

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 378

Until now, Melinda was still in a trance. She didn't expect that Jonas would agree to her request so easily.

At that time, she even began to think whether she was too selfish and didn't care about how worried Jonas was. She found many reasons to comfort herself, but in the end, Jonas asked Ted to deal with it immediately.

It didn't take long for the staff of the crew to know that the director had been changed to Melinda.

Melinda had no fame, no systematic study, and no experience in this respect. However, she just became the director.

Worried that Melinda couldn't handle it alone, Jonas asked Ted to get two assistant directors to help her. One of them was professional and could teach Melinda some systematic knowledge.

The other one was rich in experience and varied in style, which could better teach Melinda how to deal with these things in practice.

The director's work was not simple. They had a lot of things to do. Sometimes in the crew, they were like a mother.

But Melinda was a little different, because of her identity, there was no need to worry about the sponsorship. The scriptwriter was herself, and the working place was in this company.

Even so, it was inevitable for Melinda to be busy. She was very concerned about this matter, and was willing to study hard. She almost devoted herself to the work of the director.

Although Jonas didn't feel well and felt that Melinda had less and less time to accompany him, these thoughts would disappear in an instant when he saw the smile on her face.

After Melinda became the director, Victor was not surprised at all and even laughed at her that Melinda was his superior now.

"We have to settle the casting as soon as possible. It's already a waste of time in the casting." This was exactly what Melinda told Victor after she got the power. Although the director flattered her before, it was unknown that he had received the benefit of that company or not.

He had always spoken for a female star and said how that woman was suitable. Therefore, Melinda had not decided who played the leading role of the play.

But Melinda had also considered the person recommended by the director, but she really didn't like that actress at all. She had a plastic surgery on her face, and she was so pretentious.

If such a person joined the group, Melinda thought it would only be endless trouble.

"Well, although there are many rich and powerful sponsor, we can't waste time like this." Victor nodded in agreement with a mischievous tone. This was probably the most invested crew this year.

If other crew got the money, they would probably have made an appointment to shoot. Unlike them, they were still in the selection stage.

Hearing this, Melinda felt a little helpless. Then she told Victor that she had a candidate for the heroine in her heart.

much, he still maintained his serious and rigorous attitude but not an actress," Melinda said. She thought she was well-known

about the words that those natizens

in his mind and tell Victor until everything was her. I will contact her tonight. Let's see other supporting roles first," said Melinda. The protagonist was reason. If they were brought

He nodded and began to discuss

it was a date of Jessica, Melinda was still amazed, which made her feel that you alone?" Melinda cast a glance at Jessica can take a friend with me?" Jessica said in confusion. It was not until then that Melinda realized her face was a little fleshy, and was covered with an aura of surprise. It seemed that all her friends had

Then she realized that she had something play of my novel?" Melinda asked. She looked at her expectantly. Hearing her words, Jessica smiled and said that she would pay would feel strange if she said that, but she didn't feel stressed at all when it came to Jessica.

worries. Now that Melinda's belly was force myself. I came to you today for this matter. I want to invite joking, but really hoped that Jessica could get involved in

was the

Then she remembered what Melinda had said at the beginning, perhaps, Melinda had thought that her agent would also come,

Jessica had paid attention to the news, she knew that the acting industry. Moreover, if she took the role of Alice rashly, she would offend the people had some misgivings.

for you. I've made it clear to Alice and she also a challenge and could

Melinda. She had thought that her agent would also come