

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 386

Thinking of the reason why everything happened, Jonas handed over the hospital's affairs to Queena and returned home quickly.

But it was too late. The door of his study was wide open, and the safe was also smashed open, which was not as clean as usual.

Jonas was stunned. The documents in his study were very important, many of which were confidential documents of the company.

The Gu's mansion was in a mess. Jonas left everything to Ted to deal with. Then he went to the hospital and found Alston.

Alston and Jonas hadn't sat down and talked peacefully for a long time.

But for the first time, it was so heavy.

"The study was turned over?" Alston said in disbelief. After all, the study was at home. If his home was not safe, where else could be safe.

"Yes, father, I hope you can investigate it as soon as possible, so as to give an explanation to Linda and the child," said Jonas. He rarely showed respect to his father, but he hoped that he would stop thinking about the so-called family affection.

This time, the accident of Linda and the baby was caused by Yulia. Although the surveillance video of the study was destroyed, Jonas had every reason to believe that it was the two of them.

For so many years at home, Yulia didn't know what kind of person Alston was. She only destroyed the surveillance video that everyone knew, and didn't notice what was going on in the dark.

"I can't listen to you on this matter. Don't worry. I will investigate it as soon as possible."

Alston still didn't want to believe his daughter, who usually didn't care about anything, would do such a thing.

But there was no need for Jonas to say these words for a sister who was not favored.

What on earth was the truth?

But when his people investigated and approached the truth, he suddenly realized how much he had been wrong.

It seemed that Yulia, who seemed to be calm and indifferent to the world, had already been hooked up with Jerry because of her boyfriend. The two thought that they were the biological children of Alston and wanted to join hands to steal his property.
