

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 373

Melinda said nothing but smiled. The director, on the other hand, excused that he had to leave and followed Melinda. When Victor saw this, he frowned.

The servant was supposed to support Melinda, but because of the director's interference again and again, she was almost pushed aside, so she was the first one to lose her good impression of the director.

No matter how good tempered Melinda was, she couldn't help frowning.

"Director, it seems that the elevator can't carry so many people." One of the bodyguards couldn't help but say when he saw that the director was about to follow them when they took the elevator.

Melinda needed enough space. It wouldn't be crowded, but it was scary to make Melinda in a small space.

The director smiled awkwardly and watched Melinda leave.

The group of people left. It was not one or two days to choose the actors. Although there was a temporary list, there were several roles in it.

Besides, they had to think too much about it.

Melinda's novel was not popular at first, but recently it became lively because of Alice. The identity of Alice as a mistress was the most disgusting thing for most of the readers.

There were many comments below the novel on the website, all of which were against the idea of letting Alice act the heroine, and many of them said the one whom they wanted to be the heroine.

In the past, when Melinda read the comments, she would be happy, but now she began to worry. There were no comments about the novel, and the only ones were seen below.

In the following days, Melinda worked in the company longer and longer. Her previous position had been occupied, and when she arrived at the company, she was basically in Victor's office.

On the other hand, there was nothing between Melinda and Victor. But as time went by, Jonas felt uncomfortable when he thought that Melinda had spent more time with Victor than he did.

But he had promised to let Melinda out. It was too late to retort, but it was true that he was jealous.

This made Jonas feel very sad. Now he was thinking about how to stop Melinda from going to the company.

If her body allowed, Melinda wished she could work from 9 o'clock in the morning to 5 o'clock at night, but in the end, it could only be an extravagant hope.

On the weekend, even Jonas had time to rest, but Melinda was going to the company. Recently, the selection of the actress had not been decided, and there were still some contradictions in many ways.
