

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 387

Alston not only threw away all their things, but also hired servants to destroy them specially, leaving nothing.

All of a sudden, the two of them only had their clothes on their bodies and nothing else.

When Jerry and Yulia went to the bank to withdraw money, they found that their bank accounts had been frozen. Jerry always kept an eye on what he was doing, so he felt unreal even if Alston gave him a lot of things.

Jerry felt that these things were not his. What he wanted was that these things were engraved with his own name, which was why he did this.

After returning to the Gu clan, not only did Jerry accept the money given to him by Alston, but he also privately opened a private account and saved a lot of money into it.

Therefore, when Jerry knew that everything was gone, he was not as restless as Yulia, but when he knew that he couldn't withdraw money from this account, he finally felt desperate.

The two of them had completely lost everything. Yulia looked at Jerry in a daze and kept asking what to do.

Over the years, she had lived a simple and happy life in the Gu's mansion. Now she didn't know what to do. Compared to her, Jerry was quite familiar with such a life.

It was in the same situation that he returned to the Gu family!

"Don't be afraid. Don't forget that we have more than that." Jerry squinted at Yulia and said. He felt that women were really troublesome. They were so scared now.

Why didn't she think about the consequences when she did these things? But it was because she was not careful enough that Melinda found it out and changed the plan.

"Where are we going now?" Yulia asked. It was cold outside and the wind was piercing. As the young miss of the Gu family, she never expected that she would wander on the street one day.

But what made Yulia even more desperate was that there were actually media quietly following the two of them and taking a picture of the two of them, with very miserable words attached.

When Melinda saw the news, she was really in a complicated mood.

"How about you give them some money? They can't survive without anything." It was inevitable for Melinda to feel sorry for them, especially for Yulia. She used to be a delicate rich miss, and she must have never encountered such a situation.

Hearing this, Jonas frowned. Why couldn't his wife change her soft heart?

cunning rabbits. Don't believe these appearances," Jonas said. The cunning rabbit naturally referred to Jerry. In fact, he had been waiting for him to give himself of confidential documents. Now that there was still no movement, Jerry must be a person, and only Melinda would be stupid to think that the two people were very pitiful.

and finally said reluctantly, "I didn't expect that just now. It is said that the one who had been pregnant will be blame. At the thought of her own

And the baby was also in the incubator. It could be said that see the baby in the incubator in the photos and videos sent by Jonas. The small face hadn't with Jonas's and her genes, the child would definitely be a of the fruit fed by Jonas, the baby. Thinking that the doctor said that she would be you for a while more. I'll go to see him later," said Jonas. Although he liked this child very much, he always put the child behind Melinda. This was his she was threatened by Jonas. If she didn't sleep, he wouldn't go to see the baby. Then she mumbled to

she had made a incubator, all of which were in little shapes. Although they looked similar, it could be seen that appearance of Jonas's child was engraved in his heart. When he came over, he found inside was not his!

that she almost fainted when she

the monitor, Jonas saw a familiar figure sneaking into the hospital. It seemed that Yulia video was destroyed again. It was obvious that someone had done that. When Jonas saw Yulia approaching the hospital, he was sure that she had still small and couldn't leave the incubator, to tell this to Melinda at all, but he couldn't hide it from Queena and Alston. These two people would also come here to earth did I do wrong? Why I have to handle the mess you caused?!" When Queena got the news, she almost fainted.

he left. Now her grandson was going to be persecuted. Queena wanted to kill the person in front of her.

And he was also furious.

Alston. It was the first time that he had been so determined to like him. But at this time, there was a villain who daughter and he didn't treat her badly these years,