

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 390

Looking at Melinda and the baby on the bed, Stacy felt a little complicated. Thinking that the baby was premature, Melinda must have suffered a lot, so she said sorry naturally.

"In fact, you don't have to apologize to me." Looking at Stacy, who used to be high spirited and vigorous, now looked a little depressed, Melinda felt sorry for her.

After all, it was all because of Jerry, Stacy had sacrificed everything in exchange for a fraud.

"That's what I should do. If I hadn't been blinded and held the candle to the devil, these things wouldn't have happened. Fortunately, both you and the child are fine." Stacy couldn't help but take a look at the baby on the bed, who was pink and lovely.

Thinking of that she had once been deluded by Jerry to kill the child, she felt a sense of crime.

However, the Soaring Group was now in turmoil, and the Wang family was not much better. Jerry was the son-in-law of the Wang family, which was naturally involved in such a situation.

Although few people could control the stock market, David was caught off guard at this time. He was busy in the company.

"Let bygones be bygones." Her smile was still as gentle and approachable as before.

In the past, Stacy thought that Melinda was just pretending, but now she felt that her smile was so beautiful, and even made people comfortable.

Her restless heart, which was filled with guilt, quieted down at this moment.

"Well, let's not talk about the past. Is this a boy?" Jessica had told Melinda that Stacy had a similar character with her before. Melinda hadn't felt it before, but now she felt that Stacy was optimistic.

"Well, his name is Morris." Speaking of the baby, her eyes seemed to be shining. Stacy was also pregnant, but the baby was very likely not to be kept.

Therefore, when she looked at the child now, there were different feelings in her heart.

When the two talked about the child, they suddenly forgot all the gaps in the past. They chatted happily like a pair of old friends. Morris' eyes were big and bright. Every time, Melinda and Stacy seemed to be able to see the ocean of stars in his eyes.

He was quiet when he stayed with Melinda. Listening to the two people talking, he closed his eyes and fell asleep, which surprised Stacy.

Stacy stayed in the hospital with Melinda for a long time before she left. But Melinda didn't ask Stacy what she wanted to do about the baby in her belly. She thought it was other people's business, so she'd better not ask.

a heartbreaking thing.

didn't have so much ambition, he could run the company well in the Gu family get more and more and place in Soaring Group by taking advantage of Jerry failed. The people he asked Jerry to wrong with these people. He had asked the guards to keep an eye on them. Now that something happened, these people became a little anxious. So he simply told Alston about reducing

Jerry now, so he didn't want to see those promoted men and left Jonas to deal with Every company had its own basic rules. It was doubtful that thorough investigation, Alston found that all of them had something to many industries. It was not difficult to arrange several people to go there at this time, but he had ease the tension, but for some reason, Alston suddenly stopped all cooperation, and many of them were secretly signed by was only a director of the human affairs department. This kind of cooperation

Group could completely say that these cooperation had no legal effect.

and couldn't be delayed for a moment. For the career he had worked hard, could not figure out David's purpose, he would be in had the same purpose at the beginning.

affairs, so he didn't go to accompany him. In the past,

At the thought that the man in front of him tried his best to fight for it. Hearing this, Alston snorted and said, "I don't

David was like a between the two families, he had no intention of targeting the didn't. He felt lucky that he had seen you. and I hope you don't mind that much." David said. Now he also needed the help of Soaring Group, or the news on the Internet would you still want to cooperate with me? Anyway, I don't recognize Jerry as my son anymore.

David kept nodding and apologizing with a smile. His attitude made Alston unable to say anything more.

Both David and Alston were schemed by Jerry. At this strong cooperation between the Gu clan and the Wang clan. They talked a lot with each other, and finally they all had a good

also liked the child very much