Fortune Chapter 111

It didn't take long for Ye Han and the others to find a big tree about three meters in diameter, the roots of this big tree were hollow and it was very dry inside, it would not be a problem for eight or nine people to live in, then everyone cleaned up the tree hole together, Night Cat and Crazy Horse also took the opportunity to go out and get a 30 or 40 catty wild rabbit back, this wild rabbit was fat and big, four or five times the size of the wild rabbit outside.

"Shit, such a big rabbit, it'll give me a good tonic for the night." When the dog saw the rabbit that the night cat had carried back, his mouth immediately became greedy, and then everyone joined hands to make a fire, and those who peeled the rabbit did so.

After an hour, the hare was roasted and the night cat cut up a few pieces of rabbit meat and brought them to everyone. For them, what they had experienced in the forest today was not only dangerous, but also exciting, much more thrilling than those big adventure movies.

Of course, no one wanted to stay here any longer if they could get out as soon as possible.

"No wonder Father never let me go in here. Kunsang smiled bitterly as he ate a piece of rabbit meat, if it wasn't for Ye Han in the forest today, he would have been torn apart by those giant creatures.

Ye Han patted him on the shoulder and said; "Although this place is indeed abnormal, but we can definitely conquer this place and walk out safely, when the time comes, we will go together to find out what exactly caused all this?"

"Don't worry, since I dared to come here I won't be afraid of this place, I'm actually quite curious about it." Kunsang said with a smile.

Cheng Jun said; "If there are no surprises, I think we can get out of this forest by noon tomorrow, so let's all rest tonight and I'll keep watch."

No one refused this, but just as Ye Han was eating the rabbit meat and drinking a little wine, a white figure suddenly came out of the darkness, like a white ghost standing behind Ye Han all of a sudden, looking at the golden rabbit meat on the fire shelf and leaving saliva.

When they saw the white shadow, they were all startled and immediately put themselves on alert, as any movement in the forest would alert everyone. It was a tiger, but its eyes were lime green, its body was white, and it was as big as a cat, which was very small for a giant creature in this forest.

"What the hell is this thing? Let's kill it with a slash, its eyes are oddly oozing." Crazy Horse looked at the pair of lime green eyes of the cat-like tiger creature and said with a little numbness in his scalp, not only him but also the others felt that those eyes had an eerie and weird feeling.

When he heard Crazy Horse's words, the tiger-like creature, as if it had understood his words, stared at Crazy Horse with its green eyes and gave him a low growl.

“Wait first.” Ye Han stopped Cheng Jun who was about to make a move, he threw his rabbit meat towards the little tiger in front of him, the next moment, just at the moment Ye Han threw the rabbit meat, a white light flashed, before even Ye Han and the others could see clearly, the rabbit meat that Ye Han threw out was already in the mouth of that little tiger, swallowing it in one bite, and then looked at the rabbit meat on top of the fire rack behind Ye Han with ravenous eyes.

Seeing this, Ye Han simply threw the remaining half of the rabbit meat over, as they had already eaten and drunk enough anyway.

Under the eyes of everyone, in less than a minute, the half rabbit meat, which was even bigger than it was, was swallowed by the little tiger, but after eating the half rabbit meat, the little tiger’s stomach did not rise at all.

However, after eating the half rabbit, the little tiger slowly walked towards Ye Han’s position and rubbed against his leg, with an intimate and ingratiating look.

Seeing this appearance of the little tiger, Cheng Jun and the others all felt a little incredulous, no matter what kind of creatures they were inside this forest they were all aggressive and could be said to be completely irrational beasts, but this little tiger was obviously different from other species, it possessed its own intelligence.

Looking at the little tiger that had already plopped onto Ye Han’s lap, Cheng Jun and the others all felt a little incredulous, even a real tiger would not be so psychic.

Ye Han’s hand was stroking the little tiger’s body, in the corner where Cheng Jun and the others could not see, there was a strong shock in Ye Han’s eyes, when he saw this tiger just now, Ye Han felt a familiar aura on its body, that’s why he stopped Cheng Jun from shooting it, now that this little tiger was in his arms, Ye Han was even more familiar with that aura.

It was spiritual qi, this little tiger had a powerful spiritual qi inside its body, much stronger than the spiritual qi inside Ye Han’s body, a tiger with spiritual qi in its body, this could be considered a strange story in the world, did this tiger also know how to cultivate?

Of course, Cheng Jun and the others could not feel the strangeness of this little tiger, they were cultivating internal energy, and they were not even sure what aura was.

Ye Han’s heart was very shocked, how on earth could this situation be explained?

Under Ye Han’s touch, the little tiger lay quietly in his arms, and in a short while, it closed its eyes and fell asleep.

When Cheng Jun and the others saw that Ye Han had fallen in love with the tiger, they didn’t say anything and went to the tree cave to rest after they had had enough wine and food.

Ye Han, unable to sleep, took the initiative to take over the night watch, holding the tiger cub next to the fire and thinking about where the source of all the changes in the forest was. And what was the reason? Now, Ye Han’s desire for this answer exceeded his thirst for the mineral veins.

“Brother Ye.”

Just as Ye Han was thinking about these things, Huang Ying came out of the tree cave and sat down next to him, Ye Han looked at her and smiled; "What's wrong, couldn't sleep?"

Huang Ying shook her head and laughed bitterly; "The smell from Brother Night Cat and the others is too heavy, I came out to get some air."

Hearing this, Ye Han stroked her head and laughed, the tree cave was only that big, several big men were all crammed inside, of course the smell was heavy, it was normal that Huang Ying couldn't sleep inside as a girl.

Fortune Chapter 112

"Big Brother Ye, do you like this little tiger a lot?" Looking at the little tiger lying peacefully in Ye Han's arms, Huang Ying curiously touched it, then gave it a hug and placed it on her own body, smiling; "This little tiger is actually quite cute and humane, much more docile than those large creatures we met during the day."

Ye Han laughed; "If you like it, I'll let you sleep with it tonight."

"Good, the smell on this little guy is much better than Brother Night Cat and the others." With that, she was hugging the little tiger and changed to a comfortable sitting position, not caring whether Ye Han agreed or not, before she slowly closed her eyes as she leaned her head on Ye Han's shoulder.

Probably because she felt that Ye Han was not resisting, Huang Ying's mouth showed two little dimples as she slowly went to sleep. The things that she had experienced during the day inside the forest had made everyone tired, and there was a burst of snoring sounds coming from the few guys inside the tree cave.

The night passed quietly and strangely enough, it was a very quiet night, although there were occasional roars of wild beasts in the dark forest, Ye Han's location was unusually quiet, those snakes, insects and rodents that like to be out at night did not appear in their place.

It was already getting light. Cheng Jun's biological clock was on time and they were already awake at half past five, but Huang Ying was still sleeping on Ye Han's shoulder, so they didn't wake her up right away and let her sleep peacefully.

At six o'clock, Huang Ying woke up, woken up by the paws of the little tiger in her arms.

"Hey, little Huang Ying, your saliva is all over your big brother Ye, why don't you hurry up and wipe it off?" Seeing Huang Ying wake up, the mouse who liked to tease her suddenly teased her, hearing this, Huang Ying's face flushed and she hurriedly went to wipe her mouth, but there was nothing at the corner of her mouth, she realised that she had been teased by the mouse, she then glared at him fiercely and said; "Brother Mouse, you still say that, last night it was you and Brother Night Cat who smelt too much that made people come out to sleep."

"What? Little yellow warbler, you can't say that nonsense, if I smelled like me, would your sister Swallow look at me?"

“Fuck you, who doesn’t know that I’m the cleanest man in the seven groups.” Mouse said without a red face.

After he said this, even Cheng Jun despised him, this family really had the nerve to say that?

The little tiger immediately ran to Ye Han’s shoulder and squatted, looking as if he had not woken up, but Ye Han found that the little thing stood firmly on his shoulder, and Ye Han jumped up and down in the forest without the slightest effect on it.

As they continued to go deeper, Ye Han found that the deeper they went, the more large creatures there were inside, and they were even more ferocious and terrifying, even among their own kind they would kill each other and eat each other, the law of survival was extremely cruel.

Of course, as they continued deeper into the primeval forest, large creatures could be found almost everywhere, and Ye Han inevitably encountered some ferocious creatures, but just as Ye Han was preparing for a battle, the little tiger crouched on Ye Han’s shoulder opened its sleepy eyes and roared at the large creatures that appeared, causing those big guys to turn around and run away instantly.

This scene made Ye Han and the others dumbfounded as they gazed at the little tiger, the little thing had scared those big guys away with a roar! What was this? Could it be that the other species had submitted with a shock of the King’s Bastard Qi?

Moreover, did those senseless creatures also have fear? This kind of broke Ye Han’s perception of those creatures here, as they thought that the creatures here were senseless and were not afraid even when faced with the guns and grenades in their hands, so why were they afraid of this little tiger alone?

“This little thing is really something, it can scare away the big guys.” The mouse came over and was ready to touch the little tiger, but not only did the little thing not let him touch it, it almost bit him, scaring the mouse back in a hurry.

“Shit, you’re not going to do anything, if you piss off your grandpa, I’ll roast you and eat you.”

The mouse’s words angered the little tiger even more, standing up on Ye Han’s shoulder and letting out an angry low growl from its mouth, it only quieted down after Ye Han patted it on its body, but the fact that this little thing could shock those ferocious large creatures also made Ye Han curious, all signs indicated that this little thing should not be a simple species.

Cheng Jun came over and laughed; “It seems that Hanzi has found a treasure, this little thing can shake those big guys, we can definitely get out of this primeval forest unharmed.”

Kunsang said; “Right, it’s not too late, let’s hurry up and try to reach the location of the mine vein by noon.”

No one was willing to stay in this crazy primeval forest, so all of them accelerated their pace and rushed forward. This time, Ye Han was leading the way, and with the little tiger around, all the large creatures they encountered on the way avoided them, and they even encountered a cheetah that was two to three meters tall, but this cheetah was also respectful to the little tiger, not daring to offend Ye Han and the others.

Finally, at eleven o'clock in the morning, all of them came out of the forest and came into contact with the warm sunlight.

"Damn it, we finally came out, I was suffocating inside that forest." The rat lamented, and the crowd had such thoughts in their minds, Ye Han looked at the map, which showed that the mineral vein was located in the canyon three kilometres ahead.

Ye Han put away the map and said; "Let's go, let's go and have a look at the location of the mineral vein."

Not long after that, Ye Han arrived at the location of a canyon. The canyon was not high, but when they looked down from above, there were many large creatures in there, Caiwolves, tigers and leopards, giant snakes and so on, basically all the large creatures that they encountered in the forest were here.

"Holy shit, there are still those horrible guys here, and there are so many of them, what should we do?" After the rat said this, the faces of the crowd all looked bad one after another, the number of large creatures inside the canyon was over a hundred, who dared to go in there? Did they come here after all the hard work for nothing?

Perhaps sensing Ye Han's state of mind, the little tiger squatting on Ye Han's shoulder jumped to the ground, walked slowly to the edge of the canyon, and opened its voice and roared, the sound was continuous and strong. The sound carried a terrifying pressure, and even Ye Han and the others had to take a few steps back in the face of this pressure, looking at it with a shocked expression.

But right after the little tiger roared, Ye Han and the others followed and saw the large creatures within the canyon running out of the canyon one by one, the ground shaking, all of them running into the forest they had come from.

"Shit, this little thing here can't be the king of a hundred beasts, can it?" Everyone looked at the little tiger that was back on Ye Han's shoulder at this point, full of incredulity.

Ye Han said; "Forget about that for now, let's go, let's go down, I have a hunch that the changes here might have something to do with this canyon below."

After saying that, Ye Han had already jumped down inside the canyon, the canyon was only about ten meters high, all of them leaped down and then walked towards the inside of the canyon, not long after, Ye Han and the others arrived at the end of the canyon, at the end, there was a cave, a terrifying aura was continuously released from inside the cave, causing Ye Han and the others to stop twenty meters in front of the cave, their eyes had given that cave stare at it.

Fortune Chapter 113

"Is this the vein that our four families have detected?"

Kun Sang looked at the cave in front of him, his eyes were filled with doubt, it wasn't that he hadn't seen a vein before, but inside this cave there wasn't the slightest smell of the kind of vein he was familiar with, what was there was a fearful and terrifying aura gradually released from inside that cave.

"This isn't a vein, it's a spirit mine!"

Ye Han was very shocked in his heart, because the aura that was released from inside the cave was actually all spirit energy, extremely abundant, causing the heaven and earth around the cave to be whistling with spirit energy. The formation of spirit mines was extremely harsh, even in the time of Guigu Zi, it was extremely rare. Nowadays, in modern society with advanced technology and serious industrial pollution, it was even more difficult to find a spirit mine, it could almost be called extinct.

As for those large creatures, they must have entered this cave and absorbed spiritual energy into their bodies all year round, which caused a huge difference in their size, as their tissue cells had undergone a mutation.

However, the creatures inside the forest did not know how to cultivate, and although the spiritual energy entering their bodies strengthened them, it also made them lose their minds. This situation was just like going mad in a martial arts film, when they did not cultivate correctly, they would fall into a state of madness.

Kunsang frowned and said; “Could it be that what our four families detected with the detectors was not a raw stone vein, but some other vein?”

Ye Han nodded and said; “Although it’s not a raw stone vein, it’s extremely useful, to me, it’s a valuable vein, let’s go, let’s go inside the cave and take a look, maybe we’ll have to stay here for a while.”

Ye Han had already had an idea in his heart, this was a rare spiritual mine, he had to cultivate here for a while, and he had to take it for himself.

In this world where spiritual energy was scarce, if he wanted to improve his strength, only a spiritual mine like the one in front of him could help him.

Just as he walked to the entrance of the cave, Ye Han felt a domineering power with a gentle touch start to drill into his body automatically, fusing with the spiritual qi inside his dantian, not separating from each other, but after walking here, Cheng Jun and the others felt their bodies extremely uncomfortable, the power released from inside the cave was different from the power inside their bodies, very repulsive, and the two powers clashed and were destroying their meridians.

“Not good, the power inside this cave is repulsive to us.” After sensing this situation, Cheng Jun and the others decisively backed away, not daring to approach the cave one step. Seeing this, Ye Han thought for a moment and said; “The power inside this cave is aura, while you guys are cultivating internal energy, so it might really be why it is repelling you, Brother Kunsang, what about you? How do you feel?”

Ye Han nodded, Kunsang was not a cultivator, so the aura here was not repulsive to him.

Cheng Jun said; “It seems that only you two can enter this cave, Han Zi, we will wait for you outside, if there is any danger inside you have to exit immediately.”

“Well, big brother Cheng Jun, then you guys should also be more careful.” After saying this, Ye Han and Kunsang walked towards the inside of the cave, of course, Little Tiger still walked in the front, after walking more than ten meters towards the inside of the cave, it was already dark inside, Ye Han and Kunsang turned on the strong torch they brought and continued to move forward.

But inside this cave, the aura was even more abundant, and Kunsang groaned in comfort as he walked inside, the aura entering his body as if all the fatigue in his body had been swept away, and his whole body was full of energy.

In a short while, Ye Han had already reached a hundred meters inside the cave, using a strong torch to shine forward, a huge cave appeared in their sight, entering this cave, the dense spiritual qi inside made Ye Han’s heart let out a wild cry, if he cultivated here his strength would definitely go up in a day, even if Ye Han did not deliberately cultivate, the spiritual qi here was frantically pouring into his body.

The two of them looked around with their torches, and there was a pond inside the cave, with a thick layer of fog rising from it. Ye Han jumped up and used the lighter to light these torches.

Soon, under the light of these torches, the whole cave was illuminated, and Ye Han and Kunsang were able to see the whole of the cave.

The stone walls inside the cave were smooth and three to four metres high, and in the middle of the cave was a foggy pond, and next to the pond was a stone platform, on top of which was a white bone sitting on a stone platform, and there was no telling how many years this person had been dead, but from all the signs, this cave had been carved out by man, and someone had come in here before.

At this moment, Ye Han’s gaze looked towards the stone platform, on which there was a sword next to the white bones, in addition to a blue book, the two of them walked towards the stone platform, Ye Han grabbed the sword with one hand and pulled it out with a clanging sound, the moment the sword was pulled out, it seemed like a dragon’s roar resounded inside the cave, shocking the soul, the cold light was compelling, and an incomparably sharp momentum also instantly diffused.

“What a sharp sword!” Kunsang looked at the sword Ye Han had pulled out and immediately exclaimed in awe, from two metres away, he could feel the sharpness released from the sword.

“It is indeed a good sword, it is only a step more powerful than even my Dragon Scale Dagger.” Ye Han’s finger traced over the blade and gently stroked it, he was very satisfied with the sword.

The Dragon Spring Sword, also known as the Seven Star Dragon Abyss, is said to have come from the hand of Ou Ye Zi, one of the Four Great Sword Makers of the Spring and Autumn and Warring States Periods, and this Dragon Abyss Sword pioneered the cold weapon and was of great significance. During the Tang Dynasty, the word “Yuan” was changed to “Quan” to avoid the taboo of Li Yuan, the ancestor of the Gaozu, and was called the “Seven Stars Dragon Spring”, or simply the Dragon Spring Sword.

“I can’t believe it’s the Dragon Spring Sword!”

Seeing these two words, Ye Han exclaimed, he naturally knew about this famous sword in Chinese history, and now he was actually holding it in his hand.

Fortune Chapter 114

The existence of the Dragon Spring Sword inside this cave surprised Ye Han, as far as he knew, this sword was kept in the National Museum, and now it appeared here, so the Dragon Spring Sword in the museum might not be the real thing at all.

But if the Longquan Sword appeared here, then whose white bones were the ones here?

Ye Han looked carefully and saw that there was a duster behind the stone platform, which was close to weathering. Without thinking too much, Ye Han continued to pick up the blue book on top of the stone platform and read it.

The two sets of sword techniques were called the Great Free Sword Technique and the Yin Yang Two Yi Sword Technique, the leg technique was the Avalanche Leg, and the step technique was the Stepping Cloud Stance.

As Ye Han flipped through the book, he looked backwards, which had some extra topics on it that had nothing to do with martial arts.

“In my later years, I realized that the secret of longevity lies between the two sides of yin and yang, between life and death, so I used martial arts to prove the way, and sat down here to live forever. Death is life, death is life, life is longevity .....

“Death is life, that is, long life?” Ye Han silently recited these words in his heart, how could a person be long-lived after death, wasn't that a contradiction in terms? Moreover, how could there be such a thing as long life in this world?

When he saw the last page, the words “Tong Wei Xian Hua Tian Zun” were written on it, Ye Han was shocked and almost threw the book away.

But the two yin and yang swords and the ladder cloud stance on the book, these are the masterpieces of Wudang, moreover, according to the data, the Dragon Spring Sword was also the sword of Zhang Sanfeng, then, the person in front of him must be that martial arts master.

Thinking of this, Ye Han immediately bowed to the white bones on the stone platform, and he had great respect for this martial arts master.

However, the passage left by Zhang Sanfeng left Ye Han in a bit of a cloud, the secret of longevity, between yin and yang, between life and death, death is life, which is longevity, this is a very contradictory statement.

Ye Han said; “It is Tong Wei Xianghua Zhen Zhen, a famous martial arts master who has shocked the ancient world.”

Obviously, Kun Sang did not know much about Ancestor Zhang Sanfeng's, so he looked at Ye Han with a puzzled expression.

Ye Han continued; “To put it simply, he is the founder of the Wudang School, the real Zhang Sanfeng who started the martial arts such as Taiji.”

“So it was him, I heard that this old Taoist lived for over two hundred years and was a remarkable bull, but I never thought that he would sit down here.” Tong Wei Xian Hua Tian Zun Kun Sang did not know, but he still knew Zhang San Feng’s name, that was a famous person in Chinese history.

Ye Han looked down at this cave, then said to Kun Sang; “Big brother Kun Sang, this place is very helpful for me to improve my strength, I might have to stay here for a few days, later on you go out and tell big brother Cheng Jun and the others, so that they don’t worry about it.”

“Hmm, good, then I’ll leave you alone, I’ll wait outside with them for you to come out.” After saying that, Kunsang went towards the outside of the cave, leaving Ye Han alone in the cave, and of course, the little tiger was also there, swimming happily inside that water pond now.

This pond, also known as a spiritual spring, stood on top of the spiritual mine, and the spiritual energy released from the ground would be transmitted out through the spiritual spring, which was equivalent to a transit station. Ye Han didn’t waste any time and immediately sat down cross-legged next to the spiritual spring and began to enter a state of cultivation.

In an instant, as Ye Han deliberately tried to cultivate, the dense spiritual qi in the cave was like finding a vent, converging towards Ye Han’s body and flowing into his dantian, starting to further strengthen his power.

Of course, the prerequisite was that Ye Han kept cultivating here.

Time passed slowly during Ye Han’s cultivation, and unknowingly, Ye Han had already been cultivating inside the cave for three days, without eating or drinking for three days.

Ye Han knew that after reaching the peak of the early stage of the Peiyuan Realm, he wanted to enter the middle stage of the Peiyuan Realm, which required a certain amount of accumulation, and when he had accumulated enough, he would naturally break through to the middle stage of the Peiyuan Realm.

On the fourth day, Ye Han opened his eyes and did not continue to cultivate, the growth of spiritual energy in his body had entered a slow period. The Great Freedom Sword Technique was created by Sanfeng in his later years, and is about freedom and liberty, travelling freely in heaven and earth.

Ye Han first practised the Yin and Yang Two Yi Sword Technique, which is a Yin and Yang technique, a rigid and a soft technique, with a softness in the rigidity and a rigidity in the softness, creating a new realm of martial arts.

With the Longquan Sword in his hand, every time Ye Han struck out with his sword, a stern sword qi whistled, making the whole cave seem to be filled with a stern aura of killing and destruction.

Of course, Ye Han did not notice this, otherwise he would have exclaimed that this little thing must have become a spirit.

On the fifth day, while Ye Han was practising the Yin and Yang Two Yi Sword Technique, he suddenly felt a burning sensation coming from his belly, as if a surging stream of air was expanding in his belly, and the spiritual qi within his dantian was automatically circulating around, and with each cycle, Ye Han felt his dantian expanding by one point.

As he felt this, Ye Han immediately stopped practising his sword and sat down cross-legged, controlling the spiritual qi in his dantian and absorbing the spiritual qi in the world. After a long night like this, a dull sound came from Ye Han's dantian, and a brand new power immediately ran through his entire body, flowing through his meridians.

This power was even more powerful than the power Ye Han had mastered before, and it was enhanced by a factor of one or two.

Fortune Chapter 115

A breakthrough! Ye Han's heart was overjoyed, cultivating on top of this spirit mine was truly extraordinary, in just five days he had caused his strength to grow from the early stage of the Peiyuan realm to the middle stage of the Peiyuan realm, his strength had increased twice as much compared to before.

After the breakthrough, Ye Han did not leave the cave immediately and continued to cultivate to consolidate his current realm.

However, on this day, the Japanese, Wang Xiaodao and the Horse Gang finally broke out of the forest, they had experienced seven days of life and death struggle in the forest and had suffered heavy losses.

They had to know that when they each entered the forest at the beginning, they basically had more than thirty people in each family.

"Everyone, we are about to reach the location of the mine vein, so this is the end of the cooperation between us." At this moment, only Wang Xiaodao said very coldly, the reason why they cooperated with the Japanese and the Horse Gang was also because they all had difficulty in resisting those terrifying large creatures inside the forest, so they chose to unite together after meeting inside the forest.

But now that they were out of the forest and were about to reach the location of the vein, no one was willing to continue working together, and they would still be enemies with each other when they faced the vein below.

"Hmph, just what I want." The companions laughed coldly twice and led the experts of the horse gang straight away.

The Japanese were led by an under-nin who was about thirty years old, but although this under-nin was not as powerful as Ichiro Gomura, his strength was already infinitely close to that of a middle nin, and when he saw the compounder leave, he also led several under-nin in the direction of the valley.

"Miss Yun, later on we must find a chance to finish off these two groups, this vein can only belong to Guo Shao." Wang Xiaodao looked at the backs of the companions and the Japanese with a murderous look in his eyes.

Not long after, these three parties came inside the canyon coincidentally, and met Cheng Jun and the others face to face, seeing these three parties appearing Cheng Jun and the others were all shocked, these people had been trapped inside that forest for seven days, and they still managed to come out alive?

The companions, Wang Xiaodao and the Japanese were equally more surprised when they saw Cheng Jun and the others, when they entered the forest, Ye Han and the others had not yet entered the forest, but now they had arrived at the location of the vein even earlier than them.

“Hmph, this group of guys are really good, they actually arrived earlier than us, guys, it seems we have to cooperate once more.” Wang Xiaodao looked at Cheng Jun and the others and smiled coldly, hearing his words, the companions and the Japanese all nodded with tacit understanding, they, the remnants who had come out from inside the forest, had no chance of winning against Cheng Jun and the others unilaterally.

Cheng Jun sneered; “I didn’t expect you guys to come out alive, but what’s here already has an owner, I advise you better leave, you can’t eat this piece of meat just yet.”

“Hmph, that we will only know after we have tried it.” The parasite master laughed grimly, and immediately only saw a single parasite crawling out of his body in a dense manner, like swarms of ants moving rapidly towards Cheng Jun’s position.

Seeing this, Cheng Jun’s complexion shook, Night Cat and the others stared in anticipation, and after the compulsion master struck, the Japanese ninja, Wang Xiaodao and Lark all shot towards Cheng Jun and the others, the sound of battle instantly rang out inside the valley, Cheng Jun fought one against two, the steel sword in his hand was incomparably brave, he took on the compulsion master and Lark, Night Cat took on Wang Xiaodao, and the rest of them each looked for their opponents.

The battle soon came to a fever pitch, with Cheng Jun holding out against two men in a very difficult position, as Lark was already an expert on par with him, and with the addition of the unpredictable Compulsion Master, he had little chance of holding off the combined attack of these two men.

But just as Cheng Jun was struggling to hold on, a white light shot out from inside the cave, as if it was a white lightning shot towards the position of the companions, so fast that the companions did not even have time to react, and then only heard a “snort”, the companions’ neck spurting out a large amount of blood, eyes reluctantly fell to the sky. He collapsed.

A single blow, just a single blow, the little tiger had killed such an expert as the companions, which made Cheng Jun astonished, and Lark was also astonished by the sudden appearance of the little tiger, a tiger as big as a cat could have such strong attack power? However, without the threat of the compulsion master, Cheng Jun alone was much easier to face Lark.

However, after killing the compulsion master, the little tiger ran around after those compulsions as if it was not interested in the others, surprisingly using those poisonous compulsions as food.

At this time, Ye Han also ran out from inside the cave, the sound of the fight outside had already alerted him, holding the Dragon Spring Sword, Ye Han directly joined the battle circle, a sword sweeping across, sword Qi, unstoppable sharp power instantly killed four or five people, showing a very strong force value.

Seeing Ye Han come out and kill four or five people with one sword, the Japanese ninja in the lead was horrified and hastily ordered to retreat, but their speed could not match Ye Han’s. With a flash of black light, Ye Han was like a wolf entering a flock of sheep, killing all sides with his terrifying sword qi sweeping away, no one was his enemy with one sword.

After killing the Japanese ninja, Ye Han's body moved and forced Wang Xiaodao straight ahead; "Suffer death!"

When he saw Ye Han coming, a look of horror appeared in Wang Xiaodao's eyes and he hurriedly broke away from the Night Cat and fled towards the distance, but how could Ye Han let him escape, this Wang Xiaodao was the number one henchman under Guo Yunxiao, killing him would be enough for Guo Yunxiao to be unhappy for a while.

Snort!

A sword pierced through his chest, Wang Xiaodao's body was directly pierced by the Dragon Spring Sword, he died very unwillingly and fell down with his eyes open.

Once the companions, the Japanese and Wang Xiaodao died, the rest of them, except for Lark, were no match for Night Cat and they were killed one by one. Looking at Lark, who was still fighting with Cheng Jun, Ye Han's body jumped up high, and then a sword fell towards Lark.

Ye Han was slightly surprised to see this. After his strength breakthrough, his combat power had increased on all fronts, but this woman could still evade his sword, which was really extraordinary.

Without much thought, Ye Han continued to storm towards Lark, his sword qi whistling around him like a continuous wave of the sea, although Lark's stance was fantastic, she was instantly suppressed by Ye Han after he launched his full strength.

"Hanzi, show mercy." Seeing that Lark's life was already in danger under Ye Han's attack, Cheng Jun had to speak up.

Hearing these words, Ye Han picked off the weapon in Yun Quarry's hand with his sword and did not continue to strike at her, killing a woman was something he could not do. Right now, the battle had been settled, and all the three experts, except for Skylark, had died in this canyon.

Fortune Chapter 116

"Girl, you must be a disciple of Master Jing Yi of the Cihang Zhai over in Xiangjiang, right?" Cheng Jun looked at Yun Quarry and revealed her identity and origin in one sentence.

Upon hearing this, Yun Quarry gave Cheng Jun a surprised look and did not reply, sort of acquiescing to Cheng Jun's remark.

In fact, in the Security Bureau's files, there is complete information on which masters the country has and where they are located, after all, these people with special abilities although the state let them free, but control of their information is essential, just now in the process of fighting with Lark Cheng Jun saw her origin.

The first thing I want to tell you is that we are from a state agency, so if you want to help Guo's people in the future, even Master Jing Yi will not be able to protect you."

"You are from the Security Bureau?" Lark finally spoke, though the woman's voice was rather cold.

“Not bad, so I hope you will think clearly about the consequences and not make things difficult for Master Jing Yi.”

At those words, Lark fell silent, helping Guo Yunxiao was also because she once owed Guo a favour, this time it was just to return that favour.

Seeing that Yunque was pondering, Cheng Jun walked over and smiled at Ye Han; “Good guy, it’s only been a few days and you’ve actually broken through, I’m not even sure I can beat you now.”

Ye Han laughed; “This is also thanks to this place, Brother Cheng, get ready, we will leave here later.”

Leaving was inevitable, Ye Han could not always stay here to avoid the world and cultivate, of course, for this place Ye Han would come back, this would be his holy place of cultivation in the future.

Ye Han then walked into the cave and brought out the white bones inside and buried them outside the cave, having inherited this martial arts master’s martial arts, Ye Han had even more respect for him, after doing all this, Ye Han and the others headed towards the primeval forest, the little tiger also followed Ye Han’s side and did not leave.

It was probably because they were all cultivating aura, and Ye Han did not want the little tiger to leave him. Under its company, all of them passed through the primeval forest very safely, and after seeing the little tiger’s strangeness, the lark finally understood why Ye Han and the others had reached the location of the vein even before them.

Of course, it was also true that without the little tiger, Ye Han would not have broken through the primeval forest so easily.

After walking out of the forest, the lark left and Ye Han returned to Tengchong City in the car. At this point, Ye Han’s business here was officially finished, and he was about to prepare to depart back to Shanghai City.

“Brother Cheng, thanks to your help here in Tengchong, remember to look for me when you have time to go to Shanghai City.”

Cheng Jun laughed; “Don’t be so polite, since you’re done with your business, we have to rush back over to Yanjing, I hope we can meet at Yanjing headquarters one day.”

“I’ll definitely consider it.”

Before leaving, Huang Ying said with some reluctance; “Big Brother Ye, you must come to Yanjing to see me sometime, I’ll treat you to Yanjing roast duck then, it’s a deal, no broken promises oh.”

This was not a chance for Ye Han to refuse, so Ye Han smiled and nodded his head and agreed.

After Cheng Jun and the others left, Ye Han booked a ticket to Shanghai City on the same day, and Kunsang sent him to Tengchong Airport. However, in order to bring the little tiger back, Ye Han prepared a coded case, and after drilling a few holes for air, he stuffed it in with the Dragon Spring Sword and Dragon Scale Dagger.

Of course, before leaving, Ye Han also instructed Kunsang to send some men to block the road to the primeval forest. Although there were large creatures as shields in the primeval forest, Ye Han was still worried that someone might break in and discover the secret of the spirit mine.

After getting on the plane to Shanhai City, Ye Han began to rest his eyes in his seat. Although he had experienced many dangers in coming to Tengchong from Shanhai City, Ye Han had made a profit in every way.

Moreover, he had also discovered a rare spirit mine, which would be Ye Han's most advantageous capital, and he would have to make more trips to this side sometime in the future.

"Sir, would you like something to drink?"

At this time, while Ye Han was resting his eyes, a stewardess asked him politely, Ye Han opened his eyes and looked at her, this stewardess was very beautiful, tall, about one meter seventy-five or more, with a melon face, willow leaf eyebrows, and those big soulful eyes that seemed to speak, making her look both beautiful and agile.

The stewardess nodded with a smile and brought a cup of drink to Ye Han, but at that moment there was a bumpy ride from the plane, the pretty stewardess' hand shook and the cup of drink all spilled out and it all poured on top of Ye Han's crotch.

"Ah, sorry, sir, I didn't mean to ....."

Seeing this, the pretty stewardess was in a state of panic and hurriedly took out a tissue and wiped it up for Ye Han, that long and slender jade hand wiping it on top of Ye Han's thigh.

Ye Han was embarrassed and hurriedly grabbed her hand and said; "It's okay, I'll do it myself."

Saying that, Ye Han unobtrusively used his hand to block the old little Ye Han who was already raising his head inside his trousers, seeing this, the pretty stewardess' face flushed, how could she not see that Ye Han had a physical reaction ah.

The more he looked at the pretty stewardess, the more he thought she looked familiar, as if he had seen her somewhere before, so he asked her; "Miss, have we met somewhere before?"

Upon hearing this, the pretty stewardess laughed; "Sir, I can confirm that this is the first time we have met, moreover, your pick-up technique is already outdated, have a good trip!"

After saying that, the pretty stewardess left directly, the good feeling she had just had towards Ye Han was gone after his words, in her heart, she already regarded Ye Han as a type of flirtatious male who liked to pick up beautiful women, this was not the first time she had come across someone like Ye Han who found an excuse to hit on her on the plane.

Ye Han rubbed his nose and laughed bitterly, he really felt that this stewardess looked familiar before he spoke up, but he didn't expect to be taken for a boarder.

When the male passengers around him saw Ye Han defeated, they all laughed with glee. The stewardess they had wanted to take advantage of just now, but like Ye Han, they were all shut out.

Some of the female passengers also looked at Ye Han with contempt, this person was good looking, but I didn't expect that he was also this kind of person.

"Kid, your technique of picking up girls is too tender, I didn't even get that flower, let alone you." A man dressed as a successful businessman looked at Ye Han with a disdainful smile and said.

"Hmph, women nowadays can't be picked up just by their looks, you have to rely on that." Another man rubbed his fingers at Ye Han and sneered.

Ye Han did not bother about the gazes of those passengers around him, after this episode, the plane slowly drove into the clouds, the cabin was relatively quiet inside, some people were reading magazines, some were reading newspapers.

Of course, there were also some people who continued to accost those beautiful-looking stewardesses, stewardesses as a profession, for different people, they have different ideas, some want to conquer them, some want to nakedly possess, some want to have a journey of erotic encounter, but in the final analysis are two words; bed.

However, in the midst of this silence, a voice suddenly rang out causing the people inside the cabin to burst into commotion.

"Robbery, everyone stay in your seats and don't move, I'll kill anyone who moves."

Hearing these words, a commotion came from inside the cabin, some people had forgotten that they were on a plane and tried to stand up and run away, but they were instantly sat down by a group of robbers with guns on their heads, soon, five or six robbers had the whole cabin under control.

Ye Han was awakened by the commotion, he turned his head to look and was speechless, was his luck too bad or too good? He was so unlucky that he could meet the legendary robbers on a plane!

Fortune Chapter 117

There were six hijackers on the plane, and all of them were armed, so I don't know how they managed to get these weapons on the plane.

"We're not after you, but you'd better co-operate, or my bullets won't see eye to eye." A robber with a scar on his face looked at the quiet cabin and smiled coldly, in the other corners of the cabin there were five other robbers in control.

At this moment, the scarred robber looked at a seat at the back of the cabin, where a woman with a sun hat and a pair of sunglasses was sitting quietly, like the others in the cabin, without speaking, but the robber saw her at once.

"Miss Nangong, we brothers have searched very hard for you, now come out and meet you." The scar-faced robber looked at the woman with the sun hat and sunglasses and smiled coldly. Hearing his words, a lecherous smile appeared on the face of another robber in the cabin and said; "Brother, I heard that this Miss Nangong is the pure goddess in the hearts of many people, I really want to have a taste of her! That way even if I die for this vote it's worth it"

Hearing these words, Nangong Zixun's delicate body trembled and she looked around somewhat fidgety, she didn't expect that she would come across a group of robbers when she came out alone to travel for a break, and this group of robbers looked like they were coming for her.

"Humph, crow, you want to move this woman too, I think you are tired of living, there are plenty of pretty stewardesses here, can't hold it in, pull one out yourself to solve it." The scar-faced robber glared at his companion when he heard this, but his words scared the air hostesses who were squatting on the ground so much that their faces turned white.

After saying this, the scar-faced robber once again looked at Nangong Zixun's position and said; "Miss Nangong, come out, don't waste time, my patience is very limited, these brothers of mine are very greedy for you, the big star, you should know what price you will pay if you annoy us."

She looked at the scar-faced robbers and asked, "Who are you people? If you're in it for the money, I, Nangong Zi-xuan, will pay you double."

The scar-faced robbers sneered; "Miss Nangong, your offer is undeniably tempting, but in our line of work, the most important thing is to keep your word, so you'll have to come with us."

"Ah! It's Nangong Zixun, she's Nangong Zixun ....."

The people inside the cabin exclaimed when they saw Nangong Zixun who had taken off her sunglasses, Nangong Zixun was a pure goddess in the Asian entertainment circle, a dream goddess in the hearts of many people, no matter her fame or face value, she was the number one goddess among many female stars.

"Be quiet, all of you!" Seeing the commotion coming from inside the cabin, Crow immediately raised the gun in his hand, scaring the passengers inside the cabin into silence. Crow was satisfied with the effect, but looking at Nangong Zixun's heavenly beautiful face, the evil fire in his heart instantly rose up.

"Damn you, can't help it, do you want me to help you out?"

Hearing these words, Crow, who had been itching for a long time, immediately put away his gun and walked towards the stewardess who was crouching on the ground holding her head with a heated smile.

The stewardesses crouched on the ground screamed in terror at the sight of Crow's ugly black face, they might as well be dead if they were defiled by such an ugly man.

"Damn it, what are you shouting for, I'm not looking at you." Crow cursed angrily at the group of stewardesses, then he pulled the stewardess who had just poured a drink into Ye Han's crotch and laughed lewdly; "You come out here, go."

After saying that, Crow pulled this stewardess and headed towards the washroom, scaring the stewardess so much that she was pale and struggled one after another, her heart was almost desperate.

"Stop, the person you want to arrest is me, why do you want to hurt others?" When Nangong Zihua saw this, she said angrily.

"What, does Miss Nangong want to take her place?" The scar-faced robber laughed coldly indifferently.

“You .....” Nangong ZiXun’s face was very ugly.

The people inside the cabin watched as Crow grabbed the stewardess and walked towards the washroom, what would happen next, there was no need to think about it, Yin Yifei’s heart was completely desperate at this point, the men inside the cabin who had been paying her great attention just now were like dead, none of them dared to stand up for her, she knew that her life would be over, it would be ruined by this ugly and incomparable robber.

Seeing Ye Han stand up, the few passengers who had just laughed at Ye Han were stunned, this kid was crazy? At this moment, he was still thinking about the stewardess, he didn’t want the woman to die, did he?

When Yin Yifei saw that Ye Han dared to stand up for herself, she was touched, although Ye Han might not be able to help her in the end, her impression of Ye Han had changed greatly, at least, Ye Han was much stronger than her other suitors.

“Kid, if you want to save the beauty by being a hero, I’ll send you to meet the King of Hell first.” The guns in the hands of the six robbers were all aimed at Ye Han at this moment, and when Crow saw that someone dared to jump out at this critical moment, he said with a murderous aura

Ye Han raised his hand in a timely manner and said with an apologetic smile; “Everyone, don’t get me wrong, I’m in a hurry, can you let me go first?”

As he said that, Ye Han’s eyes looked towards the bathroom door, hearing this from him, everyone in the cabin instantly despised him, they all thought that Ye Han would jump out to save the beauty from a hero, but little did they know that this guy was actually a goon as well.

Nangong Zixun also despised Ye Han, she also thought that Ye Han would fight with the robbers for the sake of a beautiful woman, staging a heroic rescue scene, but where did she think that this guy was actually in an internal emergency and couldn’t hold it in.

“Wait.”

However, just as that crow pulled Yin Yifei and was about to walk into the restroom, Ye Han spoke again.

Hearing Ye Han speak again, the people inside the cabin were speechless for a while, are you afraid of being suffocated by urine? How dare you speak up!

When the scar-faced robber saw that Ye Han even dared to speak, his brow furrowed and he had a bad feeling in his heart, but at this time, Crow, who could no longer stand Ye Han, shook off Yin Yifei and walked towards Ye Han with a gun in his hand, cursing with a fierce face; “You son of a bitch, do you really think I don’t dare to kill you? I have to kill you today.”

Seeing this scene, the people inside the cabin were startled and hurriedly turned their heads, as if they could already see the scene of Ye Han’s head being blown off by Crow’s gun.

The next moment, the gun went off, the sound of gunshots caused the people inside the cabin to scream in shock, all of them lowered their heads to the ground for fear that the bullets would hit them.

Ye Han fired five shots in a row, except for Crow, including the scar-faced robber and a robber who heard the gunshots and ran out from the cockpit, all of them were shot and fell to the ground, but Ye Han did not shoot them in the vitals, after all, this is a public place, the impact of killing is very big, in terms of strength, speed and marksmanship, this group of robbers would not be Ye Han's opponent, if not for the fear that this group of robbers would shoot indiscriminately and hurt the people on the plane, Ye Han would have shot this group of robbers. If it wasn't for the fear that the robbers would hurt the people on the plane, Ye Han would have killed these guys long ago, so there was no need to do this.

Ten seconds later, the sound of gunfire inside the cabin had stopped.

The people in the cabin all looked up in fear, at this time, Ye Han was smiling and pointing his gun at Crow's forehead, scaring his ugly face to the point of crying out, don't look at this bastard's fierce look, but in fact, he was afraid of death in his bones, especially those who were even more fierce and ruthless than him.

"What did you just say about beating me up?" Ye Han looked at Crow with a smirk, and as he spoke, the gun that was on his forehead had already slid towards the position of his crotch, and a chill instantly ran from his head to his feet.

Feeling this, Crow was so scared that his legs went weak and said with a frightened face; "Brother, don't, don't, don't, don't shoot if you want to talk properly."

If this was shot, Crow would not be able to keep his life.

Bang!

However, in the end, Ye Han still shot, a shot through his thigh, this shot, directly scared Crow fainted, the pain in his thigh did not even make him wake up, Ye Han also smelled a foul smell on his body, this guy was so scared that he pissed his trousers.

Inside the cabin, seeing that Ye Han had subdued the six robbers, some passengers immediately volunteered to stand up and punch and kick those robbers, just now they were terrified by this group of robbers, now that they had the chance to take revenge, they would not let go.

Some people even ran over to comfort the big star called Nangong ZiXun, as if they had subdued the robbers, but to these people Nangong ZiXun didn't care about them at all, she kept looking at Ye Han, she didn't dodge when Ye Han shot just now, every shot from Ye Han hit the robbers' shoulders with unparalleled accuracy, without the slightest deviation, this kind of shooting skill was much better than those bodyguards she had hired.

The robbers were subdued and quickly tied up. The frightened stewardesses also slowly recovered and maintained order in the cabin, but by this time many people looked at Ye Han differently, anyone would now know that Ye Han was just pissing urgently as an excuse, he was looking for an opportunity to subdue the robbers.

In comparison, not only was Ye Han not a wimp, but he was also very manly, brave and resourceful, while the other big, burly-looking men in the cabin were the real wimps.

In a short while, the order in the cabin was completely restored as before, those robbers were all tied up and escorted to a room, around Ye Han, those people who claimed to be experts in getting girls were ready to come over and get close, but Ye Han didn't give a damn about these people, these guys were just like that crowd, they were all timid and fearful masters.

In fact, if this group of robbers had robbed a fortune in peace, Ye Han wouldn't want to care about it, but robbing a woman in front of him and trying to rape her, he couldn't stand to look at it.

"Sir, may I change places with you?" At this time, Nangong Zihua came to Ye Han's side and asked to a man sitting next to him.

"Ah, Miss Nangong, yes, of course you can, please have a seat." The man was flattered when he saw that it was Nangong ZiXun who wanted to change seats with him, and hurriedly stood up, and the surrounding travellers, seeing that Nangong ZiXun had actually sat around him, one by one, scrambled to speak up.

"Miss Nangong, that group of robbers didn't scare you just now, did they? Don't worry, that group of robbers have been subdued, if robbers appear again I will be the first to stand in front of you, Miss Nangong."

"Miss Nangong, please sign for me."

"Miss Nangong, can I treat you to dinner?"

In response to these voices ringing out around her, Nangong ZiXun smiled and said; "Sorry, after what happened just now I am tired and want to take a rest, I hope you will not disturb me."

Hearing these words, the people in the seats around Ye Han all returned to their seats resentfully and gave Ye Han a very jealous look, Nangong ZiXun was sitting here, anyone could know that she was here for Ye Han, but it couldn't be helped, who let this guy subdue six robbers with one gun by himself just now, incomparably flirty?

"Hello, I'm Nangong ZiXun." Nangong ZiXun sat down on the seat next to Ye Han and extended her hand at him with a smile on her face, Ye Han extended his hand and shook her and said; "I've heard of your name, you seem to be a very famous big star, they all like you quite a lot."

"So do you like it?" Nangong Zixun asked with a smile.

Ye Han shrugged and said; "I'm not a groupie, I've just heard of your name, I didn't even know you before."

Ye Han was telling the truth, he had only heard of Nangong ZiXun, whether it was Nangong ZiXun's records or the dramas she starred in he had never watched them, to really say that he had seen Nangong ZiXun was now a first.

"You really don't know me before this?" Nangong ZiXun asked in disbelief.

"Really, I've just heard of your name." Ye Han did not want to deceive such a city-dwelling beauty and answered honestly.

At these words, Nangong ZiXun was immediately struck, there was still someone in Asia who didn't know her Nangong ZiXun, she really had some doubts if Ye Han was from Mars.

"By the way, thank you for what just happened, if it wasn't for you I would have fallen into the hands of those robbers by now, and without you, that stewardess suffered because of me, I would definitely have a bad conscience." Nangong Zixun said.

"No need to thank you, it's just a handful."

Fortune Chapter 119

The plane soon landed at Shanghai City Airport, Ye Han got off the plane with his suitcase and headed straight for the exit, behind him, Nangong Zixun saw Ye Han leaving and immediately walked out quickly, but by the time she came out, Ye Han had long since disappeared.

"This guy, am I that scary? Slipping away faster than a rabbit, I haven't even asked you what your name is yet." Nangong ZiXun was a bit chagrined and muttered to herself, Ye Han had slipped away so fast that she was a bit unsure of her looks, in the past no matter what man saw her he would want to stay with her for a while longer or want to possess her, but Ye Han was a bit respectful of her.

However, apart from Nangong Zixun, there was another person who was also looking for Ye Han. Yin Yifei had been resting after the shock she received on the plane just now, and she had wanted to thank Ye Han in person after she got off the plane and invite him for a meal, but her idea was doomed to fail.

After Ye Han stepped out of the airport, he saw a beautiful figure standing in the distance looking towards him from a distance.

When she saw Ye Han coming, Zhou Yun'er took off her sunglasses, her face happy, Ye Han was alone in Tengchong and in danger, her heart had not been put down during this period of time, but now that she saw Ye Han returning safely, her lifted heart was finally put down.

"Yun'er, I've made you worry during this time." Ye Han walked up to Zhou Yun'er and touched her face, saying in a painful manner.

Ye Han got into Zhou Yun'er's car, but as soon as they got in, in order to vent their thoughts, the two of them kissed furiously, causing Ye Han to have certain reactions very quickly. Sensing Ye Han's move, Zhou Yun'er immediately stopped him and said with charming eyes; "Don't, not here, go back, okay? Tonight you go to my place ....."

With the last sentence, Zhou Yun'er's voice was as small as a mosquito, and after saying this, her face was already so red that it was dripping blood, burying her head dead in Ye Han's chest.

Ye Han laughed heatedly, put Zhou Yun'er's clothes in order and said with an evil smile; "If my wife has an order, how dare I disobey it, tonight I will come as promised even if the world is destroyed."

"Fuck you." Zhou Yun'er glared at Ye Han and hummed softly; "There is a big beauty inside your villa that is even more beautiful than me, don't be unable to move your feet when the time comes."

“Where can I, who else in this world is prettier than my Yun’er, even that big star called Nangong Zihuaun can’t compare to you.” Ye Han shamelessly denigrated Nangong ZiXun who he had just met once.

“Hmph, count on your words, let’s go, let’s go to your house first.” Saying that, Zhou Yun’er started the car towards the Hai Sha Villa area, half an hour later, the car had made it into the Hai Sha Villa area, before he could drive into the courtyard, Ye Han saw that inside the courtyard, Little Qingcheng posed as a little adult and was teaching Ye Qing, as the car drove closer, Ye Han found that Little Qingcheng was actually teaching Ye Qing to practice martial arts, who taught her all this, this girl?

On the balcony on the first floor of the villa, Fire Phoenix was still in a red cheongsam, holding a glass of red wine, at the moment, she was smiling and looking at Ye Han who had returned, she basically knew everything that had happened to Ye Han in Tengchong.

“Ya, brother Ye Han, you’re finally back, Qingcheng has missed you to death.”

The car drove into the courtyard, only when Ye Han got out of the car, this girl instantly jumped into his arms and wrapped him up like an octopus, Ye Han touched her head, only then did he realize that he hadn’t seen her for a while, this girl was actually starting to grow her hair.

“Yes, Qingcheng has been good, every night she sleeps with sister Fire Phoenix, who says that I sleep with her so that I can become as big as her.” Little Qingcheng pointed at her small breasts that hadn’t developed yet and said.

Hearing this, Ye Han’s face darkened, this girl was not too old, but her ambition was already not small, she wanted to grow into an extremely large and fierce weapon like Fire Phoenix! Ye Han looked up at Fire Phoenix on the first floor balcony, what had this damn woman taught her?

However, in the face of Ye Han’s gaze, Fire Phoenix smiled smugly and even shook that pair of extremely fierce weapons, causing Ye Han to feel a sense of the ground shaking in his sight.

Ye Han put down Little Qingcheng and looked at his sister Ye Light and said; “Sister, I’m back, have you been okay this time?”

Ye Qing nodded warmly like a wife, Ye Han came back in fact she quite wanted to go over and hug him, but looking at Zhou Yun’er who was holding Ye Han’s big hand, she retreated, but Ye Han still gave his sister a hug, he hadn’t seen her for such a long time, he quite missed her.

The return of Ye Han made the whole villa seem to have life, everyone was busy, before Ye Han was away, there were only two women and a little girl, although Zhou Yun’er also came over from time to time, but always felt that something was missing, Ye Han came back to make up for that shortage, the family can not be considered a real home without a man.

Looking at the two women busy in the kitchen, Ye Han smiled happily, this is the feeling of home, this life with his sister and Zhou Yun’er he was already content. billion, right?”

Ye Han gave the woman a blank look and said; “You’re really well-informed, but seriously, I really have to thank you for what happened in Tengchong this time.”

“Sure, how would you like to thank me?” Fire Phoenix looked at him with an amused look.

“How do you want me to thank you?” Ye Han stared at Fire Phoenix’s stunningly fierce weapon and grinned; “How about I come to you tonight and give my body to you, this reward should be enough, right?”

“Fine, then, don’t miss your appointment at night, sister is waiting for you.” When Fire Phoenix finished speaking, she burst into giggles, those two extremely large breasts trembled with her laughter, it was spectacular. Ye Han was defeated by this woman, in terms of this aspect, he could only be defeated in front of Fire Phoenix.

“Right, let’s talk to you about a matter of business.” Fire Phoenix looked at Ye Han and said; “This little girl you brought back seems to be a little too demonic, although she doesn’t seem to know martial arts, she has the martial arts of many sects stored in her head, and recently this girl was bored and actually started to teach your sister martial arts, and in this short period of time, she even made your sister cultivate to the peak of the early Qi Sense Realm, it’s simply too incredible, but From this we can also see that in fact your sister is a martial arts training wizard.”

At these words, Ye Han’s brow furrowed as he looked at Little Qingcheng in his arms and said; “Qingcheng, tell brother, how do you know all this?”

Little Qingcheng beamed and said; “All these martial arts skills are what I have seen in the old monk’s library, brother, did Qingcheng do something wrong?”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han pinched her cheeks and laughed; “Qingcheng didn’t do anything wrong, but Qingcheng can’t do things halfway, brother will give you a task, from now on you will be responsible for teaching sister Ye Qing to practice martial arts, okay?”

Ye Qing actually had such a good talent for martial arts training, of course Ye Han didn’t want her to waste it, if she learned martial arts, she would have the ability to protect herself in the future when she encountered danger.

Fortune Chapter 120

The meal was very warm, it had been a long time since I had eaten Ye Qing’s cooking, Ye Han ate five or six bowls in a row, that wolf swallowed the appearance of Ye Qing’s heart ache, after eating the meal Zhou Yun’er left, but the affectionate gaze before leaving made Ye Han’s heart stirred, this woman was hinting to him about the night.

However, it was still early before dark, so Ye Han stayed inside the villa with Ye Qing, teasing Little Qingcheng, occasionally glancing at Fire Phoenix’s pair of big, fierce weapons, the day was very comfortable, in his own home Ye Han did not have to think about those dangerous tricks, here no one would harm, he could comfortably live his own little life.

“Right, Little Han, you’ve been away from Shanhai City for so long, during this time many patients have found their way to the house, do you think you should take some time to meet them?” During the time Ye Han had been away, some powerful people in Shanhai City who had dark physical ailments had come to his villa, but Ye Han was not in Shanhai City, making them pounce over.

Ye Han thought about it and said; "Sister, let's wait for this matter, I thought about it, after some time we open a medical center of our own, then let those patients go to the medical center, always come here for treatment is not a matter, really think that this acre of my land has become their exclusive medical center?"

When Ye Qing heard this, she nodded happily and laughed; "Sister has long been looking forward to you opening your own medical school, then I can also help you look after the medical school, and I don't have to stay at home all day."

Ye Han laughed; "Sister, if the medical school really opens up, you will have your hands full then."

Little Qingcheng immediately raised her hand and said; "I can also help brother, when the time comes, I will help brother together with sister Ye Qing, so that brother won't be tired and sister Ye Qing won't be tired either."

"Qingcheng is so good." Ye Qing gave the little girl a hug, there was such a delightful little girl in the family, Ye Qing was very fond of her, even the fire phoenix could not resist the magic in this little girl's body and hugged her to sleep every night.

The time is close to evening, Ye Han told a lie to Ye Qing, saying that he was looking for something from Tang Da Shao, and then was out the door, but for his words Fire Phoenix pressed not believe, that meaningful gaze looked at Ye Han a heart of weakness, driving his own treasure mother x6 Ye Han towards Zhou Yun'er's villa, remembering what is about to happen tonight, Ye Han's heart is a fire, retaining the eighteen years of divisional cadres. Tonight said what has to go away.

When he arrived at Zhou Yun'er's villa, after opening the door, Zhou Yun'er, who was dressed in a sexy nightgown, looked beautiful, and after removing her light makeup, she looked even more beautiful, like a white snow lotus, and her body exuded full charm.

"What are you staring at, why don't you hurry in?" Seeing Ye Han's dumbfounded look, Zhou Yun'er dug him a glance.

Hearing this, Ye Han giggled and said; "Yun'er, you're so beautiful!"

"What, do you mean I'm not pretty on a regular basis?" Zhou Yun'er hummed lightly and turned around to walk inside the villa, that angry look had a different flavour.

Ye Han immediately followed behind her, took her hand and said; "How could I, my Yun'er is even prettier than other women when she is angry, I don't know how many lifetimes I have spent knocking wooden fish before I can marry you in this life, come on, good girl, don't be angry, give Master a smile."

"Wait first, not here, it's time to be seen later." Seeing the movement of Ye Han's hands, Zhou Yun'er's mouth suddenly let out a delicate cry and hurriedly walked inside the living room and sat down.

"What's wrong, it couldn't be that Grandpa Zhou is here, could it?" Ye Han's heart was startled as he sat down and carefully looked around inside the house.

"Grandpa has gone to big brother Lin's house, he won't be back tonight." Zhou Yun'er blushed, that voice was as small as a mosquito.

On hearing this, Ye Han smiled heatedly and picked Zhou Yun'er up as soon as she cried out and walked directly upstairs towards the bedroom. Zhou Yun'er buried her head in Ye Han's arms, her little heart was pounding non-stop for what was about to happen, her heart was very nervous, but having already decided, she didn't resist.

When they arrived at the bedroom, Ye Han placed Zhou Yun'er gently on the big bed, and as they looked at each other, Ye Han said softly; "Yun'er, don't you regret it?"

Zhou Yun'er shook her head.

The next scene was inappropriate for children, but it was not until eleven o'clock at night that the sounds inside the room gradually stopped, and at this moment, Zhou Yun'er was already limp in Ye Han's arms like a cartilaginous animal, with no strength in her body.

Looking at the woman in his arms, Ye Han felt a pity in his heart, from now on, they were truly indistinguishable from each other, you had me, I had you.

"How is it, is it better?" Ye Han put his arm around Zhou Yun'er and asked with a smile.

Ye Han smiled sarcastically and immediately changed the topic and said; "Right, the raw stones from Tengchong should have been shipped over, right?"

Zhou Yun'er nodded as she leaned into Ye Han's arms and said lazily; "It was shipped over before you came back, what do you want to do with that natural jadeite? You won't really take it to auction, will you?"

"Why not?" Ye Han smiled; "Letting your Zhou's Jewelry auction it will definitely attract many people, it's an opportunity to make Zhou's Jewelry Zhou famous, and I've already made a deal with the Kun family over in Tengchong, the Kun family has decided to give us a seventy percent share of the annual raw stone factory volume."

"Really!" Hearing Ye Han's words, Zhou Yun'er sat up at once, but the pain coming from her body caused her face to suddenly turn white for a moment.

"Alright, don't move around, is it hard for me to lie to you?" Ye Han patted down on the woman's fragrant shoulder.

Hearing Ye Han's words, Zhou Yun'er glanced at him with her charming eyes, her eyes watery and hazy; "Seventy percent share, husband, I don't even know how to thank you, with these raw stone volumes, our Zhou's Jewelry can definitely slowly rise to become a large domestic jeweler, it's all thanks to you."

"Hey, hey, how about we ....." Ye Han looked at Zhou Yun'er's hot and delicate body and smiled evilly.

Hearing these words, Zhou Yun'er's scared body trembled and looked at Ye Han pitifully, this bastard is really a tireless cow!

"Look at how scared you are, I'm teasing you." Ye Han laughed.

Upon hearing this, Zhou Yun'er instantly kissed Ye Han on the cheek and continued; "But that natural jadeite I really don't want to sell it, wouldn't it be better if it was used as a treasure for the shop?"

Ye Han shook his head at Zhou Yun'er, then smiled mysteriously and said; "Whoever wants this piece of jadeite can take it, I have a better one for you."
