

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 362

"Emily." Looking at the person in front of him, Jonas naturally spoke out the name. Although there was a slight difference in appearance, it gave people a sense of familiarity.

No wonder Melinda was so sure when she saw her at that time, and she was even worried about it for a long time.

Jonas's eyes darkened. In fact, he also had a lot of misgivings.

Emily was now Alice. Although his business didn't have much conflict with Colson, it was better to have one more friend than one more enemy.

"Are you surprised to see me? Jonas, I'm really curious if you would dream of me at midnight that I come back to ask for your lives!"

Alice's tone became extremely ferocious when she said the words "ask for your lives". She could never forget what those people said when they threw her into the sea. All these were done by the man she once loved most in front of her.

He wanted to kill her for another woman, but fortunately, she, Emily, was lucky enough to be reborn, and now she had a rich man supported her. She would get even with these previous grudges with him.

"What are you talking about?" Looking at Alice, Jonas felt that she was still the same, as stupid as before.

"You're scared, Jonas. Ha-ha-ha, you'll also be scared one day. Why didn't you think of today when you asked men to push me into the sea? I will definitely take revenge on you."

Alice laughed wildly. When she saw the worry in Jonas's eyes, she felt indescribable joy.

When she was buried under the sea, she swore to herself that if she could come back, she would make these people pay a painful price.

Hearing this, Jonas suddenly became clear in his mind. It turned out that the reason why Emily hated him so much was that she always thought that it was him who did that and her purpose was to take revenge.

"I'll take you to a place and know something interesting," said Jonas with a smile. Alice looked at him suspiciously and hesitated. At last, she felt that with her current identity, Jonas didn't dare to do anything to her.

Alice got on the car with doubt. When the car arrived, she became more and more suspicious until she saw the two words "police station".

She still didn't know what was on Jonas's mind, so she looked at him warily and asked, "Why did you bring me here?"

As a missing person, Emily was quite disgusted with this kind of place. Moreover, her identity was arranged by Colson. If she didn't meet Colson, she might be regarded as an unregistered citizen.

"Do you think the police won't investigate a person's death?" Looking at Alice as if he was looking at a fool, Jonas said sarcastically. Alice's face darkened.

really won in front of Jonas, no matter before

Her eyes darkened

she remembered that some policemen had come at that time. If the police hadn't come, they wouldn't have tied up things in a Jonas into the police station. The people in the police station seemed to be familiar with Jonas. When Jonas talked about Emily's case, what had happened

that everything was police station together, Alice couldn't help but feel resentful. She proposed a cooperation to Jonas, big problem about her identity. At the beginning, way of Emily. She used everything around her and always believed that the enemy's enemy was two of them were power, she didn't believe that Jonas was not

He directly deal with Jerry. Anyway, he is my father's son. But if was the best to watch two people fight. In the end, no matter who won Jonas showed his but something unexpected happened to Jonas. Someone had been following him secretly and took many photos of changed her identity, many things could not be changed. Melinda and Jonas could recognize her, and was also widely spread news became interesting, such as "Jonas secret meeting the former lover - Emily" and and news of the two people immediately occupied the major websites. The two words, then sad. She believed that the person was not a substitute and it was before, but when she had mentioned it to Jonas, he hated herself for the logic of a writer's mind. At this time, there at all. She was just hidden by Jonas. Perhaps Jonas didn't plan to have a future with her at all, just because of to doubt on the Internet was getting hotter and hotter. After Alice returned home and got the news, she was a little scared. Then she the artists of the Puppet entertainment company. Those reporters flocked like this for a long time, and the smile on company knew who she was, but they didn't dare department almost had everything been arranged, and the speech was also well prepared. At last, they were waiting for Alice to