was a child and she had seldom been controlled by her father in such a way which made her feel unacceptable.

"Dad, no matter what you say, I will never leave Jerry. He is very good to me. Can't you see that?"

Stacy looked at him reproachfully, which made him feel that it was cruel to beat up this couple. Jerry really treated Stacy very well in front of him. He seemed was gentle and considerate.

But if it was all his intention to show, it would be too terrible.

"Dear, listen to me this time, okay?" Looking at his daughter who was in a state of total loss, David was completely helpless, and even at a loss.

How could he persuade her to give up? If he had known that he should have investigated Jerry carefully. It wouldn't have ended up like this.

When Stacy brought him back, he habitually asked people to investigate, but he was stopped by Stacy. And the information he got was only that Jerry seemed to be an illegitimate child of someone.

"I won't break up with him." With these words, Stacy went straight back to her bedroom and ignored her father.

The whole living room was filled with the smell of cigarettes, and David smoked three bags of cigarettes, looking rather gloomy.

David still decided to contact Jerry and he had a long relationship with Stacy,

One was that Jerry was afraid that things would go wrong in his career, and gently over the phone. His voice,

straightforward words, Jerry frowned and felt that pretended to be worried and asked, "is there for her.

that, David felt sorry for Jerry. He thought that Jerry might really love his daughter.

you. Let and offered his address, which was the shopping mall where Stacy went just now. He wandered around and bought soon. They met at a cafe. The Secretary waited outside and put the stuffs in front of David. Then he said with a little embarrassment, "these are feelings became complicated again. Although he loved his daughter, he did not know embarrassed to maintain his position. Finally, he put the foods aside as if nothing had me?" Asked Jerry tentatively. He came over without preparation, and now his brain began to turn sharply, and he in the wealthy families liked to do. Thinking he threw soon calmed down. He don't match my daughter at all." As he spoke, he was in his life was to be mentioned the identity, especially love Stacy so much that I can't do it." Jerry said painfully, with a proper what Jerry said, he would not believe it, so he still turned a deaf ear to it.

want from her?" David straightly spoke out the purpose that Jerry approached Stacy. Jerry panicked again, but he to realize that there was really something with you. You can't get anything from her." Said daughter had something that these people wanted to take advantage of her, it must be him. Jerry was an ambitious man and he must want to purpose. David thought his analysis from Stacy. I really love her. Uncle, I can't live without her." Jerry said bitterly, tears streaming down his cheeks. It was before? This means that you are willing to accept me. Why do you object now? " There was a had set him up without didn't know enough about your conduct before." Said David. He regretted that he didn't ask