

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 304

In the end, Melinda told all the things honestly to Jonas, whose face suddenly darkened.

He had thought that Emily would behave well after the lesson last time. He didn't expect her to make any trouble. Fortunately, Melinda was fine this time, or he would make her regret coming to this world.

"In fact, it's not a big deal. Now that mommy has warned her, I believe that Emily dares not to harass me again."

Looking at the cruel look of Jonas, Melinda felt a little worried. She didn't like Jonas to act like this at all, even for the sake of her.

Queena echoed with Melinda's words, trying to make her son calm down a little.

Jonas didn't answer them, and the dinner was also weirdly quiet. Before Queena left, she was still worried about Jonas and looked at Melinda worriedly.

Melinda winked at Queena as if saying "don't worry".

"Jonas." Melinda came forward and held Jonas's arm, shaking it back and forth. Jonas couldn't stand it when she acted like a spoiled child.

But it didn't seem to have much effect today. He was still wearing a cold face, and the air around him was giving off a sign of unhappiness.

Jonas was not only angry with Emily's threat to Melinda, but also angry that Melinda hid such a thing from him.

"Mommy said she would handle it. I don't want you to worry about me. Look, now mommy has handled it and I am fine. Isn't that great?"

Melinda was logical and reasonable. Even though it seemed that it had no problem, it still pissed off Jonas.

When Jonas got angry, Melinda was scared. But she had no choice. She had to put out the fire.

But it seemed that Jonas was heartless today. He turned a deaf ear to Melinda's coquetry and even went out after answering a phone call.

Sitting alone at home, Melinda felt a little bit grieved. Then she began to think about it in a different way, thinking that it was reasonable for Jonas to be angry.

At the same time, a group of people appeared on the beach where Melinda was captured by white Emily. The one in the middle was in a white dress, and his hair was as messy as weeds.

Emily looked at the men who suddenly rushed to her house in horror. She had no time to react before she was caught here.

"What do you want? Let me go!" Emily struggled desperately, but she was unable to escape from this restraints.

The panic in her eyes pleased the crowd, but their eyes were cold, even though they were smiling. They were not like the thugs Emily found.
