

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 335

Queena really didn't know how to answer Melinda. It was the first time that Queena had an impulse to run away while talking with Melinda, and she did it at this time.

Queena stood up from her seat. She was still wearing the same clothes as yesterday, and now they were a little wrinkled. If it was in the past, it would never appear on Queena.

Too many things had happened overnight that she had no time to pay attention to herself.

She walked unsteadily. Finally, she walked to the window and opened the curtain. It was sunny outside.

It was as if a new day had come. Looking at the sun outside, Melinda felt that it couldn't shine into her heart. But Queena looked at the outside weather and said to Melinda, "The weather is really good today. It's getting late. I'll go outside to buy you breakfast."

Melinda squinted at the sun outside the window, confused.

"The food in the hospital is not delicious. What do you like to eat? Mommy will buy it for you," said Queena. Looking at her, Melinda also noticed that Queena was trying to escape.

She forced a smile and said she could eat anything.

Looking at her expression, Queena had mixed feelings in her heart. She could tell that Melinda had no appetite at all, but she didn't want her to worry, so she kept pretending that she was fine.

The more sensible the child, the more people felt distressed. This was indeed true.

Queena left the ward with mixed feelings. It was widely acknowledged that the food in the hospital was not good, but the food in Soaring Group's hospital was not bad, especially in the VIP ward, and they were carefully served.

It was a prosperous place, and there were many breakfast shops not far downstairs. Queena was usually fastidious, but today she was somewhat absent-minded. She casually took a cleaner shop and ordered a few breakfasts.

The shop owner's business was good. Queena waited for a long time before she got the breakfast. During this period of time, what Queena thought most was how to answer the questions of Melinda later.

She was eager to know more about the situation from Ted.

"Alas," Queena sighed and then walked towards the ward with breakfast. When she reached the door, she saw several doctors and nurses outside. When they saw her come back, they all smiled and greeted, "Good morning, Mrs. Queena."

"Madam, did you go to buy breakfast? Don't you like the breakfast in the hospital?" the doctor asked cautiously. After all, Queena was the major shareholder of the company.

The major shareholder was not satisfied with the food in the hospital, which would make the canteen tremble.
