Fortune Chapter 11

The door of the car opened and Lin Baimo's masculine body gave Ye Han a bear hug, laughing; "Brother, I haven't seen you for only a few days, why do I feel that you seem to be a bit different from the last time we met?"

Ye Han touched his face and said with a smile; "Have you? Have you become handsome or have you become ugly? On the contrary, you look like you have a spring in your step, it seems that you have stumbled upon something good."

Lin Baimo gave a thumbs up towards Ye Han and said; "Brother, your eyesight is really high, these days our Lin family has contacted the senior apprentice of the Northwest Medical King, he has promised to come to treat my father some time later, by then with you and the senior apprentice of the Northwest Medical King, my old man's illness might be cured."

Hearing these words, Ye Han was not angry at Lin Baimo for inviting another person, one more person was more certain, and it was reasonable for the Lin family to do so.

Ye Han smiled; "The senior apprentice of the Northwest Medical King, I think it should be very powerful, congratulations to Brother Lin."

"Although the senior apprentice of the Northwest Medical King is formidable, I think more highly of you." Lin Baimo laughed; "Let's not talk about that, I want to bring you to a party today, it will be very useful for your future development in Shanghai City, how about if you are interested in going together?"

After thinking about it, Ye Han nodded his head and said; "Fine, I have nothing to do now anyway."

"Good, let's go, the initiator of today's party is not an ordinary person, I will introduce you to him when the time comes." When they arrived here, Ye Han found many young men and women dressed in fashion, the men were handsome, the women were beautiful, at a glance these people were people of status.

When Ye Han's dress was compared to this place, it was the difference between a peasant and a nobleman, but Ye Han didn't care about this and followed behind Lin Baimo, when he saw Lin Baimo arrive, some people also started to greet him; "Oh, young Lin is here, we haven't seen each other for some days, we have to have a good exchange later."

"Yes, Lin Shao, we're both developing in Shanghai City, we can't be rusty in our relationship."

"Come on, Lin Shao, cheers."

Lin Baimo and Ye Han received the red wine from the courtesy lady, Lin Baimo smiled; "This is natural, we must have a good get-together sometime later, come, let me introduce a friend to everyone, this is Ye Han, a good brother of mine, Lin Baimo."

When everyone saw Lin Baimo personally introduce Ye Han, the initial contempt was also put away, smiling and nodding to him, the person who could make the young master of the Lin family befriend was bound to be not ordinary, Ye Han also smiled at these people, a glass of wine was finished, Lin Baimo looked at his watch and said to Ye Han; “Hanzi, you find a seat first, have something to eat, I will come as soon as I go.”

Ye Han said; “Brother Lin you have something to do first, no need to greet me.”

After that Lin Baimo took Ye Han to a corner and left, Ye Han didn’t know any of the people here, he didn’t bother to talk to anyone, the others didn’t come over to talk to him when they saw how shabbily he was dressed, so Ye Han sat alone in the corner eating fruit snacks and drinking wine.

He was happy to be free when an extremely harsh voice rang out in front of him; “Yo, isn’t this the little white boy that Zhou Yun’er has adopted, a poor little white boy can even get in here, how does the security guard of the Splendid Hotel work?”

When they heard these words, some young men and women looked over, the person who spoke was called Bai Luofei, the young proprietor of Bai’s enterprise, basically everyone here knew him, Bai’s enterprise could definitely be ranked in the top ten among the big enterprises in Shanghai City, seeing that he was looking for trouble with that shabby young man, these people also had the mentality of watching the show, and were whispering about it.

“Oh, dressed like this and still coming here, where is this silly boy from? Isn’t this a premeditated attempt to be made fun of?”

“It doesn’t matter, now that young Zhang hasn’t come yet, this kid Bai Luofei looking for trouble with him is just the thing to give us some fun.”

“But being targeted by this guy Bai Luofei, this kid is in big trouble, funny!”

In the corner, Ye Han casually wiped his mouth and burped, then he slowly raised his head and looked at Bai Luofei who sneered and sneered across from him, the corner of his mouth grinned and said; “I thought it was that dog barking, so it’s Young Master Earthworm, how about it, last time I suggested you to get a facelift, did you go for it?”

“You” Hearing Ye Han’s words, Bai Luofei’s face was icy cold, his contraptions were indeed small, this was his taboo and also his most inferior place, because of this, he didn’t even dare to go to the sauna with his friends, now that he was shaken out by Ye Han, he wanted to immediately kill He had the heart to kill Ye Han immediately.

When other people heard this, their eyes were intentionally or unintentionally looking towards a certain part of Bai Luofei, and some people who knew Bai Luofei well had a flash of understanding in their eyes.

The eyes of some women also changed a bit, and a look of ridicule flashed in the eyes of those who had a crush on Bai Luofei.

“What’s the matter? Young Master Earthworm, I have learnt some medical skills, so I might be able to treat you, although I can’t say that I can help you increase your scale, but it’s absolutely no problem to help you increase your durability.” Ye Han looked at Bai Luofei and grinned, this bastard wanted to fix him, now he didn’t know who was fixing who?

“Little bastard, I grass mud horse, today this young master will definitely get you killed.” He wanted to taunt Ye Han, but now he was in turn humiliated by Ye Han like this, how could Bai Luofei, who already had little connotation, hold back, his eyes spewed fire, and the wine cup in his hand was about to be crushed by him.

“Young Bai, this guy is too rampant, let’s just teach him a lesson.” Some of the people who were following Bai Luofei around saw Bai Luofei suffer a loss, and their faces suddenly looked unpleasant.

“Go on, beat him to death, get rid of this little bastard, I, Bai Luofei, will take the blame if anything happens.”

They didn’t do things like this too often, but before they could make a move, they saw a black shadow fiercely scurry towards Bai Luofei’s position, and then a big five-finger mark fell hard towards Bai Luofei’s face.

Pop!

A very clear and loud sound rang out in the party hall, Bai Luofei’s body was directly sent flying by this slap, and a miserable scream rang out.

My goodness! The young master of the White Company was slapped away, and the person who slapped him away was a poor boy, looking at the boy who was standing quietly with a bland face, the people in the party hall felt a bit unbelievable, this guy really dared to do it! Did he not know who the person he was hitting was?

The slap on the face of Bai Luofei was tantamount to a slap on the face of the Bai family, this slap was too loud!
