

Forgive My Ex-husband Chapter 65

When Yulia saw Melinda sitting in the living room of the main villa, she felt unbearable nervous.

For the last few days, something had changed in Melinda's behavior. She couldn't have suddenly changed for no reason. Anytime they met, Melinda was always guarded as if she was trying to protect herself from something.

Yulia couldn't hold her back anymore. She assumed that Melinda must have found out what she had done.

Knowing what Melinda would do to her if she really found out what she had done, Yulia got flustered anytime she was near Melinda. She didn't know what she was going to do if her plot had been exposed and Melinda was aware of everything that had been happening.

Now that her schemes had been found out by Melinda, Yulia had to find a way to contain everything, so her only option would be to come up with more creative ways of dealing with Melinda.

Right at that moment, Emily came to her mind. She was her accomplice, so Emily was the only one who she could talk to about Melinda and come up with a strategy on what to do with her.

Yulia took out her phone and dialed Emily's number. It didn't even past the second ring before Emily answered on the other end.

"Hello, may I speak to Miss Bai?"

"Yes, this is her speaking."

As soon as Emily saw that the call was from Yulia, she knew that something must have happened. Otherwise, Yulia would not call her if it wasn't important.

It must have something to do with Melinda.

Emily secretly sneered while holding the phone, eagerly waiting to hear what it was.

"Do you think you can create some time on your schedule so that we can have a private meeting? I need to see you so that we can discuss something face to face."

Yulia did not beat around the bush, but got straight to the point and explained her purpose for calling Emily.

Thus, Yulia made an appointment to meet Emily so that they could discuss their next plan of action and come up with countermeasures against Melinda.

The last time they had talked, she had called Emily and told her about Melinda's whereabouts, but Melinda seemed to have been aware of what they had planned and so the matter was revealed.

Therefore, Yulia thought that this time it was better for them to solve their issues and strategize face to face instead of exposing themselves over the phone once again.

Besides, this time she had cautiously organized their meeting point with Emily so that Melinda couldn't find out that they had been meeting.

So Yulia arrived at the venue where they had agreed to meet early in the morning, a few minutes before the time they had agreed on.

The cafe was located in a secluded place and there were very few people. It was very suitable for her and Emily to discuss their issues because Melinda did not frequent the cafe.

Yulia had arrived early so she made herself comfortable as she waited for Emily to arrive.
