

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 348

Only then did Jessica realize that she had made a mistake. She looked embarrassed and at a loss.

She had thought that it was an encounter arranged by Stacy, but she didn't expect that it was just a mistake. Her uneasiness became more and more obvious. Jonas was an observant person.

He waited quietly for the other party to speak first.

After hesitating for a long while, Jessica said awkwardly, "I'm sorry. I seem to have taken the wrong seat."

She lowered her head and held the phone tightly. Her face was flushed with shyness. She typed on the phone nervously and asked Stacy where she was now.

Jonas had thought that Jessica was going to get to the point and talk about the cooperation, but he didn't expect to get such an answer. He was a little confused, and then he felt something was wrong.

He had an appointment with someone today. Even if Jessica had taken the wrong seat, the person he was going to meet should have arrived. Why hadn't he arrived yet?

Jonas frowned immediately. Seeing this, Jessica became more and more nervous. She thought that Jonas must be angry.

Although she was lively, she was also a simple minded person. She was a little sensitive. In the face of such a situation, she didn't know what to do.

She sat in her seat awkwardly. The smile on her face made her feel more tired than being on the show. At this time, Stacy called and asked where she was.

"Sorry, I really don't know. Sorry for bothering you." With these words, Jessica stood up in a hurry and ran away with her bag.

What the two didn't know was that there was a person lurking in the dark who had recorded the whole conversation between the two.

When Jessica arrived at Stacy's seat, her face was still half red and white. Before she came to herself from what had happened just now, Stacy had ordered her favorite tea.

She took a gulp of tea and said, "It's said that women in love are all idiots. I think it is true. How can you make a mistake about the seat? Do you know how embarrassed I was just now?"

Stacy knew what had happened to Jessica, but she pretended to be shy and confused. "I'm not an idiot. What happened to you?"

"Nothing, nothing..." At the thought of what had happened just now, Jessica decided to let it go and change the subject.

But she didn't expect that everyone would know about it if she didn't mention it.
