

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 63

At this time, the Gu family also learned that Emily had become the spokesperson of the company.

The first one who disagreed with this appointment was Nelson.

Nelson didn't like Emily and thought that she always came off as a bit sketchy. She was young but had a devious character.

On the contrary, he liked Melinda very much. He thought she was gentle and sensible, and she was always obedient.

Nelson had intended to appoint Melinda as the company's spokesperson. She was beautiful, lovely, pure and kindhearted, and she was more suitable to be a company's image spokesperson than Emily.

But Nelson had never thought that Emily would be chosen as the spokesperson of the company from right under his nose without his consent.

Nelson was angry beyond reproach after he realized who their choice was. He didn't understand why they had settled on Emily as the spokesperson and not Melinda.

Therefore, an outraged Nelson instantly thought of Jonas. His grandson was the CEO of the company, so he was going to ask him for an explanation and to immediately replace the spokesperson.

There was no way Nelson would allow Emily to be the spokesperson of the company.

Therefore, Nelson urgently called Jonas and asked him to come back home immediately.

After receiving a call from Nelson, Jonas did not waste any time, and quickly went back home.

When he entered the living room, he saw Nelson sitting on the sofa impatiently waiting for him.

Meanwhile, Jonas slowly strolled to the sofa opposite where Nelson was sitting and sat down.

Looking at the serious expression on Nelson's face, Jonas could tell that he was burning with anger deep in his heart. He figured that he would know soon. His grandfather must have something important to tell him since he had asked him to come home urgently.

"Grandpa, what is so important that you had to call me back? What do you want to tell me?"

Jonas asked after hesitating for a while. He didn't want to offend the old man and blow off his fuse.

Nelson still didn't say anything, but looked at him seriously as if trying to choose his words carefully.

"What's wrong? Grandpa, is everything okay?" asked Jonas starting to panic a little bit since he thought it might be Nelson's health.

"Go back to the company and change the spokesperson you just appointed,"

Nelson said, with uncontrollable anger in his voice.

Jonas didn't understand why his grandpa was so upset with Emily being appointed as the spokesperson of his company.

So he asked in confusion, "Why, what's wrong with the current appointment? Grandpa, why are you so opposed to Emily being the spokesperson? Isn't Emily good enough for the post? Why do you suddenly want me to change her?"

"I have no reason she is simply not suitable to be a spokesperson and a representative of the company's image, so I want you to change the spokesperson immediately,"

Nelson answered him firmly, leaving no room for discussion so Jonas realized he really couldn't change his mind although he would try.

idea to tried to negotiate with his grandfather so that he didn't have to replace Emily, but thought we have finished this discussion and I have asked you to fire mid-sentence and he had to reluctantly that he was sitting face to face with his grandfather, he couldn't refuse. It wasn't like if they were speaking on phone and he could pretend that he was busy

"Okay,"

Jonas agreed finally.

longer looking so serious. He smiled in delight back to the company and informed the company's senior officials that they had decided confused when they heard the news. They didn't understand why the senior officials of the company all went to find Jonas and question why he had changed his mind all of by that decision because it was made by his grandfather the CEO of the company, he still had to report to his grandfather who basically controlled every at once, he couldn't do anything heavy in his heart because he had to attitude, and the other was to make a consideration for a woman that he once liked. Now his grandpa was asking had to listen company after thinking through even make any decision. As long as Nelson asked him guilty about Emily, who had to be replaced by another person, for no good reason except for the mere fact that his grandpa disliked phone vibrated on the table, alerting raked with a new wave of guilt. He didn't know whether he should answer it at last, Jonas decided to pick up the phone and face the

I speak

single word, Emily's voice came is replied in a low voice

me by a moment of silence before Emily finally decided to bring up

I assume you would tell him that she was willing to step down know you have no choice but to fire me. So I'm okay with gave up and was her own initiative, she must me to fire you. It wasn't a decision truth and hoped that she would understand that he had no control over the decision and didn't me. Maybe it's because he thinks I'm not good enough for the job, but I don't care. You shouldn't feel tried to comfort in his heart. He stood up and walked towards he was not in a good but the guilt and helplessness for giving up the position without putting up say, but expressed