

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 320

Melinda's mood was getting better and better day by day. Jonas suddenly realized that married couples needed spice to get along with each other after marriage, which also added a lot of surprises to everyday life.

Meanwhile, Melinda felt that her happiness rate was soaring these days.

During this time, Jerry and Emily had been quiet a lot. At least, it was how it was in Melinda's eyes. She went to the villa area next to the Gu's mansion for a walk every day. Where there were so many people, it made people feel safe.

"Sorry, I have something to deal with at home. Are you okay to go alone?" Queena called Melinda when she was about to go out, and said with some guilt.

After the meal, she went to take a walk with Melinda every day, but she didn't have time to accompany her now. She was more worried about her being alone.

However, there were several people living in the villa area that knew the Gu family. Naturally, not many people dared to offend them.

However, their worries couldn't be alleviated by these external factors. Instead, Melinda was becoming more and more optimistic.

"It's okay, Mommy. I can do it alone," Melinda said with a smile. She was not in good health, but she felt much better after walking for a long time. At least, she didn't feel so tired after walking for so long.

Queen's worry disappeared when she saw her like this, but she still worried about Melinda being alone, and finally arranged a servant to accompany her.

Melinda didn't have the heart to refuse her kindness.

There was a central garden in the villa area. A lot of people were taking a walk there. They also had pets. These rich people all liked to keep cats and dogs. Cats and dogs made a great noise once they met each other.

Melinda liked the lively atmosphere, but she didn't join them. She found a quiet place to sit down and have a rest in the park. The servant wanted to help her massaging her legs, but she was stopped by Melinda.

"Have a seat. You've been gone for such a long time," Melinda said to her in a soft voice. She came from the Gu's mansion and spent half an hour strolling slowly.

Her smile always gave people a kind feeling. The servant had been working in the Gu's mansion for many years, and she had also bullied Melinda before. At this time, she was almost surrounded by guilt.

"Thank you, my lady. I'm not tired." The servant stood quietly by Melinda's side, with a respect expression on her face.

In her own way, Melinda gained respect from Gu family step by step.

The park was crowded with people. Melinda looked around with curiosity, as if she was a child who came to see the world's prosperity with her child.
