

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 363

Stacy had no choice but to ask David for help. After the press conference, worried that there would be other news, Jonas didn't go back to the company, but went straight home.

As expected, Melinda in the room alone, the phone was playing the audio of the press conference held by Emily.

She was a little absent-minded, and even when Jonas came back, she didn't feel it.

As he approached her step by step, he saw the disappointment, anger and sadness on her face, and his heart clenched.

He stepped forward and held her in his arms, shouting softly, "Linda."

Just a quick glance before, she thought it was Emily. But from the news to the press conference, although Alice repeatedly denied that she was not Emily.

But Melinda was sure that it was Emily.

What bothered Melinda most was the meeting between Jonas and her. Now she really had a complicated mood. She didn't know who she should believe and what the truth was.

She really wanted to go to a place where there was no one else. She just wanted to be alone for a period of time.

It was not until she heard another cry that she came back to her senses. When she realized that she was held by him, her whole body stiffened.

If she had changed a little, which was noticed by Jonas, not to mention that he was so close to her.

"Linda, I can explain it to you." He knew her too well, so he didn't tell her before he was sure that it was Emily.

He didn't expect that Alice would suddenly come to him, and he didn't have time to tell Melinda which caused such a misunderstanding.

After telling everything that had happened during this period of time to Melinda, Jonas comforted her at last, "it's true that Alice is Emily. But don't worry. She won't come to us. She has already investigated and knows that it's Jerry who has hurt her."

"She will go to take revenge on Jerry." In order to set her mind at rest, Jonas repeated his words. However, after hearing what he said, Melinda still felt uneasy. Emily was not the kind of person who would give up easily.

Although she knew that it wasn't because of her, would her love for Jonas still be the same or deeper?

Countless guesses flashed through her mind. Thinking of what Emily had done, Melinda became anxious.
