Fortune Chapter 12

“You people have too foul a mouth.”

Ye Han eyes coldly looked at Bai Luofei, for him, he didn't care who the person he smoked was, relatives were his taboo, cursing his mother, he didn't knock this grandson's teeth out was already merciful, fuck Bai's business.

“Fuck me, day oh! You dare to hit young Bai, brothers, let's fuck him.”

“Yeah, let's fuck him up.”

The few people with Bai Luofei came to their senses after being blinded and rolled up their sleeves to beat up Ye Han, not to mention that these people had really developed good muscles from going to the gym every day.

With the practice of Qi training, Ye Han's strength was several times greater than that of an ordinary person, so it was not something that these rich young masters could just do.

The people around him were sweating furiously, this guy was too bold, he had smoked Bai Luofei and now he had beaten up several other people as well, this was good, things were getting bigger and bigger, but Ye Han's strength also made the hearts of the people in the party hall tremble, three punches and two kicks had knocked over several of Bai Luofei's people, this man was no ordinary ordinary person.

Some of the women saw how fierce Ye Han was, their eyes were full of different colours, if Ye Han was richer, they would have to take the initiative to stick it to him, women, don't they all like powerful men!

“Oh, young master earthworm, too small to find me to take it out, no, beaten, I suggest you go to give a facelift, restore some manly bottom, really can not, simply go to Thailand to become a human demon, this profession is now very promising.” Ye Han looked at Bai Luofei, who was lying on the ground and wailing, and said with a look of indebtedness.

The corners of the surrounding spectators' mouths twitched, this guy, this mouth was too poisonous, not only did he smack someone, but now he even humiliated them, a man could not bear to hear it.

“Ouch! I dare you to hit me, I, Bai Luofei, will make you die without a burial place, you wait for me, I will kill you today, kill your whole family.” After being slapped by Ye Han, and in front of a dignified person in Shanghai City, Bai Luofei was about to go crazy, covering his face and struggling to stand up, pointing at Ye Han and cursing.

Hearing these words, Ye Han's eyes were cold as he walked over and kicked that Bai Luofei to the ground, his hands opened up on his face again, the coherent sound of slapping instantly resounded inside the party hall.

“Threaten me, get my whole family killed, believe it or not I'll get you killed first now.” Ye Han's heart really got a little cold, and he didn't care at all that this was there, one slap after another landed on that Bai Luofei's face, directly beating that Bai Luofei louder than the screams of a killing pig.

Seeing such a terrifying and carefree side of Ye Han, the few people who were with Bai Luofei at the beginning backed away in fear, not daring to mention the words “fuck Ye Han to death” anymore, they didn’t want to be smashed into a pig’s head like Bai Luofei.

Seeing that Ye Han showed no sign of stopping, someone couldn’t help but say; “Friend, you’ve had enough of your anger, you should be able to stop, smacking the faces of people in our circle in front of so many people in Shanghai City, I hope you know how to advance and retreat, don’t provoke the anger of the public.”

“Not bad, friend, although you are smacking Bai Luofei’s face, but in the end, you are also ignoring our Shanghai City young generation as a circle, it’s time for you to stop.”

The two people who said this were more established in Shanghai City, just like that Bai Luofei, and their families had interests with the Bai Enterprises, as soon as they opened their mouths, many people stood behind them and looked at Ye Han coldly, they were from the same circle, if Ye Han was bent on going his own way, then it would not only offend the Bai Enterprises.

Hearing their words, Ye Han looked up at them and gave Bai Luofei a resounding slap with his hand, this time he completely made the eyes of the two people who had just spoken gloomy, Ye Han, this was not giving them face.

“If I say I won’t stop, what will you guys think?” Ye Han stood up and looked at those two with a playful smile, for these people in front of him, Ye Han felt that he had to be ruthless with them, he had to be tougher than them, otherwise he would really think that he, a poor boy, was easy to bully.

“You can try, but I guarantee that if you are bent on having your own way, then you definitely won’t be able to walk out of this door of the Splendid Hotel today.”

“Hmph, even if you can walk out of the Splendid Hotel, I can still make you die on the street, anyone here has the strength to do that.”

Looking at the cold faces of these people in the party hall, Ye Han smiled, but it was a cold smile, this is the power that comes from having money and power, no one can ignore it, if it was the old Ye Han then he would be scrupulous and choose to put up with it, but the current Ye Han was not the old Ye Han, he didn’t have to put up with it.

“Hmph, what a big mouth, who wants my brother Lin Baimo’s corpse on the street, bold enough, stand out and let me have a look.” At this moment, two men and a woman came from the door of the banquet hall, and the one who spoke was Lin Baimo, he heard this as soon as he entered the door, he could be said to have his lungs exploded with anger, Ye Han was a guest he had invited, moreover, he recognized his good brother, now there was someone who threatened him and wanted him to die across the street.

The crowd in the party hall turned around and looked at the two men and one woman who walked in. Everyone knew these three except the woman, the one aged twenty-eight was Lin Bo Mo, the eldest son of the Lin family, while the other youth was the initiator of the party, the one everyone in Shanghai City wanted to befriend, from a certain red family.

“Young Zhang, Young Lin!” In unison, everyone opened their mouths and shouted at the two men, don’t underestimate Lin Baimo, he was a top gentry in Shanghai City, and the background of the Lin family was also quite scandalous.

Lin Baimo walked towards Ye Han with a gloomy face, he was half responsible for Ye Han being bullied by the gentry here; “Hanzi, how is it? That son of a bitch bullied you, tell big brother, humph, in Shanghai City I see who dares to bully my brother.”

Hearing Lin Baimo’s words, the hearts of the people in the gathering hall were stunned in unison, this guy who had beaten up Bai Luofei was actually Lin Baimo’s brother, boy, this was something! Fortunately, they didn’t target Ye Han just now, otherwise it would be a very dangerous thing to be held against Lin Baimo.

The two people who had spoken up for Bai Luofei also shut up at this moment. They could face Ye Han, but they didn’t have the guts to face Lin Baimo, there was a difference in rank and background.

Ye Han smiled and said; “Big brother Lin, it’s nothing, just a guy looking for trouble, Nuo, I already beat up his mother.”

At those words, the woman standing beside that young man Zhang snorted with laughter and looked with where Ye Han pointed, but no, young master Bai had already been beaten into a pig’s head, grunting and lying on the ground, looking like he was dying.

“Hmph, so it’s this kid, Hanzi, good beating, someone, throw him out to me, pull him into the blacklist, from now on the Splendid Hotel will not receive any guests from Bai’s enterprise.” The moment these words came out, everyone in the party hall was shocked, these words were tantamount to considering the Bai’s enterprise as a rival, for a poor boy, Lin Baimo actually made such a decision, instantly, Ye Han’s status in everyone’s heart changed.

After dealing with this, Lin Baimo said to the youth beside him; “Young Zhang, sorry, this party would have been hosted by you, I hope you won’t blame Baimo for overstepping his bounds.”

“Oh, where are your words brother Lin, your brother is my brother Zhang Shaoyu, it is only right for a brother to be bullied, come on, let’s all drink to this party, I hope we forget about the unpleasantness and get high.”

As soon as they heard these words, all the people in the party hall raised their glasses and drank together, then the party really started, everyone began to look for people to talk to, such as this kind of party is generally a networking, good talk, common goals can be friends.

Ye Han was pulled by Lin Baimo to sit down on the same sofa, and Zhang Shaoyu at the same table, four people at a table, Lin Baimo introduced to Zhang Shaoyu; “Zhang Shao, this is the friend I told you about, his name is Ye Han, don’t look at his young age, but he has extraordinary medical skills, you should know the old man Zhou Mingshan, last time he suddenly fell ill, it was my brother who brought him back from the He was brought back from the gate of death.”

“Oh, so he is the miracle man that Brother Lin is talking about!” Zhang Shaoyu seemed to be attracted, his eyes fell on Ye Han’s body, even the woman who did not speak looked towards him, they came to Shanghai City this time originally to explore the market of people, but from Lin Baimo’s mouth they knew about Ye Han's existence and had been curious, what kind of strange man even Lin Baimo praised so much.

"I can't talk about a strange man, it's Brother Lin who praised me too much." Ye Han said with a faint smile.

Zhang Shaoyu laughed; "Brother Lin doesn't often praise people, in all the time I've known him, I've never seen him really praise anyone, Brother Ye Han is the first one, this is enough to show that Brother Ye Han is definitely someone with real ability, come, let's share a drink, let's all come together often in the future."

The four of them drank a glass of wine and the atmosphere was enlivened, then Ye Han inquired and learnt that this Shaoyu was from Yanjing and came from a certain red family, which had a background at all levels, as for the woman, she was also from Yanjing and was only known by the surname Han, other information was vague, but like Ye Han, she generally did not speak much and just listened quietly to Lin Baimo and Zhang Shaoyu talking.

After a few people chatted for a while, Zhang Shaoyu said to Ye Han; "I wonder what Brother Ye Han has been doing lately, do you have time? If I am not busy, I would like to invite Brother Ye Han to Yanjing for a visit, to be honest, my father has some minor health problems, but the cure has not taken root for a long time, so I would like to ask Brother Ye Han to help take a look."

"If young Zhang recognises me as a friend, just call me Hanzi like big brother Lin." Ye Han said; "As for going to Yanjing, I am really sorry, my medical studies are limited now, so I am afraid I cannot go there for the time being, but it will take a year more or less than half a year, when I am successful in my medical studies, I will definitely go to Yanjing to look for you at that time."
