

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 382

The basic actors and actresses were ready. The crew had been selected from the very beginning. During the selection of the hero and heroine, the shooting location had been discussed by Melinda with Victor.

This was an urban TV play, and the site was basically in A City. The main company of the hero and the heroine was directly determined to use the company of Victor and Colson.

And some other places were left to Victor to deal with, and Melinda just wanted to see if it was appropriate.

The shooting date was chosen by someone hired by Melinda. There was also a ceremony. The script was finally decided and attracted a lot of media to watch. Many media began to rub their hands together to become the direct line reporters stationed in this crew, and get the first-hand information at any time.

But in order not to make Melinda more annoyed, Jonas didn't let the reporters enter the crew after the shooting. The outside world could only know the progress of the crew from the official Weibo.

It took a long time for the final makeup photos to be released. This crew worked in a completely different way from other crew, but it was protected behind, and no media dared to find fault with it.

When the make-up photos were released, they received a lot of positive comments on the Internet. All the fans felt relieved as they thought that Felix and Jessica were suitable for this role. The readers only hoped that the acting skills of the two could be good.

In the play, the two people, Felix and Jessica, who worried Melinda the most, had a tacit understanding when they were acting. Although Jessica didn't act much, under the lead of Felix, she could soon get into the play, and her level was very high.

The two assistant directors felt strange when they saw the scene. They had thought that inviting a big shot like Jessica who had no acting skills would delay the progress of the crew.

They didn't expect that everything would go so smoothly, but the most worrying one was the main female supporting role. Alice's acting was sometimes in a high and sometimes low state.

But it was undeniable that her performance was admirable most of the time. Even Melinda felt that sometimes, it was as if this role had really come out of a book.

The heroine and hero had the most scenes in the play. The love sense shown by Felix and Jessica made Melinda feel gratified.

The two of them had been tit for tat, but they got along with each other more and more harmoniously. The two assistant directors also said to Melinda that watching the two people acting had a feeling that the two were really in love.

However, the two people just felt that they were acting like this in the play, but Melinda felt a little different. Although her body was not allowed now, Melinda would still invite the crew to dinner from time to time.

Felix had taken good care of Jessica outside the shooting site, and his behaviors were natural.

Although Jessica was outgoing and could make friends with many people, she wasn't close to them in many cases.

only two friends for never refused these intimate behaviors, which surprised Melinda, but she faintly that Melinda always looked at the two people inquisitively, she directly told them with each other because of acting. But if this person was her friend, this was because of the acting and they just liked each other in the play.

is really wonderful. I really appreciate the misunderstanding at found that there was a little woman's coquetry in Jessica, and her

Jessica thought that if it weren't for the misunderstanding, Felix wouldn't have missed her for so many years. Now she realized that it made sense that she thought if the relationship between the two was announced at this time, the consequences would men were abusing about the two people's acting together. If it was released, the keyboard men a chance to play a play, and Melinda finally chose Felix, who was just popular. As for Jessica, she had a Melinda's face, Jessica could tell what she was thinking. She had been in this circle for a long time and knew something better than Melinda. But at this time, she didn't want to be affected by these comments with her for her fame. Otherwise, he wouldn't have refused about these fames, he had no reason to refuse at all.

a comforting smile on her face. She looked forward to the

for her friend if she said something your side. If you want to announce it, you'd better do it well in advance," said Melinda. She thought that maybe she had hearts, they believed that they must have a way to deal with

In fact, Jessica was also thinking about this question. But now, the problem was that the

the people in the studio were not necessarily loyal. What personally selected by Melinda and Victor, some news in the crew would still be known by the two of them didn't talk about this topic any more. Melinda believed that Jessica chose to tell her, she believed that Melinda wouldn't tell anyone.

same as before. Ordinary people couldn't see anything between the two, but Melinda, who knew the truth, looked at the

in the end, it only much about it. Alice, who was in a mixed state,