

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 308

Nelson sat on the head of the house. Jonas and Melinda sat on the one side of the table, with Queena sitting next to them, while Jerry and Alston sitting on the other side. Yulia sat with embarrassment, trying her best to focus on the food.

Almost all the dishes in Melinda's bowl were picked up by Jonas. As long as the dishes had been touched by Jerry, Jonas would never put his chopsticks in them. No one knew whether it was intentional or not.

Although such a behavior was very childish, it was also ruthless to let Jerry feel ashamed.

It was not clear in the Gu's mansion what to say when eating and when to sleep, but at this time, everyone seemed to want to spread the words until Jonas put down the chopsticks in his hand.

Queenena looked at Jonas doubtfully and wanted to remind him that his grandpa hadn't put the chopsticks down when he suddenly turned around and looked at her with a fake smile. She didn't know what her son was up to.

"Mommy, don't pretend to have a good appetite to a hypocrite like Jerry." Jonas said in a moderate voice, but everyone present could hear him.

Melinda had a good appetite, so she felt a little bit stiff when she was picking up food. She stamped on the fine leather shoes of Jonas under the table.

Queenena knew there was something implicated in Jonas's words, and she cooperated, so she pretended that only Jonas and she could hear what they said.

"Save your father some face,"

The reason why they were sitting here was because Alston. They wanted to see Jerry lower himself to Alston because of them.

"Well, Mr. Wang is a good partner. I will advise him don't let his daughter marry such a hypocrite like Jerry."

Jonas said again, his voice was a little louder than before and everyone could hear it. The fierce eyes of Alston instantly shot at him, but Jonas didn't seem to care.

There was only seriousness on his handsome face.

Jerry angrily put down the chopsticks in his hand, and his eyes fell on him. He had to reluctantly restore his calmness.

Although he was furious, he could only swallow it.

Therefore, Jonas had a big appetite and ate a lot, while Jerry was just sitting there.

Yulia was so tired of the fight between these people that she directly left the restaurant after dinner. She acted like nobody was noticed in this house.

Jonas had planned to take Melinda back to their own house, but he was stopped by Queena.

"Mommy, let me take Linda back to her room." Melinda said, noticing the tiredness in her eyes.
