

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 346

Jerry left dejectedly, but his existence was like a thorn in Queena's heart. In her heart, she was now unhappy with Alston, especially after she had just scolded Jerry for a few words, he spoke to stop her.

In her eyes, such behavior was a form of protection. No matter how excellent her son was, there was no praise, let alone protection.

In her husband's eyes, her son was not as good as an illegitimate child. Queena felt that the blood all over her body was a little frozen, which made her feel very cold.

The coldest thing was her heart that had already died.

However, Melinda was still angry with what Jerry had done to Jonas. She returned to her seat beside Jonas and remained silent. But her calm expression made Jonas feel her anger.

Although Alston was in this family, he felt that he was disliked by all the people, and this feeling was so real.

Crossing her arms over her chest, Queena stood aside and looked at him coldly. Nelson ignored the affairs of these young people and drank his tea quietly.

She was wearing a purplish red dress, and her bright color was well controlled by her, and her aura was much deeper.

"He is such a bad guy. Why do you still keep him by your side? Is it that you won't give up until he destroyed Jonas and the whole Gu family?"

Queena was furious at Alston. She felt that she would explode if she didn't vent her anger.

What she said was not exaggerated. What Jerry had done all the time was to destroy Jonas. He didn't play a positive role in the Soaring Group's affairs. Instead, he did a lot of damage, making Jonas clean up a lot of mess.

"Jerry is a good boy, but he has been outside for too long," Alston said with a guilty conscience.

After all, he was his son, and he didn't want to judge too much. He felt a little guilty. He had always thought that if Jerry could have grown up in the Gu family like Jonas, he must be very excellent now.

Although most of the time, Jerry's actions were not presentable, it was undeniable that he was smart. Therefore, Alston also thought that Jerry was a smart man.

Seeing that Alston didn't answer, Queena became more furious. Soon she recalled that he had an affair with another woman behind her back and had this wild child.

No woman could bear the fact that her husband cheated on her. Queena always felt that there was no love between the two of them, and she could bear it. But at this time, when the mistress gave birth to the child and had such a great threat to her child, the hatred in her heart was growing.

a bitch is disgusting no matter how hard it is transformed. Alston, if you hadn't fooled around with women outside, angrily, without her usual hostess's gentleness and elegance. At this moment, she was just an knew that he was wrong in this matter, and it was also his fault. Because of this matter, his father

also felt that it

Queen's anger. Although the relationship between the couple was getting shallow, at this time, Alston still sincerely apologized.

know it was my fault, but everything has happened. Your pursuit what he said was reasonable, but it meant something else to Queen. She was so angry that her chest heaved sharply.

It has happened? Do you have any intention of stopping it at all? Many things was still disappointed at this time. Jerry was value. In the end, she didn't see the slightest value of Jerry, but saw countless troubles, all

she couldn't do anything wrong this time. I'm sorry." Alston didn't dare to continue to explain, but admitted his they were likely to have a quarrel again. He didn't want to stay any longer, so he asked Gavin to help him back to the time, but she had only seen Alston for a few saw the two people quarreling so fiercely. At this time, worriedly. She was afraid that he would feel bad.

Jonas's face was very calm. He was even indifferent to the scene in front you okay?" In her opinion, Jonas was not good at expressing the

He had known clearly that his parents didn't of feeling that then clenched his fingers. Such a the two people behind her with some worry, Melinda found that the two had already been the bedroom belonged to the two of in thought. Seeing the relationship between Queena and Alston, she

Jonas

each other when they were young?" Melinda asked in confusion, and Jonas just thought maybe they had loved each other, but it didn't matter whether they loved each other or

Are you going to find another woman after I give birth to my baby and become old like your dad?"

Melinda asked seriously. She was deeply