

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 329

Seeing that Melinda and Emily were together, Jonas was totally freaked out. Without thinking anything, he rushed forward quickly, pulled Melinda behind him and protected him from being hurt.

He and Emily looked at each other, and there seemed to be a knife in his eyes, which made Emily unable to hide.

"Emily, stay away from Linda. Otherwise, I will show you no mercy."

Jonas's eyes became fierce. His face was cold and frightening, but when he stood in front of her, Melinda felt a sense of security.

Last time, Jonas had somebody beat Emily up in order to prevent Melinda from thinking that he was ruthless. Thinking of what Melinda had said, he had been trying to change his character, too.

But he wouldn't mind turning himself into a devil if those people stopped being cruel.

He didn't want to talk to Emily at all. Seeing that there was no danger around, he took Melinda directly into his car. Melinda was still in a state of shock and was taken away by Jonas.

She came here today to sever the relationship with Emily. But why it turned to be like this at last.

Although she was confused, she felt angry for no reason when she saw Jonas. She shook off his hand and sat on the side.

There was a big space in the car, but Melinda pretended that there was a deep gap between them, which made Jonas's heavy mood greatly slow down.

"What the hell is going on?" asked Melinda. She remembered that Emily had told her that they would be together, but why it was so abnormal when Jonas appeared today and gave Emily a warning.

She seemed to have forgotten some important information, but she couldn't remember it now.

"Linda, are you a fool to come out to see Emily? Why did she arrange the meeting place at the seaside? She wanted to take advantage of it and hurt you!"

said Jonas helplessly. Melinda was smart when fighting with him, but she was somewhat stupid when fighting with Emily.

The beach was a little far from the urban area, so there were not many surveillance cameras and people here. It was more convenient for Emily to do something to Melinda.

There were countless homicides at the seaside every year. Even if he suspected Emily, he could not prove it.

"Emily is ill. It is cancer," Melinda said. She suspected that Emily was lying to her, but she heard the news from the doctor yesterday that Emily was advised to have a treatment.

So she bought it.

"A bad thing never dies, Emily is fine, you don't need to worry about it." Hearing this, Jonas felt that Melinda was too stupid to believe in the nonsense of Emily.
