

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 310

Queena understood, but she still felt uncomfortable. Is it because of this reason that they have to put up with Jerry every time?

Besides, Jonas had a bright future ahead. As long as he ran the Soaring Group well, he would surely become a leading enterprise in a few years. Why was he in a hurry now?

That's what she thought, but Queena knew that business marriage was the easiest and fastest way to expand the territory. Back then, she also hoped that Jonas could marry a person who was helpful for his career.

"It would be good if we can cooperate with the Wang clan, but it doesn't matter if we don't cooperate with us." Queena still believed in his son's strength, thinking that he could make Soaring Group better.

So cooperation was not important. It was just a shortcut. If this shortcut made them so uncomfortable, they might as well refuse it.

Hearing this, Jonas was a little upset.

"Maybe he doesn't believe me," Said Jonas. Alston didn't believe in his ability, so he used such a method to expand Soaring Group. If Alston was willing to give Jonas more confidence, it would be good.

"If he doesn't believe you, can he trust Jerry who relies on women?" Queena said angrily.

Outside the door, when Jerry heard this sentence, his fists were gradually clenched, and finally loosened, telling himself that it was not the time to break up with them.

He still had a lot of things to do. When he completely took control of Soaring Group, he would make Queena, that old woman felt it was worse than death.

"I was telling the truth." Jonas said calmly. His ability had been doubted for a long time, but he had been solid in his position as the CEO for so long.

He would treat it as a test.

"Then I will make Jerry unable to marry Stacy. I will see if he lost the right to be arrogant then yet. A man who only relies on a woman will become nothing."

Queena was fed up with Jerry. At the same time, she felt that Stacy was so blind to like such a hypocrite as Jerry.

While Jonas nodded in agreement. He had said before that he would not let a hypocrite like Jerry marry Stacy.

He could sound out what David wanted to say.

Outside the door, Jerry heard the conversation between the two people clearly. Seeing that Jonas hadn't come back for quite a long time, Melinda, who was waiting for him upstairs, worried that he might not be good at comforting people, went downstairs in person.

As soon as she arrived at the stairway, they saw Jerry standing at the door with an angry face. He raised his ears and could hear the words inside through the crack of the door.

She was very anxious and hurried forward, looking at Jerry warily.

"What are you doing here?"
