

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 358

"I don't know about it. I'll ask Jerry to release him now."

David felt a little embarrassed, and then said to Jonas Hearing this, he knew that his attitude was a little inappropriate, and gradually calmed down.

"Thank you for your help."

Jonas said. Then he saw David contact with Jerry. He answered David's phone in a second.

"Dad." The way Jerry called his father was very natural, even more familiar than calling Alston. David had turned on the speaker, so Jonas can hear Jerry. At this time, a mocking smile appeared on his face.

"Ask someone to let go of Melinda's father." David talked with him as if David were giving orders his subordinates, but Jerry didn't care at all.

He knew from the beginning that David was just using him. Thinking that David and Alston were both using him to get the other party's property, Jerry sneered. One day, everything of the two would belong to him alone.

"Dad, what are you talking about? I don't understand." Jerry said casually. He didn't admit that he had kidnapped Melinda's father at all. David looked at Jonas, seeming to ask silently if he had made a mistake.

At this time, Jonas was glad that he knew what kind of person Jerry was, so he had recorded the conversation between him and Jerry from the beginning.

At that time, he had thought that if it couldn't be solved in private, they would have to resort to legal channels, which was the most direct evidence.

At the moment the recording was played, David looked a little embarrassed, while Jerry was a little angry on the other end. He didn't expect that Jonas would guard against him like this.

"Let him go as soon as possible. It's not Mrs. Gu's fault. It's Stacy's fault." Said David. He didn't want to blame Jerry who had done this just because of his daughter.

Since what Jerry had said was recorded, he didn't know what to say. Jerry thought to himself, 'how despicable Jonas is! How could he force me to let go of him in this way?'

"I know, father. It's just that Stacy is wronged." Said Jerry. He still felt that Stacy was wronged, and hoped that his words would make David hang in the balance.

However, David was very clear headed. It was not the right time to break up, so he said, "send him back as soon as possible, okay?"

"Okay."

Said Jerry unhappily, and then hung up the phone. After handling the matter well, David had an explanation to Jonas.
