

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 305

Seeing his mother's face, Jonas reluctantly agreed and remained silent.

Jonas's compromise always made Queena feel that his promise was untrustworthy.

At the same time, Melinda was downstairs with no knowledge of all this. She drank the soup brought by Queena in satisfaction. Maybe she had known her taste, and the taste of the soup made her feel happy.

Queena came downstairs after telling Jonas a lot of taboo things in the room upstairs and seeing Melinda so obedient, she was relieved.

Thinking of that Melinda did not refuse Jonas just now, she began to worry about her.

If Melinda knew what Queena was thinking at this time, she would probably be crying aggrievedly. Just now, it was due to the sudden attack of Jonas that she had no chance to resist.

Besides, recently, Jonas would not do that. And he was caught on the spot as this was the only time that he did that.

"Mellie." Queena came closer to Melinda, and there were some words that she wanted to say to her son. But if she said to Melinda, it would be still difficult.

Melinda raised her head and looked at Queena in bewilderment. At the same time, Jonas happened to come downstairs and stopped his mother when he saw her expression.

"Mom, didn't you say that you have a lot of things to deal with at home? Why are you still here?" said Jonas. It was okay for his mother to say that he had a thick skin, but Linda had a thin skin. If his mother said something to her, there would probably be no benefit at all for him in the future.

Jonas's words made Queena roll her eyes. Her son was driving her away. She didn't say that she had a lot of things to do at home.

Was it because she had disturbed them?

When Queena thought of this, she became anxious.

"Gavin is taking care of the matter at home. But it's uneasy for you two to live outside," Queena said. It was mainly because of what happened just now that she was worried that the two were too young, and then the baby would be hurt.

"I will take care of Linda. All right, the driver has been waiting for you downstairs. Don't talk too much here," Jonas said quickly. He wanted to rush up and open the door so that Queena could leave in a hurry.

In this way, Queena was relentlessly urged back home by her son.

left, Jonas was completely relieved. Seeing that Melinda was to control his desire. Finally, he thought, it was too much to bear in front of Queenena came back home, she thought for a while and felt it was not appropriate. Just when she arrived, calming down in the living room, she heard the sound of the door being opened. Looking at the somewhat messy sofa, she hurriedly tidied it.

face full of guilt, but when she saw that there was no Jonas by his side, she quietly sighed with relief, thinking that her son had heard what she said.

loudly. Jonas almost fell come here to have a look," Queenena said and sat down with Melinda on the sofa. Seeing that the sofa quite like to have some fruit?" Melinda didn't dare to look at her eyes. She picked up the fruit on the table and brought especially glad that they stopped just now, otherwise, Queenena came would feel ashamed to lowered to the floor, breathed a sigh of relief secretly, turned on the TV and changed the topic. When Jonas came out after getting dressed, he was again with a frown and said helplessly, "Mommy, why do you come again? Can I have some wanted to hold Melinda in his arms, and Melinda was ready to rest in his arms as usual. Until her eyes met with Queenena's eyes, her back suddenly stiffened and she silently moved away space as you want in the future. But now, you can't. Since Mellie is pregnant, it will be very important during this period. Mommy has experienced it and can take care of her. And you have a spare room. I will move

The explosion made Jonas's eyes dizzy and suspect to move here, so he

of the glance his mother gave Melinda just now and that Melinda had been silently sitting far away from him, looked at his mother seriously, hoping it was just just baby is born," Queena said. She really felt that the looked long time, and there is nothing to worry about. If you come over, you will make at Jonas with her eyes wide open, as if saying that she had nothing to do with it.

one who is unwilling, and don't push the blame onto Mellie. That's the acted like this, the more suspicious Queena was of his that it was reasonable for his mother to do so, especially when the two good here. Someone can teach me if hurt Jonas's heart. Queena was satisfied with her