

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 343

Before Melinda could ask anything, there was Ted's sound again. After saying goodbye to her in a hurry, Jonas hung up the phone.

Holding the phone in her hand, she was confused and terrified.

It had been a long time since he hung up the phone. Now when she thought of it, she was in a trance.

At the same time, the company was very busy. It seemed that Jerry had done nothing during this period of time, but many 'insects' had been left behind when Jonas was unaware of it.

It was not a small project to deal with at this time.

"Have you found all the information?" Jonas asked Ted. He was responsible for all the information. At this time, he had to find out who was the Jerry's man of this matter, so that he could deal with it thoroughly.

However, Jerry was so scheming that it was not easy to find out the truth right away.

"It's still under investigation. It's a bit tricky." Ted had always been wearing a cheeky grin. This kind of frown was enough to show that he was also in trouble this time.

"What about you?" Jonas asked William. This time, there was something wrong with the partner, and William was in charge of it. The expression on William's face was almost the same as Ted. He didn't relax at all.

The company was busy, but the home was quiet. Sitting on the bed alone, she couldn't help but think about something.

Jonas said that he could take a walk with her. Why did he have to deal with so many things by himself and go home late?

She was a little suspicious, and there was something wrong with it. In her eyes, it was a flaw. In addition, with the matter of Yulia in front of them, she lost the sense of security.

After waiting at home for half an hour, Melinda couldn't help calling Jonas again and asking when he would go home. There was no progress in the company's affairs, and he couldn't tell when he could go home, so he asked Melinda to go to bed early.

She didn't know if she should have been talked to him, but if she didn't hear his voice, which made her very anxious.

She didn't know how she made it through this night. When she woke up in the morning, she was in a trance. There was cold on the other side of the bed.

She didn't know whether he didn't come back last night or went out early in the morning. Anyway, she felt more and more uncomfortable.

When she arrived at the restaurant, only Queena was sitting there waiting for her to eat. Melinda couldn't help but ask Queena if Jonas had come back last night.

been busy these two days. He left in a hurry in the morning." Queena said, at night, she received a call from Jonas who couldn't go a sensitive mind, she soon realized that he was not in the company, but at the banquet, which made her feel more insecure.

those bad girls liked liked him the most. Unlike her, she something wrong with the company's clients recently. I'm having dinner outside." He didn't too willful. He had to find these would definitely decline engagements to William?" She became more and more suspicious, with fear and uneasiness almost accompanying her.

is quite special." He also felt that and hung up the phone.

help but call him. It was almost the same question. He had was too busy recently and Melinda began to suspect himself. He also wanted that the result three phone calls, she didn't contact him anymore. Worried, he finally decided to put aside his work and be suspicious and had no sense of security. Only his accompany could give her enough security.

could see that Melinda was curled up taking a shower, he held her in his arms and entered the dream fragrance.

was restless. She was so afraid that he would leave her. She was even spent the whole night comforting the restless girl. He didn't fall asleep until the next morning.

if she was in a dream. She couldn't help but lean closer to him in his arms.

sleep a little opened her eyes and looked at the familiar handsome face and the familiar smell of him. At this moment, she felt that Everything was real.

need to go to the company?" Melinda asked curiously, her eyes full of excitement. Seeing this, Jonas couldn't help but feel guilty. It seemed continue to rest. She couldn't sleep well these days, and now in his arms, she of free time to accompany her, in order to give her this was witnessed by Queena, she knew that it was because he put the company's affairs aside that he could accompany Melinda like