

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 384

With a complicated expression on her face, Melinda leaned against Jonas. She couldn't tell how she was feeling to Alice now, but she was sure that she didn't hate her at the beginning.

She even felt sorry for her. It was said that hateful people must have a pity, which was not wrong at all.

It was not easy for Alice to have someone who treated her sincerely, but now this happened.

However, what Colson did made Melinda believe more that Colson had feelings for Alice.

Hearing what Melinda said, Jonas felt something was wrong. Perhaps he had been deceived by Emily for too many times, so he didn't believe in her anymore.

"Maybe it's a lie made up by Alice. Anyway, since Colson doesn't allow you to see her, you'd better not go to find her. It's better to stay away from her,"

Jonas said. He was also worried about Melinda. Her belly was getting bigger and bigger. She had the ability to nourish the fetus at home, but she acted as if she had no money at home.

But looking at the progress of the crew, thinking that it was all done by Melinda, Jonas felt very proud. 'Look, my woman is so great.'

Since Jonas had said so, Melinda would not go against him. She nodded to show that she knew.

Now Melinda had been pregnant for more than six months, and she was getting more and more exhausted. In addition, everything else in the crew went well, and after such a thing as Alice, she was a little tired.

The new female supporting role was chosen by the two assistant directors after discussion. Victor had also read her information. She was good in all aspects and was willing to work hard. After reading her information, Melinda agreed her to join the crew.

Victor was very familiar with the crew's affairs, and the two deputy directors were also very professional, which made Melinda feel more relieved. Thinking that her belly was getting bigger and bigger, she discussed with Jonas to hand over the matter to Victor, and she returned home to recuperate the fetus.

She could go to the crew when she had something to do. Anyway, the driver was waiting for her twenty-four hours a day.

Jonas couldn't agree with Melinda more. He even breathed a sigh of relief. He finally waited for the day when Melinda said she would have a rest.

Without any hesitation, Melinda decided to have a talk with Victor and the two deputy directors after she decided to nourish the fetus. After handing over all the things, she went straight home.

Melinda's days at home were not boring. Victor knew that she still cared about the crew, so he would talk about it with her from time to time.
