

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 330

After Jonas left, his friend started to investigate. Now that Emily had committed more and more crimes, she had a way and was good at hiding many facts.

They chased after Emily like this, but they didn't find the truth. Instead, they had found a lot of smoke grenades, which made them very upset. Finally, they took several brothers and besieged Emily's residence overnight.

This group of people directly went into the house. While Emily was still asleep, they did not realize that many people had sneaked into their house.

And these people were just sitting on the sofa.

They were not in a hurry. They found seats in the living room and even took out computers to deal with other business. Some played mobile games and enjoyed themselves. Anyway, they had their own ways.

Calling them detective, however, they preferred the address "bandits". Emily's fridge was filled with all kinds of snacks which were now placed on the coffee table.

The next day, Emily woke up in a daze. When she opened the door of her bedroom and saw the scene outside, she was completely awake.

She didn't know what was going on, but a man shut down his computer all of a sudden. He glanced at Emily and said to the people around him, "She's awake. Take her away."

Looking at this group of tall and fierce people, Emily did not dare to say anything, and was taken away rudely. She had originally planned to participate in the event that was hard to get a place. She was well-dressed.

But before she could see people, she was taken to a place that looked like a rental house.

The light here was very dim, as if it could not be shone all year round. There were many mirrors around. There was only a set of table and chair in the empty room.

"Tell me, why did you hurt Melinda?" One of the men approached Emily, with a whip in his hand. He beat it rhythmically, making Emily feel that if she did not answer obediently, the whip might fall on her in the next second.

Although Emily realized it, she did not compromise and closed her mouth, saying nothing.

They interrogated her in a mild way, but there was no result. Emily said nothing, and she seemed to be more and more courageous.

Emily thought she had made so many people angry, and they didn't make a move. They must have scruples, so she dared to be arrogant.

But soon, Emily would pay for her unclear vision of the current situation.

"Women are so troublesome. Fuck them. Anyone of you can ask her directly." The leader kicked the chair over because of Emily's cold attitude. A few brothers admired Emily's courage secretly before they took her away.

It was a piece of cake for them to get this answer. They were excited at the thought of it.
