Fortune Chapter 14

“You are not sick in the head, this is a piece of raw stone scrap, why do you buy it?”

Hearing that Ye Han wanted to buy that piece of raw stone scrap, Zhou Yun'er broke away from Ye Han's salty hand and directly rolled her white eyes, this kind of raw stone scrap was the rubbish that other people threw away, but he was good enough to treat it as a treasure.

Ye Han let out a deep breath and gave her a look; “What do you know, a phoenix can come out of a mountain chicken, let alone this piece of raw stone, ask me how much this piece of stone costs, I want it.”

“Look at you, I really regret bringing you here.” Zhou Yun'er hummed in exasperation and said; “Well, don't blame me for not reminding you if you lose, but I don't think this kind of raw stone scrap will cost much.” As she spoke, Zhou Yun'er snapped her fingers not far away, and soon a man in a suit came towards her; “Hello, Miss Zhou, what can I do for you?”

Zhou Yun'er pointed at the raw stone scrap and said; “My friend has taken a fancy to this stone, how much do you want for it?”

“Uh!” Hearing Zhou Yun'er's words, the man was obviously stunned, the raw stone scraps were no different from ordinary stones here, they were not sold at all, if there were too many piles they would be pulled out and thrown away, where would anyone be willing to pay for these stones? But out of professionalism, he smiled and said, “Miss Zhou, you are a regular customer here, it's just a piece of scrap, just take it if you like.”

“All right then.” Zhou Yun'er nodded her head, even if a piece of scrap didn't cost much, she didn't want to spend money on it even if she was a connoisseur of gambling stones, it was too unfair.

“Wait, I don't want something for nothing, how about I pay three thousand for this piece of scrap?” Ye Han heard the conversation between the two at the side and couldn't help it, others didn't know the value of this piece of scrap, but he knew it, later on when the stones were solved all went up, it would be bad if the people here backtracked.

He looked at Ye Han and said, “Little brother, it's just a piece of raw stone scrap, why are you so insistent?”

His voice was so loud that some of the gamblers around him heard it. Is that possible? She was a connoisseur in the gambling world, and now the person she had come with was buying a piece of scrap that no one wanted, it was too degrading.

Ye Han was like a dead pig not afraid of boiling water, he looked at the man and said; “Whether it can come out green or not is anyone's guess, you are in business, I buy and you sell, it's business, even if I lose money it's my own business, what does it have to do with you?”

“Humph, since you insist, this piece of scrap is sold to you for three thousand, little brother, I wish you a big rise.” The man sneered.

Ye Han laughed, then he looked at Zhou Yun'er who looked a little embarrassed and said; "Big beauty Zhou, just pay, after you pay, let's go and unravel this piece of scrap and have a look, maybe with that one cut, brother will be a billion dollar account."

"Oh, you're too whimsical, little brother, a mere piece of scrap can't be unraveled to produce green." An onlooker laughed.

"Hey, if this piece of scrap can turn out green, then even a fucking sow can get on a tree."

"Isn't it, but this little brother is willing to play, so let's just take a look, just to relieve the boredom."

"Miss Zhou, this fellow beside you is really different, in this business of gambling stones to pick up a leak, it is more difficult than winning the lottery, too delusional."

Listening to these voices around her, Zhou Yun'er felt blushing, although these people were not talking about her, but Ye Han was the one who brought her, a connoisseur of gambling stones, and now the person she brought was actually going to buy a piece of scrap, it was too humiliating, so she quickly took out three thousand yuan and then left, Ye Han took matters into his own hands and followed with the piece of scrap in his arms.

"Shame on you, why do you guy have to buy this piece of scrap, you want to embarrass me, don't you?" Zhou Yun'er dug at Ye Han, she really regretted bringing him here, Ye Han looked at her without saying anything, and quickly walked towards a stone solving machine, next to that stone solving machine, an old man was squatting with nothing to do, waiting for others to come and solve the stone.

Ye Han walked up to this old man, put down the original stone and said; "Old man, please help me unlock this stone."

When the old man heard this, he looked at the stone that Ye Han had placed on the ground, and his old face was immediately happy; "Young man, you threw it out of the waste, I think it's better to forget about it, I've never seen anyone who could turn a thatch pit stone into a golden treasure in all the years I've been working here."

Hearing this, Ye Han was speechless, just because others couldn't, didn't mean he couldn't. Today he was going to show how this piece of scrap that everyone couldn't see could be turned into gold.

"Ye Han, I think it's better to forget about it." Zhou Yun'er also did not think this piece of scrap could turn out green, and went forward to advise.

Ye Han laughed as he looked at the old man and said; "If you don't want to solve it, then lend me this machine and I will solve it myself."

The old man smiled and didn't say anything, but also acquiesced, then Ye Han directly lifted the stone solving machine with both hands, opened the electric door, the yin and yang magic eye opened, the situation in the original stone as transparent in his sight, snorting, the stone solving machine began to slowly cut down towards the edge of the original stone, a little bit deeper, the ear-piercing friction sound booming, Zhou Yun'er saw Ye Han so stubborn, only to helplessly smile, with big eyes open In fact, she was a little curious as to why Ye Han had to buy this piece of scrap stone.

But what she had in mind soon had an answer, as Ye Han removed the friction around the original stone, a bit of extremely blinding green light like a fire in the dark night suddenly lit up, after seeing this scene, Zhou Yun'er immediately exclaimed, the beautiful pupils full of disbelief, waste, a piece of waste really green, although for the time being do not know how big the chance of rising.

When he heard Zhou Yun'er's cry of surprise, the old man who had not bothered to take a look also looked over, and when he saw the little green light, he immediately stood up and slowly approached Ye Han with trembling hands; "It's green! It's really green! It's incredible!"

A stone stirred up a thousand waves, the word "green" was quite sensitive in the gambling factory, and everyone who heard these three words had their eyes on this side.

"It is indeed green, and the scope of green is expanding, no, this piece of raw stone is going up."

Soon, one to twenty people gathered around Ye Han, their eyes all fell on the scrap stone in Ye Han's hand, looking incredible!
