Fortune Chapter 101

After hearing this, Wang Yulu's face turned red, and she was ready to fish up her sleeves to beat up Ye Han again, but she was pulled out of the interrogation room by Chen Xiaotian, and he turned around and gave Ye Han a look; "Buddy, how did you know she was having her period?"

"Chen Xiaotian, get the hell out of here"

A voice like a lion's roar rang out from outside the interrogation room, and immediately Ye Han saw Chen Xiaotian's ear being grabbed and twisted to leave the interrogation room, and his voice begging for mercy was heard in the air; "Aiya, Yu Lu, I'm wrong, be gentle, it hurts"

Inside the interrogation room, Ye Han watched the two livewire police couples leave, he could only sigh in his heart, right now he couldn't contact Cheng Jun, his situation was a bit bad, he still had to go to the Ruan family tomorrow to get that vein, by then if he didn't arrive as promised and the four big families turned against him because of it, then he would be at a big loss.

However, just after Ye Han had been at the police station for an hour, Cheng Jun and the others arrived. As agents of the National Security Bureau, they were extremely good at detecting and soon found out that Ye Han had been arrested at the police station.

"Who are you people? How dare you trespass on the police station?" At this moment, Cheng Jun and the others directly drove their car into the police compound, the guards at the entrance did not even stop them, the police officers on duty saw this and surrounded Cheng Jun and the others, hearing the commotion coming from outside, Chen Xiaotian, who had just coaxed Wang Yulu, was furious, the two of them immediately walked out of the office, but after seeing Cheng Jun's group inside the courtyard, Chen Xiaotian immediately felt something unusual.

"Gentlemen, may I ask if you have come to the police station at this late hour for something?" Chen Xiaotian looked at Cheng Jun and asked.

Upon hearing this, Cheng Jun directly showed his ID, which had the words Huaxia Security Bureau and the People's Republic of China written on it; "Are you the person in charge here? We are from the Security Bureau, the person you arrested just now is our colleague, now we want to take him away, please let him go."

Chen Xiaotian saw the documents that Cheng Jun showed, his heart was shocked, this document was real because he had seen it before, but what surprised him was that Ye Han was also from the Security Bureau, but when he thought of an expert like No.9, only people inside the Security Bureau had this ability to kill him, Chen Xiaotian immediately smiled; "So you are colleagues from the Security Bureau, please wait, this matter I need to report this matter to"

"Okay, I'll wait for you for five minutes, after five minutes I want to see someone." Cheng Jun looked at his watch and looked like he was doing business.

When he saw this, Chen Xiaotian immediately dialed the phone number of his superiors, the people from the Security Bureau wanted to take away a murderer, he could not make the decision on this matter, he had to ask his superiors for instructions.

“Deputy team, why are you nagging with them, let’s just go in and take Brother Ye away, I’ve heard that the bureau likes to use lynching nowadays, Brother Ye has been inside for so long, don’t let these guys teach you a lesson.” The night cat looked at Cheng Jun and said.

At these words, Mouse also nodded and said; “Yes, Deputy Team, that old man was so powerful just now, I am afraid that the person who fought with Brother Ye is not weak either, in case Brother Ye is injured, then how are we going to explain to the Fire Phoenix Team Leader?”

Hearing this from Night Cat and Mouse, Wang Yulu looked upset and said; “Humph, people from the Security Bureau are great, you have to follow the rules if you want to take people away, don’t think you can ignore our local law enforcement system just because you have a special license.”

“What, you woman are not convinced?” Crazy Horse glared at Wang Yulu and said; “If Brother Ye loses a hair, I’ll charge you with assaulting your superiors.”

Hearing this, Chen Xiaotian, who had just finished his phone call, was shocked in his heart, boy, hadn’t his own mother-in-law just taught that kid inside a lesson! He hurriedly came over and changed the subject; “Guys, the call has been made, but forgive us for not being able to hand over the person inside to you, because the provincial hall leader personally ordered that this person can only be handled by our local law enforcement system for the time being, and, for your identity we have to check, so please cooperate with us.”

“What, investigate us?” Upon hearing this, Night Cat and the others all became angry, their Security Bureau Dei belonged to the highest level of national management, since when could the law enforcement system of a prefecture-level city investigate them?

A flash of anger flashed across Cheng Jun’s face as he looked at Chen Xiaotian and said; “The leader of the provincial department ordered an investigation into our Security Bureau, good, very good, I would like to see just who gave him such great power?”

After saying that, Cheng Jun dialed a phone number out, this phone number went directly into Yanjing headquarters, hearing Cheng Jun’s side finish, the Yanjing Security Bureau headquarters side immediately dialed several phone numbers into Yunnan Province, causing a shock in the officialdom, in a flash, the top brass of Yunnan Province were alarmed, one phone call after another called down, all the way to Tengchong City, and finally all of them called Chen Xiaotian’s mobile phone.

At this moment, Chen Xiaotian’s forehead was already dripping with cold sweat, all these people calling him were his top boss’s top boss, and no matter what they said on the phone, he could only keep on saying yes.

Finally, after ten minutes, Chen Xiaotian’s mobile phone was completely quiet, and he let out a long breath of relief, as he had just been scolded by his superiors on the phone, and even his old man had called to give him a lecture.

“How about it, do we still have to check our identity? Are we allowed to take the people inside?” Cheng Jun looked at Chen Xiaotian and said with an indifferent expression.

Upon hearing this, Chen Xiaotian nodded and smiled; “Everyone, a misunderstanding, you can take the people inside away.”

After saying this, Chen Xiaotian had someone bring Ye Han out of the interrogation room, and also returned his weapon and mobile phone. When he saw Ye Han come out of the police station, Cheng Jun was relieved, but when he saw the blood on Ye Han's mouth, his eyes went cold and he hurriedly went over to him and asked; "Brother Ye, are you alright? Did this group of guys make a move on you?"

Ye Han didn't say anything, he took out a tissue from his pocket and wiped his mouth, the nosebleed was stuck to the top of his mouth all dried up, so he couldn't even wipe it off, seeing this, Chen Xiaotian's eyes twinkled and came over and said; "Sorry, comrade, women, it's always hard to control their emotions."

Ye Han gave him a look, then said to Cheng Jun; "Brother Cheng, fortunately you guys came in time, otherwise I would have been able to come in standing up and go out lying down in this police station, but I don't see eye to eye with some women with big breasts, let's go."

"Bastard, who are you calling busty and brainless?" Hearing Ye Han's words, Wang Yulu, who was already upset looking at Ye Han, immediately became angry again.

Ye Han gave a cold laugh; "Whoever is answering I am talking about, by the way, buddy, didn't you ask me how I knew she was having her period? I have a very good nose, the fishy smell on your wife is too heavy, the amount that comes must be huge, you have to be careful when sleeping at night, don't get smoked by her."

After saying that, Ye Han laughed and left, Chen Xiaotian smiled and his face immediately darkened, this bastard was taking advantage of his wife right in front of him!

Fortune Chapter 102

"Brother Cheng, are you injured?"

After leaving the police station and getting into the car, Ye Han immediately felt that the Qi and blood in Cheng Jun's body was a little unstable.

Upon hearing this, Night Cat said with a fierce face; "Brother Ye you don't know, not only did you encounter a killer today, we were likewise targeted by an expert, that old man was very powerful, it took all of us together to repel him, but that old man was more seriously injured than the vice squad, don't think he'll be able to move his arms without a few months of recovery."

"Master, did you find out who that man is?" Ye Han asked with a frown, the strength of anyone who could injure Cheng Jun was at least at the Peiyuan realm. Cheng Jun said; "No need to check, that person is from Xiangjiang, nicknamed Shadowless Hand Mo Lie, you have seen that person before, the old man who followed Guo's successor at the gambling festival today is him, this person is also cool in gambling stones, a very dangerous character."

"So it's him." Ye Han had a slight impression of the old man beside Guo Yunxiao, and not only this old man, but also the cold woman who was also an expert, thinking of this, Ye Han was secretly glad that he had agreed to Fire Phoenix's request, if he didn't have Cheng Jun and the others to help him, it would be difficult for him to face these experts on his own.

There was no way to return to the hotel, so Ye Han had to follow Cheng Jun and the others back to the factory.

But the news of Ye Han's departure from the police station also spread during this period.

Inside the luxurious hotel, Guo Yunxiao slowly put down the phone, the person he was talking to was a high ranking officer of the provincial department, now that high ranking officer had been charged with 'privately detaining senior state secret service personnel' and would soon be investigated by the organization. He didn't expect that Ye Han had such a heavenly background behind him, just because he had been arrested in the police station, the entire officialdom of Yunnan Province had been alarmed and had come out to protect him.

Facing Ye Han, at this moment, Guo Yunxiao's heart was angry and at the same time, he unconsciously felt a sense of powerlessness. police station and walked out.

This was the first time Guo Yunxiao had ever tasted such a blow against an opponent, and the anger that grew out of that feeling almost consumed Guo Yunxiao's sanity.

"Young Guo, what should we do next?" Wang Xiaodao looked at Guo Yunxiao, whose face was cloudy and uncertain at this moment, and asked in a low voice.

Upon hearing this, Guo Yunxiao let out a deep breath, trying to calm himself down, and said; "Right now, Mo Lao is injured, our power on hand is greatly reduced, Xiaodao, prepare to go down, when the Yan family's map arrives, our people will immediately enter the mountain, we must take control of the mine vein before that bastard does."

"Big brother Ye, I didn't expect you to be so strong in martial arts, and you can also do medicine, you're really great!"

At this moment, inside the factory, Huang Ying looked like a curious baby staring at Ye Han treating Cheng Jun's injuries, Cheng Jun had suffered an injury, although it was not serious, but in order to prevent leaving hidden dangers, so Ye Han stepped in to treat him, Night Cat and the others were also gathered around watching, the medical skills Ye Han was performing were very new to them, a few golden needles were stuck down and Cheng Jun's injuries were already mostly healed.

"Brother Ye, who did you learn this medical skill from? So powerful, I think it's even more powerful than all those genetic potions researched by old man Yang inside our base." Rat looked at the several golden needles in Ye Han's hand and said with a look of amazement, and Night Cat and the others nodded in agreement.

"Genetic potion? What is this thing?" Hearing this from the rat, Ye Han asked towards him.

"Hehehe! These genetic potions are a treasure for us cultivators to enhance our strength, you'll know after you join our Security Bureau." The rat grinned, thinking of those genetic potions, a look of longing crossed his face.

At these words, Ye Han only smiled and did not respond positively, even if he wanted to consider joining the Security Bureau, he would have to wait until the matter on Teng Chong's side was finished. After treating Cheng Jun's injuries, Ye Han went back to rest, a big battle with No.9 and the compulsion master at the hotel had also consumed him a lot.

However, during the battle with the companions, Ye Han also made a new discovery, the companions' insects were very afraid of the aura in his body and did not dare to approach his body.

The next morning, Ye Han led Cheng Jun and the others to the Ruan family. With so many experts accompanying him, Ye Han believed that even if the Ruan family had a grudge against him, they would not dare to do anything excessive. When he arrived at the Ruan Family, Ye Han saw Ruan Hong, who was dressed in formal attire, waiting for him at the entrance of the Ruan Family's manor.

Hearing Ruan Hong's words, Ye Han laughed coldly in his heart, but his face also showed a smile and said; "You're welcome, I wonder if the other family masters have arrived?"

"Oh, the other three family masters are already here, we can start as soon as Mr. Ye arrives."

"Then I'll be grateful if you'll lead the way, young Ruan."

After the words were said, the crowd entered the Ruan family's manor garden, and then were led by that Ruan Hong to the middle of a very luxurious living room, at this moment, the helmsmen of the four great clans of Yunnan were all present, and when they saw Ye Han enter, they all cast their eyes on him, for Ye Han the real person, it was actually the first time they had seen him.

Ruan Shanhe stood up at this time and smiled; "Mr Ye, we have been waiting for you for a long time, please have a seat."

Ye Han took a seat in one of the seats, he looked at Ruan Shanhe and the other three families at the helm and said with an arching hand; "There was a little incident last night, so I'm late, I hope the four family heads don't take offense."

As he spoke, Ye Han nodded his head with Kun Sang who was standing not far away.

Hearing Ye Han's words, a hidden look crossed the eyes of Ruan Shanhe and the others, as for what happened last night, of course they, the four great families of Yunnan, knew about it, it was just that what none of them had expected was that the young man sitting opposite them had such great power, that overnight, the entire officialdom of Yunnan Province had been shaken because of him.

It was also because of this that the four of them had come to the Ruan family early today, waiting for Ye Han's arrival, which was also a disguised gesture of goodwill.

"Oh, Mr. Ye is lucky, I believe that some jumping clowns will not be able to make much of a splash in front of Mr. Ye." The Yan family head, who was already over fifty, said with a smile on his face at Ye Han, but Ye Han always felt that this old man was smiling a bit hypocritically when he heard him say this, like he was trying to point the finger at someone here for last night's incident.

Ye Han said with a faint smile; "Family Master Yan thinks too highly of me, I am also just an ordinary person, once the number of jumping clowns is too large, wouldn't that swallow me without even leaving a bone."

Hearing these words, the Ba Family Master, whose body was quite a bit obese, laughed; "Even though Mr. Ye is young, he is highly skilled and capable, what's a few jumping clowns?"

Ye Han laughed coldly in his heart at the thickness of this Ba family head's cheek, if we were to talk about jumping clowns, this Ba family would be one of the first to bear the brunt, and now he had the nerve to say it in front of everyone, who here did not know that he had secretly participated in a plan to kill and take away Ye Han's treasure a few days ago.

"Alright, I think we shouldn't go too far, Mr. Ye is here to collect his reward today, Ruan Shanhe, bring out the map, right?" At this time, Kun Xian, the Kun Family's head, who had never spoken, spoke indifferently, upon hearing this, Ruan Shanhe suddenly smiled and said; "You see I had even forgotten about the main business, it is still Elder Brother Kun Xian who has a heart, since this is the case, then I will gift the map of the mine vein to Mr. Ye, the three family heads should have no problem with this, right?"

A gift? When they heard this word, the three family masters in the living room nodded their heads, but at the same time they all laughed coldly in their hearts, could this man's skin be any thicker?

Immediately after the words were spoken, someone sent a drawing to Ye Han, who opened it and saw that there were many routes drawn on the drawing, but one of the red routes led deep into a certain primeval forest, and in the vicinity of the primeval forest, the peaks were stacked up and towered into the clouds!

Fortune Chapter 103

Ye Han took a look at the map and then put it away, since the map of the mine vein was already in his hands, there was no need for him to continue to be hypocritical and polite with these people.

Seeing Ye Han put away the map, Ruan Shanhe stood up and smiled; "Mr. Ye, now that business is done, I wonder if you could treat me to a meal here? Our Ruan family has always had hopes for cooperation with talents like Mr. Ye, so if Mr. Ye is interested we can talk about cooperation later."

At those words, the other three family heads secretly hated themselves for being late in speaking up, in fact, although they had come here today to present Ye Han with a second reward on the surface, in reality, they had all come to make friends with Ye Han, especially the Ruan and Ba families, after seeing the amazing energy behind Ye Han last night, they desperately wanted to make good relations with him, and the only way to make good relations with Ye Han was to cooperate and give him some more. After all, the demand for raw stones in the domestic market was particularly high at the moment, so if they could cooperate with them and get more shares of raw stones, no one would be willing to refuse.

Ye Han smiled faintly and said to Ruan Shanhe; "Sorry, Master Ruan, I have already made an appointment with Master Kun to have tea together later, I appreciate your kindness, I will definitely pay a visit when this side of things is over."

"Elder brother Kun Xian, I didn't expect you to show your face in real life." After hearing Ye Han's words, Ruan Shanhe glanced at Kun Xian with slightly gloomy eyes, then he smiled at Ye Han; "No matter, since Mr. Ye already has an appointment, then I won't force myself, but our Ruan family does intend to cooperate with Mr. Ye, I hope Mr. Ye can give it some thought when he returns."

"Please rest assured, Master Ruan Family, I will definitely consider it carefully." Ye Han sneered in his heart, then he looked at Kun Xian and smiled; "Master Kun Family, please do."

As soon as Kun Xian heard this, he smiled; "Mr Ye please, I have long heard Sang'er mention Mr Ye, we must have a good chat later."

Watching Ye Han and Kun Xian walk out of the living room, the Yan Family Master also took his leave, and soon only Ruan Shanhe and the Ba Family Master were left inside the living room.

“Ba Lao Liu, tell us, what do you have in mind?” Ruan Shanhe glanced at the Ba Family Master and asked indifferently.

Upon hearing this, Ba Lao Liu spread his hands and smiled, saying; “What ideas can I have, it’s better to listen to Brother Ruan’s high opinion.”

“Hmph, Ba Lao Liu, don’t you fucking pretend to me here, whether it’s dealing with Kun Xian or in dealing with this kid Ye Han our two families are both grasshoppers on the same rope, this kid has amazing energy behind him and is brave and resourceful, now that Kun Xian and this kid are so close, if tomorrow’s bet goes bad our hard work will be wasted, what’s more, you and I both have a grudge against We must come up with a foolproof plan if this boy refuses to reconcile.”

Ba Lao Liu’s face slowly sank, in fact, he understood all that Ruan Shan He said, the only thing he regretted now was that he shouldn’t have been greedy for that piece of heavenly jade, so much so that he had now gone to the opposite side of Ye Han.

“Then what do you think we should do?” Ba Lao Liu looked at Ruan Shan He and asked.

“Humph, I have given a hint today, if that kid really refuses to reconcile, then we must find a way to do away with him, anyway, this kid has quite a few enemies, at that time even if he dies no one will suspect that we did it.” Ruan Shanhe said with a cold face.

“Kill him? That’s easy for you to say.” Ba Lao Liu shook his head and said; “Are there still fewer people who want to kill him these days? He is still alive and well, but on the contrary, the people who wanted to kill him have already died one by one.”

At that, Ruan Shanhe sneered; “It’s true that it’s difficult for our two families to kill the kid, but as far as I know, he has a lot of enemies, Guo’s family in Xiangjiang, Ning’s family in China, the Ma Gang in Yunnan, Fujiwara’s group in Japan, and also Machete’s group in the Golden Triangle are all his enemies. ?”

Hearing these words, Ba Lao Liu glanced at Ruan Shan He with some scorn, this old boy’s mind was really poisonous, if these people could really unite, it would undoubtedly be a life and death test for Ye Han.

“Master Kun family, it has been so long since I came to Tengchong that I have not been able to pay a visit, please don’t be offended, this cup of tea will be considered as an apology.”

Inside a high class tea house in Tengchong City, Ye Han drained the cup of tea at the table, Kun Xian waved his hand and smiled; “Mr. Ye is joking, with your relationship with Sang’er, in fact I should have invited you to my Kun family as a guest long ago, I wonder what is the reason for Mr. Ye asking me out today?”

Ye Han smiled and said, “I am a lifelong brother to Brother Kunsang, so if you don’t mind calling me Xiao Han, there are two reasons for asking Master Kun out today. You guys go to meet that Southeast Asian gambling king.”

When Kun Xian heard these words, his palm trembled and the tea inside his cup spilled out, because this gambling game had taken a lot of effort and he had not been able to solve it. hope was kindled in his heart.

“Mr Ye, is this true? Are you really willing to fight for the Kun Family against the Southeast Asian King of Gamblers?” Last time, Ye Han had said that he would fight the Southeast Asian gambling king invited by the Ruan family for the Kun family, but at that time, Kun Sang did not care about it, but now that Ye Han was mentioning it again, it meant that he was not joking and that he was sure of what he was saying.

“Of course, and I am certain of defeating that Southeast Asian gambling king.” Ye Han said confidently, with the Yin Yang Dharma Eye at the gambling table even if that Southeast Asian gambling king cheated he was still sure of defeating him.

“Haha, good, if Mr. Ye can really win this gambling game for my Kun family, our Kun family will take out seventy percent of the share to cooperate with you, Mr. Ye.” Having received Ye Han’s affirmation, Kun Xian was in a great mood, and the irritation in his heart was swept away.

Seventy percent of the share, this meant that the Kun family would take out seven percent of the future volume of the raw stone factory to sell all to Ye Han, leaving only thirty percent to sell to other jewelers at home or abroad, this was already more than what Ye Han had expected in his mind.

“Oh, good, Uncle Kun, then let’s wish us a happy cooperation.” Ye Han smiled and lifted his cup of tea.

Kun Xian also lifted his teacup and smiled; “Since you call me an uncle, then I will rely on my old age to call you Ye Xian nephew, tomorrow’s gambling game is all up to you.”

“That, Uncle Kun can rest assured, that bastard Ruan Shanhe I have wanted to settle the score with him for a long time, tomorrow they are destined to come full of hope and return with disappointment.”

Fortune Chapter 104

At this crucial moment, Kun Xian was very happy to have a candidate for the gambling game. Since Ye Han dared to say that he would take the place of their Kun Family to face the Southeast Asian Gambling King, this meant that Ye Han did not even put the gambling king invited by the Ruan Family in his eyes, moreover, the impenetrable mystery in Ye Han’s body was one of the main reasons that made Kun Xian feel as if he had taken a pill of certainty.

This young man in front of him, during this time in Tengchong, had been able to laugh and be proud all the way to the end in the midst of the bloodshed, and even he, an old fox who had lived for 40 or 50 years, could not see through just how much he was capable of.

After the matter of cooperation came to a close, Kun Xian spoke to Ye Han about the map; “Xian Nephew Ye, although you have obtained the map of the mineral vein, I have to remind you that that mineral vein is not that easy to obtain.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han asked; “Uncle Kun, is there something different about this vein?”

“It’s not just different.” Kun Xian shook his head and said; “As time went on, the raw stones that our four families’ veins could produce became increasingly scarce, so three years ago, our four families’ joined together to enter a deeper primeval forest to investigate, at that time, our four families’ investigation team entered that primeval forest and used a kind of detector to accidentally investigate a resource-rich vein, through the detector we We drew the location of the vein and wanted to go deeper into the forest because if we could get the vein, it would be enough for our four families to make a fortune and solve our four families' plight of raw stone scarcity, but no one expected that before we could see what the vein looked like, our four families suffered heavy losses, the primeval forest had too many incredible things, it was too scary!"

Speaking of this, a look of horror flashed across Kun Xian's eyes, as if he had thought of something!

"Ever since we discovered that vein, our four families have never given up in the past three years, organizing several times before and after to rush through that primeval forest and obtain the vein, but as time passed, the fear that forest brought us made our four families completely give up hope on it, but the amount of raw stone plants became increasingly scarce, and it was for this reason that several of our families gradually got into infighting, competing with each other for the raw stones each had, to the point where we have come to this point today."

Ye Han was not interested in the feud between the Kun Family and the Ruan Family and the Ba Family, what interested him was the primeval forest that Kun Xian was talking about.

"Uncle Kun, what exactly does that primeval forest hold within it that your four families are so afraid of?" Ye Han asked curiously.

Kun Xian gave a bitter laugh and said; "Don't ask me because I don't know how to tell you clearly, in short, there are too many incredible things that exist there, it is simply against natural science. attraction to make a fortune."

This was already clear to Ye Han after Kun Xian had said these things, but in his heart, Ye Han was becoming more and more curious about that vein, what exactly was inside that vein that could make people so afraid?

Seeing Ye Han like this, Kun Xian shook his head and laughed bitterly; "I know you have become curious about that vein, but I still have to remind you that there are some things that cannot be obtained by human power, you should know that our four great clans all have their own private armies that are well equipped and not worse than the regular army, but there is still nothing we can do about that vein, and we have lost several hundred men in it over the years. several hundred men in it, and that price is too heavy."

"Uncle Kun, thank you for reminding me, I will be careful." Ye Han said with a smile.

Seeing this, Kun Xian shook his head, he knew that Ye Han would not die for that vein.

"Hanzi, remember to call me when you go, for that forest, I've long wanted to go and break into it." Not only did Ye Han have curiosity about that mineral vein, Kun Sang did the same, what was that forest that made all four of their great clans taboo like? Over the years Kunsang had also inquired about it, but those who had been to that forest they had either gone mad or warned him not to enter it, but it was because of this that Kunsang wanted to go in and have a look all the more.

"Sang'er, you, simply nonsense" Hearing that Kun Sang wanted to go to that forest with Ye Han, Kun Xian's face immediately sank, was that a place for people to go?

“Ah father, don’t stop me this time, you can’t stop me either, anyway, I’ve decided to accompany Hanzi to venture out.” Kun Sang shrugged at Kun Xian, with the look of a dead pig not afraid of boiling water.

The Ruan family and the Ba family had joined forces against the Kun family, and the venue for this gambling game today was located inside a high-class casino in Tengchong City, and that floor of the casino had been chartered for the day.

Today’s Ye Han was dressed in formal attire, wearing a black suit and tie, his body was straight, his sword eyebrows were flying, his eyes were like cold stars, he looked very handsome and dashing, that look was a bit like a gambling warrior inside a certain movie, looking at Huang Ying with a flowery look on his face.

“Brother Ye, you are really cool today, much better looking than those celebrities, I guarantee that if you stand on the street now, you will become a household name tomorrow, you are simply too handsome.” Huang Ying helped Ye Han straighten his clothes at the side and looked at him with admiration in her big eyes.

Looking at himself in the mirror, Ye Han was quite satisfied with himself, it seemed that he was indeed quite handsome if he wore a suit, and had no problem charming a large number of young girls.

“Hey, little Huang Ying, do you have a crush on your big brother Ye?” The rat brought his head over and grinned.

“Brother Mouse, you’re making fun of me again, I don’t care about you anymore, I’ll let sister Yanzi clean you up when I get back.”

“Come on, stop it, Hanzi, are you done? The Kun family’s people have come over.” At this time, Cheng Jun walked over and asked.

Ye Han nodded; “Let’s go, Brother Cheng.”

Afterwards, Ye Han took Cheng Jun and Huang Ying out and got into the vehicle that the Kun Family had come to greet, as for Night Cat and the others, they had to stay at home.

“Oh, Hanzi, you’re quite handsome today, a bit like a gambling warrior, it’s a pity that my younger sister-in-law isn’t here.” As soon as Ye Han got into the car, Kun Sang made fun of him, Ye Han laughed; “If you, the titular young master of the Kun family dressed up more on a regular basis and focused on dressing, it wouldn’t be a problem to charm a group of young women.”

“Come on, there’s no comparison with you guy.” After Kun Sang finished speaking, he immediately turned to Ye Han and said with a straight face; “Han Zi, I got news that Guo Yunxiao’s men have already headed to that forest, they bought a map at a high price from the Yan family, moreover, the Horse Gang and the Japanese have also followed and gotten involved, what should we do?”

At these words, the corners of Ye Han’s eyes narrowed as he said, “Then let them go in first, listening to your old man’s tone that forest is not a good place, it’s just as well to let them scout out the way for us in front, but the Yan family and the Ruan family even bought the map behind my back, this account will be recorded first.”

For Ye Han, it was his own stuff, whoever ate it in had to spit it out, so it didn't matter to him if Guo Yunxia's people and the horse gang and the Japanese went in, even if these people got the vein he would just snatch it back again, there was no way these people would move the vein away anyway.

Fortune Chapter 105

At the main entrance of the casino, Kun Xian led a group of people inside, inside this lobby, there was a gambling table that was two meters long, at this moment, people from the Ruan and Ba families had already arrived, and besides them, the Ruan and Ba families had also invited some reputable businessmen within Tengchong City to come and be a witness.

Upon seeing Kun Xian and his group arrive, Ruan Shanhe and Ba Laoliu immediately stood up with smiles on their faces, but when they saw Ye Han walking beside Kun Xian, the smiles on their faces faintly froze, Ye Han, after all, was walking with the Kun family's people.

"Oh, old brother Kun Xian, I wonder if you are ready for this bet today?" Ruan Shanhe looked at Kun Xian and smiled lightly.

"Of course, if not prepared do you think I, Kun Xian, would come here today to lose face?"

"That's good." Ruan Shanhe looked around at Kun Xian's group, there were no gambling experts here, causing him to put his mind at ease and smile; "In order to ensure the fairness of this bet today, I have invited some reputable friends from Tengchong City, I don't think old brother Kun Xian would mind, right?"

At that, Kun Xian gave a secret sneer and said; "Of course I won't mind, I think we should start, don't keep your friends waiting."

"Hehe, good, old brother Kun Xian, then let's invite the gambling king of your Kun family to take his seat." As he spoke, Ruan Shanhe's gaze looked across him with a sarcastic smile on his face, he wanted to see who the Kun Family would actually let out to meet the battle, who would have the guts to face Rong Fan Sheng, one of the seven great gambling kings of Southeast Asia?

"Master of the Ruan family, I'm quite interested in the gambling king that your Ruan family has invited, how about letting me play with him today?" Ye Han smiled faintly, strolled over to one end of the gambling table and sat down, looking at Ruan Shanhe as well as Ba Lao Liu with a smile, seeing that it was Ye Han who stepped up to meet him, both Ruan Shanhe and Ba Lao Liu froze at the same time, they did not deny that Ye Han's skills were indeed high, but gambling and martial arts were two different things, one was a violent job and the other was a technical one, did Ye Han have the skills to gamble on cards?

Ruan Shanhe suddenly smiled as he looked at Ye Han and said; "I didn't expect the gambling expert invited by Elder Kun Xian to be Mr. Ye, this is really surprising, but may I ask if Mr. Ye also knows gambling? Today we are betting on the second half of elder brother Kun Xian's life, if Mr. Ye is not sure, I advise you not to make a move."

Ye Han smiled; "Thank you for reminding me, Master Ruan, I have learnt gambling for a few days, so I would like to ask that Mr. King of Gamblers for advice to increase my knowledge a little, I think this Mr. King of Gamblers will be unstinting in giving advice!"

On hearing this, Rong Fan Sheng, who was sitting opposite Ye Han, snorted coldly and said; “Kid, you want to ask me for advice after learning gambling for a few days, fine, I will fulfill you, let the foundation of the Kun family perish in your hands.”

“That’s not necessarily the case, Mr. King of Gamblers, let’s begin.” Ye Han always had a smile on his face, seeing this, the people from the Ruan family, the Ba family and the Kun family all took their seats around them, their eyes looking at the two people above the gambling table, Ye Han and Rong Fan Sheng, then a very pretty lotus officer came to the table and asked with a smile; “I wonder what the two of you would like to play? Craps, blackjack, gold fry

Rong Fan Sheng looked at Ye Liang and smiled; “Kid, don’t say I won’t give you a chance, you choose?”

“No, no, no, I’m more respectful of the old and the young, it’s better for Mr. Betting King to choose, I don’t care.” Ye Han laughed.

“Hmph, don’t know what to do, good, let’s win two out of three games, first one, play dice, let’s start.” After Rong Fan Sheng said this, the beautiful lotus took out a pair of pure black dice in her clothes and shook them in her hands, the speed was fast and fancy, the sound of the dice and the dice cup crackling inside, inside the casino, everyone was staring at the movements in the hands of the beautiful lotus.

Everyone who came here was quite interested in this bet, as this bet would have a bearing on the future fate of the Kun family.

Of course, Ye Han’s appearance increased their interest even more. This teenager who had recently risen to fame in Tengchong they had naturally heard of as the upper class people of Tengchong City, would Ye Han be a match for that Southeast Asian gambling king? They were equally concerned about this.

Ye Han took a look at him and instantly realised that the old man’s ears were moving just like the ones in the movie.

This was one of the basic skills that a gambling expert had to master, and Ye Han had learnt it under Zhao Hengtian’s tutelage, but if he did not use his yin and yang eyes, Ye Han’s ability to listen to the dice would not be as good as Zhao Hengtian’s.

Ye Han leaned his back on the chair, crossed his legs, and took out his Dragon Scale Dagger to trim his nails, that leisurely look made everyone present want to laugh, seeing this, Ruan Shanhe sneered; “Unknowing fellow, the Kun Family is destined to decline at your hands.”

With a snap, at this time, the beautiful lotus officer had snapped off the dice cup and placed it in the middle of the table, she then glanced at the two men and said with a smile; “Two, please speak.”

“Big.” Rong Fan Sheng said in a deep voice, his cold gaze looking towards Ye Han and said; “Kid, it’s your turn.”

Ye Han took out his ears and smiled; “This kind of game is nothing but size, leopard, and three odds, but I also wanted to guess big in this game, but unfortunately it has already been said by you, Mr. King of Gamblers.”

“Hmph, it doesn’t matter, as long as you can guess the exact number of points, I’ll count this round as a win for you.” Rong Fan Sheng sneered, what kind of gambling expert had he not seen, Ye Han in his eyes was completely just a brat who knew nothing about gambling, he did not believe that Ye Han could guess the number of points inside the dice cup.

“Oh, as expected of Mr. King of Gamblers, it is difficult for ordinary people to be as open-minded as you are, since you intend to give way, then junior will not be polite.” Ye Han looked at Rong Fan Sheng and smiled slightly, his fingers tapped on the gambling table just like Rong Fan Sheng, his eyes met above the set of dice without saying anything, the atmosphere inside the casino seemed a bit quiet, all eyes looked at Ye Han, all wanted to know if he could guess the number of points inside the dice?

“Hmph, kid, just keep pretending.” Seeing that Ye Han did not say anything, Ruan Shanhe and Ba Lao Liu glanced at each other, both of them sneering in their hearts.

Kun Xian’s heart was a little nervous at this moment, although he believed in Ye Han, but now Ye Han’s appearance made his heart unsure.

“What, kid, you can’t guess, can you?” Rong Fan Sheng looked at Ye Han and smiled coldly.

“No, too.” Ye Han looked up at Rong Fan Sheng and smiled; “I was thinking that if I guessed the number of points inside the dice, I wonder how Mr. King of Gamblers would feel? You wouldn’t back out, would you?”

“Hmph, cut the crap, if you can really guess it, I, Rong Fan Sheng, will naturally admit defeat in this game.”

“Good, I believe in Mr. King of Gamblers, in that case, I’ll take my chances.” Ye Han smiled lightly, then he looked at the set of dice and said; “My eyes tell me that there are a total of three dice inside this dice cup, they are four, five, six, fifteen points and big. Mr. King of Gamblers, I wonder if my guess is correct?”

At these words, the corners of Rong Fan Sheng’s eyes jumped and the expression on his face changed, his eyes stared deadly at Ye Han without speaking, Ye Han, how on earth did he guess? Of course he knew what the number of points inside the dice cup was, but was Ye Han’s guess really due to luck?

Seeing this scene, the crowd of Zhou Ren’s eyes were astonished, could it be that Ye Han had really guessed?

“Open the dice cup.” Ruan Shanhe noticed the change on Rong Fan Sheng’s face, his heart tightened and he hurriedly stood up and shouted to the beautiful lotus officer. The beautiful lotus officer nodded and then uncovered the dice cup under the gaze of many pairs of eyes, the points inside there were clearly four, five, six, fifteen points, big, Ye Han didn’t guess a single point wrong.

Seeing this, Ruan Shanhe sat down on his butt with an iron face, and the surroundings also fell into a whispered discussion.

At this time, Ye Han clapped his hands, then he looked at the ice-cold looking Rong Fan Sheng and smiled; “Mr. King of Gamblers, thanks for the concession, this game, you lose, I win.”

Fortune Chapter 106

“Damn guy, how could he lose? How can he lose?”

Ruan Shanhe’s face was iron blue and his fists were clenched up, signalling that he was very angry in his heart, so was Ba Lao Liu, who had lost to the Kun Family in the first round, this beginning was a heavier blow to them, unless they won all the remaining two rounds, the Kun Family’s vein would not be their turn to eat.

However, compared to the Ruan and Ba families’ anger, Kun Xian’s heart was overjoyed, for Ye Han’s win in this round was like a pill of certainty for him, as long as Ye Han won one more round, then the Ruan and Ba families’ ambition for his Kun family would be dead in the belly.

“Sang’er, if our Kun Clan can survive this crisis, it’s all thanks to you!” Kun Xian patted Kun Sang’s knee at this moment and said with an emotional expression, without Kun Sang befriending Ye Han, their Kun Family would have already lost just before they got on the gambling table, not to mention winning this first game.

“Old dad, this has just started, don’t worry, I believe that Hanzi will win big.” Kun Sang said with an affirmative face, he had an innate sense of trust in Ye Han, Ye Han never let down those who believed in him.

He was one of the seven kings of gambling in Southeast Asia, even the other kings could not easily beat him in the first round, but today he was easily beaten by a young boy.

After his anger, Rong Fan Sheng immediately calmed down. As one of the Seven Great Gambling Kings of Southeast Asia, he had a very good control of his emotions, and the fact that Ye Han could guess the number of points in that game just now was definitely not just luck. .

“Mr. King of Gamblers, may I ask if we can start the second game?” Ye Han asked with a slight smile at Rong Fan Sheng at this time.

Upon hearing this, Rong Fan Sheng looked at Ye Han and said; “Young man, well hidden, just now even I didn’t see that you were actually a human master as well, who is your master? To be able to teach a disciple like you, I guess your master’s fame isn’t weak either.”

“I don’t want to worry about who my master is, Mr. Gambling King.” Ye Han said; “How do we play next? I’ll listen to everything you say, Mr. King of Gamblers.”

“Good, I, Rong Fan Sheng, have not met an opponent for a long time, so I will play with you today.” Rong Fan Sheng said; “Since I lost the first game to you on the dice, let’s play the second game on the dice as usual, but this time I will shake and you guess, and you will win if you guess the number of points.”

Ye Han laughed; “It seems that Mr. Gambling King is really fond of playing dice, since that’s the case, then junior can only play along, let’s start.”

After Ye Han said this, the beautiful lotus pushed the dice in front of Rong Fan Sheng, then Rong Fan Sheng picked up the dice with one hand and started to shake them from side to side. Many people’s eyes were turned towards Rong Fan Sheng’s hands, and they felt dizzy.

“What speed!” Cheng Jun watched Rong Fan Sheng’s movements, his mouth exclaimed, Rong Fan Sheng himself was an ordinary person, but the speed he shook the dice completely surpassed the limits of an ordinary person's body, being able to do this proved that Rong Fan Sheng had not put in much effort in this.

Ye Han was also watching Rong Fan Sheng, but he was observing more carefully than Cheng Jun, not only was Rong Fan Sheng's hand incredibly fast, but he also had a dexterity in his power, that dexterity made the dice inside the dice cup hit each other, and because Rong Fan Sheng often changed the angle of shaking the dice, the dice would produce some cracks every time they hit each other, if it continued for a long time, these dice would sooner or later be shattered by that power.

Only after two minutes did Rong Fan Sheng snap the dice cup in his hand on top of the gambling table, he sat down and looked at Ye Han with a cold smile; "Young man, it's your turn to perform now, guess, let me see how good you really are."

Ye Han used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to see the inside of the dice cup, he sneered in his heart, two of these dice had been shattered into more than ten pieces, leaving only one dice intact, to be able to shake a pair of dice to such a state, he could not deny that Rong Fan Sheng's gambling skills were indeed great, if it was an ordinary gambling expert facing this move by Rong Fan Sheng, it would be absolutely difficult to guess the number of points, because the only dice left inside was one point. However, he had chosen the wrong opponent, so any more of his tricks were doomed to be in vain.

Ye Han clapped his hands as he looked at Rong Fan Sheng and smiled; "Mr. King of Gamblers is worthy of being one of the seven kings of gambling in Southeast Asia, his dice shaking tactics are really varied and powerful, but since Mr. King of Gamblers intends to play, then how about we play a bigger game this time?"

"So, how do you want to play?"

Ye Han laughed; "Just guessing around like this, it's meaningless without some stakes, how about we add a bit more to the pot?"

"Fine, I, Rong Fan Sheng, have never been afraid of anyone in my life at the gambling table, what kind of jackpot do you want? I'll go along with you to the end."

At these words, Ye Han took out a bank card from his pocket and threw it onto the gambling table, then said; "I have a total of fourteen billion dollars in this card, I'll bet all the money in it, I don't know if Mr. Wang dares to take this bet?"

Hearing these words, Rong Fan Sheng's brow furrowed, fourteen billion, this is a huge bet, he did not expect Ye Han to be willing to put down such a blood money, the casino people heard these words, they were immediately shocked, betting fourteen billion in a game, oh boy, such a huge bet, not to mention in a small place like Tengchong, even in Macau, a cosmopolitan city with a developed gambling industry, it is not common!

"Bastard, what the hell does he want?" Ruan Shanhe looked at Ye Han with a smile on his face, his heart was overwhelmed with anger, but at the same time he was also secretly worried, Ye Han was so confident that he dared to bet all his belongings, was he sure about this game again? If they lost another round, then there would be no need to continue with this bet today.

“Hahahahaha, young man, you are very confident, but you will lose this round.” Rong Fan Sheng laughed loudly a few times and then said; “Since you want to gamble a game, then I will fulfill you.”

After saying that, Rong Fan Sheng took out his cheque book from his pocket and wrote a few cheques and threw them on top of the gambling table, these cheques added up to a total of fourteen billion, which was exactly the same as the money inside Ye Han’s bank card, as one of the seven great gambling kings in Southeast Asia, Rong Fan Sheng was naturally very rich, fourteen billion was not a lot to him, right now in this game, no matter if it was because of the stable winning situation or for the sake of his gambling king’s name, he would not back down.

“Oh, Mr. King of Gamblers is really quick enough.” Ye Han saw the cheque that Rong Fan Sheng still had on the gambling table and fiercely laughed as he stood up and gave a fierce tap on the table, the sound startled Rong Fan Sheng and looked at him with great displeasure, saying; “Young man, don’t get carried away, can you guess the points now?”

Fortune Chapter 107

Upon hearing this, Ye Han grinned and said; “Mr. Gambling King’s gambling skills are indeed impressive, to the extent that he can shake the three dice to smithereens, my junior admires that, so, this game, not at all.”

“Hahahahaha.” Hearing Ye Han’s words, Rong Fan Sheng burst into laughter, and the people inside the casino likewise laughed in a low voice, not a bit of it? How is that possible? You think this is a movie?

At this moment, only to see Ruan Shanhe open his mouth and laugh; “Mr. Ye, your imagination is too rich, how could such a thing happen in reality, it seems that you are going to lose this bet between you and King Rong Fan Sheng.”

Hearing these words, Kun Xian and the others looked at Ye Han with a nervous face, would Ye Han really lose this round?

“Is that so? Master Ruan Family, just because you haven’t seen something doesn’t mean it won’t appear.” Ye Han looked at Ruan Shanhe and smiled lightly, then said; “Mr. King of Gamblers, please open your cards.”

“Young man, watch out then.” After saying that, Rong Fan Sheng sneered as he slowly uncovered the dice cup and moved it away a little, however, the moment the dice cup was uncovered, his gaze froze dead, his entire person was frozen like a wooden chicken, similarly, the surrounding crowd’s gaze also froze, because inside the dice cup that Rong Fan Sheng uncovered, was a pile of white powder, not a single dice.

All around, it was so quiet that even a pin drop could be heard!

Many people have only seen such a thing in movies, not even heard of it in reality, not to mention seeing it.

Ruan Shanhe and Ba Laoliu were in shock, but their faces were completely cold.

They had lost, completely and utterly, two out of three games, they had lost two games in a row, and they didn’t even need to compete in that last game.

Losing the bet, all the preparations they had made to deal with the Kun family in a deliberate manner were all for naught.

And it was all because of that teenager, he was the one who had caused all their plans to go down the drain.

Thinking of this, Ruan Shanhe and Ba Laoliu looked at Ye Han with a cold murderous look in their gaze, if they had a gun in their hands right now, they would simply want to finish Ye Han off immediately.

“It’s you, it must be you, you cheated”

At this time, after sobering up from the shock, Rong Fan Sheng looked at Ye Han with a fierce face, the dice he shook out were definitely not like this, it must be Ye Han who used some means in secret to shatter the dice he shook out.

Hearing this, Ye Han, who had already put away his cheque and bank card, let out a cold laugh; “Mr. King of Gamblers, what you said is really degrading, losing is losing, I think as one of the kings of gambling in Southeast Asia you wouldn’t not understand this, right? Besides, what proof do you have that I cheated? You shook the dice yourself, I didn’t touch them from the beginning.”

“You” Hearing Ye Han’s words, Rong Fan Sheng’s lungs were practically bursting with anger.

“Humph, Mr. Ye is right, a loss is a loss, you are the king of gambling in Southeast Asia, don’t end up with a reputation of being a sore loser, this bet today, everyone here can see it for themselves, you lost, don’t slander Mr. Ye.” Kun Xian stood up at this time and spoke, then he looked at Ruan Shanhe and said; “Ruan Shanhe, you lost this gambling match, I hope you will stop here, otherwise, my Kun family does not lack the determination to kill the fish, Mr. Ye, let’s go.”

Ye Han raised the cheque in his hand at Rong Fan Sheng and smiled; “Mr. King of Gamblers, we will meet again later, this time the game is too small, next time we will play a big one when we have the chance.”

After saying that, Ye Han left the casino, leaving a few very cold eyes watching him go away.

The second time he gambled with Rong Fan Sheng, Ye Han had of course used tactics, the moment he slapped the table, he had already used his body’s spiritual energy to shatter the dice inside the dice cup, this method was also taught to him by Zhao Hengtian, this, even Cheng Jun, an expert, did not notice, Rong Fan Sheng played dirty with him, of course he also wanted to dirty the other side.

“Yin nephew Ye, this bet was won beautifully today, I am here to thank you for your great kindness on behalf of our Kun family.” Inside a very spacious caravan, Kun Xian gave Ye Han a very solemn bow, seeing this, Ye Han hurriedly helped him up and smiled; “Uncle Kun, that is serious, not to mention that I and Brother Kun Sang are brothers who have lived through life, even for the sake of our cooperation I would have helped out, not to mention that I didn’t lose anything by stepping in to meet that Rong Fan Sheng for you, but I even made a big profit. ”

Hearing these words, the people inside the caravan laughed out loud, the Ruan and Ba families had lost their wives this time, they had spent a lot of money trying to occupy the Kun family’s veins, yet in the end, the basket was empty.

“Right, Han Zi, how did you fellow know the number of points inside that dice cup just now?” This was something that the people inside the caravan were curious about, seeing the pairs of curious gazes around, Ye Han shrugged and laughed; “Professional secret.”

Seeing that Ye Han did not say, the crowd did not pursue the question, but when they thought about it what else did Ye Han actually have? They were equally confused, the powerful force value, the accurate gambling stones, and this magical gambling skill, of course, Kun Xian and Kun Sang did not know about Ye Han’s ability to heal yet.

After leaving the casino, Ye Han declined Kun Xian’s invitation and asked the Kun family’s car to take them back to the factory, Ye Han had already decided to go to the primeval forest marked on the map tomorrow, he had to go back and prepare properly now, after all, Kun Xian had already said that the primeval forest was very abnormal and very dangerous!

After returning to the factory, Ye Han was envied and jealous by a few guys from Night Cat, for no other reason than the fact that Ye Han was too good at making money, he had earned fourteen billion in just one morning.

Fourteen billion, even if they worked in the Security Bureau for a lifetime, they wouldn’t be able to earn that much money, but Ye Han had earned it in one morning.

“Hey, little Huang Ying, you have to seize this opportunity, after this village you won’t have this shop.” The mouse loved to tease Huang Ying, at this time his eyes glanced at Ye Han and Huang Ying’s bodies and grinned, the words caused Huang Ying to blush.

The mountain chicken said with a depressed look on his face; “It’s a pity that I’m not a woman, or else you, Hanzi, would definitely not be able to escape from my five-finger mountain.”

Hearing these words, Ye Han instantly felt goosebumps rise on his body.

“Alright, you guys don’t go and make fun of Han Zi and Little Yellow Ying, others Han Zi is capable, do you have?” Cheng Jun looked at Night Cat and they scolded with a laugh, Ye Han also changed the topic at this time and told them about going to the primeval forest tomorrow, and also informed them that it would be dangerous to go there, hearing this from Ye Han, Cheng Jun laughed; “Han Zi, these years we have been on missions outside, what kind of dangers have we not experienced, tomorrow we will accompany you, one more strength, you also have one more There is no need to say more polite words, we can also be called friends who live and die together.”

At these words, Ye Han nodded his head.

Fortune Chapter 108

The next morning, Kunsang had already arrived outside the factory in his signature Hummer, and was still fully armed, wearing camouflage clothes, carrying a sniper rifle, and with a few grenades hanging from his waist, the car even had quite a few weapons, all of which Ye Han had explained him to prepare yesterday.

Ye Han also wore a camouflage uniform today, looking heroic. After everyone got into the car, Kunsang drove the car out of Tengchong City, making into a remote mountain road.

“Hanzi, a few kilometres further on is where our Kun family’s veins are located, the other three families’ veins are also in this area, once we get there, we can only walk, the car can’t drive in.” Kun Sang said to Ye Han.

Ye Han nodded and said; “According to what Uncle Kun said, it is extremely dangerous there, causing the four great clans to suffer heavy losses over the past few years, so no one can be careless when we enter the forest later.”

The crowd nodded silently, and after half an hour of bumping along the mountain road, Ye Han arrived at the location where the Kun family’s mine was located, then the crowd packed up and each took their weapons and walked towards the vast mountain ahead of them, from a distance, the forest grew very dense and dense, moreover, a thick fog enveloped that forest, giving a mysterious and cold feeling floating in the air. The forest is very dense, and a thick fog envelops it, giving it a mysterious and chilling feeling.

The forest was so dense that no matter which way you looked, you could not see how deep it was, and it was full of huge trees, interlocking and overlapping, with an unpleasant but indescribable smell in the air.

The ground was covered with a thick layer of dead leaves that creaked when they walked on it, thorns were all over the place and huge vines were intertwined between the trees, making it extremely difficult for Ye Han to walk here. At the very front, Kunsang and Mouse were each holding a Tang sword to clear the way, while Ye Han was observing the map.

The map showed that once they passed through this forest, they would enter a gorge, and that was where the mine was located.

However, this forest was 20 to 30 kilometres in diameter, and with the difficult road, it would be difficult to get out of this primeval forest before dark.

“What kind of place is this? It’s so hard to get around!” The rat complained in front of him and continued; “And have you noticed that this place is a bit unusual from the forests we’ve seen before, there are huge trees that take two or three people to hug, and even the vines that block the road are as thick as my arm.”

“Also, the satellite signal is blocked here.” Cheng Jun looked at the watch he was carrying, which was a high-tech electronic communication product that could receive satellite signals even in some remote mountain villages where there was no signal, but not here.

Cheng Jun frowned, his intuition told him that this place was not only abnormal, but it also made him feel a sense of crisis, a feeling as if something was staring at them in the dark.

“You feel it too?” Ye Han asked as he walked up to Cheng Jun’s side.

Cheng Jun nodded and said; “I feel that there are eyes in the shadows that have been staring at us since we entered the forest, it’s just that I can’t find the location of those eyes, so I can’t tell exactly what it is for now.”

Ye Han said; “Don’t worry about it yet, look for opportunities, it will appear when it’s time, we just need to move forward now, if there will be danger here we can’t avoid it.”

“Shit, what the hell?” At this time, after entering the forest for about two or three kilometres, the rat suddenly shouted out.

Cheng Jun was the quickest to react and shot out a silver flying knife, which went straight into a dense forest, followed by a strange sound, which gave people a shuddering feeling.

What then appeared before them was a pool of blood and some brown hair stuck to the top of it.

“It’s wounded, chase!” Cheng Jun shouted lowly, and his whole body was like a whirlwind chasing towards the direction of the blood stains on the ground, seeing this, Ye Han and the others also followed closely, they absolutely could not be separated in this forest with unknown dangers.

A short while later, with everyone chasing after them, Ye Han arrived at a stream, which flowed out from nowhere, and at this moment, after they arrived here, Ye Han was shocked to find that next to this stream, there was a huge-sized rat gnawing on some corpses.

“Holy shit! Such a big rat, my eyes aren’t out of order, are they?” The rats looked at the giant rats that were gnawing on the corpses and were shocked, Ye Han and the others did the same because these rats were as big as a fat pig of more than two hundred pounds, a rat this big could only be seen inside a science fiction film.

“Hey hey, rat, seeing your relatives, why don’t you go say hello.” Crazy Horse grinned from the sidelines.

“Fuck off, you’re the one who has such relatives now.”

Ye Han looked at these giant rats, he finally knew what Kun Xian meant when he said it was abnormal and against natural science, if these rats were exposed it might cause a shock to the scientific community.

“No wonder Father said that this place was abnormal, I’m just afraid that there are other things here that are big in size besides these rats.” Kunsang said with a shocked expression. Ye Han frowned and said; “It’s possible, look at the corpses these rats are eating, these are either the people from the Horse Gang or Guo Yunxiao, the wounds on their bodies were obviously torn to death by some kind of large animal, even their intestines are exposed.”

Kunsang nodded with a look of shock, the death of all these people was too horrible!

“No good, these guys have found us!” At this moment a rat raised its head, revealing a pair of scarlet eyes staring at Ye Han’s position where they were lurking, a terrifying hissing sound emitted from its mouth, this cry was like some kind of signal, other rats raised their heads one after another, then these rats ran towards Ye Han’s position like a fierce wild boar, those sharp teeth left sticky saliva, extremely disgusting.

Bang!

A gunshot broke the calmness inside this forest, after Cheng Jun fired, everyone attacked these giant rats, the sound of gunshots instantly filled the surroundings, one bullet fired on the bodies of these giant rats, although it entered their bodies, it was not immediately fatal, these rats were still running madly towards Ye Han’s position, very fierce and crazy.

“Shit, what are the skins of these rats made of? So thick!”

At this time, some giant rats had already run to Ye Han's position and their claws and mouths attacked them wildly at once, seeing this, everyone took out the cold weapons on them and started to fight and kill these giant rats.

Fortune Chapter 109

Ye Han kicked away a giant rat that was running wildly, then with a single step, the Dragon Scale Dagger instantly plunged into the body of a rat, the rat twitched on the ground and was silent, Ye Han did not stop, there were eight or nine giant rats attacking them, their size was huge, basically everyone on their side was entangled by these giant rats, Cheng Jun and the weapons they had were not as sharp as Ye Han's Dragon Scale Dagger. Although these giant rats were not a danger to them for the time being, their flesh and skin were very thick and extremely resistant to fighting.

Soon, with Ye Han's help, the giant rats that attacked them fell to the ground one by one, like fat pigs being slaughtered.

"Damn, these rats are really hard to kill, it's hard for my special sabre to penetrate their flesh. Do you guys think the rats here we're growing like this, is it caused by genetic mutation?"

Cheng Jun crouched down to look at the corpse of the giant rat, stood up and said; "The only way to find out the reason is to keep moving, there might be the answer we want up ahead."

Suddenly, just after Cheng Jun said this, a sound like a wolf's roar, like a tiger's whistle was violently transmitted in the middle of the forest, and this sound did not sound like one, but a group of them, and a full fierce beast's aura was coming from the air!

"It's not good, something more powerful is coming our way!"

Hearing the sound coming from the forest, the faces of the people present all changed, the sound of the gunshots just now had already attracted the attention of other things in this forest, moreover, just listening to the sound coming from this made people's hearts tremble, what was coming must be a group of even more powerful big guys.

"Let's all go up to the trees first and take shelter, let's see what's coming."

Soon, we saw leaves flying all over the forest, and then a group of wild boars, bigger than cows, came running wildly, the sound was so loud that the ground shook. The whole scene was extremely bloody. The bodies of the rats were dismembered by the wild boars and were soon eaten clean, leaving only some bloody internal organs behind.

Seeing this cruel scene, Huang Ying, who was a girl, almost threw up, and even the old men like Night Cat felt a little sick in their stomachs. But fortunately, after these huge wild boars had gnawed on the rat's corpse, they left after a few turns and did not find Ye Han and the others.

Seeing this, the people hiding in the trees all breathed a sigh of relief, this group of wild boars was much more powerful than the group of rats just now, if they really had to fight these fierce and savage wild boars, the consequences would be hard to predict.

"Shit, is this world going crazy? Wild boars bigger than cows, I've never seen one in my life."

The crowd jumped down from the tree with shocked expressions, this had only just entered the forest and they had seen these incredible things, there was a feeling of a sci-fi adventure blockbuster, it was as if this forest did not belong to the earth, everything in it was too much against the laws of nature, beyond the crowd's understanding of things.

Ye Han said; "There must be a reason for this change, let's move on, but next we have to be a little more careful with our movements, try not to attract the attention of those large creatures in here, maybe what we are encountering now is just an appetizer, the real big meal is still to come."

The crowd nodded, after seeing the madness of this forest, they also put away their contempt, after identifying the direction, Ye Han and the others continued to walk towards the inside of the primeval forest, but this time, Cheng Jun opened the way in front, the others were on guard in the middle, and Ye Han cut off the rear.

Gradually, as they continued to go deeper, they saw many crazy things along the way, such as a sunflower that could only grow to about two or three metres but could grow to a height of eight or nine metres here, a sparrow that was originally the size of a palm outside but was as big as an ostrich here, in short, everything in this forest was crazy.

On the way, Ye Han and his team also encountered a two to three metre tall bear blind, but they were cleverly avoided by Ye Han.

The more incredible things they saw, the more numb Ye Han's nerves had gradually become, but the deeper they went into the primeval forest, the more large animals appeared, and the smaller animals outside had all levelled up here, giving them a feeling of being back in the most primitive ecological environment.

Of course, along the way, Ye Han and the others saw human corpses, which had been gnawed by the large creatures inside the forest, some with only a leg left, some with only half of their body left, and some with only a pile of disgusting internal organs left.

However, just as Ye Han was advancing quietly, a loud noise came from the treetops, a sound that caused the treetops to shake violently and leaves to fall from the sky. Their dark red eyes were staring at Ye Han and the others.

One, two, three huge monkeys were standing on the trees around Ye Han, releasing danger signals of attack.

"Not good, run!"

Although these monkeys were huge in size, they were not slow at all, and were so agile that they were able to walk on the treetops as if they were on level ground. They soon caught up with Ye Han and jumped down from the treetops one by one, launching a fierce attack on them.

Seeing that they could not avoid these huge monkeys, Ye Han had no choice but to take them on, shooting and killing them with the weapons in their hands.

Inside the forest, gunshots were heard everywhere, a tongue of fire kept erupting from the barrel of the gun, the whole battlefield was a bit chaotic, these monkeys were numerous, and attacked fiercely, with agile speed, causing Ye Han and the others to be forced to cope, the guns in their hands posed little danger to them.

“Grandma, these monkeys have become refined!”

At this time, only to see the earth dog being pinned down by a group of monkeys to death, these monkeys seemed to know how to combine their attacks, moving in and out in an orderly manner, cooperating with each other, the earth dog already had some bloody scratches on his body under their attacks, seeing this scene, Crazy Horse cursed angrily, pulled out a grenade and shouted; “Earth dog, scatter!”

At this, the dogs, who were not working with Crazy Horse for the first time, rolled on the ground and instantly hid behind a big tree.

Fortune Chapter 110

Boom!

A terrible explosion rang out, the group of monkeys that had just attacked the earth dog were all blown up into the sky in a bloody mess, Ye Han and the others were far away, so they were not hit by this explosion wave, but such a huge commotion enraged the ferocity in the group of monkeys’ eyes even more, and they attacked even more ferociously and bravely.

“Ah!” Suddenly, Ye Han heard Kunsang let out a miserable scream not far away, blowing away a monkey with one fist, Ye Han’s gaze looked towards Kunsang, only to see that Kunsang’s body had somehow had a centipede over a meter long lying on his body, the long tentacles made the heart tremble, Ye Han flung his hand and shot several golden needles to help Kunsang kill the giant centipede, but around them, besides those crazy monkeys In addition to those crazy monkeys, many other kinds of giant creatures gradually appeared, huge ants, unknown worms, huge snakes with thick thighs In short, snakes, insects, mice and ants all ran out.

After seeing this scene, even Ye Han’s heart was emboldened.

“Go, keep going, don’t stop”

Seeing these giant creatures that kept appearing, Cheng Jun decisively ordered, if the battle continued they would only be torn to pieces alive by this group of special species, without much thought, Night Cat and the others ran towards the inside of the forest one by one, killing those poisonous insects that suddenly jumped out to attack them along the way.

Ye Han and Cheng Jun broke off the rear, both of them throwing grenades at the creatures that were chasing them, the sky shattered with fire and explosions. The sky-rushing fire and explosions kept spreading with the direction Ye Han and the others were running in.

All of them had been running wildly through the forest for dozens of minutes, and with the threat of the grenades, Ye Han and the others had finally pinned down the giant creatures that were chasing after them.

Seeing this, Ye Han and Cheng Jun immediately increased their speed and chased after the Night Cat.

Not long after, Ye Han and Cheng Jun caught up with Night Cat and the others, at this moment, all of them were leaning against a big tree panting heavily, looking very wretched, that big battle and escape just now had made them, a group of people with special abilities, all overwhelmed.

Seeing Ye Han and Cheng Jun returning, Night Cat asked with a ragged breath; "Vice team, that group of big guys didn't come after us, right?"

Cheng Jun was also exhausted enough, leaning over the side and shaking his head, killing with these giant creatures made him feel even more terrifying than facing an expert of the Realm of Rendu Ren, these creatures were not only huge, but also extremely aggressive, they were simply senseless killing machines.

Night Cat gave Ye Han a look and said; "This group of things is too hard to kill, we must find a hidden place to rest next, the earth dog and Kunsang brothers are badly injured, it will be troublesome if they are not dealt with."

Hearing this, Ye Han, who was in the middle of a lucky break, frowned and immediately went to Kunsang and Tu Dog's body and looked at them, Tu Dog and Kunsang were weaker in their group, Tu Dog was best at tracking and scouting, while Kunsang was only a specially trained combat master, the two of them were injured by those poisonous giant creatures in the battle just now, there was dark black blood flowing from their wounds, if they were not treated immediately, it would be troublesome to wait until these poison invaded their bodies.

"Leave it to me."

Saying that, Ye Han took out a golden needle and sealed some acupuncture points and veins in their wound area, isolating the venom from entering their bodies, and then used his spiritual qi to force the venom out of the two people's wounds, not only that, the spiritual qi in Ye Han's body also had an extremely strong recovery effect, after Ye Han finished treating the two people's wounds, they could no longer feel any pain, and the wounds were healing at an incredible speed.

After seeing Ye Han's miraculous methods, although Cheng Jun and the others who already knew that Ye Han knew healing techniques still felt shocked, but now was not the time to think about such things, after Ye Han treated the injuries of Tu Dog and Kun Sang, the two of them could no longer feel the slightest hindrance in their movements, so after resting for half an hour everyone continued to move forward, they had to get out of this forest as soon as possible, they could not stay in here for long.

Of course, after two fights after entering the forest, it made Ye Han and the others even more cautious.

After experiencing these things, Ye Han finally understood how deep the fear of the Four Great Clans was in their hearts about this place, here, even a group of experts like them could not stand it, not to mention the private soldiers raised by the Four Great Clans, the general army basically had no chance of dying when they entered here.

Ye Han checked the map, their current location was already in the centre of this primeval forest, basically every distance they walked they would come across some strange shaped giant creatures.

"Wait, there's something going on!"

At this time, Cheng Jun who was walking in front of them suddenly stopped, there were sounds of fighting coming from the forest not far ahead of them, and there was also a horrible sound of fierce beasts, Ye Han walked to Cheng Jun's side, he looked at the forest in front of him where the sounds of fighting were coming from and said; "It should be someone who came in one step ahead of us, I'll go over and take a look, you guys just wait for me here."

"Be careful." Cheng Jun said as he patted Ye Han's shoulder.

Five minutes later, Ye Han saw a huge wolf, two to three meters tall, and a giant python that was as thick as an adult's thigh, more than ten meters long, at this moment, this giant wolf and the python were fighting a group of people, very fierce, it was like a realistic version of a man versus beast battle.

The three parties joined together, adding up to more than thirty people, but with more than thirty people joining together to fight the giant wolf and python, they still couldn't gain the upper hand, and seven or eight corpses were already lying on the ground.

Seeing this, Ye coldly let out a smile and slowly retreated back, seeing Ye Han return, Cheng Jun immediately asked; "Hanzi, what's the situation up ahead?"

Ye Han said; "It's the Japanese and Guo Yunxiao's men, and the experts from the Horse Gang, they have united the three parties, but these guys are in a rather bad situation, we don't need to bother about them, it's almost dark now, we must find a secluded place to rest for the night and move in tomorrow."

Cheng Jun nodded and said; "I think everyone is also tired, and it's too dangerous to move at night, let's look around later, we must spend this night safely."
