

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 345

When Jerry saw the news, he was very angry. He didn't expect that everything he had elaborately arranged would be used like this by Jonas.

He didn't make more scandals about Jonas, but let him take this opportunity to build his image as a good man.

Most of the reporters were arranged by Jerry, but he didn't expect that something would go wrong in the end. He was angry and personally asked one of the reporters for more information.

"What's wrong with your report this time? It's a tryst between Jonas and Luna Zhang. How did it end up like this?"

Jerry asked anxiously. At first, the reporter was a little confused, but then he realized that when Jerry contacted them, he said there was a big news.

The news seemed to be a little different from their impression.

"Our report is all true. That was the scene in the coffee shop at that time. So many people watched it, and no one dared to report false news," the reporter said helplessly. Moreover, it was a coffee shop under the Soaring Group. They would be killed if they casually reported on Jonas.

Jerry was still very angry, and he even felt unbelievable, thinking that this group of people had been bribed.

"Don't wrong us. We didn't take any bribe from Mr. Gu. On the contrary, we..." The reporter didn't finish his words. In fact, the one who gave them the money was actually Jerry.

The people in the Gu's mansion were also nervous for a while because of the news. They didn't feel a little relieved until the news came out.

Seeing this, Queena felt much relieved. She had been worried that Melinda would overthink, and the whole family had concealed it from her. Now that it had been solved, she had taken the initiative to tell Melinda about it.

"Luna, I remember I watched her TV play some time ago."

Melinda frowned and looked at the woman on the newspaper in confusion. Her impression of her was very shallow, which was equivalent to nothing.

"She is just an unknown actress. She wants to take advantage of the popularity of Jonas," Queena said with a smile. She had always had no good impression of the people in the entertainment circle, so the Soaring Group rarely involved in the entertainment circle.

More importantly, she hated the entertainment circle because of Emily.

"Okay," said Melinda. Then Queena mysteriously took out a newspaper in her hand. When Melinda saw the title on the newspaper, she was shocked with her eyes wide open.

"Jonas, he..."

her mouth with her hand, and all the words were stuck in her a little ashamed, but she was more moved. A man as domineering as him could say he loved her in front of so many

was enough to for you, just stay at home to nourish the fetus. I know well about Jonas. He is my son. He loves you," Queena comforted Melinda and told her not red, and finally she nodded heavily.

fascinated. She read all the news reports yesterday and Jonas returned home after he finished his work in the company, he saw the tears in her eyes. His first reaction was

When Jonas asked this question, there was tenderness and cruelty in his voice. Obviously, this tenderness was for Melinda, and hostility was because he was angry that someone bullied her. If he knew who bullied her, he would probably teach the one threw herself into the arms of Jonas, was still confused, but Melinda did not say anything. It took a while for her to push him away and stand a seat on the sofa and holding her in his arms, Jonas sat down, making Melinda look at him. Then he asked seriously, soon as Jonas heard this, at the gossip outside. If you want to know something, just ask me. You are the woman

She could clearly feel the love

love from the bottom

She had read so much news, so of them chatted happily for a while, and on her guard against Jerry. Since everyone was didn't you go to the coffee shop that day? You asked me out, didn't you?" Jonas asked calmly as he looked at Jerry. Everyone knew what had happened time, Jonas's question was like giving out the answer, Queena's eyes instantly fell on

"Yes."

lie and even began to come yesterday?" Jonas continued to ask. He didn't recognize deal with what happened yesterday, otherwise he would fall into the

be careful at

of that her husband was talked about with another woman because of

Jerry remained calm and said calmly,

Jonas's mouth.

have been waiting for you on the two floor of the coffee shop, but you haven't shown up," said Jerry, shrugging helplessly. He provocation

I didn't expect you to go to meet Luna on the first floor," Jerry said, confounding right and wrong something was wrong. It was obvious that Jerry was going to