

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 333

"Young Mistress, Young Mistress!" The servant was frightened and hurried forward to check the situation. Yao Qinqin had a light sleep and heard some noise just now, but she didn't care about it.

When she heard the servant's voice, she immediately got up from the bed and quickly went to the first floor.

One of the lights on the first floor was turned on. It was still dim and the range of vision was very limited, but the door was very bright. Seeing that Melinda was lying on the floor, Queena was frightened.

"What happened?" She asked anxiously and walked faster. The servant didn't dare to help Melinda who lie on the ground and looked at her anxiously. Even if she was in a coma, she muttered something.

Queena got closer and heard the murmur of Melinda. It was the name of Jonas.

"Mellie, Mellie..." Queena stepped forward, gently held up her and gently called her in her ear, but she didn't have any reaction. She kept calling the name of Jonas.

Queena called her several more times, but she still didn't respond. She suddenly realized something was wrong and shouted at the servant, "call the people in hospital."

"Oh, okay." It took a long time for the servant to react. Then she quickly went to the telephone and dialed the number of the hospital belong to the Soaring Group, asking the ambulance to pick Melinda up at home.

The people of Soaring Group didn't dare to delay for a moment because of the accident. They immediately arranged the best medical staff to go to the Gu's mansion.

Queena and the servant took Melinda to the lounge on the first floor. Melinda was in a coma, but she kept shouting "don't leave" at her mouth.

"Did Yong Master and Young Mistress quarrel just now? Where is him? " Noticing that something was wrong, Queena asked the servant on duty about the situation at that time.

The servant thought for a while and finally felt that there was nothing wrong between the two, and it didn't look like they had quarreled.

She shook her head and said, "Yong Master just went out. It seems that he is in a hurry."

Hearing this, Queena frowned in an instant. If he went out at this time, was it because of Emily again?

Although it was not very similar to the fact, it was half right. Half of the reason why Jonas went out was indeed because of Emily.

And the truth, now only the unconscious Melinda knew.

The fact that Melinda was in a coma soon alarmed the people in the Gu's mansion. Seeing her like this, Jerry was very happy. He knew that his plan must have succeeded.

Even so, he still pretended to care about her.

Alston's worry about Melinda was limited to the baby in her belly. Hearing that it had something to do with Jonas, Nelson was furious and said that he would give him a good lesson.

the group of people done, she did not wake up, but the whisper was clearly up to the ambulance. Only Queena followed her, and doctors reason couldn't be found out, but they still told Queena that she was fine for the time being, and asked Queena not to

to have a full examination. Since she was pregnant, a group of

had been

After the doctor came out, he told Queena the results he had obtained. "Young Mistress must have been stimulated. Pregnant a big problem. It's better to stay in hospital for a few days for observation." The doctor said that if it was an ordinary person, their doctor might have arranged him to be hospitalized directly there was a family doctor in the Gu's mansion. Not everyone liked hospital.

fetus was affected, she felt that things must be taken that. The ward

in a VIP ward, which was separated from it did need to be quiet to nourish the fetus.

to apply for hospitalization for her." Queena said. Although she was a shareholder cooperation made the doctor doctor and nurses pushed Melinda to the ward, and Queena went to complete the admission procedures for her. As Queena came out in a hurry, she someone to bring it and some clothes here. She wasted a lot of time during this period.

the ward, Melinda was still in a coma, with a a little quieter than before, she was still calling hadn't contacted with him yet, and she didn't know the details. She just hoped that the walked into the ward and tidied up these clothes. This was a ward like an apartment, which care of her here." The servant looked at Queena and was not used to Queena taking Queena didn't feel anything wrong. Melinda was very fragile at the moment, and what she needed was companionship. How sad she would be fine. You can

all. Seeing that Melinda's mouth was dry, she wiped her lips with a wet cotton servant didn't know what to say, so she left a drip. The doctor had given her a nutrient solution, but there was a little medicine mixed with it to calm calmed

was moved when she thought of the time Melinda called Jonas when she was in a coma.

a purpose, but this time she strongly felt that her love for him was from the bottom of her heart.

her minds. She just loved him.

Looking at Melinda's face, Queena couldn't help swore to herself that she would treat Melinda like her own daughter in the future, because Melinda felt that Emily's love was so bigoted that it made people feel and more terrifying when she saw that