

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 353

Jerry knew that Alston was wasting time. He still had some misgivings in his heart, but he did not show the slightest bit of dissatisfaction. He was even happy that Alston had seriously considered this matter.

"Thank you, Dad. As long as I have a job, I can do anything, even the security guards." Jerry said modestly, but his eyes were filled with ambition that was completely inconsistent with his modesty.

"You are my son. How could I arrange you to be a security guard? Don't think too much. Go back and wait for my news." Alston said. Although Jerry didn't mind his work at the grassroots level, as his father, he had to think carefully about his position.

"Okay." Jerry said. As long as Alston seriously thought about this matter, he would have a chance to enter Soaring Group. At that time, he must do something well.

To let everyone know that Soaring Group didn't only have Jonas.

Jerry returned to his small villa with ambition. Queena also knew that Jerry went home to look for a job and immediately found Alston.

"What position do you arrange for Jerry to work in the company? Management? Did he have the ability to do that? Or just an employee, will you arrange it? The best way is not to arrange him to work in the company. "

Queena knew Alston best. If Jerry joined the company, he would definitely give him a management position, so he had to think about it.

He didn't think about preventing Jerry from entering, but what position should he give Jerry.

Queena was even angrier when she thought of the fact that it was not easy for Jonas to get the current position and that Jerry had become a manager so easily.

"Don't mention it. I'll think it over." Alston said. Obviously, he didn't want to talk about this topic.

But this thought lasted for two days.

Two days later, Alston told everyone that Jerry was going to work in the company and his position had been arranged.

"Our family insists on starting from the grassroots level. I think it's a good choice for us to be security guards." Queena said sarcastically, but she also cared about what position he had arranged for Jerry.

Queena's words made Jerry's face darken. Obviously, she looked down upon him.

"He is not very familiar with management. Let's start from the personnel department." Alston said, and Queena stood up from her seat.

If management was a good position, then the human resources department would be a popular one. Unexpectedly, Jerry had directly entered the company's human resources department.

But that was not the only thing Alston wanted to say. The following news made Queena furious.
