

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 344

However, this piece of news was enough to stir up a storm in the entertainment circle. The less famous Luna suddenly had a relationship with Jonas, a business tycoon.

Many people didn't care whether the news was true or not, but published one after another. There were more and more media that contacted the foot of Luna.

This feeling of overnight flushing made Luna's foot a little floating.

Her agent was even happier. After all, although the foot of Luna had struggled to the second tier position for so many years, it was still in a lukewarm state.

"You're so lucky. You don't know who is going to oppose Jonas Gu and make these news. We'll give a response and leave some room for ourselves. I've said in the studio that if anyone asks, you'll say that you don't know. Maybe it's because of that."

The agent said to Luna with a smile on his face. The business people liked to get involved in the entertainment circle from time to time, but she didn't expect that it would be him this time.

The PR department were all smart people who knew how to make use of public opinion.

The Soaring Group got the news quickly, but not faster than the team at the foot of Luna. When they came up with a solution, it was difficult to control the public opinion.

Many media gathered downstairs of the Soaring Group and the atmosphere in the CEO Office was cold. William kept calling, and almost all of them were called by some partners to ask what was going on.

Everyone who was familiar with Jonas knew that he had the only one love, Melinda. Now that she was pregnant, people still had a skeptical attitude when they heard such news.

Then Ted led his team to investigate this matter. The enemy came aggressively. Obviously, they were well prepared and it was not easy to deal with it.

Obviously, Luna was more interested this time. Luna also knew that Melinda was pregnant. She thought that all the men in the world wanted find another woman. And she wanted to take this opportunity to completely hook up with Jonas.

After cleaning up at home, Luna greeted her agent and asked her assistant to take her to the Soaring Group to meet Jonas

However, she was failed. When she arrived at the Soaring Group, she was shut out. When Luna was still trying, she received a call from her agent, telling her not to appear in front of the media at this time.

"Do you have the phone number of Jonas?" Luna had a plan in her mind, and she was unwilling to give up. In her opinion, this was an excellent opportunity. If she missed it, she would be regrettable.

It was known to all that if she could get involved with Jonas, being A-list movie star, which would not be a problem, not to mention the super star.

to stand at the top of his assistant's number." The agent said that they could only get the phone number from the office or the Secretary office. If they could really get in touch with him, they would have the didn't say anything more. After hanging up the phone, he sent a number to Luna through short message. In many people's eyes, it was also difficult name directly. William heard this name the most on this day he heard, so he did corners of Luna's mouth was a little stiff, but then she said patiently, "Hello, I'm the relationship with Jonas,

Such an emotional voice. Thinking of the fact that the person on the other end of the phone introduced herself, William finally realized that the woman on the other end of ask when your public relations department will clarify this gossip." William thought quickly and at the same time, he kept a distance from Luna, thinking that she unwillingness began to appear in her eyes. Her assistant, who shrinking her body.

up the phone in a hurry. However, Luna didn't give up and called him several times, but he the other party didn't want to have anything to do with her. And her studio also said that this piece of news could not hold up the long-term heat, and there must be new news?" Luna said irritably. There was also a reason why she hadn't been popular these years. Such a temper was too easy to offend.

with this matter. Don't cause any trouble." The agent said. They were also trying to find out who spread the news behind the scenes, other party

been paying close attention to the situation on both sides, so he naturally knew what was on

Jerry, but he had heard a lot that the this bastard was behind all think? " A gentle smile appeared be such a good thing in the world? It could be said that she had been in the entertainment circle for so many years and was you." Jerry with a disdainful smile in his eyes. Luna was just like a hesitating for a while, Luna agreed. The entertainment circle was too ruthless. At that time, perhaps what she missed was not an opportunity, but a loss of everything.

she couldn't make an appointment with Jonas by herself, so he decided that this matter

he had to deal with shop of

by the Group itself, which was a kind of welfare for the employees. The coffee shop was full of people at any time every day, and most of them were the staff

Being sensitive to the camera, she had found that many people around her were not the

could be found that many people used coffee