

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 323

With a sullen face, David went straight into the room. With a vicious look, he looked at Jerry and then pulled Stacy away.

Stacy didn't dare to struggle at all. She turned around and looked at Jerry behind her. She wanted to find some comfort from him, but she found that Jerry's face was gloomy and even frightening.

"Don't you feel ashamed enough?" Seeing that Stacy was still thinking about Jerry, David became extremely angry.

He was reluctant to scold his daughter and used to protect her.

He thought that a girl was a princess and she should be treated with good care. Now he thought about it. His education destroyed this child in this way, so that she could not tell who was good and who was bad, which made her more arrogant.

A lot of unspeakable regret arose in David's heart, but he felt that it was not too late to repair the situation.

Stacy was taken away by David in this way. Beside him, there were many hotel staff. Jerry felt that he was like a monkey from the zoo, being watched.

He was not as gentle as he used to be, but a moment later, he looked gloomy, and he felt embarrassed especially when he saw Jonas in the crowd.

He had always been taking advantage of Stacy to threaten him, but now, it became a joke to him. If someone with discerning eyes knew that David didn't like him at all, he would not help him at all even if he could marry Stacy in the end.

Then Jerry passed the crowd and left the hotel.

He would remember this battle!

Jonas came here just to keep David's company. He didn't expect to see such a good play and was in a good mood. After these, Jerry couldn't be stirred up.

Even after leaving the hotel, Jerry still could not forget how shameful it was as if he was watched by others without any cover.

If tonight there was really something happened between him and Stacy and these people broke in directly, then he would be on the headline of tomorrow's newspapers.

All these were brought by Jonas. With his hands clenched, Jerry made up his mind to teach him a good lesson, leaving him no time or mind to be so arrogant.

The street was boisterous at night, but Jerry felt that he was out of place with the world. Whenever he walked on the street, he seemed to hear others laughing at him.

His tightly clenched fists seemed to have never been loosened. Jerry returned to his and Stacy's home, where he had hired hourly workers to clean on time, which made the place neat and tidy.

He sat on the sofa, frowning and thinking. At last, he took out his cell phone and called Emily.
