

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 357

"Did you find someone to catch Linda's father?" The employees outside couldn't help but murmur to themselves when they saw the sullen expression on Jonas's face.

Did the director offend the CEO? There would be a good show to watch.

"What?" Jerry was not surprised at all that Jonas came to him at once, but he didn't admit it or deny it. He just sat in his seat indifferently.

"Jerry, I did not trouble you. You'd better behave yourself and don't mess with me. Hand over Linda's father as soon as possible." Seeing that, Jonas was much surer that the man was in Jerry's hand.

For the sake of his father, he didn't want to do anything bad to Jerry, but Jerry's way of doing things was so hateful that he dared to hurt Linda's father.

"Yes, I have him."

Jerry rotated his right hand with a pen, and tapped his left hand gently on the table, as if provoking something.

He stared straight at Jonas without fear of the coldness in his eyes. Now he was no longer the Jerry he used to be. He had the support of Wang family, and Jonas was no match for him since Jonas had not stabilized his position in the Soaring Group.

"Let him go," Jonas said in a tough tone, but he had a hunch that Jerry wouldn't let him go so easily. He was wondering what conditions Jerry would make.

In Jonas's mind, he couldn't help recalling what Jerry had said to Stacy when he had just entered the office.

"I can let go of him. The condition is very simple. Melinda has to apologize to Stacy in person on behalf of your mother." The smile at the corners of Jerry's mouth became wider and wider.

This step was very important. As long as Melinda apologized, his position in the Gu family would quietly change, and it was also a message to David that his heart was in the Wang family.

Only in this way could David spare no effort to help him.

"Apologize? To Stacy?" He loved and doted on Melinda. He didn't want her to suffer any grievance. How could he allow her to apologize to a person like Stacy?

Noticing the disdain in Jonas's eyes, Jerry was a little unhappy. Jonas was as arrogant as ever. He was now the son-in-law of the Wang family, but Jonas still had such an attitude.

"I don't mind if that old woman Queena comes by herself." Jerry shrugged and said. When he thought of the fact that Stacy was driven out by Gu family when she went to the Gu family, he was very angry.

No matter he liked Stacy or not, she was his woman. If she was bullied, it meant that he was humiliated.

He also felt that there was no need to continue the negotiation. Jerry was good at taking advantage of others as he still behaved well. So he turned around and
