Fortune Chapter 201

Ye Han's first stitch started with the Punching Vessel, one of the eight veins, which runs up to the head and down to the feet, and runs through the whole body, becoming the main point of Qi and blood.

After Ye Han performed this needle, Sun Bumian immediately felt the internal energy in his body start to become unstable, with a tendency to be chaotic and boiling, but this was just the beginning, after the Punching Vessel, Ye Han's second needle landed on the Belt Vessel, followed by the two major meridians, the Yin Stilt Vessel and Yin Wei Vessel.

When Ye Han had done this, the internal energy within Sun Bu Mian's body began to roar and flow in all directions, there was a feeling of devilry, causing Sun Bu Mian's face to turn red with suffocation, after the needles were applied to the meridians within his body by Ye Han, the internal energy within his body was surprisingly chaotic, there was a premonition of going off the deep end.

"Senior, from now on, run the internal energy in your body, walk through the four major meridians of the Punch, Belt, Yin Stilt and Yin Wei veins, then then hit the Governor's vein, this process will be painful, I hope you can hold on." Ye Han wiped the sweat from his forehead as he said to Sun Bumian.

If one wanted to become an expert at the Ren and Du realms, there were two major hurdles to break through, the first was the Ren vein and the second was the Du vein, the Ren vein hurdle Sun Bu Mian had already achieved a long time ago, right now there was only the Du vein left.

After the late stage of the Peiyuan realm, there is actually another realm called Ren Pulse Master, meaning an expert who has broken through the Ren Pulse. Having broken through the Ren and Du veins in succession, one was an expert of the Realm of Ren and Du.

When he heard this method from Ye Han, Sun Bumian's heart jumped in fear, retrograde internal energy striking the Governor's Vessel, running internal energy like this, that was a complete death wish, who dared to do that? But out of his trust in Ye Han, Sun Bumian did as he was told and started to run his internal energy against his body, ruthlessly going towards the Governor's vein. His Ren vein had already been opened, and now only the Governor's vein remained.

However, the pain of retrograde internal energy striking the Governor's Vessel was not something that ordinary people could endure, even Sun Bumian's face was left with a cold sweat, obviously retrograde internal energy had caused him pain to the extreme.

Of course, Ye Han did not stay idle either, he started to mobilize the spiritual energy in his body to enter Sun Bu Mian's body, repairing the meridians that were damaged by the retrograde internal energy, only in this way could Sun Bu Mian's pain be alleviated, and step by step, he would be able to impact the Governor's Vein until he broke through.

This method was extremely dangerous, but only Ye Han could do it. Even if others learned this retrograde method, if they did not have the spiritual qi on hand to constantly repair the damaged meridians, it would undoubtedly be an act of seeking death.

Ye Han was focused, the spiritual qi in his body had been uninterruptedly channeled towards Sun Bu Mian's body, how long this would last depended on Sun Bu Mian's ruthlessness and perseverance, only by being ruthless to himself and reckless of the consequences would he have a chance to succeed.

Outside the villa, Zhao Hengtian and the others were worried about the situation inside the villa while guarding its safety.

The two of them combined their efforts and Sun Bu Mian made a breakthrough. He succeeded in breaking through the Governor's Vessel, and a powerful force came together in heaven and earth and began to enter Sun Bu Mian's body, transforming the internal energy in his body.

Sensing the situation inside the villa, outside the villa, Zhao Hengtian's three faces were overjoyed.

"It worked, Old Sun has broken through Ren Du!" Zhou Lie's heart was shocked and his eyes were on fire, an expert of the Ren Du realm had been born right before his eyes, what magical method had Ye Han used to achieve this? It was simply a miracle.

"It worked, Zhou Lie, it's your turn next, don't let Han Zi waste his efforts, breaking through to Ren Du is a good thing for you too." Zhao Hengtian looked at Zhou Lie and said.

"Don't worry, I'll break through Ren Du even if I have to fight for my life, it's something I've always dreamed of." Zhou Lie said with fiery eyes.

Ye Han walked out from inside the villa, at the moment Sun Buwei was transforming his internal energy inside the villa and needed some time.

"Hanzi, how is it, is it my turn?" When he saw Ye Han come out, Zhou Lie's eyes immediately rose in anticipation.

Ye Han nodded and smiled; "Big brother Zhou, I hope you can pull through safely as well."

After taking Zhou Lie into the villa, the two of them changed places in order not to disturb Sun Buwei, and then Ye Han used the same method to help Zhou Lie break through the Ren Du, a process that also made Zhou Lie suffer, but with Ye Han's help, he still gritted his teeth and pulled through, successfully breaking through the Governor's Vein.

Helping the two masters to break through the Ren Du also made Ye Han tired and consumed a lot of spiritual energy in his body.

However, to have such a result, Ye Han was still very satisfied. With the birth of two experts of the Ren Du realm, the strength of their side could be said to have increased by leaps and bounds, or at least it was much stronger than before.

Moreover, with this experience, the next time he helped others to break through the Ren Du, Ye Han would be much smoother.

Zhao Hengtian, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie, three experts of the Ren Du realm, four if you added in Little Tiger who could not see the depth, and with the strength of Silly Ben and himself, there was absolutely no problem dealing with experts who had broken through the Ren Veins.

“You don’t have to look at me like that, breaking through the Ren Du has to be done by yourself, I won’t help you, breaking through by yourself is the way to go, understand?” Looking at Silly Ben’s giggling face with anticipation, Ye Han smiled and shook his head, a true genius, in fact, breaking through the Ren and Du veins by himself was the king’s way, such a person could only go farther in martial arts cultivation in the future.

Moreover, what kind of power Silly Ben cultivated, Ye Han did not know at all, to help him break through the Ren Du, Ye Han himself was not sure, hearing Ye Han’s words, Silly Ben nodded with a silly smile, and no longer thought about Ye Han helping him break through.

Zhao Hengtian said; “With Old Sun and Zhou Lie, two experts of the Ren Du realm, the risk we face is going to be much less, but Han Zi, before we are strong enough, this method must not be used often, once people know that you can help martial artists break through the Ren Du realm, how crazy would this be.”

Ye Han nodded, he understood the stakes, at that time, he would become a piece of donkey meat, people who had not broken through the Ren Du would want to come and take a bite, if Ye Han helped them break through then so be it, otherwise

It was not until the evening that all the internal energy in Sun Buwei’s and Zhou Lie’s bodies was transformed into true qi. At this point, Ye Han’s side, two experts at the realm of Ren Du were officially born.

Fortune Chapter 202

In the East China Underworld, many people’s eyes began to gather towards Shanghai City, because news came in that over in Xijiang, the White-Faced Scholar had moved and led his experts to leave the Blood Hand Hall, what were they doing there? It was common knowledge, but when it was learned that the White-Faced Scholar had brought the First and Second Generals with him, everyone in the East China underground world was shaken to their core.

The First and Second Generals, together with the Third General, were the pillars of the Blood Hand Hall, and their status was equivalent to that of the Four Heavenly Kings of the Heavenly Dignity Society.

On this day, a wave of news spread through the underground world.

For the sake of Jiang Xiaofeng’s safety, the white-faced scholar did not set foot in Shanghai City after all, but chose to stay in the adjacent Xiwuqi City in Shanghai City, and sent out a message; asking Ye Han to go to ‘Jiangdi Park’ tomorrow for a chat.

This move by the white-faced scholar immediately spread among those who were following the event, and the East China underground world began to talk about it. The white-faced scholar did not set foot in Shanghai City, which was a disguised compromise that had to shock people, but on closer reflection, it made sense because the young man in Shanghai City had a bargaining chip that the white-faced scholar was afraid of.

But inviting Ye Han to Xiyou City’s Jiangdi Park for a chat is not that simple, would Ye Han dare to go?

Would Ye Han dare to go, or not?

Zhao Hengtian and the others were considering this question. It was not impossible to leave Shanghai City and go to Xiyou City, but once they left Shanghai City, it would be bad if the Blood Hand Hall still had secret hands to take advantage of the opportunity and move Ye Han's backyard.

Moreover, apart from the Blood Hand Hall, there were other people involved in the underground world, and these people had not shown their faces so far.

"This is a good move by the white-faced scholar, making them turn passivity into initiative, what a sinister fellow, if we don't go, we are bound to become the joke of the underground world in East China." Zhao Hengtian's eyes were calm as he was analysing the power of it, to go, or not to go? It was a difficult choice, Ye Han and the others hadn't expected the white-faced scholar to come up with this move and put them in their place.

"Shit, what the hell, this is obviously a trap, let's just stay in Shanghai City and see what they can do?" Tang Da Shao's leg had almost healed, the events of the past few days had only spread in the underground world, but people with some ability basically knew about the feud between Ye Han and Blood Hand Hall, so he and Lin Baimo were also running to Ye Han's side for three days.

Ye Han was silent, although what Young Tang said was true, but he had just made a bit of a name for himself in the underground world, did he have to just admit his weakness and hide in Shanghai City and not go there? Wouldn't that make the people of East China look at him as a joke.

But just when Ye Han and the others were having a hard time deciding, Nangong Zixun came, and with her came the old man.

After knowing the news that Ye Han was alive, Nangong ZiXun had always wanted to come over and meet Ye Han, but Ye Han was rather busy these days, so Nangong ZiXun did not come over, but today, that old man beside her actually took the initiative to bring her over.

"ZiXun, senior, what brings you here?" Ye Han invited the two into the house.

Nangong ZiXun shrugged her shoulders and said; "Don't ask me, it was Grandpa Gao who wanted to come."

Upon hearing this, Ye Han looked at the old man who appeared somewhat quiet in surprise.

Under Ye Han's gaze, the old man said indifferently; "I owe Situ Zhentian a favor, today I'll consider it a return to him, I'll look after this side of Shanghai City for you, Situ Zhentian told me to tell you to do something, you can let go of it, no need to worry."

Hearing these words, Ye Han thought of Situ Zhentian's face, a touch of emotion flowed through his heart and said; "Then, thank you senior, in future, if senior has something to do, just give me an order."

The old man silently nodded his head, Ye Han was a divine doctor with fantastic medical skills, it was possible that he would really have trouble with Ye Han in the future.

The next day, Ye Han left and headed for Tin Wu City, but Ye Han did not bring Zhao Hengtian, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie with him, several of Zhao Hengtian's old rivals had already entered Shan Hai City, if Zhao Hengtian followed along, these people would inevitably go too, and then the meeting with the white-faced scholar would become even more troublesome.

Therefore, Zhao Hengtian had to take care of these people in Shanhai City. Of course, in order to ensure that there would be no accidents, Ye Han let Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie stay behind to help him, and he himself took Foolish Ben with him to Xiyou City, but with Foolish Ben in the dark and him in the light, and with Jiang Xiaofeng as a bargaining chip in his hand, Ye Han was certain that the White-Faced Scholar would not dare to mess around yet.

As for those who wanted to deal with him, as long as there were no experts of the Ren Du realm, he and Foolish Ben would be enough.

Of course, Ye Han had another main reason for leaving Zhao Hengtian's trio in Shanhai City.

The Northwest Medical King and Murong Jiu, these two people were like two poisonous snakes in the shadows, they could not say when they would bite you.

There is also the war knife beside Murong Jiu, which is also a reason for Ye Han's fear.

However, with the old man guarding the Shanhai City home, plus the harmless little tiger, and the three experts of Zhao Hengtian at the realm of Ren Du outside, it was considered solid, so Ye Han could go to the tinless city and meet with the white-faced scholar without fear.

By noon, Ye Han had already arrived in Xiyou City. Jiangdi Park was one of the most famous parks in Xiyou City, and on normal days, there were tens of thousands of visitors here every day, but today, it was not open to the public, and the whole park seemed unusually quiet, with not even a single staff member inside.

Today, Ye Han was dressed in casual clothes, looking very fresh, and with his Dragon Spring Sword, he entered Jiangdi Park alone.

However, the moment he entered the park, the people who were secretly following him and the Blood Hand Hall in Jiangdi Park today were the first to spread the news to those who were following this matter, and when they learnt that Ye Han had gone to the appointment alone with his sword, the underground world in East China was immediately stirred up.

Facing the White-Faced Scholar and the many experts of the Blood Hand Hall, Ye Han dared to go to the appointment by himself!

This had to be said that he was bold and arrogant, did he really think that the experts of the Blood Hand Hall were all just for show?

As he entered Jiangdi Park, Ye Han dialed Situ Zhentian's phone number and said only two words; "Thanks!"

As Situ Zhentian listened to the blind tone coming from inside the phone, he instantly cursed; "This bastard, he's pissing me off! Save your money, will two more words make you impotent? For your sake, I've gone to beg the people of the 'Martial Pavilion', hoping that there's an empty old man around to help you get through and go to the appointment alone, you bastard is too underestimating that head of the white-faced scholar."

Fortune Chapter 203

After entering Jiangdi Park, he could see from afar that a man wearing white casual clothes was drinking tea in a pavilion, and he looked very intoxicated.

Behind this man, there were four men and one woman standing, one of them was the most noticeable to Ye Han because the aura on these two men was exactly the same as Zhao Hengtian's. Undoubtedly, these two men were both experts of the Realm of Ren Du, the First General and the Second General, but the Second General was a woman.

Ye Han's arrival caused the people inside the pavilion to cast their eyes on him, and suddenly, Ye Han was able to feel a terrifying killing intent fall on his body.

The white-faced scholar looked at Ye Han, he was smiling, smiling gently, as if he was a scholar who had read a lot of poetry and books, there was no hint of the Blood Hand Hall's military master, but a dog that bites does not bark, this white-faced scholar's sinister Ye Han had already learned.

The first time, he mobilized the Blood Hand Hall and wanted to enter Shanghai City with great fanfare as a way to exert pressure on Ye Han, but he was blocked by Ye Han's words. Before they met, this kind of contest between the two, the first time, the white-faced scholar lost, but the second time, he quickly put Ye Han in a position to move back to a game, making it difficult for Ye Han to make a choice. here.

Ye Han went to the appointment alone, when he did not enter Jiangdi Park, in fact, the white-faced scholar already knew about it, he was also shocked at Ye Han's boldness, but it did not matter, his plan, nothing had changed.

Looking at the white-faced scholar inside the pavilion, Ye Han smiled faintly, immediately, his body swept across the lake like a stream of light, landing safely and securely inside the pavilion, and also sat down opposite the white-faced scholar, as the white-faced scholar had already made a cup of tea waiting for him to take his seat.

"Good stance, among the rising stars, I have not seen many people with your courage and strength in my life, please use the tea." The white-faced scholar looked at Ye Han and smiled lightly, that look was like talking to an old friend whom he had not seen for years.

Ye Han picked up the cup of tea and put it under his nose and smelled it; "Good tea! Unfortunately, this tea is not to my taste, what I like is wine, is there any wine to drink?"

Upon hearing this, the white-faced scholar smiled; "To be honest, after meeting you, I quite like you as a person, if you want to drink, naturally there is."

After saying that, someone had already brought up a jug of wine, this kind of wine did not look for sale in the market, the fragrance of that burst of wine was intoxicating.

Ye Han took a greedy sip as he looked at the white-faced scholar and said; "Like me? I'm sorry, I have a normal sexual orientation and am only interested in women, I didn't expect that the military commander of the Blood Hand Hall would like men, this is a great wonder in East China."

Hearing Ye Han's words, the eyes of the great generals behind the white-faced scholar suddenly released a blazing aura, their gazes were as cold as water and their killing intent was awe-inspiring.

The white-faced scholar was not angry either as he continued to laugh; "You are a rare talent, East China is my Blood Hand Hall's place, if you are willing and hand over the Young Hall Master, I can make you the number two person in my Blood Hand Hall, equal to me, I wonder what you think?"

This, was a very tempting offer, if it were an ordinary person, he would only have agreed immediately, to become the number two person of Blood Hand Hall, this was the equivalent of the number two person in the underground world of East China, with great power.

But would Ye Han say yes? Naturally not. He had killed the 10th General, the 9th General and the 7th General, and had also scrapped the 5th General, broken Jiang Xiaofeng's leg and detained him, all these things had doomed him to not become his own man with the Blood Hand Hall.

If Ye Han agreed to this blank check from the white-faced scholar now and let Jiang Xiaofeng go, he was only afraid that the next moment, this gentle smiling man would turn into a hungry wolf that would eat people without spitting out bones.

"Do you think that's possible?" Ye Han looked at the white-faced scholar and sneered, saying; "You are at least the military master of the Blood Hand Hall, so don't bring out those false tricks to disgrace yourself, what do you want to talk about by calling me here today? Let's speak directly, let's not waste time."

"That's a shame!" The white-faced scholar sighed as he looked at Ye Han and said; "Since that's the case, I'm not one to waste time, let Young Hall Master go and I, the Blood Hand Hall, can promise not to bother you, otherwise, you should know what kind of consequences you will face."

At those words, Ye Han put down the wine cup in his hand, his eyes suddenly became as cold as a blade; "If you let Jiang Xiaofeng go, do you think I'll still have a chance to live? Don't give me any talk about credibility, your Blood Hand Hall is not worthy of talking about these two words, right now, the only thing you can do is to leave obediently, and until I release Jiang Xiaofeng, you better not enter Shanghai City to look for trouble with me, otherwise, your Young Hall Master will only really have to go to the Huangpu River to feed the fish."

"How dare you!" Hearing Ye Han's words, the fourth general, Zhu Fei of the Human Slaughterer, had a monstrous murderous look on his face, and that killing knife was already tightly gripped in his hand, ready to slash down towards Ye Han's head at any moment.

The other four generals' faces were equally murderous, daring to threaten them in front of them like this, ignoring the Blood Hand Hall, such a person simply deserved to die, if they were not concerned about the fact that Ye Han still had Jiang Xiaofeng as a bargaining chip in his hand, they would have torn Ye Han alive right now to vent their hatred.

"Young man, I advise you to think about it calmly and take back what you just said. Don't think that because you have the Young Hall Master as a bargaining chip in your hand, we really can't do anything to you." The white-faced scholar looked at Ye Han indifferently, and that voice gradually grew cold.

Ye Han grinned, a bone-chilling feeling flowing between his teeth, and said; "I don't need to consider your words, because you are simply talking nonsense, trying to use the Blood Hand Hall to pressure me, you are using the wrong method. It depends on my mood and your performance."

At these words, all the people of the Blood Hand Hall were enraged, the white-faced scholar's face all wore a cold to the extreme, and met Ye Han's gaze with a sharp edge; "It seems that you are bent on going against my Blood Hand Hall, if I take you down now, how do you think it will end?"

Ye Han smiled and stood up, looking down at the white-faced scholar; "You can make a move to try, but let me warn you first, as long as you dare to make a move, the next moment, you will receive the news of Jiang Xiaofeng's death."

"You dare?"

"If you dare, why wouldn't I dare?" Ye Han sneered with a fierce face.

Looking at this scene of two people fighting against each other, a fierce aura enveloped the entire pavilion, and as soon as the white-faced warlord gave the order, several great generals and their men would take down Ye Han and go to Shanhai City to exchange for Jiang Xiaofeng.

Fortune Chapter 204

But right in the middle of this scuffle, the white-faced warlord laughed, but that laugh was a bit chilling and eerie, and at the same time, the white-faced warlord looked at Ye Han, and his face became a little bit more hideous.

"Having the Young Hall Master as a bargaining chip, it is true that my Blood Hand Hall does not dare to move you and can only be subject to you, but, young man, you are too wild, do you think that your enemies are only my Blood Hand Hall?" The white-faced scholar sneered; "Many friends make the road easier, many enemies make it difficult to move an inch, today you came alone to your appointment, it seems you already know something, at this moment, I'm only afraid that Zhao Hengtian over in Shanhai City is under a lot of pressure."

"Some cats and dogs are just that, so don't worry about military division." Ye coldly smiled, if Sun Bumin and Zhou Lie had not broken through, Zhao Hengtian would indeed be under great pressure, but the white-faced scholar would never have dreamed that besides Zhao Hengtian, an expert of the Realm of the Governor, there were two other experts of the Realm of the Governor who had just advanced.

The three experts of the Realm of the Governor were enough to deal with those who wanted to find trouble with Zhao Hengtian.

As for the people who wanted to trouble Ye Han, they had already appeared at this moment, only to see that around the pavilion, six figures had appeared one after another, some of these people were old and middle-aged, there was no need to guess Ye Han knew that these people must be the people called by that sinister person, the Northwest Medical King, to deal with him.

"It seems that even if my Blood Hand Hall does not strike at you, there are quite a lot of people who want to kill you, this next level, with you alone I am curious to know how you will break through?" The white-faced warlord looked at the six figures that appeared as he smiled faintly.

"You will see." Ye Han looked at the six figures that appeared, then he said to the white-faced warlord; "Even though you, white-faced warlord, are wise and resourceful, there are times when you likewise miscalculate."

As he said that, Ye Han had already left the pavilion, and the moment he left, the Dragon Spring Sword in Ye Han's hand had already been sheathed, like a flash of lightning appearing under the blue sky and white sun, the cold light was compelling and dazzling, seeing this, the six figures that appeared ran towards Ye Han at the same time.

"Six Ren Pulse experts, even if they can't kill him, it's enough for him to fight bitterly for a few hours, this time I'm really thankful to that sinister old fellow, the Northwest Medical King, if he hadn't intervened, this person is soft and hard, I really can't do anything about him." The white-faced scholar sat inside the pavilion watching the battle with a cold smile on his face, then he looked at the First General and the Second General and said; "You guys go to Shanghai City quickly, I heard that this man has a lot of women, as long as you catch those women of his, I am not afraid that he will not hand over the Young Hall Master."

At those words, the First General and Second General nodded and walked towards the outside of the pavilion, this was their plan from the beginning, for Jiang Xiaofeng's safety, they would not deal with Ye Han, but as soon as the person who dealt with Ye Han appeared, then, it was time for them to act.

However, just as the First General and the Second General stepped out of the pavilion, from somewhere, a fishing rod came flying across the pavilion, as fast as lightning, with astonishing power.

As they looked, they saw an old man in a wooden boat, wearing a bucket hat, swaying as he came along, the fishing rod back in his hand as he sat quietly in the boat, fishing.

Seeing this, the First General and the Second General darted towards the old man at the same time, their terrifying auras blossoming at the same time, their terrifying attacks falling down to shatter both the old man and the wooden boat.

However, in the face of their simultaneous strikes, the old man did not even get up, and with a sweep of the fishing rod in his hand, he forced both the first and second generals back with a light blow. Why do you want to fight against my Blood Hand Hall?"

Hearing this, the old man said in reply; "There are not many outstanding young men left nowadays, this son is not bad, since our friends from the Blood Hand Hall have already come, why don't you accompany me to finish watching this battle before leaving?"

The white faced warlord's eyes went cold, this old man actually wanted to leave them here to watch the battle between Ye Han and those six experts, how could this work, he had other plans.

"What if I don't agree anymore?" The white-faced warlord replied indifferently.

"Alas! I'm getting old, do my friends from the Blood Hand Hall not even agree to this small request and have to force my hand?" A long sigh came from the old man's mouth, and suddenly, a shocking aura was instantly released from this old man's body, as terrifying as a flooding beast!

Feeling this astonishing aura, several great generals of the Blood Hand Hall immediately blocked in front of the white-faced warlord, their eyes staring intensely at the old man, the terror of this old man, only afraid that it had reached the level of the hall master, all around, the lurking experts of the Bloodshed Group also appeared, all of them confronted the old man.

However, feeling the terrifying aura of this old man, the experts of the Bloodshed Hall did not dare to move at all, once they did, with that old man's terrifying strength, would they really be able to stop this old man?

In the battle, Ye Han was fighting against six people, and all six of them were experts who had already broken through the Ren Pulse, so their strength was extraordinary.

Even Cao Chong, an expert of the Tiger Ranking, who had broken through the Ren Pulse, was no match for Ye Han's slash, would these people who were not ranked on the Tiger Ranking be Ye Han's match? Of course, if it was the old Ye Han who faced this kind of formation today, he would definitely die without a chance of survival, but today was different from the past, moreover, Ye Han did not come alone today.

"Roar!"

With a wild roar, Foolish Ben, who was hidden in the shadows, appeared, his body was like a tyrannical dragon, a human-shaped machine, raging into the battle circle, in his hand was a big thick and heavy blade, this blade was Guan Fei's Crescent Moon Blade, but after Guan Fei's death, Ye Han gave it to Foolish Ben, with his strength, it was just right to use this Crescent Moon Blade.

As Silly Ben slashed down, the six experts who were dealing with Ye Han's eyes froze as they burst back, the terrifying slash landed on the ground, and within five metres around them, the ground split into pieces.

The white-faced scholar's eyes stared at the silly Ben who had appeared, Ye Han had not come alone.

He still knew too little about Ye Han, since he had this terrifying old man stepping up for him, did he not have other powerful figures behind Ye Han on the Mountain and Sea City side stepping up for him? This was something that the white-faced scholar had guessed.

At the same time, the appearance of Silly Ben also made the white-faced scholar know that he had underestimated this young man, who had gone to the appointment alone, seemingly frivolously, but in fact, secretly, he had already prepared everything.

The white-faced scholar's plan had deviated from his budget.

Fortune Chapter 205

The appearance of the terrifying old man made the white-faced scholar not dare to make a move, but since Ye Han had already made preparations over in Shanhai City, the white-faced scholar knew that even if he sent his men to Shanhai City at this moment it would only be of no use, so the people of the Blood Hand Hall all watched the battle quietly and peacefully from inside the pavilion.

There were six experts who had opened their Ren Chakra, Ye Han fought three alone, and Silly Ben fought three alone.

Although Ye Han's strength had only broken through to the late stage of the Peiyuan realm, his combat power could not be measured in terms of realms, and having the Dragon Spring Sword made his combat power rise even more.

Therefore, against three experts who had opened the Ren Chakra, he was not at all disadvantaged.

“Kid, taste the Wife’s Desperate Needle.” At that moment, an old woman appeared in front of Ye Han like a ghost and shot out a black poison needle with her hand.

“Humph, the most poisonous woman’s heart, let me send you back to the West.”

Ye Han forced back the other two experts with a single stroke of his sword, wielding his Dragon Spring Sword to ward off that one poison needle, immediately, his body moved and Ye Han’s figure appeared continuously in the surrounding void, making the old woman unable to tell which one was Ye Han’s real body, this was a very powerful body technique.

“Wudang, Ladder Cloud Stance.” The old man looked at the stance that Ye Han was casting out at this moment, and his eyes flickered under his bucket hat.

It was true, the stance Ye Han had cast out was naturally the Wudang Stepping Cloud Stance, back in the Spirit Mine Cave, Zhang Sanfeng had left behind two sets of sword techniques, a leg technique and a stance technique.

In the void, the figure flickered and before the old woman could tell which one was Ye Han, an astonishing sword light suddenly fell towards her, the matchless sword qi landed on her body, and the poisonous old woman was immediately killed by Ye Han’s sword.

Seeing Ye Han kill the old woman with one sword, the other two were shocked, after glancing at each other, they both pounced on Ye Han, if they didn’t kill him, Ye Han would kill them.

“Hmph, the Northwest Medical King told you to come and kill me, today, I will kill you first before I kill him.” Ye Han’s face was indifferent to the extreme as he looked at the two people who were lunging at the same time, and in a sudden flash, he only saw a veil descending from the sky.

“Yin and Yang Two Yi Sword Technique!” The terrifying sword qi swept wildly across as if a fierce wind was sweeping through the falling leaves.

Those two people’s expressions were startled and they hurriedly used their respective skills to ward off Ye Han’s terrifying sword.

However, in the next moment, another sword from Ye Han also came.

“Great Free Sword Technique!”

This sword came so fast that the two men had just stabilised their bodies when this sword had already reached them. The Great Free Sword Technique, which was unrestrained, also had a wild and unrestrained terrifying power, causing the two men to be hit hard at once.

This was Ye Han’s usual style in combat, so he showed no mercy, bullying his way up, and the terrifying Dragon Spring Sword once again reaped two lives.

The three experts who had opened up the Ren Chakra were still no match for Ye Han under the combination.

By the time Ye Han’s side of the battle was over, Foolish Ben’s side had already finished early, his fighting style was as brave as a tiger, full of extreme raging power, the three who fought against him could not stop his power at all, and were mercilessly blasted to death.

All six experts who had opened the Ren Pulse had fallen in just these ten minutes. Looking at the two young men standing together, the corners of the white-faced scholar's eyes slowly narrowed, the potential of these two young men was terrifying, and if they made enemies with the Blood Hand Hall, they would become a big problem in the future.

"Military Master." The first general and the second general looked at the white-faced military master, their eyes were filled with killing intent, Ye Han and Silly Ben, these two could not be kept.

He shook his head, now was not the time to make a move, with that old man around, not to mention whether they could kill Ye Han and Foolish Ben, their side of the Blood Hand Hall was bound to die, the ten war generals had already lost four, no more losses could be incurred.

"Let's go, back to Xijiang." The first and second generals gave Ye Han an icy look in their eyes, although they were reluctant, they could only leave just like that, although they had nothing to lose in this fight with Ye Han, they were disgraced.

The Blood Hand Hall, which was famous in East China, had come with its experts, but was forced to retreat unwillingly, and the noise was so loud that everyone in the East China underground world knew about it.

It is conceivable that once word of this spreads, the prestige of Blood Hand Hall in East China will fall to the ground and even become a laughing stock for others to gossip about after dinner, so don't look at the white-faced scholar without a scowl, in fact, in his heart, he is angrier than anyone else.

With the Blood Hand Hall's expert gone, Ye Han looked at the old man on the small boat and said respectfully; "Senior, dare I ask why you are helping me?"

Just now during the battle, Ye Han could see with his own eyes that this old man had shaken the first and second generals with a fishing rod, so much so that the other experts of the Blood Hand Hall did not dare to move, such great strength, he had never seen before.

"You will know when you go to Yanjing sometime, and since the matter here is over, it is time for me to go."

The old man finished speaking and drove the small boat away on the lake.

"Yanjing." Ye Han looked at the old man's back, it seemed that he owed Situ Zhentian another big favour.

"Silly Ben, let's go, back to Shanghai City, there are some people that are still waiting for us to go back and settle accounts with him." Thinking of the Northwest Medical King, Ye Han's face was incomparably cold, this time when he went back, he would definitely make that villain who liked to stab people in the back pay the price.

However, after Ye Han and the others left, what happened at Jiangdi Park was also quickly passed around the underground world of East China.

After knowing that the White-Faced Warlord had just returned to Xijiang with the experts from the Blood Hand Hall, the entire East China underground world could be said to be buzzing with excitement, although the reason for it was unclear to many people, they only knew that an old man had appeared, but the fact that the White-Faced Warlord had just left without moving Ye Han at all was a surprise to people!

Could that old man be the reason why the white-faced warlord didn't move Ye Han you?

Of course, no matter what the reason was, Ye Han had become famous in the underground world of East China, and moreover, that battle between Ye Han and Silly Ben both at Jiangdi Park was also passed on at the same time. That young man in Shanghai City was not only a marvelous doctor, but he was also very strong, fighting alone against three experts who had opened up the Ren Pulse, and killing all of them.

Fortune Chapter 206

"It seems that another new rising genius is about to appear in the underground world, according to the news that has come in, that Ye Han is still only at the late stage of the Peiyuan realm, yet he was able to kill three experts who had cleared the Ren Chakra, this kind of strength, this kind of age, you can't find many of them in the underground world."

"There is news that these people were called by that old man, the Northwest Medical King, it seems that losing to this Ye Han in the medical arts, that old man, the Northwest Medical King, is very angry."

"The Northwest Medical King's move was indeed sinister enough, but it didn't work, all the people he called there had their lives buried."

"No wonder this Ye Han dares to call out the Blood Hand Hall and detain the Young Hall Master of the Blood Hand Hall, not only because he has the expert Zhao Hengtian behind him, but he himself is likewise, I'm only afraid that within a few years, with his ability, he won't have to scare the Blood Hand Hall of anything at all by then."

"If he doesn't die, there is indeed such a possibility, but this Ye Han has quite a few capable people beside him, and this, if the white-faced military master hadn't pressed in with great fanfare, I'm afraid no one would have known that besides Zhao Hengtian, an expert of the Realm of Ren Du, he also has two experts of the Realm of Ren Du backing him up. Moreover, the big young man who appeared with him at Jiangdi Park is not to be underestimated either."

"Not only that, I heard that the killer Mythical War Blade also appeared today and went to the villa where that Ye Han lives, but it seems that nothing happened, among them, I'm afraid there are hidden secrets that we don't know about."

"All in all, this young man called Ye Han is very mysterious, three experts of the Ren Du realm are escorting him, and secretly no one knows if there are other people around him to back him up, I'm afraid the white-faced scholar will have to think about it when he finds out."

What happened in Jiangdi Park was spreading in the dark, and many people were now talking about Ye Han and the Blood Hand Hall. This young man, who was showing his face in the underground world for the first time, was in the limelight, and he had collided with the Blood Hand Hall, a huge corporation, and was unharmed.

On the way back, Ye Han contacted the people over in Shanghai City, and was relieved to learn that Zhao Hengtian and the others had settled their opponents intact, then Ye Han also called home, but after knowing that the War Daggers had appeared, Ye Han's eyes suddenly went cold.

"Murong Jiu ah, Murong Jiu do you have to force me to kill you?" Ye Han's eyes were incomparably cold, although the war knife went to the villa, with that old man beside Nangong Zixun, he did nothing, but if there was no that old man today, what would the war knife do? Kill all the people inside the villa? Or use them to threaten him?

"Lingjiao, help me find out if Murong Jiu and the Northwest Medical King are still in Shanghai City?" Ye Han dialed Yan Lingjiao's phone number.

Upon hearing this, Yan Lingjiao said; "I knew you would ask me, there is no need to check, they are inside a private villa in Ming Mountain, what? Ye Han, you really choose to move Murong Jiu?"

Yan Lingjiao didn't know about the underground world, nor was she clear about it, but she knew how influential the Murong family was in the south, Murong Jiu was a member of the Murong family, if Ye Han moved him, the consequences would be even more serious than detaining Jiang Xiaofeng.

"Don't worry, I'll be discreet." Hanging up the phone, Ye Han directly sped off to Shanghai City, of course, he also informed Zhao Hengtian and the three of them, now that he was back, it was time to find the Northwest Medical King and Murong Jiu to settle the score.

After knowing Murong Jiu's location, Ye Han did not even go back home and drove his car directly to this place.

In front of the gate of a villa, Ye Han could already see from afar that the War Dagger was currently standing at the entrance like a god of war.

Obviously, he was waiting for someone, for Ye Han and the others to arrive.

Turning off the engine and getting out of the car, Ye Han was followed by Zhao Hengtian, three experts of the Realm of Rendu, in addition to himself and Silly Ben, today, even killing War Dagger was not a difficult task.

"What, War Dagger, have you come to send yourself to your death?" Ye Han looked at the War Dagger who was blocking his way, his sword, slowly pulling it out.

War Dagger looked at Ye Han, he frowned and said; "Ye Han, I advise you not to act recklessly, I didn't touch the people in your villa, so, you shouldn't touch the people inside the villa behind me either, touching Nine Young Men, this is not like you touching Jiang Xiaofeng, the consequences, you can't afford it."

"Consequences?" Ye coldly laughed; "I've offended the Blood Hand Hall, do you think I'm still afraid of offending one more Murong family?"

"Arrogant, do you really think that by forcing away the White-Faced Scholar, you are a bully yourself?" At this moment, only to see two figures appearing on top of the villa's roof, it was Murong Jiu and Shen Tian Ao who were dressed in casual clothes, looking at these two people who appeared, the killing machine in Ye Han's eyes surged wildly, with a movement of his body, he shot directly to the top of the villa's roof.

Seeing this, the killing machine in the eyes of the War Daggers flashed and shot towards Ye Han.

"Stop him!" Zhao Hengtian's three people moved at this time and pounced on War Dagger, three experts of the realm of Ren Du were all moving at the same time, even War Dagger, a killer myth, was intercepted, the four of them exchanged blows in mid-air, in a second's time they had already exchanged ten moves, then, War Dagger was forced back, and at this time, Ye Han and Silly Ben had already appeared on the roof of the villa, standing right beside the two of them, Murong Jiu.

Looking at the appearing Ye Han, Murong Jiu was startled, did this damned fellow really dare to make a move against him?

With a swish, the Dragon Spring Sword in Ye Han's hand was already placed on top of Murong Jiu's neck, feeling the coldness emanating from the Dragon Spring Sword, Murong Jiu's heart chilled and his face turned ugly to the extreme.

"Ye Han, stop." The low voice of the War Dagger came, he had already appeared on the roof of the building, along with the three people who came with him were Zhao Hengtian.

Ye Han squinted at War Dagger and said; "War Dagger, your words still can't command me, if you want me to stay out of trouble, you can, hand over that old bastard Wang Jiuxin, otherwise, I will show you that I dare not touch the Murong family's people or not."

Saying that, Ye Han's Dragon Spring Sword had already cut a bloody mark on Murong Jiu's neck, seeing this, Shen Tian Ao's body standing at the side trembled, this bastard, he actually dared to do it, madman! He was crazy!

Murong Jiu was equally shaken, his face was cloudy, he didn't even dare to say anything, don't look at him as arrogant and domineering, but that was when no one dared to threaten his life, once someone threatened his life, he was equally afraid in his heart, the current Ye Han was a madman in his eyes, a madman who had no regard for consequences.

War Dagger's eyes were cold as he looked at Ye Han and said; "Wang Jiuzhen had already left before you came, if you don't believe me, you can go and take a look inside the villa yourself."

"Leave." Ye coldly laughed; "That bastard has only run away."

In fact, the situation inside the villa, Ye Han had just penetrated it and there was indeed no shadow of Wang Jiu-zhen inside, which proved that Wang Jiu-zhen had already run away before he came.

Fortune Chapter 207

"Now you can let go of Jiu Shao, right?"

Warblade looked at Ye Han, a terrifying chill in his voice.

"Let him go?" Ye Han laughed as he looked at Murong Jiu's face that was clouded by shock, he smiled lightly and said; "Isn't it a little too cheap for you guys to just let him go?"

“Then what do you want?” Murong Jiu asked with an ice-cold face. Ye Han was a madman, now Murong Jiu had finally seen the situation, now, before Ye Han had come here, Murong Jiu hadn’t even thought that Ye Han would dare to touch him, so he didn’t even flee in fear after hearing that Ye Han had won at Jiangdi Park like the Northwest Medical King did, because, he expected that Ye Han wouldn’t dare to touch him.

However, the current situation deviated from what Murong Jiu had in mind, as Ye Han now clearly wanted to move him, without any regard for his identity.

“What do I want? Do you really want to know?” Ye coldly laughed; “Want me not to move you, you can, immediately get the hell out of Shanghai City, from now on, Shanghai City, is my Ye Han’s place, if you don’t get lost, then I will have to condemn you to be a companion with Jiang Xiaofeng.”

“You” Hearing Ye Han’s words, Murong Jiu’s face turned red with anger, to be a companion with Jiang Xiaofeng, did Ye Han also want to detain him in Shanghai City?

“Okay, I promise you, I will take young Jiu away now.” War Dagger spoke, he would not be as hot-headed as Murong Jiu, unable to distinguish the situation, right now, Murong Jiu’s safety was the most important, Ye Han could only do whatever he said, otherwise, if he really angered this madman who dared to do anything, Murong Jiu’s fate might really be the same as that Jiang Xiaofeng’s.

“It seems that the Battle Sword knows more about lifting than you do.” Ye Han glanced at the enraged Murong Jiu, put away his Dragon Spring Sword and said; “Get lost, if you don’t get lost, don’t blame me for turning against you.”

Upon hearing this, Murong Jiu’s gaze stared at Ye Han with a deadly gaze, as if he wanted to eat him alive.

“Don’t look at me like that, I’m not afraid of you Murong Jiu, putting aside the Murong family identity, you’re not even as good as Jiang Xiaofeng in my eyes.” Ye coldly laughed.

“Remember everything you’ve given me today.” Murong Jiu glanced at Ye Han and turned to leave.

“I will remember you, and in the future, if you strike at me, I will simply kill you and will not give you a second chance.”

Hearing these words from Ye Han, Murong Jiu left shaking with anger, Shen Tian Ao followed him without saying a word.

“Stop, did I tell you to leave?” Looking at Shen Tian Ao, Ye Han’s eyes were cold, and at that moment, Silly Ben shot straight over to stop him.

Seeing this, Shen Tian Ao’s face was very ugly as he looked at Murong Jiu’s back and shouted; “Young Master Jiu.”

However, Murong Jiu didn’t even bother with him and directly disappeared in his eyes, seeing this, Shen Tian Ao was a little desperate, if he had known, he should have followed Wang Jiuxin and left, but there was a gap between him and Wang Jiuxin, making Shen Tian Ao not want to be with Wang Jiuxin at all, however, this decision had landed him in Ye Han’s hands at this moment.

“Mr. Little Doctor Wang, do you ever remember what you said at the beginning?” Ye Han looked at Shen Tian Ao and smiled faintly, but the coldness in that smile was like cold ice piercing the bones, Shen Tian Ao looked at Ye Han with an ugly face and said; “Ye Han, what exactly do you want?”

Ye Han said; “Your master Wang Jiuzhen has a good saying, a father’s debt is repaid by his son, he owes me a debt, you, as his disciple, should naturally repay it in his place, what do you think? Mr. Little Doctor Wang.”

“What! The thing that played a dirty trick on you was done by Wang Jiuxin, why should I pay it back in his place?” Shen Tian Ao was so shocked by Ye Han’s words that his face turned pale, paying back the debt for Wang Jiuxin, how could he do it, between him and Wang Jiuxin, their master-disciple relationship was already in name only, for Wang Jiuxin, he had endless hatred in his heart, even, more than hating Ye Han.

“The last time, you have kowtowed in his place, can’t you still replace him with the debt now?” Ye Han looked indifferent, Shen Tian Ao was a sinister villain at heart, just like his master, Wang Jiuxin, so naturally, Ye Han would not just let him go so easily.

At these words, Shen Tian Ao let out a deep breath and said; “Ye Han, in fact, you and I don’t have much of a grudge at all, the one who really has an inseparable grudge against you is Wang Jiu Needle, not me. Do you think that old bastard Wang Jiuzhen will be heartbroken by this?”

“He naturally won’t be heartbroken because you’re dead.” Ye Han said indifferently; “You want me to let you go, it’s not impossible, but, you have to do one thing for me, failing that, you won’t leave this villa alive today.”

“Okay, as long as you let me go, I will promise you anything.” Shen Tian Ao agreed without even thinking about it, at this moment for him, he only wanted to live, he would agree to whatever Ye Han wanted him to do.

“Sharp, then, you go and help me kill your master, Wang Jiuxin.” A sinister look appeared on Ye Han’s face, Wang Jiu-needle had played dirty with him, then he would have to return the favor in an even more sinister way, if he was killed by his own disciple, I thought, Wang Jiu-needle would definitely die in peace.

Hearing Ye Han’s words, Shen Tian Ao felt a chill surge through his whole body, Ye Han, to ask him to kill his master, Wang Jiu Needle, what a poisonous ploy it was!

“What, you don’t agree?” Ye Han’s eyes looked coldly at Shen Tian Ao, his killing intent revealed.

“It’s not impossible for me to help you kill Wang Jiu-zhen, but if I kill him, where will there be a place for me in Huaxia with the name of master-slayer?” Shen Tian Ao’s face was quite ugly, in order to stay alive, he did dare to go and kill Wang Jiuxin, because he had already had such a thought in his heart more than once, but after killing Wang Jiuxin, the impact on him would be too great.

“I don’t care about the rest, I just want you to help me kill Wang Jiuzhen.” Ye Han looked at Shen Tian Ao with a faint smile and said; “Shen Tian Ao, there are actually many ways to kill someone, as long as you do it covertly, who will know that you killed him?”

Shen Tian Ao's eyes lit up, and then he nodded heavily and said; "Okay, I promise you that I will help you kill him."

"Hehe, those who know the time are the best, since that's the case, then let's have an agreement." After saying that, Ye Han's body moved and suddenly appeared in front of Shen Tian Ao's body, and three golden needles were quickly inserted in his body. In the next moment, Shen Tian Ao's face changed and he instantly screamed out, his face twisted, obviously, the three golden needles that Ye Han had just inserted into his body had caused him to suffer to the extreme at the moment.

"This is called the Fatalicide Needle, this is the agreement between you and me, if you help me kill the Wang Jiu Needle, I will tell you the way to unlock it, otherwise, in the end, you will be tortured alive by the pain and die."

Fortune Chapter 208

The indifferent voice slowly spat out from Ye Han's mouth, causing Shen Tian Ao's heart, who was lying on the ground at the moment and screaming in agony, to freeze as if he had fallen into an ice cave, and at this moment, inside his body, it was as if there were ten thousand ants tearing through his body, the pain, the agony was so unbearable that it simply made him even think of committing suicide.

Looking at Shen Tian Ao, who was lying on the ground wailing in pain, Ye Han squatted down and used a golden needle to pierce behind his ear, after which, Shen Tian Ao's painful voice slowly diminished.

This life-killing needle was learned by Ye Han from the Ghost Valley Medical Scriptures, but this method of acupuncture was not used to save people, but to control others, although Ye Han had learned it, he had never used it, and now, it was the first time that he cast it on Shen Tian Ao's body.

Although Shen Tian Ao had promised him, after he had slipped away, who knew if he would do anything for himself. So, there had to be a bargaining chip in there that would make Shen Tian Ao do it willingly.

"What have you done to me?" Shen Tian Ao crawled up, his eyes looking at Ye Han in horror and uncertainty, that pain just now simply made him feel as if life was worse than death.

"Just a small tactic." Ye Han said indifferently; "You should have seen the method I used to control it just now, this severe pain will appear once every half a month, when it appears, stimulating the Feng Chi acupuncture point with a golden needle will stop this pain, of course, this is only treating the symptoms, not the root cause, if you want to know the method to completely solve it, I will tell you after you help me kill Wang Jiu Needle, don't think that your medical skill is so high that you can work out the method of deciphering it, all I can say is don't waste your efforts, you can't decipher it."

At these words, Shen Tian Ao's face was very ugly, he was actually controlled by Ye Han like this, his life and death were both controlled by Ye Han, right now, he had no other way to go except to kill Wang Jiu Needle, this feeling made him want to skin Ye Han to let out his hatred.

Looking at Shen Tian Ao's departing back, Zhao Heng Tian said; "Han Zi, this guy is an authentic villain, he dares to kill even his own master in order to live, now he is under your control, but when this control is completely lifted, this guy will become a scourge."

Ye Liang laughed; "Don't worry, when Wang Jiu-needle dies, that's when his life will be lost, such a dangerous villain, I won't keep him alive any longer."

With Blood Hand Hall gone, Wang Jiu Needle running away and Murong Jiu leaving, at this point, Ye Han's crisis in Shanghai City was truly lifted.

Of course, after this incident, Ye Han's name was also completely famous in East China, and now he was truly starting to enter the stage of the underground world.

However, although the crisis was temporarily lifted, Ye Han knew that there was an even more powerful crisis waiting for him in the future. Although the white-faced warlord was forced to return to Xijiang, they would not stop there for the sake of Jiang Xiaofeng, and if they struck next time, it would be even more violent.

He knew that he would not swallow his anger and would try to take revenge on him. Of course, Ye Han did not dare to kill Murong Jiu.

If he had a grudge against Murong Jiu, this could be considered a petty fight between young people, but if he really killed him, then the Murong family, the Southern Martial Arts Alliance, would definitely not stand by with folded arms, and this was something that Ye Han could do nothing about, he had to be careful with every step he took now.

Moreover, apart from the Blood Hand Hall and Murong Jiu, Ye Han also knew that the Heavenly Dignity Society's side would not give up on him either.

Right now, the only thing Ye Han could do was to keep strengthening himself and building up his power. Right now, although he had Zhao Hengtian's gang of experts around him, it was still far from enough to fight against these people.

A contest came to an end, Ye Han returned home, looking at his face that looked a bit tired, Zhou Yun'er and the girls were suddenly heartbroken, what Ye Han went to do, of course they knew, for himself and for them, he must go to block those storms, this is the responsibility of being a man, but this responsibility on Ye Han's shoulders, too heavy, even more let Zhou Yun'er and the girls heartbroken.

Looking at Zhou Yun'er, Ye Light, Zhao Youyou, even Little Qingcheng were rubbing their shoulders and pounding their legs, Ye Han suddenly laughed bitterly; "Alright, I'm not that tired, by the way, tomorrow I might have to go to Jiangzhe to take a trip, there are some things to deal with."

"To Jiangzhe? You've just rested and you're going to be busy again, no, you must rest at home for a day before you go." Ye Qing looked at Ye Han with a stern face, no matter what it was for, she didn't want her brother to get so tired.

"I don't agree either." Zhou Yun'er followed and commented, although Zhao Youyou and Little Qingcheng didn't say anything, the expressions on their faces were clearly the same as Zhou Yun'er's.

"Fine, I'll listen to you guys and go after a day's rest." Ye Han smiled and said; "Yun'er, I want to start a company of my own, I want to hear your thoughts."

"Start a company?" Zhou Yun'er was amazed; "Don't you guy have enough money to spend? What's the point of starting a company?"

“I naturally have my uses.” Ye Han said; “I want to start a bodyguard group, but I don’t know much about this, and I don’t have any talents in this area, so I want to ask if you can help me find a talent in this area to come over.”

When it came to work, Zhou Yun’er immediately regained her businesswoman demeanour and said; “If I wasn’t busy with Michael as I was recently starting a cooperation with him, I would be able to open up the matter of you starting a company for you.”

Before Zhou Yun’er had finished speaking, Ye Han asked; “Cooperation, could it be that that old guy Michael has already started cooperating with Zhou’s jewellery?”

“You guy, when did you ever care about the affairs of the jewellery house.” Zhou Yun’er gave Ye Han a blank look and said; “Michael is the executive president of Tinia in Southeast Asia, very powerful, right now our Zhou’s Jewellery is cooperating with them fully, through their channels and other resources, and with the fame of our shop’s town treasures, right now our Zhou’s Jewellery’s jadeite is very popular in many cities in the south, just one week’s turnover has exceeded the 100 million mark in just one week, and now I am preparing to set up branches of our Zhou’s Jewellery in all the major cities in the south to completely put our Zhou’s Jewellery’s fame out there.”

“Won’t this attract the jealousy of other peers?” Ye Han asked.

Zhou Yun’er laughed; “With the big tree that is the Tignan Consortium, what are we afraid of, moreover, I have bigger plans, I am going to acquire Liu’s Jewellery in all aspects, Liu’s Jewellery has its own sales channels and professional talents in the southern cities, if we acquire them, then our Zhou’s Jewellery will have a firm foothold in the south, only that I do not have enough funds on hand to acquire Liu’s Jewellery for the time being This plan will have to be put off for the time being.”

Hearing this from Zhou Yun’er, Ye Han had to admire her ambition and vision, if she acquired Liu’s Jewellery, she could indeed use Liu’s Jewellery as a springboard for Zhou’s Jewellery to rise quickly, but would that old man, Liu Guangzong, give up his family business to others?

Fortune Chapter 209

Ye Han said, “Yun’er, acquiring Liu’s jewellery is indeed a good idea, I support you, but if you want to acquire them, the capital aspect will only be an astronomical amount, I will think of a way for you on this matter of capital, you can boldly go ahead with any ideas you have.”

Zhou Yun’er nodded with a happy face and said; “In fact, opening a jewellery house is only my first goal to enter the business world, I want to wait until the jewellery house really develops, I also want to develop other industries, right now domestic real estate, hotels, tourism and the Internet are all an intangible fortune, husband, although I can’t help you with the fighting and killing, but I can build you a powerful business empire to serve as your backing.”

Ye Han laughed; “Okay, then I will wait for you to build up this business empire step by step, but right now the jewellery industry is still in the development stage, you still need to worry about everything, so you don’t need to intervene in the matter of starting a bodyguard group, if you get tired, I will be heartbroken.”

Hearing Ye Han's words, Ye Qing said gloomily; "Little Han, it's all my sister's fault for being too stupid, I can't even help you now."

Zhao Youyou's eyes also looked gloomy, she only knew how to gamble and nothing else, let alone helping Ye Han manage a company.

Ye Han took Ye Qing's hand and said; "Sister, you think too much, in this life I just want you to live in peace, the previous twenty years have been hard for you, in the future, I want you to live your life comfortably, besides, don't you need your help over at the medical school too?"

"Mm, I know." Ye Qing nodded.

"Brother, then I have, what can I do for you?" Seeing that Ye Qing had spoken, Little Qingcheng, who was sitting on Ye Han's lap, immediately looked at him with an expectant face, Ye Han thought for a moment, then his eyes rolled before he attached himself to Little Qingcheng's ear and spoke, hearing Ye Han finish, the girl immediately nodded and said; "Brother, don't worry, I will definitely not fail you, the books I read at the old monk's place, I have them all memorized in in my head."

"Haha, if little Qingcheng can really do what brother said, then you'll be a great credit." Ye Han pinched the delicate bridge of this girl's nose, he was about to go to Jiangsu and Zhejiang to recruit people, without the appropriate martial arts can not, little Qingcheng remembered those things inside his head just can help.

"What are you two playing dumb?" Zhou Yun'er's gaze glanced over the two of them.

"Sister Yun'er, this is a secret between me and my brother, I won't tell you."

Looking at this nee-san's smug look, Zhou Yun'er rolled her white eyes, then she looked at Ye Han and said; "I do have a candidate to start a bodyguard group, recently I have a business wizard there, the jewellery company's turnover can exceed the 100 million mark in just one week, there is a lot of credit to her, if you can talk her over, then there will be no problem with this. "

"Business wizards." Ye Han laughed; "To receive such high praise from you, it seems that person is indeed very good, how about this, anyway, tomorrow is fine, you can take me over to meet her then."

"Let me tell you first, that person is a big beauty, if your thieving eyes dare to look around then, humph! You know the consequences yourself." In order to give Ye Han a precautionary shot first, Zhou Yun'er had to take out the attitude of a proper girlfriend.

Ye Han smiled sarcastically and said; "Yun'er, how could that be, do you see me as that kind of person?"

"Hmph! Certain people know that in their hearts." Zhou Yun'er said somewhat sourly.

The next day, Ye Han went to Zhou's Jewellery with Zhou Yun'er, someone who could be highly praised by Zhou Yun'er, Ye Han really wanted to meet, and it was time to carry out the matter of starting a bodyguard group, after arriving at Zhou Yun'er's office, not long after, Mo Shu brought in a very beautiful woman, this woman was indeed very beautiful looking.

But after Ye Han saw this woman, he almost didn't spit out the tea he had drunk, this world was too small!

“Yifei, you’re here, have a seat.” Seeing Mo Shu walk in with Yin Yifei, Zhou Yun’er immediately greeted her and sat down, but at this moment, Yin Yifei’s eyes were all on Ye Han, since she had met him last time, she thought she would never have the chance to see him again, because Yin Ruonan had told her that Ye Han was very powerful in Shanghai City, and that he and her were destined to have no result.

But now, she had met Ye Han again.

Looking at Yin Yifei who was sitting opposite him, being stared at by that woman’s straight gaze, Ye Han could only open his mouth to greet her first and said; “Miss Yin, what a coincidence.”

“You guys know each other?” Seeing Ye Han take the initiative to greet Yin Yifei, Zhou Yun’er and Mo Shu were immediately taken aback, Zhou Yun’er even sized up Ye Han’s body with a very suspicious gaze, how did this guy know some big beauties all over?

“It’s quite a coincidence, Ye Ye Han.” Yin Yifei looked a little apprehensive replied, then she looked at Zhou Yun’er and Mo Shu that puzzled gaze, then said the things above the plane, heard Yin Yifei finished, Zhou Yun’er white Ye Han said; “did not expect you still have heroic rescue of beauty, okay, you two know then it is much better, the next depends on yourself. ”

Ye Han nodded, then he looked at Yin Yifei and asked; “Miss Yin, aren’t you a flight attendant? How come you came to work in Yuner’s company?”

“Yifei is my high school classmate, naturally I introduced her to work here, why, do you have a problem with it, Young Master Ye?” Mo Shu said as she gave Ye Han a white glance.

“Oh, Mrs. Tang, how come.” Ye Han laughed. Hearing him address her like that, Mo Shu immediately blushed.

At this moment, Yin Yifei spoke; “Actually, being a stewardess is not my profession, it’s because my father works for an airline, so I went to work as a stewardess, but last time something like that happened on the plane, then I quit, and it just so happened that Mo Shu introduced me to this place.”

“So that’s how it is.” Ye Han coughed twice and said; “It’s like this, Miss Yin, I want to start a bodyguard group, but I can’t find any management talents in this area for the time being, so I want to invite you over, I don’t know what you think?”

When Ye Han finished speaking, Yin Yifei’s eyes lit up, helping Ye Han manage the company, of course she was willing and was begging for it, but, Zhou Yun’er was good to her, would she agree to her jumping ship?

Mo Shu glanced at Ye Han and said; “I didn’t see that your Younger Ye is quite bold, letting an outsider help you manage the company, Yifei, you make up your own mind on this matter, don’t worry, his is Yun’er’s, Yun’er’s is his, whoever you help is the same, Yun’er’s side won’t not let you go.”

Fortune Chapter 210

Hearing Mo Shu say this, a glimmer of gloom flashed across Yin Yifei’s gaze, Ye Han and Zhou Yun’er were actually lovers, but she quickly recovered her mind and let out a deep breath before saying; “Ye Han, as long as Yun’er is willing, I promise to help you.”

At that, Zhou Yun'er smiled; "Yifei, there's no problem on my side, since that's the case, then I'll have to trouble you to worry more about starting a company for this guy."

"Don't worry, I will." Managing a company for Ye Han, worrying about this was something Yin Yifei was happy to do.

Ye Han smiled; "Miss Yin, then thank you very much, if you have any requests you can tell me, I will meet them all."

Seeing that the business had been agreed upon, Mo Shu coughed as she looked at Yin Yifei and said; "Yifei, you can't work for this guy for nothing, you should talk to this guy about the benefits."

At that, Yin Yifei looked at Ye Han and said; "I don't need it to be too high, an annual salary of 100,000 would be enough."

"Dang, Yifei, did I hear it right, a hundred thousand a year, you can be earning a million a year here, this guy is a landlord, give him a job, not a million less."

Ye Han looked at the woman and cursed in his heart, "Shit! What's the matter with you here? Do you really think I am a landlord? It seems to have to let that guy Tang Da Shao exercise more on this woman, this is too energetic.

Zhou Yun'er snickered and said; "Come on, Yifei, don't listen to Mo Shu's nonsense, Ye Han won't treat you badly."

She thought that being able to manage the company for Ye Han was the greatest blessing God could give her.

Ye Han said; "Miss Yin, you can ask for anything you want."

Yin Yifei looked at him and said; "There is nothing wrong with the other aspects, but to start a bodyguard group, I just calculated that the start-up capital must not be less than one billion, and this is only temporary."

Ten billion was neither too much nor too little for Ye Han, he said; "Okay, I will give you one billion in start-up capital, you have full authority to handle it, I will do the recruiting, the name of the company will be called 'Tian Long'."

"Then there's no problem." Yin Yifei smiled.

With the matter of starting a bodyguard group settled, Ye Han then took a few women out for a meal together to celebrate.

Last time, Lin Baimo had already inquired that there would be a large number of ex-soldiers in Jiangsu and Zhejiang during this period of time, so this was exactly the opportunity for Ye Han to recruit talents.

"Hanzi, I've already contacted that side, they will put together the military veterans this year, when the time comes, you can pick your own people. In fact, the problem of veterans taking up employment every year has always been a problem that the country wants to solve, there are too many veterans, these people only know how to shoot guns in the army, plus some combat, after they are discharged, if the employment problem can't be solved, it is very easy to cause trouble, we go over to recruit talents this time, they can't wait to welcome it." On the way to Jiangzhe, Lin Baimo said to Ye Han while driving, in the back seat, were Ye Han and Zhao Hengtian and Silly Ben.

Ye Han said; "These soldiers have been in the army for a long time, after they leave the army, they are basically considered to be out of touch with society, they cannot find a good job, it is normal for these soldiers to cause trouble with their unruly personalities, Brother Lin, how many soldiers are discharged from the army this time in total?"

"There are almost three hundred people."

Ye Han shook his head, this was not enough, within these three hundred people, it was impossible for all of them to meet Ye Han's requirements, the bodyguard group was created, Ye Han's temporary vision was five hundred people.

Jiangzhe is a province covering more than ten prefecture-level cities, with a population of more than 50 million, and all year round, there are many people who come here to travel, because there is a famous tourist attraction in Jiangzhe, known as Heaven above and Suzhou and Hangzhou below, the word 'Hang' represents this place, and the beauty of Hangzhou is in the West Lake.

Ye Han drove their car all the way to Hangzhou, the capital of Jiangsu and Zhejiang Province.

Hangcheng had produced beautiful women since ancient times, and this saying was not wrong at all. Looking at those fashionable and sexy beauties outside, Lin Baimo laughed; "It's a pity, I didn't call that fellow Tang Haibin to come."

Ye Han laughed; "His side is now accompanied by Mo Shu, I'm just afraid that he is now too weak to spend his heart, silly Ben, do you want to find a daughter-in-law? There are quite a lot of beautiful women here."

Silly Ben looked at the beautiful women passing by outside the restaurant, spared his head and giggled; "I'm afraid they won't be able to see me."

Lin Bo Mo laughed; "Silly Ben, your physique is the type that girls like these days, find a chance and let Han Zi introduce you to one."

The four of them left the restaurant after joking and laughing inside the restaurant, it was the time when the sun was shining high and there were many pedestrians coming and going on the main road, but as soon as Ye Han came out of the restaurant, they heard a buzzing sound of engines coming from one end of the street.

The car was going at a speed of 160 yards in the street, and it was not slowing down at all, but was still accelerating.

But at this moment, a little girl was standing in the middle of a traffic light intersection, looking at those shooting sports cars, the little girl was crying in fear, screaming, the pedestrians on the side of the road were all looking at this scene in fear, this little girl was only going to die.

"Not good!" Seeing this, Ye Han secretly said a bad thing, if no one saved the little girl, she would definitely be run over.

In the next moment, the crowd only saw a flash of black light, and then the little girl who was standing in the middle of the road and wailing was picked up and left the pavement like a gust of wind, appearing on the edge of the road.

Snort, snort, snort! There was an ear-splitting sound of tyres, and then a sports car crashed into a billboard, and the huge impact made the billboard fly away, but the person driving the car seemed to have good skills, and the car's brakes were also very good, and it came to a hard stop. Looking at the dented area, the group of youths following behind him were all on fire.

"Shit, Brother Xu, your car is about to be scrapped, damn it, that was a man just now, so fast, I thought it was a ghost."

Looking at Ye Han standing at the edge of the road with the little girl in his arms, the group of youths shouted and walked over one by one.

"Damn it, don't you have eyes when you walk, can't you see we are racing a car? Do you want to die?"

"What are you talking to him for? Our brother Xu is one of the four young men in Hangzhou, he dares to block our brother Xu's car, I think he doesn't want to mix in Jiangsu and Zhejiang anymore, let's teach him a good lesson today, let him know who he is rushing against."

A group of very fancy dressed youths walked towards Ye Han as if they were a group of hooligans, each with an untamed cold light in their eyes as they looked at Ye Han.
