Fortune Chapter 211

“You were the one who let this young master’s car hit you just now, tell me, how do we settle this score?”

A group of fancy-dressed youths shouted and came over, some of them with colourful hair, as if they were the popular non-mainstream, the youth whose car was hit looked at Ye Han coldly, untamed.

“Brother Xu, why bother with him, your car was just imported, more than 30 million, can he afford to pay for it?”

“Yes, Brother Xu, he dares to block our way, today he must know what kind of price he will pay for blocking our way in Hangcheng.”

“He must not be spared lightly.”

Listening to the group of people screaming and shouting, Ye Han put the little girl down, her family had already anxiously run over and hugged her and left. Ye Han then clapped his hands as he looked at the young man called Brother Xu and said; “In your eyes, is human life so lowly? If I hadn’t carried that little girl away just now, do you know that you would have killed someone, and a young child at that.”

“Killed someone?” Zhang Xu looked at Ye coldly and laughed; “Who can prove that I have killed someone? Who saw it? If you don’t give me a satisfactory answer to this matter today, today, I will end your life’s path, there is nothing I, Zhang Xu, cannot do in Hangzhou.”

“Then what kind of answer do you want me to give you? Let me tell you first, to pay for the money, I don’t have it, to end my life path, just you kids don’t have that ability yet.” Ye Han smiled lightly, but as he spoke, a strong aura was released from his body, just like a born king, making it impossible for people to ignore.

Although Ye Han was about the same age as this group of people, even younger than some, in Ye Han’s eyes, this group of people were no different from a group of little kids in his eyes, having experienced more, his mind was naturally much stronger than those of his age.

“Holy shit, fuck, there’s someone in Hangcheng who’s even crazier than us, Brother Xu, looks like we’ll have to re-establish our prestige in Hangcheng today.”

“Brother Xu, find a place to get him killed.”

“Yes, get rid of him.”

Hearing Ye Han’s calm words that were incomparably arrogant and cocky, all the youths behind Zhang Xu became angry, wearing torn jeans and dyed red and green hair, they were no different from a group of social punks at the moment.

Seeing that the group of youths were actually going to scream to get Ye Han killed, Silly Ben was furious and was about to walk over to teach the group of ungrateful guys a lesson, but Lin Baimo stopped him and laughed; “Just a group of gnawing second generation, if Han Zi wants to play, let him have a good time, it’s not too late for you to go when it’s your turn to fight.”

Hearing this, Silly Ben stopped, Zhao Hengtian also looked like he was watching the show, think back when he was young, he also did not have much to teach people like this group of youths today, this kind of people, with the money and power in their families, were incomparably arrogant, taking human lives not seriously at all, they, owed it to someone to teach them a lesson.

Zhang Xu's face was very ugly at this moment, thinking that he was one of the four young men in Hangcheng, he could have the wind and the rain in Hangcheng, but today he was ignored by a man of his age, this was a slap in his face, if this matter could not be settled, how could he continue to mix in Hangcheng in the future.

Thinking of this, Zhang Xu raised his hand and slapped Ye Han's face, he would show this guy who was even more arrogant than him, what price he would pay for offending him.

However, although Zhang Xu's idea was good, how could his unarmed hand smack Ye Han's mouth? When Zhang Xu slapped him, Ye Han's two fingers squeezed him like a vise, leaving cold sweat on his face instantly.

It hurt! It was too painful!

"Let go, let go of your hand!" Feeling that his hand was about to break, Zhang Xu's face twisted up in pain.

"Fuck, let go of Brother Xu or we'll kill you right now." Seeing that Zhang Xu was stopped by Ye Han, the group of youths were all furious, but seeing Ye Han's incomparably cold eyes, none of the group of youths dared to move, that look seemed to look at them as if they were looking at a dead person.

"Knowing that it hurts, that's right, let me tell you, killing someone is much more painful than this, if you had just knocked that little girl down, do you know how much pain she would have been in?" Ye Han attached his ear to that Zhang Xu's side and said; "Don't think you can take your life seriously just because you have a few dollars inside your own family, if one day someone also takes your life seriously, you will be able to experience how desperate that feeling is."

After that, Ye Han let go of Zhang Xu, causing him to look at Ye Han with a morose gaze; "You dare to threaten me, how dare you threaten me in Hang Cheng, if you don't pay for my car today, believe it or not, I can get someone to kill you right now, so that you can't leave Hang Cheng."

Ye Han glanced at Zhang Xu's crashed sports car, smiled lightly and said; "It seems you still care about that car of yours, you didn't even listen to what I said just now, asking me to pay for it, no way, but asking me to smash it, I would be very happy to do so."

After saying that, Ye Han beckoned, and Lin Baimo and the others, who were watching the show not far away, came over and laughed; "Han Zi, enough fun."

"There's nothing fun with them." Ye Han shook his head and said; "Silly Ben, give you a chance to practice, smash that car for me, smash it as much as you can, just so you can reduce air pollution."

Silly Ben grinned and walked over towards Zhang Xu's sports car, seeing this, Zhang Xu's eyes went cold; "You dare!"

Ye Han had already given his word, there was nothing that Foolish Ben dared to do, so, in full view of everyone, Foolish Ben's fist seemed to be like a hammer fiercely fell on top of the sports car, the sound of bang bang bang bang was constantly transmitted out, the crowd was shocked to see that every time Foolish Ben's fist fell, the sports car would be deeply dented, seriously deformed, after more than ten punches, Zhang Xu's sports car had been smashed by Foolish Ben, this A scene that made it hard to believe that it was humanly possible to do.

At this moment, Zhang Xu's face was extremely hard to see, his 30 million dollar sports car was just scrapped, and it was smashed by someone, this was not only smashing the car, but also smashing his face, the group of youths following Zhang Xu did not dare to speak after seeing Foolish Ben's terrible fist, their eyes looked incomparable fear.

Seeing that Silly Ben had completed his task, Ye Han looked at that Zhang Xu and smiled; "Your car, I smashed it, want me to compensate, wait until you can find me."

After saying that, a few people left, leaving behind a cold Zhang Xu.

"Brother Xu, what do we do now? Just let them go?" A young man with dyed red hair asked.

"I'll make them pay, inform the boss and the others that something fun has come up, if he wants to play, I'll play with him, in Hang Cheng, I'll play him to death." Zhang Xu said with a scowl on his face.

Fortune Chapter 212

"A group of second generation ancestors who only know how to eat, drink and have fun, and call them the four youngsters of Hangcheng, compared to that, I think the group of second generation ancestors in Shanghai City are much better than them." Lin Baimo shook his head, he was also a rich second generation, but under Lin Jianhong's education he had not done these things, a family group wanted to continue, the next generation must not be too rubbish, otherwise, even the most powerful family residence group would eventually go into decline.

The main reason for this is that the next generation is still too useless, having grown up in a comfortable life, they have already gotten used to the kind of life where they eat, drink and play all day long.

Ye Han said; "There's no need to let them affect the mood, Brother Lin, how much longer do we have to arrive?"

Lin Baimo looked at the navigation and said; "Soon, at most an hour we can reach the agreed place."

Upon hearing this, Ye Han nodded and then closed his eyes and began to rest his eyes. An hour later, Lin Baimo drove his car to an abandoned industrial building, outside the industrial building several large military trucks were parked, and at the moment, a group of men in military uniforms were sitting on the spacious ground.

When they saw Ye Han's car drive up, they all stood up and looked at them. A company commander ranked officer walked towards Ye Han who had already got out of the car and asked; "May I ask if that is Mr. Lin?"

Lin Baimo stretched out his hand and shook the officer's hand, saying; "I am, sorry for the delay due to some matters on the way."

The company commander officer said; "It's alright Mr. Lin, we are willing to wait a little longer if we can help them with their employment problem, since you are here, this group of guys will be in your hands."

Limbermo nodded, then the officer turned to look at the group of soldiers and shouted in a medium voice; "Attention."

The next moment, this group of soldiers who appeared to be loose immediately stood in three rows, without looking at each other, their years of training in the army had already made them develop this habit, the company commander officer looked at this group of soldiers under his command and said; "Brothers, there is no banquet that does not end in the world, you have left the army, next you are about to return to your original place, work, get married, have children, but considering I hope that you will all have a good life when you return to society, so that I, as the company commander, will be relieved."

After saying that, the company commander officer waved his hand reluctantly and left, the group of soldiers all watched him leave, a reluctant emotion showing on each of their faces.

He looked at the group of soldiers and said; "I am very happy to meet you all, in the past, you were soldiers, the weapons of the nation, but from now on, I want you to forget your status as soldiers, because next you are no longer soldiers, but my employees, you are reintegrating into society, and what you desire is a comfortable life. Money, beautiful women, I can provide all of these to you, but to become my employees, I need absolute loyalty, absolute obedience to my orders, this is just like you are in the army, in the army, you obey your superiors, but here, you have to obey me, because I can bring you money, beautiful women, and even power that you can't imagine."

Hearing Ye Han's words, a look of disdain passed over the faces of the group of soldiers, they were soldiers, their bones were full of untamed character, they would not easily obey a person, let alone a young man, although they craved for money and beautiful women, but Ye Han had to have the qualifications to make them truly obey.

"What, do you guys disagree with me on that? Or simply unwilling to obey?" Ye Han looked at the group of soldiers and said; "If those who cannot do so can leave now, I will not force them."

"Hmph, wanting us to obey you won't work with just a few words." A soldier snorted coldly.

Ye Han said; "I know that as soldiers, you all have pride in your bones that belongs to you, this is normal, unfortunately, I don't need such people here, you can't do it, you can leave now."

Hearing Ye Han's words, that soldier coldly snorted and directly left, after he left, there were likewise more than ten soldiers who also left.

Ye Han looked at the remaining two hundred people and said; "I know, it's really hard for you guys to obey me, but I'm happy that you guys didn't leave, but, just now you guys chose me, now it's my turn to choose you guys, see this brother on my side? You all strike together, and as long as someone is still standing at the end, then congratulations, you are my employee."

At those words, the group of soldiers were utterly furious, they were highly trained soldiers, asking them to fight together against that big man, against him alone, was simply too much to look down on them.

At this point, Silly Ben grinned and walked forward, looking down at the group of soldiers, seeing this, only to see that the group of angry soldiers all ran wildly towards Silly Ben, with a huge sound, one person against more than two hundred soldiers, this was an act of seeking death in any case. But Foolish Ben used his terrifying fists to show that nothing is impossible in this world.

Every soldier who approached him was blown away by his fists. The group of soldiers simply could not stand up to the rampaging Foolish Ben, and the battle was one-sided from the start. The three soldiers were swollen like pigs' heads.

Ye Han was a bit surprised that these three men did not fall down in the end, which was very rare.

The three soldiers who could stand up within ten seconds were paid a million dollars a year, those who could stand up within half a minute were paid half a million dollars a year, those who could stand up within a minute were paid 100,000 dollars a year, those who took more than a minute were asked to leave automatically."

Hearing Ye Han's words, the group of soldiers who were lying on the ground were shaken in their hearts and one by one they all started desperately trying to stand up, because Ye Han's words were too tempting for them, they never dreamed that the annual salary of those who were recruited would be so high.

Ye Han looked at his watch and started timing, but within ten seconds, to Ye Han's surprise, more than twenty people stood up, although these twenty people could not even straighten their backs at the moment, but they still stood up after all.

Ye Han was more than satisfied with these twenty people, he hadn't come here for nothing this time.

Fortune Chapter 213

Within half a minute, a total of more than fifty people stood up, within a minute more than seventy people stood up, as for the remaining hundred people, at this moment, there was nothing much ability to stand up, of course, before and after adding up a total of more than one hundred and fifty people stood up, more than three hundred people, eliminated half.

This probability was also within Ye Han's expectation, those who were not selected could only leave in silence, the high salary offered by that youth was no longer relevant to them.

Ye Han looked at the more than one hundred and fifty people who were standing in three rows at the moment, his gaze swept over these people one by one, under the attack of Silly Ben, it was already very good for this group of soldiers to actually stand up, of course, the most satisfying for Ye Han was the twenty or so people in the front row.

"Congratulations, you are all hired by me, my word counts, but now I need your loyalty, your obedience, are you willing?" Ye Han looked at the group of soldiers and said aloud.

"Loyalty and obedience!"

The group of soldiers replied in a loud voice, their expressions were serious and their voices shook the sky, they were soldiers, they worshipped the strong, a strong man like Silly Ben was exactly what they worshipped, following this young man would not only get them a lucrative annual salary, they would also have the opportunity to become strong, there was no reason for them not to offer their loyalty, there was no reason for them not to obey that young man.

“Very well, the people from the second and third platoon will leave for Shanghai City tomorrow, when you get there, you will be received by someone, and you will also be given even stricter training, now, you can leave.”

Hearing these words from Ye Han, these soldiers did not have any questions and obeyed completely, leaving the place.

Right now, only the twenty or so people in the first platoon were left, there were a total of twenty-four people in there, for these people, Ye Han would not let them go to Shanghai City, he had better places for these people to hone their skills.

“The three of you come out of the line.” Ye Han looked at the three who hadn’t even fallen at the end.

Upon hearing that, those three soldiers took a step forward and waited for Ye Han’s order.

“What are your names?”

“My name is Gao Hu.”

“Qin Bing.”

Each of the three gave their names, and Ye Han said; “You three are very good, the next place you are going to is Tengchong, Yunnan, where you will receive training, which will make you stronger. But before you go there, let me remind you that once you undergo this training, you will most likely die in the training, I want to know, are any of you willing to quit?”

However, after seeing the great power of Silly Ben, Ye Han’s words did not scare the group of soldiers, they also longed to have great power like Silly Ben, therefore, none of them were willing to quit.

Ye Han nodded and said; “No fear of death, good, you will all go to Tengchong tomorrow, someone will pick you up then, after you arrive at Tengchong, I will give each of you one million, if there is an accident during training, this will be considered as my settlement money for you.”

Hearing these words, a touching look appeared in the eyes of the soldiers, a million dollars for their families, they would be at ease even if they died.

After dealing with this matter, Ye Han and the others drove towards downtown Hangcheng, preparing to return to Shanghai City after a night’s rest here, coming here mainly to recruit people.

“Brother Zhao, those twenty-four people will have to be trained by you, they will only become stronger if you train them.” In the car, Ye Han said to Zhao Hengtian, before this, he had already discussed it with Zhao Hengtian. Zhao Hengtian nodded and smiled; “Don’t worry, after we return to Shanghai City, I will move to Tengchong, but Hanzi, is the place you mentioned really that scary?”

Ye Han smiled and said; “You will know once you go there, if it wasn’t for the little tiger back then, I’m afraid it would have been difficult for me to walk out of there, right, when you go to Tengchong, take the little tiger with you, it’s also safer with that little thing around.”

Zhao Hengtian nodded and said; “Training these people is not a difficult task for me, but for them to become experts at the fastest speed, that dan recipe you must research as soon as possible, it’s the only shortcut we have.”

This, Ye Han knew, if there were no resources to enhance strength, training alone, to wait until these people became experts, there was no way to succeed within a year, brutal training, coupled with resources to enhance strength, then a group of experts would grow up quickly in his hands.

“Old Fourth, in Hangcheng, you actually got stepped on, this is a bit of a disgrace to our four young men of Hangcheng.” Inside a villa, there was a group of rich kids, both male and female, gathered, at this moment, only one young man was seen saying to Zhang Xu who was sitting opposite him in silence, his name was Hong Sen, he was the oldest three inside the four youngsters of Hangzhou.

“Brother Sen, I don’t blame Brother Xu for this, that guy is just too crazy, and he is also followed by a powerful and fierce person, you all should have seen Brother Xu’s car, it was smashed like this by him with his fist.”

“Yes, Brother Sen, there’s nothing we can do in the face of such a fierce man. If it wasn’t for that fierce man, we would have taught that guy a lesson by then.”

“There hasn’t been anyone that fierce, it seems that the person coming is a bit uncomplicated.” Wu Yu, who was ranked second within the four youngsters of Hangzhou, looked at a young man who hadn’t spoken up the whole time and said; “Boss, what do you think about this matter? Old Fourth is being stepped on, we are also the Four Young Men of Hangzhou, we can’t just do nothing, right?”

Hearing this, a group of rich boys inside the villa all looked at that youth, this youth was their leader here, secretly, known as the number one young man in Hangzhou, no matter it was his family background, or his personal ability, no one in the whole of Jiangzhe could compare to him, their group of once unruly rich boys were all subdued by this number one young man.

“Naturally not.” Xu Qing, the first of the four youngsters in Hangzhou, had a gleam of cold aura in his eyes as he said; “The person who knows Lao Si’s name and still dares to step on him must not be simple, this person wants to play, then let’s play with him, but without knowing this person clearly, we can’t act recklessly for the time being, let’s feel out his reality first, this matter, Liu Jian, you do it, with your status you know how to do most appropriate.”

Hearing this from Xu Qing, the man called Liu Jian nodded and said with a cold smile on his face; “Young Xu, don’t worry, our people are already checking the traces of those four people, as long as we find them, I have plenty of ways to get them.”

“Good, this is a deal for now, if it doesn’t work, I’ll step in and meet him again when the time comes. For someone who dares to be so brazenly arrogant in Hangzhou, I, Xu Qing, would really like to meet him.”

Xu Qing smiled coldly, in Hangzhou, no, in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, they had never been afraid of anyone, and no one had ever dared to step on them.

Fortune Chapter 214

It was already six o'clock when they found a hotel to stay in, so Ye Han took a short rest and went out to stroll around the night life of Hangzhou.

The West Lake, a domestic tourist destination, was known as the heaven on earth, and since ancient times there was a saying that 'of the 36 West Lakes in the world, the most beautiful is Hangcheng', so when they came to Hangcheng, Ye Han naturally wouldn't miss it.

"This West Lake is worthy of being a tourist destination that many literati and scholars have loved to come to throughout history!" Arriving at the West Lake, looking at the pleasant night scenery, Ye Han could not help but sigh with emotion, the lotus flowers in the lake that emerged from the mud, the breeze that drifted a circle of waves in the lake, and under the illumination of the dimly coloured and aged lights all around, the creation of man and nature melted into one.

Both Zhao Hengtian and Lin Baimo had been to this place before, and apart from some added tourist attractions that made them feel a little fresh, they didn't feel anything.

Hangzhou's West Lake, no matter what time of day it is, is particularly crowded with tourists. Of course, those who come here at night are usually mostly young men and women, and it is a pleasure to be here whether it is to see the night scenery or beautiful women.

But people like Ye Han and the others, who were four big men coming together to see the night view of the West Lake, were also considered unique.

"Yun Yan, look, it's so beautiful over there! Quickly, quickly, stand over there, I'll take a picture of you, go back and upload it to the campus website, your vote will definitely surpass the other six school beauties."

"Mei Yi, forget it, we're here to have fun, not to take pictures, besides, I don't like that kind of voting, I'm getting bored of being surrounded by those men all day long, and you're still following the crowd." Xiao Yunyan looked at her bestie Li Meiyi and shook her head somewhat speechlessly.

"Oops, we're all here now, just one shot, just one, come on, come on, you stand here, I'll take the shot for you." Li Meiyi pulled Xiao Yunyan to the side of the guardrail on the stone bridge and ran over to take the picture herself.

With a click, the camera sounded and Ye Han, who was also standing on the stone bridge, happened to turn his head, at the moment he was standing a meter away from that Xiao Yunyan, Xiao Yunyan smiled apologetically at Ye Han and then ran over to look at the photo.

"Wow, Yun Yan, look, this photo is so harmonious and perfect!" Xiao Yunyan picked up the camera and took a look, only to see that on that picture, she herself was facing the camera with a smile on her face, while beside her, Ye Han's side face was captured, this side face was handsome, with a high nose, thin lips, and that gaze that seemed to be gazing at Xiao Yunyan with deep affection, in combination with the night scene behind her, it made a perfect picture.

Looking at this picture, Xiao Yunyan herself was a bit mesmerized, such a picture was simply too perfect! The gaze on the side of that man's face seemed to be full of endless deep love.

But just as Xiao Yunyan was viewing the picture, Li Meiyi was already running towards Ye Han and the others.

"Hey, handsome, look, you took a picture with our future number one school flower of Jiangzhe University yeah, this picture is simply perfect, moreover, this side face of yours, no, you yourself is even more than your side face, handsome, let's make a friend?"

Ye Han looked somewhat dumbfounded at the woman who was talking all at once in front of him, at the same time he also noticed the photo in the woman's hand, surprisingly he was included in the picture.

"Mei Yi, what did you do?" Xiao Yunyan ran over with a red face and looked at Ye Han and said; "Sorry for disturbing you guys."

"It's alright." Ye Han smiled and said.

"Yun Yan, did you hear that? Everyone else said it's alright, handsome, can we get to know you?" Li Meiyi looked at Ye Han with a nymphomaniac look, she had to say that Ye Han was indeed more handsome, the kind that attracted girls, much better looking than those big stars inside the TV, and also more manly.

Xiao Yunyan was a bit defeated by Li Meiyi, please, you are a girl, okay? Can you have a little bit of reserve?

"Hey hey, Hanzi, your boy's peachy luck is here." Lin BoMo said with a grin as he glanced at the two girls.

"It's peach blossom yes, but it's not peach blossom luck." Ye Han shook his head and laughed, then he said to that Li Meiyi; "My name is Ye Han, looking at the two of you you look like you should still be students, right?"

"Yeah, we're students from Jiangzhe University, handsome, her name is Xiao Yunyan and I'm Li Meiyi, anyway, we're both quite bored, can we stroll around West Lake with you?" Li Meiyi looked at Ye Han with big eyes and said with an expectant face.

"This"

"This is certainly good, it would be great to have two beautiful women with you." Before Ye Han could finish his sentence, Lin Baimo grabbed it first, four big men strolling around the West Lake was too meaningless, with two beautiful women volunteering to join, who would refuse.

"Yes, yes, Yun Yan, let's join them, so that those guys who attract butterflies don't have to ask you for your phone number later on, it's annoying."

"Okay." Xiao Yunyan thought about it and nodded her head and agreed, but for the first time, as a girl Xiao Yunyan was not as irrational as Li Meiyi, at first she rarely talked to Ye Han and the others, but after she became familiar with them she gradually realized that Ye Han and the others were not like the others, and did not offer them a lot of attention just because they were pretty, the relationship was not too strong nor too light.

Of course, a lot of the time it was Li Meiyi who was talking, the woman was a typical er chatterbox, Ye Han occasionally answered a couple of sentences, but Lin Baimo's social skills were a bit stronger and did not make the atmosphere too awkward, as for Zhao Hengtian he was not interested in these little girls at all, not to mention Silly Ben, that big man stood by and did not speak, a total bodyguard.

"Ye Han, are you guys local to Jiangsu and Zhejiang?" Looking at Li Meiyi who was talking happily with Lin Baimo, Xiao Yunyan said to Ye Han.

Ye Han shook his head and said; "Came over here to take care of some things, Miss Xiao, it's getting late, I think we should go, although West Lake is beautiful, this stomach of mine can't hold out."

Upon hearing this, Xiao Yunyan covered her mouth with a smile and said; "It just so happens that I know a nice restaurant next to the West Lake, I'll treat you guys, to celebrate meeting your four friends."

"Sure, a beautiful woman treats me, I always don't refuse." Ye Han grinned, after finding a hotel and booking a room just now, the four of them hadn't eaten anything, after strolling around this West Lake for most of the day, they were already hungry.

The four men and two women left the West Lake and were led by Xiao Yunyan and the girls to a Sichuan cuisine restaurant. Ye Han was no exception, but not long after they had entered the Sichuan restaurant, a group of police officers in police uniforms came in, and they were heading straight for Ye Han's table.

Seeing this, Ye Han's brow immediately furrowed and a bad feeling came over them.

Fortune Chapter 216

"Ye Han, did you guys offend someone?"

Looking at the svelte middle-aged man leaving, Xiao Yunyan asked towards Ye Han and the others, this matter today, it was clear that someone wanted to screw Ye Han and the smart Xiao Yunyan was naturally able to see it.

"Probably." Ye Han shrugged his shoulders, in fact, this matter Ye Han could more or less guess what kind of person did this, the person who didn't come out behind should not give up like this, after such a tussle, it was already ten o'clock in the evening, many restaurants had already started to close, after leaving the police station, Ye Han drove their car and searched for ten minutes, and finally came to a relatively lively night market street, there were still many vendors on this street who were still continuing to business.

After arriving here, Ye Han ordered a large push of food at a stall, the four of them big men could be somewhat starved, Xiao Yunyan and Li Meiyi were also somewhat hungry, a few people joked and laughed and started to move, the matter just now was forgotten it to the back of their minds.

"Trying to meet me face to face, interesting." Xu Qing, the number one young man in Hangzhou, listened to Liu Jian's words, a playful smile hung on the corner of his mouth as he said; "It seems that this first-timer in Hangzhou is a very smart guy who knows that someone is behind this to screw him, Liu Jian, did you ask what this person's origins are?"

Liu Jian shook his head, he was going to lock up Ye Han and the others for the night and ask them tomorrow, where did he know that before half an hour Ye Han and the others were bailed out.

Liu Jian said; "Although I haven't interrogated them yet, I guess these guys should just have some money, that big powerful guy should be the bodyguard they hired, young Xu, what do we do next?"

"Oh, what to do, of course we'll go and meet that guy for a while." Wu Yu looked at Zhang Xu and said with a smile; "Lao Si, your chance for revenge has come, it's all up to you how you want to play that guy later, don't worry, with us backing you up, it's useless even if he's crazy, but that bodyguard beside him looks very powerful, we need to find someone equally powerful."

Hong Sen said; "How powerful can he be, can he be more powerful than Ah Jun, the number one fierce man on the Jiangzhe Road?"

"Yes, call up Ah Jun, I'll make sure to kill him." Zhang Xu said with a sinister face.

Xu Qing laughed; "Not bad, Ah Jun is known as the number one fierce man in the Jiangzhe Dao, if I ask, Mr. He will definitely give me face and lend Ah Jun to us, it's settled, later on we, the four young men of Hangcheng, will go and meet this man who dares to step on Old Fourth."

Hang Cheng, Night Market Street.

After Xiao Yun Yan ate something, she looked at Ye Han who was still continuing to wolf down their food and said with a smile; "It's not like anyone is robbing with you guys, order some more if you don't have enough, today is on me, right, Ye Han how long will you guys stay in Hang Cheng?"

Ye Han took out a tissue to wipe his mouth and said; "Probably tomorrow we will be leaving Hang Cheng, Miss Xiao, remember to look for me when you go to Shanghai City if you have time."

"Sure, that's what you said, Mei Yi and I have your phone number in our hands anyway." Xiao Yunyan smiled lightly.

But at this moment, a burst of tyres and ground scraping sound and arrogant cheering sound came from the night market street, then, in this night market street, more than ten expensive sports cars appeared, brightening the eyes of the surrounding crowd, the cheapest of these sports cars cost more than ten million, which could form a sports car car car show.

On top of the sports cars, many young men and women came down in succession, all dressed up in fancy clothes, their eyes coldly and disdainfully looking at the pedestrians around them who were saluting them, at this time, in the accompanying car, which looked somewhat low-key, came down an indifferent young man wearing a vest.

"Ah Jun, you've come quite quickly." Xu Qing looked at Ah Jun who was walking up and smiled lightly, Ah Jun was around twenty eight or twenty nine years old, tall, with muscles arching high on both arms, full of powerful explosive power, Ah Jun said; "Young Xu, Mr. He asked me to help you, so naturally I can't delay."

"Good, let's go." After saying that, the group of close to twenty people all walked towards a stall.

Looking at the four young men of Hangcheng and the others who were walking, Lin Baimo sneered and said; "Hanzi, the real master has appeared, it seems we have some fun."

Ye Han said without raising his head; "What do you care about them, we should eat and drink what we need, everything will be discussed when we are full and drunk."

Xiao Yunyan frowned at Ye Han and asked; "Ye Han, you have offended them?"

Ye Han nodded and said; "There was a little friction when I came to Hangcheng, Miss Xiao, you know them?"

Xiao Yunyan said; "These guys have extraordinary abilities in Hangcheng, of course, this is not referring to them, but the people behind them, this is a bit of trouble, these guys have always done nothing but evil, thanks to their family connections."

"Oh, I'm a person who likes to specialise in beating up evil people." Ye Han smiled indifferently, he wasn't even afraid of the Blood Hand Hall, would he still be afraid of this so-called Hang Cheng Four Youngsters?

"Close the stall, close the stall, all of you get lost!"

"What are you looking at, hurry up and go."

When they came to Ye Han's stall, the group of young men and women with sports cars and avant-garde dresses shouted like a group of punks, knocking on tables and kicking benches, scaring the customers to run out one by one, just by looking at those expensive sports cars, they knew that this group of young people were not simple, who dared to mess with them.

Once the customers left, the group of young men and women all sat down in their seats, some girls even took out cigarettes from their pockets and smiled as they looked at Ye Han who had not left, the owner of the stall could only turn a blind eye to this.

The four young men of Hangzhou sat down alone at a table, looking at Ye Han and the others who were still burying their heads in their food, Xu Qing had a playful smile on his face, interesting people, seeing them coming and still sitting still like a mountain, really not the usual crazy ah!

When Zhang Xu saw Ye Han, the look in his eyes was as if he could not wait to swallow him, but next, he would make these arrogant guys pay the price.

"I heard you were looking for me?" Xu Qing looked at Ye Han, took out a cigarette and said indifferently.

However, in the face of Xu Qing's question, Ye Han and the others didn't even look up at him, as if the food on the table was more attractive than him, let alone answering his words.

Seeing this sight, the corners of Xu Qing's eyes slowly narrowed, and the other young men and women even broke into curses one by one.

"Fuck, our boss asked you a question, are you fucking deaf or dumb?"

"Pretend to be a pussy, be careful I'll get you killed later."

Listening to those filthy voices around him, Ye Han's eyes slowly chilled, this group of guys, couldn't they just let him finish his meal in peace and quiet first?

Fortune Chapter 217

"Stop it, Xu Qing, what the hell do you mean? Ye Han and the others are my friends, don't blame me for calling the police if you dare to do anything nonsensical." Hearing those words coming from behind her, Xiao Yunyan stood up at once and looked at Xu Qing behind her.

Seeing that Xiao Yunyan was actually here, Xu Qing and the others froze, as they were also the second generation of rich officials in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, they naturally knew this mayor's daughter in Hangzhou, but Xiao Yunyan had always disdained to be in their company.

"So Miss Xiao is here too, what a coincidence." Xu Qing smiled lightly as he looked at Ye Han and the others and said; "Miss Xiao, please give way, we are not here for you today, some people should pay the price when they have done something wrong."

"Ye Han and the others are my friends, Xu Qing, I forbid you to act recklessly." Xiao Yunyan frowned as she looked at Xu Qing.

Xu Qing sneered and said; "Miss Xiao, even if I promise you, this group of people behind me may not necessarily promise you, it is better for women to be less involved in men's affairs, lest they scare you."

After saying this, Xu Qing looked at Ye Han again and said indifferently; "I heard that you are quite wild, you even dare to step on Old Fourth, what, you are not wild now? Hiding behind a woman, are you considered a man?"

Ye Han wiped his mouth as he looked at Xu Qing and smiled playfully; "Am I considered a man, just call your sisters here and you will know."

At these words, Xiao Yunyan and Li Meiyi both gave Ye Han a blank look, how could this guy still say dirty words when he was already here?

Xu Qing's hand shook, he almost dropped his cigarette on the ground after hearing Ye Han's words, the other three of the four young men in Hangzhou even looked at Ye Han with a grim gaze.

"Crazy, I'll let you be crazy for a while first, later I'll beat the shit out of you and make you kneel down and beg for mercy under the low crotch of my old man." Hong Sen was one of the most hot-tempered among the four youngsters in Hangcheng, he directly stood up and scolded at Ye Han.

Ye coldly laughed, he stood up, walked towards that Xu Qing and others, no fear on his face, then he took out a bank card from his pocket and still on Xu Qing's table, looked at that Zhang Xu and said; "I said, if you want me to pay for your car, wait until you find me, now that you have found me, you can use the money inside this card as you like. "

At these words, Zhang Xu stood up with a fierce face, he looked at Ye Han and said; "What, are you afraid now? But it's too late, now you want to use the money to settle the matter, do you think it's possible? I tell you, today your money this young master wants, your people, this young master will also beat up today, I said that I will make pay for it, in Hangcheng, there is nothing that our four young men in Hangcheng cannot do."

Ye Han shook his head and said; “You think too much, here’s your money, if you take it, take it as a medical fee for me to pay you back later, if you don’t, this money won’t be yours.”

Hearing Ye Han’s words, the four young men of Hang Cheng laughed, medical fees? Ye Han, did he still want to teach them a lesson?

Xu Qing and Ye Han stared at each other, the smiling gaze gave off a strong grim look, like a poisonous snake, he said; “I have seen many people who are crazy, but this is the first time I have seen someone as arrogant as you, I hope you can continue to be arrogant later.”

After saying that, Xu Qing glanced at Ah Jun, who was standing not far away, and said indifferently; “Ah Jun, I’ll trouble you next.”

Ah Jun appeared somewhat silent, but after he heard Xu Qing’s words, his eyes were like a hungry wolf staring Ye Han in the face, his feet moved and he burst into action, his speed was as fast as a gust of wind, his terrifying fist seemed like it was going to cripple Ye Han with a single punch, seeing Ah Jun’s terrifying punch, the young men and women around him all wailed, very excited, as if they had already seen, under this punch of Ah Jun, Ye Han directly killed by that scene.

Xiao Yunyan and Li Meiyi were so frightened that they lost their faces, the young man’s fist made them feel terrified.

However, the next moment, when Ah Jun’s fist was about to blast at Ye Han’s body, his fist was directly gripped and could no longer advance an inch, time, it was as if it was frozen in place.

The shouting voices around him also came to an abrupt halt at this point, as they all looked at the master who was holding Ah Jun’s fist tightly with fear.

Xu Qing’s gaze was astonished, his body couldn’t help but tense up, they knew how powerful Ah Jun was, he was a fierce man who could pick off a hundred people with a single blow, and had a great reputation in the Jiangzhe Dao, but the seemingly unattractive Ye Han could easily block Ah Jun’s fist, what a terrifying person this should be!

“As a martial artist, you actually aided the enemy, if you were to strike at an ordinary person today, do you know what that means?” Ye Han looked at Ah Jun with a cold demeanor, the power within his body blasted out in a storm, then, only a clicking sound could be heard, Ah Jun’s body instantly fell backwards, his face was white, his hand had fallen vertically.

In just one move, his right hand had been ruined.

Seeing this, the four young men of Hang Cheng’s eyes shrank, they couldn’t help but all stand up, their eyes staring deadly at Ye Han, a kind of fear also slowly surfaced in their hearts, all around, it was very quiet, the group of rich boys didn’t even dare to let out their breath, Ah Jun was their reliance, even he wasn’t a match for that youth, how could they, a group of people who only knew how to eat, drink and play, dare to speak.

“May I ask who your Excellency is? Let Ah Jun lose in a convincing manner.” Ah Jun looked at Ye Han and asked directly, having practiced martial arts since he was a child he knew that there were many people in this world who were better than him, Ye Han was one of them.

“My name is Ye Han, today I will scrap your arm so that you will remember.” Ye Han said indifferently.

“Ye Han, could it be that you are the one from Shanghai City?”

Ah Jun’s expression trembled, how could someone who was hanging out in the underground world of East China not know about what happened between Ye Han and Blood Hand Hall a few days ago, right now after hearing Ye Han’s name, Ah Jun was the first to think of that youth who dared to go against Blood Hand Hall, right now, that youth was a figure that many gangsters in the underground world of East China worshipped.

“It seems that you know quite a lot.” Ye Han looked at Ah Jun with some surprise.

Upon hearing that, Ah Jun was already convinced of Ye Han’s identity, only to see him bow deeply and say; “Today, it was Ah Jun’s eyes that were blind and offended Young Ye, please punish Young Ye.”

Ye Han said indifferently; “Forget it, you were also following orders, scrapping your arm is already a punishment for you, you can go.”

“Many thanks to Young Master Ye.”

Ah Jun’s eyes flashed with a fiery light as he looked at Ye Han, then he only saw him kneel down on one knee and said; “Young Ye, if you don’t mind, Ah Jun wants to follow you.”

Fortune Chapter 218

Hearing these words from Ah Jun, Ye Han looked at him with some surprise, from Ah Jun’s eyes, Ye Han could see a hot flame rising, it was a desire, a strong desire.

Ye Han smiled lightly and said; “You are a good person, you are given a chance to consider, if you have considered it, you can go to Shanghai City to find me.”

“Many thanks to Young Ye.” Ah Jun’s face was happy, as a person who hung out in the underground world, he also worshipped Ye Han, worshipped him for daring to collide with a behemoth like Blood Hand Hall, of course, more importantly, following Ye Han was what gave him the chance to take revenge, as all of his family members had died at the hands of Blood Hand Hall.

Ah Jun stood up as he looked at Xu Qing and said; “Young Xu, Young Ye, you can’t afford to mess with him.”

After saying that, Ah Jun walked away.

Looking at Ah Jun actually leaving like that, all the rich kids who came here were dumbfounded, Zhang Xu and the others finally understood at this moment what Ye Han meant by the medical fee just now, if they had really taken that card, they should have broken their arms and legs just like Ah Jun at this moment.

When he thought of this, Zhang Xu’s face broke out in a cold sweat, this Ye Han, what was his origin? Even Ah Jun, a fierce man, was afraid of him.

At this moment, the only person who could still keep his sanity was Xu Qing. When Ah Jun said that he could not afford to mess with Ye Han, Xu Qing knew that he was afraid that he could not afford to mess with this young man in front of him.

“Shanghai City, Ye Han, could he be”

In the next moment, Xu Qing’s face changed, although he was not from the underground world, he also knew some news, recently, a youth from Shanghai City and the Blood Hand Hall had been making a lot of noise, he had also heard some of it.

Who was Jiang Xiaofeng, that was someone who even he, Xu Qing, could only lower his posture and address as Young Jiang when he met him.

But Jiang Xiaofeng was now in the hands of this young man. Moreover, the Blood Hand Hall had gone to demand for him with great fanfare, but in the end, he had returned to Xijiang in vain, and even Jiang Xiaofeng had fallen into his hands, and even the Blood Hand Hall could do nothing to him.

Xu Qing’s face became so ugly that he didn’t even know how to speak.

Seeing Xu Qing’s face like this, the faces of the other three of the four young men of Hangcheng sank, not saying a word, the whole atmosphere became a little awkward, they had come to settle scores with Ye Han in a furious manner, but now they were so cold that they didn’t even dare to say anything.

Xiao Yunyin looked at the scene with some surprise, her beautiful eyes glowing, one person had suppressed the aura of the four young men of Hangcheng, holding the dominant power, causing her beautiful eyes to have a different colour, intelligent, she had seen that perhaps, Ye Han’s origin was somewhat uncomplicated, otherwise, with her understanding of the four young men of Hangcheng would not have become so silent.

“What, are a few of you hoarse?” Ye Han pulled a stool and sat down, he looked at Xu Qing and the four of them, then snapped his fingers and said; “Boss, I’ve packed the venue today, give these four a few bottles of wine for them to wet their throats, now it’s time to talk about the business.”

Hearing this, the boss immediately gave Xu Qing a bottle of wine for each of the four, he was also a human being and could already tell that Ye Han was perhaps even more powerful than this group of gentry.

“Four of you, please, this wine is on me, let’s have a good talk afterwards.” Ye Han looked at Xu Qing and the four of them and smiled lightly, making it impossible for people to see what he was thinking. Hearing his words, what surprised people was that Xu Qing actually opened the lid of the wine and gulped it down, and finished the bottle of beer in one gulp.

Seeing Xu Qing drink, the other three youngsters also did the same and finished the bottle of beer in one gulp.

Seeing this, Li Meiyi said with stars in her eyes adoringly; “Yun Yan, Ye Han is simply too handsome, this group of gentry don’t dare to disobey him at all, more handsome than the male protagonist in a novel!”

“Don’t be a nymphomaniac.” Xiao Yun Yan gave Li Mei Yi a white glance, then her gaze fell on Ye Han’s body, just one person had actually suppressed the aura of the four young men of Hang Cheng, at this moment, she was eager to know who exactly was Ye Han? What kind of identity did he have? At this moment, Xiao Yunyan became curious about Ye Han.

“I don’t dare, Ye Shao just call me Xu Qing.” Xu Qing said calmly, after knowing where Ye Han had come from, the arrogance in his eyes that he had just had was completely gone.

“Good.” Ye Han nodded his head and said; “Now, let’s talk about the damage caused to me because of you guys, you know, every second I am a person can be up and down tens of millions of dollars, I was made to stay at the police station for most of an hour by you guys, and now here I am delayed by you guys, this account, how do you think we should settle it?”

Hearing Ye Han’s words, Lin Baimo and the others rolled their white eyes, this guy seemed to be trying to extort this group of rich kids.

But Xu Qing was relieved, as long as Ye Han didn’t look for trouble, things that could be solved by money were no matter to him.

“Also, just now someone of you here scolded me, what I hate most about this person is when someone scolds my family, scolding back is something I can’t do, for this matter, I hope you can give me a satisfactory answer.” As Xu Qing breathed a sigh of relief, Ye Han spoke up again immediately afterwards.

Those who had scolded Ye Han earlier all had their hearts tightened and were apprehensive, fearing that Ye Han would find them in trouble.

“Young Ye, today it was us who were unreasonable and offended you, here, I, Xu Qing, apologise to you, I wonder what kind of reply Young Ye wants from us before you are satisfied?”

Ye Han looked at Xu Qing with some surprise, this guy was the head of the four young men in Hangzhou, he was really extraordinary, if it was anyone else he would have already lost his temper, where would he apologize.

“It depends on the sincerity of all of you, when the sincerity is there, I, Ye Han, am not that kind of stingy person.” Ye Han said indifferently.

At those words, Xu Qing gritted his teeth, then as if he had made some kind of decision in his heart, he looked at Ye Han and said; “Young Ye, I wonder if you have heard of the ‘Night Sky’ plan?”

“What, the Night Sky plan!” Lin Baimo’s face shook when he heard this, Ye Han inclined his head to look at Lin Baimo and asked; “What’s wrong, Brother Lin?”

“Hanzi, the Night Sky Project is a very great project that the country is about to implement, the investment reaches hundreds of billions of dollars, the destination is in Hangzhou, many people are now bidding for this one project, if you can bid for a spot, you will make a lot of money.” Lin Baimo said with glowing eyes.

Even Lin Baimo was so moved by this night sky project, Ye Han was really curious, he looked at Xu Qing and said; “You continue.”

Xu Qing said; “Young Ye, our Xu family is the person in charge of the bidding for the Night Sky Project, if Young Ye is willing, I can reserve a place for you to develop and build a part of the Night Sky Project, don’t underestimate this part, it is a million dollar affair, there is no telling how many people are eyeing this piece of fat meat in East China right now.”

Fortune Chapter 219

“That sounds quite heartwarming.” Ye Han nodded, then he looked at Xu Qing and said; “Can you confirm a spot for me?”

Xu Qing nodded and said; “Of course, if Young Ye is willing, you can send someone to bid for it in a few days, and I will arrange the rest.”

“Brother Lin, what do you think?” Ye Han looked at Lin Baimo, business matters, Ye Han did not understand, Lin Baimo was the professional, Lin Baimo laughed; “Hanzi, to get a place, the money earned in the end is four or five times your total assets, of course, the more you invest the more you earn.”

Ye Han’s heart jumped, so lucrative, it seemed that this Xu Qing really hadn’t fooled him.

Thinking of this, Ye Han smiled and looked at Xu Qing and said; “Young Xu, we are young people, how can I take a little fight to heart, since Young Xu is willing to make friends with me, then I, Ye Han, can’t be too petty.

Hearing Ye Han’s words, the corner of Xu Qing’s mouth twitched, a small fight? You won’t take it to heart? Damn it, why didn’t you say that just now? A place in the Night Sky Project could earn the Xu family over a billion dollars!

But this was only in Xu Qing’s mind, in fact, taking out a place in the Night Sky Project was also his deliberate decision, not only could he settle this grudge, but, at such a great expense, he had also made a friend with Ye Han, a man who dared to fight with the Blood Hand Hall, so it was not too much of a loss.

When the matter ended, Ye Han even called Xu Qing and his group of brothers and drank around a table as if they hadn’t seen each other for years. So fucking hypocritical!

Even Xiao Yun Yan and the others gave Ye Han a blank look, this guy was turning over his face faster than a book, just now they were at war, but now they were calling each other brothers on the left and right.

When the meal was over, Xu Qing and the others left satisfied, but when they left, Ye Han put his face on and told them not to bully the weak and not to take human life seriously in the future.

Seeing Xu Qing and the others leave, Ye Han then rubbed his face with a stiff smile and sat down at Lin Baimo’s table.

“Hanzi, you’ve made a fortune this time, the Night Sky Project a project taken down, even if you only invested five billion, that would still make you that much.” Lin Baimo held up five fingers at Ye Han, these five fingers, that represented fifty billion.

Xiao Yunyan nodded and said; "I have also heard about the Night Sky Project implemented by the country, the total investment is three hundred billion, but there are only four bids, Xu Qing has put down his blood money this time."

Ye Han laughed; "Brother Lin, I have already thought about it, if this project really takes a place, our two families will jointly make the investment, I will give you the money, there is your Lin family to do the details."

"Hanzi, really?" Lin Baimo's eyes lit up.

"Do I need to lie to you?"

"Cheng, Hanzi, then our two families will cooperate, we, the Lin family, will take care of the details, when the time comes, you just wait and collect the money." Lin Baimo smiled, giving his brother a concession, Ye Han was certainly willing to do so, moreover, even if he took the quota he had no one on hand to implement it, it would be most appropriate to let the Lin family do this.

After separating from Xiao Yunyan and the two of them, Ye Han and the others headed towards the hotel they had booked.

Looking at Ye Han's back as they left, Xiao Yun Yan sighed in her heart, she didn't ask Ye Han about him after all, these might just become a curiosity in her heart forever afterwards.

"What, Yun Yan, can't let go?" Li Meiyi looked at Xiao Yunyan's eyes that gazed at Ye Han and their car and immediately teased; "Yo yo yo yo, it looks like our future number one school flower of Jiangzhe University is starting to get horny."

"You dead girl, what are you talking nonsense about, you're the one who's getting horny"

The two people fought and drove away in their car.

Perhaps, this encounter with Ye Han and the others could only go so far for Xiao Yunyan, and it was not certain if there would be any chance to meet in the future.

"Brother Zhao, what do you think of that Ah Jun?" On the way back, Ye Han remembered that Ah Jun, that sizzling eyes filled with anger and a desire for power. Zhao Hengtian said; "It's a good seedling, he should have practiced Southern Hungry Fist, with some training, he can become a master."

Ye Han nodded, this time he had not only recruited a group of outstanding talents when he came to Hang Cheng, but he had also obtained a place in the Night Sky Project and a potential expert, so it was not a bad trip.

Early the next morning, Ye Han returned to Shanghai City, the group of people recruited in Hangzhou yesterday had already arrived and were arranged by Zhou Lie to be in a temporary residence, when the venue on Yin Yifei's side was implemented, this group of people would let Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie train them and teach them the real martial arts.

Only two days after returning to Shanghai City, Zhao Hengtian set off for Tengchong in Yunnan, but when he left, Ye Han gave him the many martial arts that Little Qingcheng had written down silently.

Of course, in addition to that, Ye Han also gave Zhao Hengtian five hundred million yuan, which included the settlement fees for those twenty people and the things he needed to use over there, and at the same time, under Ye Han's hard and soft persuasion, Little Tiger also followed Zhao Hengtian.

Ye Han wanted the 20-odd people to face the strongest and greatest danger, so as to stimulate their potential, but he did not want the greatest casualties, with Little Tiger around, the safety of the 20-odd people was also guaranteed, these people could be the strongest force in his hands in the future.

Not two days after Ye Han's return, Michael came through Zhou Yun'er, only he came alone, Alice, who was always inseparable, did not appear.

Ye Han looked at the old Michael who walked in, he stood up with a smile and said; "Mr. Michael, what brings you here, come inside please."

"Dear Ye, I haven't seen you for a while, you're even more handsome than before." When Michael saw Ye Han, that look was like seeing his own father, in order to get Ye Han to treat him for that thing, he had been working with Zhou's Jewellery with all his might for a while.

After asking old Michael to sit down, he couldn't wait to speak; "Dear Ye, when are you going to cure me of this disease, I can't wait."

Hearing this, Ye Han then remembered that he had to treat Michael for that thing, it had been so slow that he had forgotten about it if Michael didn't say anything.

Ye Han smiled; "Mr. Michael, calm down a little, let's have a cup of tea first, I'll take a look at it for you later."

Michael looked overjoyed and nodded his head repeatedly, even the Chinese tea, which he had never drunk before, felt delicious to him now.

Fortune Chapter 220

In fact, Old Mike's inability to lift that thing was not a difficult thing, it had nothing to do with his kidneys, so it was useless for him to change his kidneys at all, it was his testicles that were the problem, this was fine for Ye Han as long as he gave Old Mike's 'little pistol' two stitches, but giving Old Mike's little pistol stitches was not something Ye Han would do, he would rather use his aura to help him tone it up.

In just half an hour, the problem on Old Mike's body was solved by Ye Han.

Yesterday, he had solved the problems of Tang Da Shao and Lin Baimo in this way.

Looking at Old Mike alone in his room, experimenting with that little pistol down there, Ye Han didn't want to look at it anymore, and walked straight out to chat with his sister Ye Qiao and Liu Zongyuan.

The medical school had been doing well recently, and ordinary citizens were already starting to come here for medical treatment. As long as it continued, Ye's medical school's reputation would become more and more prosperous. Making money was not Ye Han's aim in opening the medical centre, but to make it famous so that more people would know about it and come here for treatment was what Ye Han wanted to do.

Right now, some diseases could not be treated by Western doctors, but he could help more people here, and that was the purpose of Ye Han's medical school.

After experimenting in the inner room for a while, old Michael ran out with an excited face and said to Ye Han; "Dear Ye, you're really a remarkable miracle doctor!"

"Alright, Old Michael, from now on you don't call me dear, your western names give me goose bumps, from now on I'll call you Old Michael, it's a good name."

"Old Mac, what's that name?" Michael sat down and asked in confusion, he knew nothing about Chinese culture and couldn't understand it at all, Ye Han didn't bother to explain so much to him and said directly; "This is the most honorable name we call our foreign friends in China."

Old Mike nodded as if he understood, then he said; "Dear no no no, Ye, today I have finally seen your miraculous Chinese medicine in the East, it is simply divine, much more powerful than even the Western medicine we invented, if you use this miraculous medicine to treat our Westerners, it will definitely will make you a lot of money, much better than you opening a medical school here."

Hearing these words, Ye Han's heart moved as he said to Old Mac; "Old Mac, are there many diseases that your western medicine cannot treat?"

Making money was indeed what Ye Han wanted to do right now, starting the Bodyguard Group had given Yin Yifei one billion, the Night Sky Project had given Lin Baimo five billion, Zhao Hengtian had taken away five billion, this before and after calculation, Ye Han had already spent six and a half billion, his assets had shrunk by a third.

Moreover, this was only temporary, if the Bodyguard Group wanted to make a profit, it would have to wait for at least half a year, during which he might still have to invest money into it, furthermore, Ye Han had to start researching the Dan formula, once it was researched, the precious herbs needed on it would be an astronomical amount.

Therefore, making money was also the most urgent thing for Ye Han at the moment.

The Western countries, to Ye Han, were a market for making money, and using his medical skills to treat those dignitaries, this money would come very quickly.

"Of course." Old Mike said; "As countries around the world are developing more and more, affecting the ecological environment, now, there are many strange and weird diseases in medicine, which modern medicine cannot solve, Ye, your Chinese medicine is so powerful, it seems these people are blessed."

Ye Han glanced at Old Mac and suddenly grinned; "Old Mac, with your status as president of Tynia in Southeast Asia, you must have quite a wide range of contacts in Western countries, do you know any tycoons businessmen and the like who are terminally ill and very rich?"

"Ye, I knew you'd ask that." Old Mike looked business-minded and said; "Speaking of which, I really know some people, and for the sake of you curing me, Ye, don't worry, I will do publicity for you unconditionally and introduce these people to you, moreover, I also know a very heavyweight, if you can cure him, I can guarantee that Ye, your fortune will go up day by day."

“Haha, Old Mai, then thank you, in the future you can come to me for any ailments, I will take care of them with my hands.” Ye Han laughed, then he asked; “Heavyweight, is it a certain western oil tycoon? Or a prince of a certain country?”

“Neither, this person’s identity is even more heavyweight than these people.” Old Mike smiled mysteriously and said; “Ye, have you ever heard of the man ‘God’s Hand’?”

“The Hand of God?” Ye Han shook his head, he had not heard of this person.

Old Mike said; “The Hand of God is a mythical figure in the business world, playing with stocks and finance, he said second, no one in this world dares to say first, his wealth is not known to outsiders so far, but the preliminary estimate is that it has only really reached a level of wealth that can rival the country, this person, many countries do not dare to provoke him, I remember once the head of a country issued a wanted notice Trying to capture the Hand of God, in the end, the Hand of God directly gave that country a financial crisis, causing that country’s gross national product to drop directly to a horrible figure, losing hundreds of billions of dollars.”

“So powerful!” Ye Han was secretly staggered, with this man’s ability it would only be no problem to bring down a small country.

“That’s natural, God’s Hand is one of the people I respect the most.” Old Mike said; “I had the privilege of meeting him a year ago, I had a brief conversation with him on top of a trading stock on Wall Street, as far as I know, the Hand of God is suffering from a terminal disease, the Western medical profession is unable to do anything about it, secretly there is news that the Hand of God once made a bold promise, whoever can cure his terminal disease, he is willing to trade all his wealth for it, but even with such a heavy reward But even with such a heavy reward, no one has succeeded in curing the Hand of God’s terminal illness.”

“Ye, your medical skills are the most miraculous medical skills I have ever seen, and with the Hand of God’s terminal illness, I think you can give it a try, curing the Hand of God will not only give you wealth, but in business, if you have the Hand of God to help you, your future path will also be much smoother.” Old Mike looked at Ye Han and said sincerely.

This, indeed, moved Ye Han very much, a mythical figure who played with financial stocks, it was too meaningful to befriend him.

“Old Mike, can you contact this Hand of God?” Ye Han looked at Old Mike and said; “If you can contact him, you can ask him to come to me in China, I am not absolutely sure until I see his illness, but my place will also be a place of hope for him.”

Old Mike said; “Ye, don’t worry, although the Hand of God is invisible, but it’s not difficult to find him, I’ll do this for you, I’ll invite him to come to China, and you two will meet then.”
