Fortune Chapter 151

“Could it be Impossible! Impossible!!!” Ning Haotian seemed to have thought of a certain possibility, his shocked face also had an ice-cold colour crossing it, if Ye Han had really learned this carving technique just now, then this talent would be too terrifying, and in the future, it would be difficult for his Ning Family to gain a foothold in this area at all.

When he thought of this, Ning Haotian’s heart was suddenly filled with a thick murderous intent, and although he did not show this murderous intent, it was still felt by Ye Han.

Of course, Ye Han didn’t have time to worry about what others were thinking for the time being, at the moment as he went to carve with all his heart, those lines on the jadeite in his hand just now had become clear, it was a pair of legs, a pair of slender beautiful legs, these legs were wearing a pair of soft textured trousers, similar to the kind of casual trousers.

“Did he really want to carve a human statue?” Seeing this, the surrounding crowd exclaimed, carving a human statue, this was considered the most difficult choice among carvings, because even if carving a human statue carved the outline of a person, but it was difficult to add the person’s divinity, face, temperament and many other aspects to it, those who could carve a real human statue with a realistic form even carving masters like Zhou Mingshan and Ning Haotian had to carefully ponder and be cautious before they had a chance to create it, and Ye Han, could he carve out the human statue?

Right now, after knowing Ye Han’s thoughts, everyone in the hotel had their eyes firmly fixed on his movements.

Zhou Yun’er is also the same, just now Ye Han said carving a beautiful woman out, she thought that this statement was in jest, now Ye Han is actually doing it in this direction, her pair of beautiful eyes are both worried and looking forward to it, Ye Han, always able to surprise her, this time will it be too?

“This guy” Zhou Mingshan gave a bitter laugh, Ye Han’s own choice was a bit too difficult, although he did not know how Ye Han learned Ning Haotian’s “shaking strength”, but even if Although he did not know how Ye Han had learnt Ning Haotian’s “shaking strength”, even with his exquisite skills, it would still be difficult to complete this work.

Behind the screen, Chen Jianye’s and their gazes were also glued to the computer screen, Ye Han’s current movements were a tight attraction to them, and now, they all wanted to know if Ye Han would really be able to make this choice of his own and carve out this portrait piece next.

“Oh, this guy is quite good at attracting people’s attention, the whole room can be watching him perform now.” Chen Jianye took a sip of tea and smiled lightly as Ye Anbang laughed; “This kid’s technique of placing the knife is equally impressive, much more powerful than even that Leng Fan just now, like an old man who has been engaged in carving for many years, calm and sophisticated, meticulous, although his choice was indeed a bit difficult, but in the end, even if he didn't finish this work, in terms of carving skills he has actually surpassed that Leng Fan."

"Indeed, the king of northern gambling stones, Ning Haotian, has come to kick the pavilion today, and I'm afraid he's mentioned the iron block."

Inside the hotel, Ye Han was still carving on top of the jadeite with a small knife in his hand, that concentrated look was as if he was treating his woman, half an hour later, on top of the jadeite, most of the body of this portrait had been carved out completely, from the carved out picture it looked like this was a very beautiful and extremely well-built woman, because this complete body had already finalised the perfection that Ye Han was going to create next. The picture.

But when he reached this point, Ye Han stopped and slowly closed his eyes, his hand holding the knife hesitantly, because the next thing to be carved was the most important part of the portrait, the head, which could be said to be the most difficult, because a person's demeanour and rhythm had to be reflected from it.

Seeing Ye Han stop moving, the crowd in the hotel did not say anything, because they also knew how difficult the next part Ye Han had to finish was, and it could be said that whether this piece could be successfully completed depended on this next hurdle.

"Hmph, what, is this high apprentice of ours, the King of Southern Gambling, no longer able to do it?" Seeing Ye Han stop, Ning Feng immediately sneered at the side, but at this moment, except for this Ning Feng, no one present could question Ye Han's carving skills, because just now Ye Han had already proved his carving skills with his own practical actions, even if this next piece was really not completed, his carving skills were not necessarily inferior to that Leng Fan's, this was clear to Leng Fan himself, so he did not. Although he admitted that Ye Han's skills were no weaker than his, he did not believe that Ye Han could create a portrait work.

"Shit, you're howling, Hanzi is already a bullying figure for being able to carve like this, try it if you can." Hearing Ning Feng's words, Tang Da Shao had a displeased face, for Tang Da Shao, Ning Feng had already learned, this man was a rogue dressed like a human, full of dirty words, he didn't bother to bother.

But just then, Ye Han suddenly opened his eyes and moved again on top of the jade, the carving knife began to carve on top of the jade with ease, not stopping at all, that dashing and easy demeanour looked at the people around in awe, the current Ye Han was even more stunning than just now, that look as if he was a master carver, with an extraordinary temperament.

In a few moments, the outline of a head was completely out, all that was left was to carve out the nose, eyes, ears and mouth, which were the key parts. As masters of carving, they were most aware of how difficult this level was. If they were in their shoes, they would not have been able to do it as freely and calmly as Ye Han.

Not long after, under the watchful eyes of the hotel, the moment Ye Han finished carving the eyes of the portrait, a lifelike, elegant, tall, extremely realistic and beautiful female portrait appeared in front of everyone's eyes, this is a beautiful woman, carved out of a beautiful woman, if this portrait is painted with colours, then this portrait work will be the same as a real person photographed by a camera.

“A masterpiece, a complete masterpiece!” All around, voices of amazement rang out instantly, followed by a succession of exclamatory whispers within the hotel, as everyone’s eyes looked at the portrait work on the table, their amazement became completely boiling.

Although it was not true that no one had ever seen a portrait before, the shock of seeing such a lifelike masterpiece born right in front of their eyes hit them hard.

At this moment, Zhou Mingshan had become somewhat dumbfounded, he looked at Ye Han in a daze, wasn’t this disciple of his a bit too demonic?

Fortune Chapter 152

“A masterpiece, it can definitely be called a masterpiece!”

“Yes, Mr. Ye is so young to be able to carve such exquisite portraits out, with this craft, he can totally be called a master.”

“Old Mr. Zhou, to be able to teach such an outstanding disciple, congratulations!” The guests around started to congratulate towards Zhou Mingshan, hearing these words, Zhou Mingshan let out a bitter smile in his heart, for Ye Han, he hadn’t taught him anything yet, but the fact that his own disciple was so outstanding also made Zhou Mingshan very pleased and proud, in comparison, Ning Haotian’s disciple had absolutely no qualifications to show off in front of this disciple of his.

“Holy shit, this woman is too beautiful, but why do I feel a bit familiar, sister Yun’er, you feel it?” Tang Da Shao’s eyes were glowing as he looked at the portrait, but the more he looked at it, the more he felt that it looked a bit familiar, Zhou Yun’er’s whole body was astonished after seeing Ye Han carve such an exquisite masterpiece, and now when she heard this from Tang Da Shao, her heart jumped and she looked carefully at the portrait, which wasn’t it none other than herself!

“Bring the brush.” Just then, Ye Han said, someone inside the hotel immediately brought the brush, then Ye Han took the brush and began to paint on top of the portrait, not long after, a lifelike beauty appeared in front of everyone’s eyes, this beauty’s demeanor, body shape and charm was as if it was taken by a camera, no, this portrait was even more charming and beautiful than the one taken by a camera, the slightly upturned corners of the mouth with the smile of a captivated city, a slight smile that is very captivating.

In an instant.

The whole hotel was abuzz!

“Oh my God, this carving is Miss Zhou herself, it’s so similar, it’s nothing like the real person at all, it’s even more beautiful than the one taken by the camera.”

“A hand of God, simply a hand of God! To be able to carve a person so divinely and exactly like the real person, I’m afraid there are not many people in the whole world who can be found.”

All around, it became shocking and boiling, even Chen Jianye and Ye Anbang, in terms of the art of carving, who could carve a person so much like this? It was completely carved out of the same mould as the real person, a craft that even masters like Zhou Mingshan and Ning Haotian would find it difficult to achieve.

At this moment, Zhou Yun'er felt as if she was drunk, her whole body was intoxicated by Ye Han's sudden surprise, immersed in that sea of happiness and emotion, unable to extricate herself, did this little man want to be moved to death!

"Oh, what a surprise! Dear Ye, your hands are just like God, it's amazing, this piece is so beautiful, you are really the most romantic man in the world!" Alice looked at the statue of Zhou Yun'er in Ye Han's hand, her eyes were instantly flooded with countless stars and adoration.

At this moment, not only was Alice worshipping Ye Han, who within the hotel was not, this youth in front of her was like God, who was creating life.

"Genius!"

At this moment, even Ning Haotian had to give a praise, although Ye Han had beaten his disciple in the art of carving, in all fairness, his disciple was so far behind this youth in front of him that even he did not dare to show off in front of this youth at this moment.

Leng Fan lowered his head at this moment, he had lost, lost completely, coming with high pride and about to leave with his reputation in tatters.

"Damn it!" Seeing all the people around him praising Ye Han at this moment, Ning Feng's lungs were about to explode with anger, he had wanted to make Ye Han lose face in front of everyone today, but in the end, his Ning family's was given a silent slap in the face, the stares around him made him feel like a mane on his back, very uncomfortable.

"Oh, Brother Ning, I wonder which is more outstanding, the human statue carved out by this disciple of mine or the pendant carved out by your disciple Leng Fan?" Zhou Mingshan looked at Ning Haotian with a smile on his face, that bland smile making it seem as if Ning Haotian had seen the same kind of ridicule Zhou Mingshan had used on him when he was younger.

Ning Haotian looked at Zhou Mingshan, the expression on his face no longer had the same calm and taciturn look that it had just had, there was a coldness spreading across his face as he said; "Elder brother Mingshan, I can't tell that you are quite deep in your sinking, this disciple of yours must have been taken in by you some years ago, right?"

Ye Han's carving skills were so outstanding, Ning Haotian simply did not believe that Ye Han had only recently been taken in by Zhou Mingshan, and since Ye Han was so good at learning carving, he must have been secretly taught by Zhou Mingshan.

What's more, Ning Haotian didn't want to go as far as thinking that Ye Han had only recently been accepted by Zhou Mingshan, so that if his disciple lost, he would at least have a little bit of face left, after all, the time spent learning carving was different, and there was no excuse for losing.

"Shit, you old man has a really thick skin." Tang Da Shao raised a middle finger at Ning Haotian.

Where would Zhou Mingshan not understand the meaning within Ning Haotian's words, he laughed and shook his head; "Brother Ning, you're wrong about that, this disciple of mine has known him for less than half a year, now that the competition is over, would Brother Ning like to take a seat and have a cup of tea?"

“No need.” Ning Haotian said indifferently; “This disciple of mine lost today due to his ineptitude in learning the art, so I will come back another day to ask for advice.”

“Another day? I don’t think this disciple of yours will necessarily have the same level of skill that Old Master Zhou’s disciple has now even after another ten years.” Suddenly, a cold and domineering voice came in from outside the hotel’s front door.

Hearing these words, the eyes of the people inside the hotel all looked over, the person who came was a middle-aged man in his forties, this middle-aged man was relatively handsome, with an upright figure and long black hair that was extremely long on his shoulders, but what attracted the people’s attention was that this man was wearing a very retro costume, and he was also holding a lacquered black sword in his hand, the whole person gave off a sharp momentum, and the pair of lacquered black eyes made people not dare to go face to face with him.

“Bastard, who are you? What qualifies you to say that?” After Ning Feng heard this, he instantly cursed at the handsome middle-aged man.

“You’re calling me an asshole?” The handsome middle-aged man walked dragonlike to the crowd, those eyes staring straight at Ning Feng, looking at him as if he was being targeted by a ferocious beast, “Old Mr. Ning, for your sake, I will let him live today, if there is a next time, kill!”

As soon as the word kill was uttered, a cold killing aura filled the hotel, and everyone felt a chill rise from the bottom of their feet.

“Mr. Wufei, it was the old man who was lax in his discipline, I hope that Mr. Wufei will not bother with the juniors, I will take him away now.” After saying that, Ning Haotian glared at Ning Feng and turned towards the outside of the hotel, the other Ning family members also followed behind him, looking at their backs the people inside the hotel all gave a secret laugh in their hearts, this Ning family’s people had come strong and now returned in defeat, today was a disgrace.

After the Ning family members left, everyone was curious about the handsome middle-aged man who had just arrived here, who was so powerful that Ning Haotian, the king of northern gambling, could only bow his head in front of him, not daring to disobey.

“Old Mr. Zhou, Wufei is late, sorry!”

The handsome middle-aged man looked at Zhou Mingshan and clasped his fist, saying with the demeanour of a martial artist.

Zhou Mingshan laughed; “For Mr Wufei to come is already looking up to Mr Zhou, I have made you laugh about what happened just now.”

Mr. Wufei did not smile as he looked at Ye Han and said; “Old Mr. Zhou, your disciple is extraordinary, at such a young age, he has such great strength, I am afraid that in a few years, his name will be famous in China.”

Hearing Mr. Wufei’s words, Ye Han laughed; “Mr. Wufei has over-complimented you, dare I ask if you are Mr. Leng Wufei of the Hundred Steps, One Sword, Fast Sword?”

Leng Wufei nodded and said; "It seems that you are already in contact with that circle, I will give you four words: just over easy to break, you are not capable of bouncing around inside that circle now, geniuses are often short lived, I hope you are not one of them."

"Thank you, Mr. Wufei, for reminding me." Ye Han said sincerely, although Leng Wufei's words were a little unpleasant, they were the truth.

Leng Wufei, the thirteenth ranked expert in the Tiger Ranking, his sword was very powerful, much more powerful than the fast sword of that Cao Chong of the Heavenly Dignity Society, within a hundred steps, Leng Wufei only needed one sword if he wanted to kill anyone, as fast as lightning, since he knew about the Dragon and Tiger Ranking, Ye Han had popularised his knowledge in this area, that was why he was able to know about Leng Wufei, a master of the sword.

But what took Ye Han by surprise was that Zhou Mingshan, an ordinary man, was able to invite Leng Wufei, a great god, it seemed that the energy behind this teacher of his was indeed great, the shopping mall, the officialdom, the military and the underground world, all had Zhou Mingshan's connections.

After the competition, the ceremony of worshiping the master officially began, Zhou Mingshan sat in the first place, Ye Han, the disciple, toasted a cup of tea, kowtowed a few heads and then the ceremony was completed, there was no excessive red tape, then the guests were seated, Ye Han was led by Zhou Mingshan to the tables behind the screen, all of them were of extraordinary origins, under the introduction of Zhou Mingshan, Ye Han also got to know these people.

This is a network of connections, people, intangible wealth, do not underestimate this kind of network, it may play a huge role in critical times.

Of course, when they learnt that Ye Han was not only a disciple of Zhou Mingshan, but also a divine doctor, many people were amazed, it naturally went without saying what kind of benefits there would be from associating with a divine doctor, even after Leng Wufei knew this, he gave Ye Han an extra look, people who practiced martial arts, injuries were common, once they were seriously injured and wanted to heal, they had to turn to a divine doctor who was incredibly skilled in medicine.

"If there is anything in the future, you can travel to Sichuan Province to find me." Leng Wufei looked at Ye Han and spoke calmly.

Hearing these words, Ye Han's eyes lit up and he nodded, making a relationship with Leng Wufei, a sword dao expert, was extraordinary.

After a banquet, the guests who came here all left, Ye Han also sent Zhou Mingshan and Zhou Yun'er back to the Jing Mountain Villa area, but when he went back, Ye Han had some more business cards inside his pocket.

"Ye Han, you can contact those people when you have time, I know you are not a peaceful master, you have attracted several enemies before and after this, you are alone, but with more friends and wider connections, whoever wants to move you will have to consider the consequences after moving you." Inside the villa, Zhou Mingshan said to Ye Han, today he invited these people actually for Ye Han, the disciple, but now it was the disciple, in the future it would only be the granddaughter's son-in-law, he naturally had to worry more.

“Teacher, I understand your intentions.” Ye Han nodded solemnly, for this old man who was bent on helping him, he was more respectful than moved.

Zhou Mingshan nodded and suddenly said; “By the way, how did you kid know that old boy Ning Haotian’s lookout skills? When did you steal it from him?”

Hearing Zhou Mingshan’s words, Ye Han laughed; “Teacher, if I say that I stole it from that Leng Fan when he was carving, would you believe me?”

At these words, Zhou Mingshan looked at Ye Han like a monster, just a little time to steal Ning Haotian’s mastery, this level of evil could only make Zhou Mingshan shocked plus speechless, what Ye Han said, Zhou Mingshan naturally believed, but Ye Han had such talent for carving, even more so, Zhou Mingshan was sure to teach Ye Han properly, maybe the future global master carver was taught by him.

Ye Han stayed at Zhou Yun’er’s villa until 5pm before returning. Although Zhou Yun’er was a bit sad to see Ye Han leave, especially after Ye Han gave her his portrait piece as a gift, she just wanted to make love to Ye Han to express her feelings, but Zhou Mingshan was also here, so she didn’t dare to act too much.

Of course, before Ye Han left, Zhou Mingshan also told him to take time out after he was done with his work in the next few days to formally teach him the art of carving.

After leaving Zhou Yun’er’s villa, Ye Han returned home, as Ye Qing and the girls had already cooked a good table at home, there was no way, as he had promised his sister yesterday, Ye Han could only rush back home and had no time to accompany Zhou Yun’er.

The dinner was very rich, you can see that for this meal, Ye Qing made a lot of effort, brother worship such a big event, Ye Qing of course must cook a delicious meal to celebrate, Ye Han also called Sun Bu Mian over, an old man and a young man two drink each other, after the wine is full, the time is already very late, Sun Bu Mian with a drunken face left, Ye Han after sober up the wine, also returned to the room, began to cultivate, a night just A night passed like this.

The next day Ye Han woke up early, after this matter of worshipping his master was over, he also had to start working on the opening of the medical school, so after practicing swordplay for an hour in the courtyard, Ye Han drove out.

However, shortly after Ye Han left the house, his phone rang, and Ye Han, who was driving, looked at the name on the caller ID and smiled slightly.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han braked the car, his brows furrowed as he said; “Yun’er, take it easy, tell us slowly, what is going on?”

Hearing Ye Han’s voice, Zhou Yun’er slowly calmed down and said; “Just last night, our shop’s piece of “Phoenix Wings” was stolen, all kinds of insurance were destroyed, and the security personnel who were guarding it were all killed, now the police are dealing with it, Ye Han, what should we do now? What should we do now? ”

Ye Han’s expression was cold, there was still someone stealing his things, the value of that piece of “phoenix wings” was even more than the “toad containing pearl”; “Yun’er, I will go to your place right away, we will discuss other things later. ”

Ten minutes later, Ye Han had arrived at Zhou Yun'er's company, at this moment, there were still several police cars parked outside the company, and there were police officers constantly entering and leaving the company's gate, after Ye Han parked his car at a location, Mo Shu walked towards him, the woman's brow was furrowed, she could see that the loss of the town's treasure had a great impact on the company.

"How is it?" Ye Han asked towards Mo Shu as soon as he got out of the car.

Mo Shu shook her head and said; "The situation is a bit bleak, the entire security system of the vault has been destroyed, and the person who stole it didn't leave a single clue, now the police have no clue, the person who stole it is a professional expert."

Hearing this, Ye Han frowned and entered the company together with Mo Shu with a cold face, the vault of Zhou's jewellery was on the third floor, this floor was not used as an office and had a strong security system, only Zhou Yun'er was allowed to enter this vault.

When he arrived at the third floor in the lift, Ye Han saw seven or eight police officers investigating the case on this floor, and Yan Lingjiao was also there.

When she saw Ye Han approaching, Zhou Yun'er's tightly furrowed brows slowly relaxed, as long as Ye Han was there, it made her feel that nothing would become a problem, Ye Han would come, Yan Lingjiao had already expected it, so she was not surprised, Ye Han walked over and said; "Yun'er, Officer Yan, have you found anything new?"

Zhou Yun'er shook her head and said; "The thieves are very cunning, they didn't leave any clues, Officer Yan and the others couldn't do anything for a while."

Yan Lingjiao said; "It's not exactly leaving no clues at all, these two corpses were killed by a single blow, we can see that the person who stole them was a person with a high force value, and the killing method was extremely cruel, directly shattering the hearts of these two people."

Ye Han looked at the two corpses and said; "Apart from that jadeite, were any other things missing?"

Zhou Yun'er responded; "No, this vault is where I use to store my treasures, without my fingerprints it is impossible to get in, and even if you force your way in, the infrared system will automatically alarm you, a large number of our Zhou's jewellery's treasures are stored here, but apart from that natural jadeite, not a single precious item has been lost. "

Ye Han looked at the destroyed titanium alloy door and said; "It seems that the thief came directly for the natural jadeite."

After saying that, Ye Han walked directly towards the destroyed titanium alloy door, which was two metres high, a dozen centimetres thick and extremely hard, but at the moment, the door was already ruined beyond recognition.

Yan Lingjiao said; "The initial conclusion is that this door was destroyed from the outside by someone with a strong force, and that person did not even touch the infrared alarm system inside after destroying this door, and also destroyed the monitoring system, the person who could do these points is not a normal person."

With these words, Ye Han agreed, to be able to shatter the heart of the security officer, while still being able to powerfully destroy the titanium alloy gate, without touching the infrared alarm system and also destroying the surveillance system, this person's strength was at least not below his.

Looking at the destroyed gate, Ye Han began to use his Yin Yang Dharma Eye, his left eye and right eye opened at the same time, allowing him to see what had happened in the past through a certain object, although it was brief, but it was enough. The next moment, the hard titanium alloy gate was blown open directly.

Ye Han looked at these two men, his face gradually turned cold, initially concluding that these two men were definitely experts of the same level as him, for the sake of a piece of natural jade, two experts had even come out together.

The faces of these two people slowly emerged in Ye Han's mind, becoming clearer and clearer, until the faces of these two people were engraved in his mind, then Ye Han closed his Yin Yang Dharma Eye, he stood up and said to Zhou Yun'er; "Yun'er, find me a quiet room, in addition, find me paper and pencil."

Hearing this request from Ye Han, several women were a little surprised, what did Ye Han need these things for at this murder scene? But Zhou Yun'er didn't bother to ask why, she directly led Ye Han to her office, found paper and a pen, and then walked out of the office.

Ye Han sat on the sofa and tried hard to recall the faces of those two people in his mind, then he started to move his pen and slowly drew out the faces of those two people on top of that white paper, an hour passed and Ye Han had drawn out the portraits of those two people in a vivid manner.

After this was done, Ye Han took the portraits of these two people to the third floor and found Yan Lingjiao; "These two people are the masterminds behind the theft of the jade and the murder case, your police system should be able to find out information about these two people."

"Don't ask me why I know it's these two, I can't answer that." Looking at Yan Lingjiao who was ready to ask a question, Ye Han blocked her out with one sentence, taking the portrait handed over by Ye Han, Yan Lingjiao said; "Okay, I believe you, Xiao Li, go and check the information of these two people, also, check if there is any trace of these two people being in Shanghai City recently."

"Yes, Captain." Constable Xiao Li took the portrait and then left.

Ye Han looked at Zhou Yun'er and said; "Don't worry too much, no one can take away what belongs to us, all we can do now is wait for news."

"Mm." Zhou Yun'er nodded, then she was leading Ye Han and Yan Lingjiao to her office, there was Mo Shu to look after things there on the third floor. Not too much time passed, an hour later, news came from the police station, and after answering the phone, Yan Lingjiao looked at Ye Han as if she was looking at a monster.

“Officer Yan, although I know I’m handsome, but as my wife’s face you don’t have to stare at me so much, tell me, what’s all the good news from your side?” Ye Han leaned back on the sofa and looked at Yan Lingjiao with a faint smile, hearing this, Zhou Yun’er immediately gave him a white look.

Yan Lingjiao said; “The portraits you provided have been checked out, one of them is called Black Crow and the other is called Iron Leg, they are two ruthless men in the underground world in East China, they belong to an organization called Blood Hand Hall, they are very powerful, ordinary police force cannot deal with them at all, moreover we found out through the road surveillance system that these two men did appear near Zhou’s Jewelry Company, initially concluded that this case might be their doing, only that their motive has yet to be ascertained.”

“I need to know where they are now, can you find out?” Ye Han asked directly, of course he knew that these two had done it, what he wanted to know now was where these two were, as long as he knew their current location, he would solve it in his own way.

Hearing Ye Han’s words, Yan Lingjiao frowned and said; “It’s a bit difficult, there are many road surveillance systems in Shanghai City, it’s difficult to find out where these two people are in a short time, we need some time, and I need to report this matter and wait for the decision from the top.”

Ye Han brushed aside his mouth and said; “Officer Yan, this is a murder plus theft case, by the time you report it, I’m afraid these two people will have already left Shanghai City, forget it, I’ll do this myself.”

Saying that, Ye Han stood up and left the office.

“You” Yan Lingjiao coldly glanced at Ye Han and coldly snorted, Zhou Yun’er said apologetically; “Officer Yan, sorry, he has this stinky temper, you don’t mind.”

Yan Lingjiao shook, it was not the first time she had met Ye Han, could she not know this guy’s character.

Ye Han dialed Tang Haibin’s number after he left Zhou Yun’er’s company, as soon as the call was answered, Tang Haibin’s voice came through; “Hanzi, what’s wrong, looking for me for something?”

Ye Han said as he drove; “Where are you now? I need to see your old man.”

Time was short, the natural jadeite was stolen last night, in order to find the trace of those two people as soon as possible, Ye Han could only choose to meet Tang Jianguo and then talk to him in his capacity as a member of the Security Bureau, Tang Jianguo was the mayor of Shanghai City and even more so, Tang Haibin’s old man, for him Ye Han still trusted.

When Tang Haibin heard this from Ye Han, he immediately felt something unusual, he said; “Hanzi, you go to the city hall compound now, I’ll meet you there in five minutes.”

“Okay.” Ye Han hung up the phone and drove his car straight to the Shanghai City Hall compound.

Ten minutes later Ye Han arrived at the city hall compound, where Tang Haibin was already waiting for him. When he saw Ye Han get out of the car and walk over, Tang Haibin threw away the cigarette in his hand and walked over and asked; “Hanzi, what do you need to see my old man about?”

Ye Han threw him a cigarette and lit one for himself, saying; "Last night, Yun'er's vault was burgled and the natural jadeite was stolen, I need to see your old man to discuss some things, let's go and talk inside."

As soon as Tang Haibin heard this, he threw away his cigarette and stomped on it fiercely; "Damn it, there is still someone in Shanghai City who dares to steal from you, let's go, Hanzi, even if you don't go to my old man about this, I will still ask him to help you uncover this bastard who dares to move the earth on the head of the Taiyang."

Saying that, the two of them walked directly into the city government compound, to see the mayor, without an appointment in advance, it would be very difficult to meet him, but with Tang Haibin leading the way, all these processes were saved, moreover, before coming, Tang Haibin had already called Tang Jianguo, under the leadership of Tang Haibin, the two of them arrived all the way to the mayor's office, knocked on the door, a thick voice came from inside at once; "Please come in."

Tang Haibin pushed the door open and walked in, saying with a big grin; "Old man, what's going on?"

Hearing this, a middle-aged man sitting on a sofa glared at him, this middle-aged man had thick eyebrows and big eyes, his body exuded a military aura, wearing a pair of western trousers and a white shirt; "You brat, I think you have itchy skin, no manners at all, can't you see that your Uncle Wang is also here?"

Upon hearing this, Ye Han and Tang Haibin then realised that opposite Tang Jianguo was also sitting Wang Aimin, the secretary of the municipal party committee, seeing that Ye Han had also come, Wang Aimin immediately walked over and shook his hand and smiled; "Doctor Ye, you're here too, please have a seat."

"Oh, thank you, Secretary Wang." Ye Han smiled and sat down on the sofa, then he looked at the majestic looking Tang Jianguo and said; "Mayor Tang, I'm Ye Han, I'm visiting today, I hope you'll forgive me for taking the liberty."

Although he had known Tang Haibin for a long time, this was the first time Tang Jianguo Ye Han had met him.

Tang Jianguo laughed; "Alright, you and this boy Haibin are friends, so don't be so rusty, call me Uncle Tang, Ye Han, do you have any difficulties in finding me today?"

Ye Han nodded, then he glanced at Wang Aimin and Tang Haibin and said after a moment of contemplation; "Haibin, you go out first, I'll come back to you later."

When Tang Haibin heard this, he wanted to say something, but was glared back with a look from Tang Jianguo, he had to meekly walk out of the office, seeing Tang Haibin gone, Tang Jianguo said; "Ye Han, tell me, as long as it does not violate the laws of the country I can help you as much as I can, but, this uncle of mine said in advance, I will definitely not help with things that cannot be done."

Ye Han smiled; "I will definitely not make things difficult for Uncle Tang."

The case is probably still unknown to Tang Jianguo and Wang Aimin. Hearing Ye Han finish, Wang Aimin instantly became angry; "Lawlessness, simply lawlessness, Doctor Ye, don't worry, even if you don't ask,

Old Tang and I will help you. You dare to kill people and steal property in Shanghai City, you are simply ignoring the law.

Tang Jianguo also said; “Ye Han, if this is the case, don’t worry, we will definitely find out the murderer as soon as possible, this is also the duty of us parental officials.”

Ye Han shook his head and said; “Uncle Tang, Secretary Wang, I want to know the whereabouts of these two people today, it’s too late, if these two people have left Shanghai City, it will be difficult to find them, I came to you because I want you to give orders to the people below now, with your orders, I think the people below will do their duty, besides that, those two people are not ordinary people, ordinary police force simply can’t deal with them, so I want to involve the army stationed around Shanghai City.”

“Mobilise the army!” Hearing Ye Han’s words, Tang Jianguo and Wang Aimin’s expressions shook, without a special order, even if they had the right to do so, they couldn’t do so.

Seeming to see the difficult look on Tang Jianguo and Wang Aimin’s faces, Ye Han took out a document from his arms and placed it in front of the two of them, saying; “I know this will be difficult for you two, but it should be easier with this.”

After reading it, he looked at Ye Han with a shocked expression. Seeing this look on Tang Jianguo’s face, Wang Aimin also took the document over and looked at it, then he laughed loudly; “Doctor Ye, I didn’t expect you to have this identity, with this document, then it will be much easier to mobilise the army.”

Tang Jianguo gave Ye Han a deep look and said; “Since that’s the case, then well, there’s no more problems on our side, it’s also our duty to cooperate with the state secret service in handling the case.”

Ye Han put his documents away and smiled; “I still hope that Uncle Tang and Secretary Wang will keep my identity a secret, I can’t let a third person know about it apart from the two of you.”

Fortune Chapter 156

After leaving the city hall compound, Ye Han’s mood was much lighter, with Tang Jianguo’s help and with the joint efforts of the Shanghai police system and even the military system, as long as those two people had not left Shanghai City, Ye Han believed that it would not take long for those two people to be unearthed, the power of the state was huge, and no one could stop them if they were to get real.

He originally wanted to wait for the opening of the medical school after the ceremony, but now it seems that he has to finish this matter before he can do anything else.

The preciousness of the “Phoenix’s Wings” was even higher than that of the toad’s pearl, and its value would be at least 15 billion, so how could Ye Han be willing to have it stolen like that?

Ye Han kept driving his car back to Zhou Yun’er’s company, Tang Haibin also followed him, he had nothing to do anyway when he stayed at home.

“Hanzi, what did you and my old man talk about just now?” Tang Haibin was itching for what Ye Han and Tang Jianguo had talked about just now, so he couldn’t help but ask Ye Han, Ye Han looked at him and said; “Haibin, it’s not that I’m intentionally hiding something from you, but there are some things you can’t know yet, you’re my brother, I’ll naturally tell you what I should tell you.”

Tang Haibin nodded and did not continue to think about those things in his heart, the two of them went all the way to Zhou Yun'er's office, but at this moment Yan Lingjiao had already left, in addition to Zhou Yun'er and Mo Shu inside Zhou Yun'er's office, Zhou Mingshan also came, such a big thing happened to his granddaughter's company, of course he had to come and take a look.

"Teacher, why are you here?" Ye Han saw Zhou Mingshan after he walked in.

Zhou Mingshan said; "Such a big thing has happened to Yun'er's company, can I not come? Ye Han, how is the situation?"

Ye Han sat down beside Zhou Yun'er and patted her hand, gesturing for her to relax, then said; "Teacher, don't worry, the Shanghai City police system as well as the military system will jointly deal with this incident, under the pursuit of these two major law enforcement systems, I think it won't take long to find out the culprit."

"Nonsense, did you kid ask someone to help you do something against discipline? How dare you bring the army into this." After hearing Ye Han's words, Zhou Mingshan immediately glared at him, no matter if he was dealing with the officialdom or the army, nothing should cross the line, once he was caught by others, it would be very troublesome.

Ye Han laughed; "Teacher, do I look like that kind of person to you? Don't worry, I did it through the regular way, if you don't believe me, you can call Hai Bin his old man and ask about it."

"Hey, hey, Grandpa Zhou, what Hanzi said is true, just rest assured, don't you know my old man's character, he's simply a stone in a thatched pit, stinky and hard, getting him to do those things that violate discipline is worse than killing him." Tang Haibin laughed heatedly at the side.

At that, Zhou Mingshan cursed with a laugh and said; "You stinky brat, are there people who talk about their old man like that?"

But since it was Tang Jianguo who had interfered in, Zhou Mingshan wouldn't be worrying about anything.

Afterwards, everyone was in the office drinking tea while waiting for news, but during this period, Ye Han noticed that Tang Haibin's eyes were staring at Mo Shu peeping out, that look was also a bit squirming, this discovery could make Ye Han a bit strange, since he knew this guy, he had always been a bold master, when had he ever seen him shy?

"What, do you fancy someone else?" Ye Han's leg kicked this guy underneath, narrowing his eyes and laughing.

"Shit, you'll be impotent if you don't say it out loud." Tang Da Shao's face flushed, seeing him blush, Ye Han instantly smiled, it seemed that this guy had met true love, but whether he could get his hands on her or not would depend on this guy's ability, this woman Mo Shu could be the same little iceberg that treated others with nonchalance.

However, while Ye Han and the others were drinking tea and chatting, the police and military systems in Shanghai City were operating on all fronts, rigorously investigating the road surveillance system in Shanghai City, which is an international metropolis with tens of thousands of surveillance points all over the city.

But as the saying goes, where there is pressure, there is motivation, and under the pressure of Tang Jianguo and Wang Aimin.

Finally, when the time came in the afternoon, news came in, Ye Han's mobile phone rang, and when he opened it, it was Yan Lingjiao, the woman who had called him.

"Officer Yan, how is it, is there any news?" Ye Han asked.

On the other side of the phone, Yan Lingjiao stared at the dozen surveillance computers in front of her and said; "Yes, the surveillance shows that those two people appeared on Huai'an Road at 4am today and finally disappeared in a quadrangle, according to our investigation, that quadrangle is the branch of Blood Hand Hall in Shanghai City, our people are preparing to rush there."

At those words, the corner of Ye Han's mouth curved up into a cold arc as he said; "Thank you, Officer Yan, I'll treat you to dinner sometime, but those two are experts, tell your men to stay put for now and wait for me to come."

After saying that, Ye Han hung up the phone.

"Ye Han, is there any news?" Zhou Mingshan asked.

"Yes, teacher." Ye Han stood up and said; "I've found out the whereabouts of those two, but those two are experts, I have to go over there personally, so you guys just wait here for the news."

Hearing Ye Han's words, Zhou Yun'er stood up and held his hand and said; "Be careful yourself, I'd rather not have that natural jade, I don't want anything to happen to you either."

Ye Han kissed her on the forehead; "Don't worry."

Ye Han left Zhou Yun'er's company, but instead of heading to the Blood Hand Hall branch, he returned home and took the Dragon Spring Sword with him, Blood Hand Hall, he had already been in contact with the underground world, he had naturally heard of this name, in East China, this Blood Hand Hall could be considered to be a single hand, with huge power and many experts.

However, Ye Han would not dare to make a move against them just because of this, how could he not spit out what he had stolen from him?

Of course, when he returned home, apart from taking the Dragon Spring Sword, Ye Han also called up Sun Buwei, a Tiger Ranking expert, who readily agreed to a match with a master.

Ye Han drove his car all the way to Huai'an Road, Huai'an Road belonged to the suburbs of Shanghai City, there were many private houses and many factories were built here, the branch of the Blood Hand Hall was hidden inside a quadrangle on Huai'an Road, but when he arrived here, Ye Han immediately heard the sound of intensive gunfire.

"Not good, it seems that the Blood Hand Hall's people have already exchanged fire with Yan Lingjiao and the others." Thinking of this, Ye Han immediately stopped the car, and then together with Sun Buwei, the two of them shot towards the place where the gunshots were coming from like a whirlwind.

It didn't take long for Ye Han and Sun Bumin to arrive outside the civilian house where the firefight was taking place, the surrounding people had been evacuated in advance, at the moment, hundreds of military police here surrounded the place, watertight, gunfire was dense, firepower network after firepower wave after wave, but no matter how strong the firepower was, hundreds of military police failed to break through the gate of this courtyard, and also sacrificed five or six people, there was a group of cold weapon experts inside, the strength They had already attacked strongly for ten minutes killing only a few people, but still hadn't broken in.

After Ye Han came here and saw this situation, he was instantly enraged; "This woman with big breasts and no brain, why won't she listen to me?"

"Senior, let's both rush in." Ye Han said as he looked at Sun Buwei.

The battle fire blazed in Sun Buwei's eyes as he flung the lance in his hand, the black cloth over it splitting in pieces.

At this time, Yan Lingjiao, who was exchanging fire with the members of the Blood Hand Hall, spotted Ye Han who had arrived here, she immediately led two people over, looking at a wound that surfaced on the woman's arm, Ye Han wanted to chastise her twice, but in the end, he held back.

"You're here, the people inside are too strong, our people simply can't rush in." Yan Lingjiao said as she looked at Ye Han and kicked in her breath.

"Hmph, my words are falling on deaf ears for you."

Looking at the woman as she silently lowered her head, Ye Han asked; "Who is in charge here?"

"It's me." A man with a strong physique and wearing a military uniform said.

Ye Han nodded at him and said; "Next, this senior and I will rush in and break the armament inside, you pick some experts with accurate marksmanship and quick hands to rush in afterwards, the others follow at hand, got it?"

"Okay, I'll do as you say." The soldier nodded, there was nothing they could do at the moment, then turned around and went to select the people Ye Han needed, in less than a minute, more than ten experts with excellent marksmanship had already finished preparing, Ye Han looked at Yan Lingjiao and said in an extremely domineering and unquestionable tone; "You're injured, stay here, no participation in the operation."

"Why should I listen to you?" Yan Lingjiao's cold eyes crossed.

"Hmph, try moving a bit?" Ye Han glared at the woman, then he and Sun Bu Mian shot towards the quadrangle gate at the same time, the situation inside, Ye Han had just used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to observe the situation, there were more than ten cold weapon experts inside the quadrangle, the concealed weapons shot out by these people were simply more powerful than bullets, but these were useless to Ye Han and Sun Bu Mian.

Inside the courtyard, Black Crow looked at the gate of the courtyard with a disdainful face, those police and soldiers outside wanted to break through the courtyard unless they attacked with heavy weapons, in this courtyard they had the geographical advantage, one man could not open the gate, without a heavy weapon attack it was impossible to break in.

“Black Crow, let’s retreat first, it seems that what we have done has been exposed.” Iron Leg coldly looked at the police who were continuously shooting towards the inside of the courtyard, his brow slowly wrinkled, fighting against the power of the state, this was already a felony, if they continued to resist, when the time came, Blood Hand Hall could not even protect them.

Moreover, because of this incident, it would be very difficult for this branch to continue to exist, and when the Hall Master traced them down, I was afraid that they would not be able to escape punishment even if they returned with a heavy gift.

“I will naturally withdraw, but what was originally a seamless affair has been ruined by this group of policemen, I hate it!” Black Crow’s face gradually turned grim, a branch had been destroyed, and it was because of the two of them, how could the Hall Master forgive them lightly.

Iron Leg said; “Since things have come up, what we need to do now is to evacuate out with this group of people from the branch, so that although the branch is gone, the people are still there and the Hall Master might lighten the punishment on us.”

Black Crow gritted his teeth and said; “Okay, withdraw.”

Iron Leg nodded and was about to order a retreat, however, at that very moment, outside the gate of the quadrangle, two black shadows rushed in like two black lights, as brave as tigers, the concealed weapons shot out by the Blood Hand Hall members were no threat at all to these two, one with a sword, the other with a gun, the sweeping momentum was wild and incomparable, in an instant, seven or eight Blood Hand Hall members were swept away by this terrifying force.

“What man?” When Iron Leg saw this, he was instantly shocked, his body exploded out, pulling himself up to the ground and carrying a kick with terrifying power directly towards Sun Buhui.

“Hmph, just in time.” With a cold snort, the spear in his hand struck out violently, with a clink, the silver spear in Sun Bu Mian’s hand and Iron Leg’s long leg clashed with each other, surprisingly sounding like gold and iron, but after clashing with Sun Bu Mian once, Iron Leg’s body immediately flew back in mid-air, his face flushed red, almost spurting out a mouthful of blood.

“Seeking death!”

Seeing that Iron Leg was no match for him, Black Crow’s eyes went cold and was about to attack towards Sun Bu Dui, but Ye Han’s body stretched in mid-air and instantly blocked in front of him, his eyes cold; “Your opponent is me.”

“It’s you!” When Black Crow saw Ye Han blocking in front of him, a monstrous murderous spirit instantly rose in his eyes, it was Ye Han who presided over the auction of the natural jadeite that day, so Black Crow naturally knew Ye Han.

“Exactly me, steal my stuff and leave your life behind today.” Ye Han let out a long whistle, holding the Dragon Spring Sword and instantly attacked towards Black Crow.

“With just you kid, dream on!” Black Crow sneered, his killing intent cold, his right hand waved, an incomparably sharp hook immediately blocked Ye Han’s Dragon Spring Sword, and in the next moment, the two instantly engaged in a fierce exchange of blows.

And at that moment, the soldier also entered inside the courtyard with more than ten experts with great marksmanship and started shooting at those Blood Hand Hall members, these Blood Hand Hall experts had been disrupted by Ye Han and Sun Buxiang, and some of them had also been injured in that fierce attack earlier, and were now being beaten by this group of experts with great marksmanship, hiding and in disarray, however, after the subsequent military and police personnel came in one after another, the powerful However, after the subsequent uniformed men came in, the powerful firepower suppressed them, and without the help of Iron Leg and Black Crow, these members of the Blood Hand Hall were wounded and killed.

“All exit.” The soldier, seeing this non-manpowered battle between the four, immediately ordered all the uniformed personnel to withdraw from the courtyard.

“Damn it, I want you to die!”

Seeing all of his men being annihilated, Black Crow’s eyes were filled with murderous energy, the hook in his right hand was like a life-threatening chain of hooks, attacking Ye Han one after another, but in the face of such attacks from Black Crow, the sword in Ye Han’s hand was equally unparalleled fast, his sword qi was all around him, a terrifying killing power spread across the void.

Fortune Chapter 158

Boom!

In terms of realm, he was the same as Ye Han, both were at the middle stage of the Peiyuan realm, but in terms of combat power, there was still a gap between him and Ye Han, not to mention, Ye Han had a sharp divine weapon like the Dragon Spring Sword in his hand.

“How dare you steal from me even with this level of ability?”

Looking at the Black Crow, Ye Han smiled coldly and raised the Dragon Spring Sword in his hand, pointing it diagonally towards the sky, and in an instant, an extremely sharp momentum pervaded from the Dragon Spring Sword, and the terrifying whistling sound of sword qi in the surrounding void became even more violent, the sand and dust on the ground flew and some tiny dust was immediately pulled by this force, forming a tornado that swept towards the sky.

From a distance, this scene was extremely spectacular, a sight as if it were the power of nature.

At this moment, the military police surrounding the courtyard were watching this scene from outside, their expressions shocked, those two people inside were so powerful, it felt as incredible as a martial arts film, in reality, a real martial arts expert like this, they had never seen one in their lives, one by one, their eyes were wide open.

Yan Lingjiao was likewise watching the scene, her eyes were complicated, that man was now several levels beyond her in terms of greatness, to think that when she had just met Ye Han, she was still able to be on par with him, yet now he was too good!

“Yin and Yang Two Yi Sword Technique!”

Inside the courtyard, Ye Han strolled out with his sword in his hand, fiercely, the sword in his hand cut through the void like lightning and fell towards that black crow, that terrifying taste of killing power was even stronger, this sword came out, incomparably fierce, yet soft like water, unbreakable unless it was broken with great strength, however, in the face of this sword of Ye Han, where did the black crow have the strength to break it hard, for a time, the black crow’s entire body was enveloped by this enveloped it.

“Roar, Soul Locking Life Snatching Hook!” The Black Crow’s heart was terrified, Ye Han’s formidable strength had shocked him, and in the face of this sword, his entire body’s strength was exerted, his infinitely fierce claws transformed into countless streaks of shadow that spread across the void, as eerie and terrifying as the sharp claws of an evil spirit.

Snort, snort, snort!

After one clash, Black Crow finally failed to block Ye Han’s sword, that sword, mercilessly destroying his life-taking hook, the terrifyingly sharp sword qi landed on his body, instantly causing a harsh sword scar to appear on his body, blood shooting out everywhere, his entire body fell backwards.

“Where to go!”

At that moment, when he saw that both Ye Han and Sun Buwei were so powerful, he immediately used an extremely fast body technique.

When he saw Iron Leg running away, Black Crow naturally wanted to run too, but Ye Han would not let him have his wish. With a single step, his body was as unstoppable as a whirlwind, and the Dragon Spring Sword in his hand was like a meteor, forcing Black Crow, who had just stood still, to dodge in a mess and had no power to fight back.

“Bastard, do you know what kind of consequences will come if you go against my Blood Hand Hall?” Being pressed by Ye Han and he didn’t even have the strength to fight back, Black Crow’s heart chilled, although his strength was ranked ninth among the ten warriors of the Blood Hand Hall, he didn’t even have this feeling of powerlessness when he faced Guan Fei who was ranked seventh in the Crescent Moon Blade, this youth in front of him made him feel terrifying.

“Hmph, since I dare to lay my hands on you, do you think I will be afraid of you Blood Hand Hall?”

Ye coldly laughed as the Dragon Spring Sword instantly swept across, the terrifying sword Qi turned into an invisible gale, Black Crow’s body was swept away as if he had been struck by lightning, spitting out blood, as if he had been seriously injured, a flash of horror flashed across his eyes, because at this moment, Ye Han’s sword was already stabbing straight towards his body.

“Suffer death!” With a cold cry, the sword in Ye Han’s hand mercilessly stabbed into Black Crow’s body.

“Kill me you will pay the price!” Black Crow looked at Ye Han with a fierce face.

Ye Han said indifferently; "Even if you will pay the price, but you won't be able to see it."

After saying that, Ye Han fiercely drew his Dragon Spring Sword, a stream of blood arrows shot out, and Black Crow's head tilted and returned to the embrace of death.

After killing the black crow, Ye Han immediately swept out of the courtyard and rushed towards the direction where Sun Bu Mian was chasing Iron Leg. Although it was not difficult at all to kill Iron Leg with Sun Bu Mian's strength, Ye Han still wanted to go there personally to take a look in order to prevent accidents.

Watching Ye Han sweep overhead as if he were a bird, the people outside the courtyard were shocked, what does it mean to be an expert at flying over the wall? This was.

"It's so awesome!" Many people raised their heads and said with a look of admiration.

"Let's go, into the courtyard and clean up the battlefield." As the battle inside came to a close, the soldier waved his hand and immediately led the men inside the courtyard, while at this time, Ye Han had already followed the trail and chased them to a deserted countryside, and Sun Buwei also happened to be rushing back from the other side at this time.

"Senior, how is it going?" Ye Han went forward and asked.

"Don't worry, it's dead." Sun Buwei shook the long spear in his hand.

Ye Han said; "Thank you for this today, senior."

Sun Bu Mian laughed and said; "Since I have chosen to enter the world to cultivate, I am already prepared to be involved in strife, actual combat is more likely to allow me to improve my strength quickly, if you really want to thank me, just send me some more of those good wines inside your home."

Ye Han laughed; "What's so difficult about that, senior wants it, even if you want it, you can build a winery for you."

After saying that, the two of them smiled at each other, quite like a forgetful friend, and returned to the courtyard, at this moment the people inside were still cleaning up the battlefield, but when they saw Ye Han and Sun Bumian return, everyone looked at them with an adoring gaze, strong people, no matter where they were, were always revered, especially strong people with great force value.

At this time, Yan Lingjiao carried a silver-white box to Ye Han, handing him the box inside his hand and saying; "The item you want is inside, intact."

Ye Han nodded, then he looked at the wound on Yan Lingjiao's arm and said; "It's injured, do you want me to help you with it?"

At those words, Yan Lingjiao's face flushed and she instantly thought of the last time Ye Han had treated her, she gave him a look; "If you treat it for me, you might as well do it yourself."

At those words, Ye Han smiled awkwardly, he could naturally hear the meaning within Yan Lingjiao's words.

At that moment, the soldier walked over towards Ye Han and extended his hand and said; "Hello brother, my name is Tang Bing, your skills are amazing!"

"I'm flattered." Ye Han smiled; "My name is Ye Han, I'll leave the next matter here to you guys, but I hope that you can keep today's matter a secret."

"Brother Ye, please don't worry, I will explain." Tang Bing said.

After dealing with the matters here, Ye Han took Sun Bumian and left, he still had to deliver this natural jadeite in his hand to Zhou Yun'er so that they could rest assured.

Fortune Chapter 159

Ye Han drove his car and sent Sun Bumian back before arriving at Zhou Yun'er's company, at this moment several people were waiting for him to come back inside the office, when she saw Ye Han come back, Zhou Yun'er immediately ran over and touched his body in all directions, only after seeing that there were no wounds on Ye Han's body did she put her mind at ease.

"Hey hey, sister Yun'er, even if you want to make out with Hanzi, you don't have to be in such a hurry, we're all still watching." Tang Haibin laughed heatedly from the side, instantly causing Zhou Yun'er to blush, Zhou Mingshan knocked him on the head and said with a glare; "You brat, you're not too young, hurry up and find a daughter-in-law for that boy Tang Jianguo."

"Yes yes yes, Grandpa Zhou." Poor Tang Da Shao could only nod and agree in the face of Zhou Mingshan, but the corner of his eyes looked at Mo Shu, and within those eyes, they were full of tenderness, but when Mo Shu noticed his gaze looking at him, the bastard was very gutless and tossed his head to the side.

At this time, Zhou Mingshan looked at Zhou Yun'er who was still hugging Ye Han and coughed heavily, saying with a black face; "Yatou, all right, don't hurry up and let Ye Han sit down." After saying that, Zhou Mingshan looked at Ye Han again and asked; "Ye Han, how is it, you didn't get hurt in any accident, right?"

Ye Han put the silver white now on the coffee table, sat down and laughed; "Teacher, it's just a simple matter of picking up a box, how could there be any accidents?"

Simple and uncomplicated?

For his words, no one believed it, because everyone smelled the faint smell of blood from his body that had not yet dissipated.

Zhou Mingshan said; "All right, just as long as you are fine, Yun'er, you have to take good care of this jade next, don't have any more accidents."

Zhou Mingshan looked at Zhou Yun'er.

Zhou Yun'er nodded and said; "Understood grandpa, I will ask the most authoritative expert to rearrange the vault, it is best that the alarm system is connected to the police station, so that if anything happens the police station will also arrive at the first time."

“That’s good.” Zhou Mingshan nodded his head, the “Phoenix Spreading its Wings” was his masterpiece, and he would be a bit upset if it was stolen by someone.

When he saw that he had finished talking about business, Mr. Tang’s eyes twinkled and he said; “Hanzi, there is a full house today, why don’t we get together later?”

Ye Han glanced at him and saw the bastard’s eyes darting towards Mo Shu’s body, he instantly understood, he wanted to ask about the opening of the medical school anyway, so he said; “Sure, you set the place, remember to call Brother Lin too later.”

“Cheng, I’ll take care of it, Hanzi, why don’t we go to your house, your sister’s handicraft is quite good anyway, hehehe!”

Hearing this, Ye Han despised the bastard, he wanted to pick up girls himself and even wanted his sister to be the chef, but Ye Han didn’t refuse, several women were at home, it would be more lively together.

Zhou Mingshan is an old man, he also can see what the big young Tang is thinking, immediately laughed; “You brat is drunken, ah, just as well, I have not seen the little Qingcheng for a while, so I will accompany you to go for a walk.”

At these words, Tang Da Shao’s face reddened, looking at Zhou Yun’er and Mo Shu some cloudy feeling, do not understand what these people are talking about, but this kind of thing can not be explicitly said to them for the time being, now it is already five o’clock in the afternoon, then, the group is driving towards Ye Han’s home, Mo Shu originally was not prepared to go, because she and Ye Han they are not familiar with, but was forced by Zhou Yun’er to pull the car.

When they returned to the house, Ye Qing saw that Ye Han had brought so many guests, she was immediately happy, pulling Zhou Yun’er to talk about sisterly feelings, and little Qingcheng was holding the little tiger like a living treasure, making Mo Shu, who was seeing her for the first time, very fond of her.

“Qingcheng, come here quickly, let grandpa Zhou hug you.” Looking at little Qingcheng, who was like a living treasure, Zhou Mingshan was delighted.

Little Qingcheng ran to his arms and sat down, and with one hand, she grabbed Zhou Mingshan’s beard and said; “Grandpa Zhou, your beard has grown again, can Qingcheng help you pull it off?”

“Ugh, my little boy, that won’t do.” Zhou Mingshan said with a black face and a bitter smile.

“Qingcheng, no fooling around.” Ye Han glared at the girl, who even spat her tongue at him, but was also much better behaved, she still dared not disobey Ye Han’s words.

After the group sat together and chatted for a while, several women started to go into the kitchen to work, but Mo Shu was a standard kitchen illiterate, so she couldn’t tell what salt, chicken essence, vinegar and soy sauce were in the kitchen, so she could only run out and sit on the sofa with Ye Han and the others.

Seeing Mo Shu walk out, Tang Da Shao’s eyes lit up big time, seeing him like this, Ye Han gave a dark laugh and said; “That, Haibin, I’ll go out for a walk, you keep Miss Mo company for a chat.”

“Don’t!” Hearing that Ye Han wanted to leave, Tang Da Shao immediately became nervous, hurriedly pulled him to sit down, looking a bit fidgety, not at all like his usual kind of heavenly and fearless big-hearted character, Ye Han in his heart once again despised this goods, damn it, giving you the opportunity to create you don’t want.

Mo Shu heard the conversation between the two of them also did not pay attention to them, himself on the table with a magazine to read up, a look of strangers do not approach, look at the Tang young even less courageous, there is a saying is very right; the more you like a person, the more nervous when facing her, the more the heart is not bottom, Tang young is this at this time.

Ye Han shook his head speechlessly, this guy was usually quite bold, but now he was so weak, no way, in order to help this guy out Ye Han could only speak up for him; “That, Miss Mo, how long have you known Yun’er?”

“Five or six years, Yun’er and I are college classmates.” Mo Shu replied casually while looking at the magazine.

“Quite a long time, I can see that you and Yun’er have a good relationship.” After Ye Han casually said that, he continued; “Miss Mo, how old are you this year?”

Mo Shu; “Twenty four.”

Ye Han; “Oh, twenty-four, that’s not too young.”

Ye Han; “Miss Mo, do you have a boyfriend?”

Mo Shu; “No.”

Ye Han; “Then I wonder what kind of criteria you have for finding a boyfriend?”

Hearing these questions from Ye Han, Mo Shu suddenly put down the magazine in her hand, looked directly at him and asked; “What, asking so clearly, do you want to pick me up?”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han was immediately choked and coughed twice with great effort, damn it, asking too many questions, now he was misunderstood.

It’s not that I’m trying to pick you up, it’s obviously this guy next to me who has a coloured heart but no guts, okay?

Fortune Chapter 160

Zhou Mingshan had a black face, hugging Little Qingcheng and glaring fiercely at Ye Han, this brat was saying this in front of him, deliberately putting him in a bad mood wasn’t it, although he knew that Ye Han was helping Tang Da Shao, but he doubted that this brat would get involved with flowers again.

“Ahem!”

Hearing Mo Shu’s words, Big Shao Tang coughed twice with a black face, this was the girl he had his eye on.

Ye Han smiled awkwardly and said; “Miss Mo, you’ve misunderstood.”

"I also hope it's a misunderstanding, because, you're not my type." Mo Shu despised Ye Han and continued to read the magazine in her hand, Ye Han kicked Tang Da Shao under the table, in order to help this guy, he was actually despised by this woman.

A little farce ended there, Tang Da Shao the bastard didn't have the courage himself, Ye Han didn't bother to help him, lest he get himself mixed up in it then, but at that moment, Lin Baimo came and broke the awkward atmosphere.

"Brother Lin, here you are, please sit down." Lin Baimo nodded, and then greeted Zhou Mingshan. Sitting down, he said; "Hanzi, I heard that Yun'er's sister's jewellery shop was stolen, how is it, has it been resolved?"

This was something that Lin Baimo had just learned about not long ago, so Ye Han nodded and smiled; "It's been solved, by the way, Brother Lin, how are you handling the matter at the medical school? I want to open the medical center in the next few days, this matter has dragged on long enough."

Lin Baimo smiled and said, "In the past two days, Hai Bin and I have almost finished our work, and with the help of Old Mr. Liu, everything is now ready, we just need to choose an auspicious day to hold the opening ceremony."

Tang Da Shao then looked at Ye Han and also said; "I say Han Zi, for the matter of your medical school, Old Lin and I have been working hard, you kid don't forget what you promised us last time."

Ye Han glanced at the bastard and laughed; "I know you Tang Da Shao has suffered, don't worry, when the time comes, you can ask for anything."

"Hey, hey, that's what makes a good buddy." Big Shao Tang narrowed his eyes and smiled, that face smiled like a chrysanthemum.

Zhou Mingshan looked at Ye Han and said; "Ye Han, I think the opening of the medical school should be on the 17th of this month, that day is a good day, invite some friends over to liven things up."

Ye Han nodded and said; "I also have this idea, let's make it the 17th then, there are still five days left, which is enough time to prepare for other things."

After discussing the opening of the medical school, Ye Han ran to Sun Bu Mian's villa and called him over, calling a sixty year old man out of a deep mountain forest and taking a favour from him, asking him to accompany him to fight and kill, Ye Han felt a bit sorry for him.

After informing Sun Bumian, Ye Han also went to Yan Lingjiao's villa for a walk, but the woman had not yet returned.

At seven o'clock in the evening, the group gathered around a table to eat and chat. With the strength of wine, Tang Da Shao dared to say a few words to Mo Shu, but Mo Shu, who is cold by nature, did not pay much attention to him, which made him depressed for a long time.

Ye Han touched Tang Da Shao and laughed; "You've been hit, shit, you're usually quite capable, but you can't take this hit anymore."

"Then what do you think?" Tang Da Shao poured in a mouthful of wine and said in a depressed voice.

“What else can we do, chase hard, men chase women across the mountain, as long as you get over this mountain, you are still afraid that you can’t get the beauty back?”

“Okay, I’ll do as you say.” Tang Da Shao took another sip of his cup; “Later on, I will find a chance to send her back, this woman, I want it for sure.”

Ye Han gave the bastard an appreciative look, although this guy had become too timid when facing Mo Shu, but his awareness was not bad.

After the dinner, everyone went home, Tang Da Shao did not know what method he used, he really brought Mo Shu, this cold woman into the car, watching this guy drive the car like the wind shot out, probably in his heart has been happy now.

Of course, Ye Han also drove the car to send Zhou Mingshan and Zhou Yun’er back, in fact, now that his relationship with Zhou Yun’er is known to everyone, Ye Han is thinking when to meet with his future husband to settle the matter, every day to send his woman back like this, Ye Han heart is always a bit unhappy.

After dropping Zhou Mingshan and Zhou Yun’er off at home, Ye Han went in and sat down for a while before driving off.

But on the way back, Ye Han’s phone suddenly rang in his phone, Ye Han picked up his phone and saw that it was surprisingly the woman, Fire Phoenix, who called him.

“Oh, what’s up? Big beauty Fire Phoenix, did you miss me after not seeing me for a few days?” Ye Han grinned.

“Fuck off.” On the other side of the phone, Fire Phoenix scolded him as she rubbed her forehead and continued; “I say, can you bastard give me a break, I’ve only been gone for a short while and you’ve even invited the Blood Hand Hall again, do you really think you’re a cat and have nine lives?”

Ye Han lit himself a cigarette before saying slowly; “Your news is quite fast, but since you know that I killed the Blood Hand Hall, you should know why I did it.”

“Couldn’t you bastard think of a more peaceful way to solve it?” Fire Phoenix laughed bitterly in anger; “You little bastard just provoked the Heavenly Dignity Society some time ago, and now you have provoked the Blood Hand Hall, if these two forces find you in trouble, when the time comes, even if we can save you, have you thought about the others beside you?”

At these words, Ye Han fell silent, Fire Phoenix’s words somewhat woke him up, the people around him, Ye Qing, Zhou Yun’er, Zhao Youyou, Little Qingcheng, Tang Da Shao, Lin Baimo, these were the people who had come closest to him, if these people were to be implicated because of him, Ye Han would never feel at ease for the rest of his life.

“No one should try to hurt the people around me.” Letting out a deep breath, Ye Han’s voice said coldly.

Fire Phoenix sighed; “Forget it, it has already happened you take care of yourself, two of the ten war generals died in Shanghai City, the people from the Blood Hand Hall will not stop easily, also, I have received news that people from the Heavenly Dignity Society have entered Shanghai City, you should be careful, maybe these people are coming for you.”

Hearing these words, Ye Han's brow furrowed, the people from the Heavenly Dignity Society had actually arrived in Shanghai City.

Hanging up the phone call from Fire Phoenix, Ye Han's mood was a bit irritable, unknowingly, he drove the car to the bank of Huangpu River where he first talked to Fire Phoenix, there was not much people here at night, standing at the bank of the river, Ye Han rubbed his forehead with some headache, took out a cigarette from his pocket and smoked it quietly by himself.

Suddenly, however, Ye Han glanced out of the corner of his eye and saw a black shadow suddenly flashing in the darkness ten metres away from him.

"What's that?" Ye Han's figure moved, and the cigarette inside his hand immediately flicked towards that black shadow, and immediately, Ye Han's figure followed, and a fist blasted towards that black shadow.

With a bang, Ye Han and the person in the darkness clashed with a fist, and the terrifying force shot out in all directions, like a fierce gale, Ye Han's body instantly retreated in quick succession, and he could not help but have a flash of horror cross his eyes.
