Fortune Chapter 241

Jiang Yutang had entered the Hai Sha Villa area, and at this moment, the people who had already put this area under surveillance immediately passed the news back. In fact, ever since the news of Jiang Yutang's departure from customs was passed out, this area of Ye Han's villa had already been put under surveillance.

This was because many people who were interested wanted to know what would happen to Ye Han in the face of Jiang Yutang.

Would he remain standing?

Or would he fall?

Of course, the fact that Jiang Yutang went to Shanghai City alone also let people know the message that although the domineering and ruthless Jiang Yutang would not take one more person with him for the sake of saving face, he also had worries about Ye Han, after all, Ye Han still controlled his lifeline in his hands.

However, what will the overbearing and ruthless Jiang Yutang do to Ye Han for the sake of Jiang Xiaotian? Will he live or die? The outside world still can't guess yet, and all this is still waiting for the outcome.

However, right now the Hai Sha Villa area has been controlled, these people who are watching also let not dare to enter inside the Hai Sha Villa area to watch the result, even the people from the Heavenly Dignity Society have not done so, they want to be a sinister wolf and gain behind the scenes, they cannot be discovered of their intentions.

"It seems that a decent character has really emerged in Eastern China during the half year I've been in seclusion." Looking at Ye Han, who was unperturbed by his honor and disgrace, sitting quietly and laughing at his arrival, Jiang Yutang put his hands behind his back and let out a maniacal laugh, the aura around him radiating out, terrifying and domineering, causing both Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie to look at him with stony eyes, if they really had to make a move, the two of them together would only be unable to take this lordly figure.

"Master Jiang Yutang, if you're here, please have a seat." Ye Han looked at Jiang Yutang and made an inviting gesture, tea was already poured and he was waiting for Jiang Yutang to take his seat.

"Hmph, arrogant juniors, are you qualified to sit on an equal footing with me?" Jiang Yutang stood with his arms folded, his eyes cold and domineering as he looked at Ye Han, that look, indescribably contemptuous, just like a god, looking at a mortal.

A mortal, was he qualified to sit on an equal footing with a god?

"It seems that Hall Master Jiang likes to stand and talk." Ye Han smiled lightly and said; "Since that's the case, then I'll have to ask Hall Master Jiang to stand, and it seems that no one will drink this tea."

When he said that, Ye Han's hand shook, the cup of tea opposite him was directly shaken and sent flying, the tea splashed and spilled all over the ground, even the cups broke, seeing this, Jiang Yutang's cold and domineering eyes had a murderous look in them, his terrifying aura directly enveloped Ye Han's trio, he walked step by step, every step he took brought a supreme pressure on Ye Han's trio.

This was the aura of a lord of the underground world in eastern China, and there were very few people in the south who could match him.

Faced with the pressure of Jiang Yutang's aura, Ye Han acted calmly, still sipping his tea, although he was also trying his best to resist the aura, but he knew that when it really came to the critical moment, the scruffy old dao who was hiding in that lump to watch the fun would definitely not stand by and watch.

"I say, Hall Master Jiang, I think these tricks should not be played, if you want to kill me you would only have done it when you first appeared, it is better for us to talk openly, it is beneficial to you, and to me, don't you think?" Ye Han looked at Jiang Yutang at this moment and spoke indifferently.

"It seems that you really aren't afraid of death! Where is Zhao Hengtian? Has he gone into hiding when this Hall Master came?" Jiang Yutang's eyes were as terrifying as a fierce tiger as he looked at Ye Han and said; "But I am a person who kills depending on my mood, if you don't do as I say, then not only will I kill you today, everyone related to you will be buried with you today, Zhao Hengtian is no exception."

Upon hearing this, Ye Han smiled lightly and said; "Where Brother Zhao is is none of your business, now let's talk about the matter between you and me, if I do as you say, will you let me go?"

Jiang Yutang sneered and said incomparably domineeringly; "If you do as I say, then I will leave you a whole corpse, if you go against my wishes, then I will let you die of torture, and those who are related to you will likewise die."

Ye Han shook his head with a smile and said; "In that case, I will die if I do what you say, and I will also die if I don't, since both are a death, then why should I listen to you?"

After saying this, Ye Han's eyes also became incomparably cold, as cold as a sword, and he stared at Jiang Yutang, not giving an inch.

"It seems that you are going to choose an ugly death." Jiang Yutang's face fiercely became hideous and terrifying as he said; "I will fulfill you, but before you die, I will let you watch with your own eyes as one by one people related to you die miserably in front of you, that would be a rare treat for you and me."

"Is that so?" Ye coldly laughed and said; "Addressing you as Hall Master Jiang was to look up to you, but now it seems that I am giving you too much face, making you old dog really think that I am easy to bully, before you can finish me off, I will have someone finish off that indisputable son of yours first, I heard that you are only such a seedling, would it be hard for you if he dies?"

"How dare you?" Jiang Yutang was furious, the aura that was released was even more frightening, if it wasn't for the fear that Ye Han was still holding Jiang Xiaotian's life in his hands, he would have wanted to immediately tear Ye Han in half and kill everyone related to him, of course, if he was pushed to the limit, as a lord he wouldn't care that much.

"If you dare, I dare." Ye coldly laughed; "Unless you don't want Jiang Xiaofeng's life."

"Threatening me, something that even Huo Tianzun wouldn't dare to do, you're the first." At this moment, Jiang Yutang's body was already releasing a rolling murderous energy; "Little beast, it seems that you still don't understand what kind of person I am, Jiang Yutang, if my son is gone, I can have another one, but if someone uses him as a bargaining chip to threaten me, then, without your hands, I will personally kill him."

As the saying goes, a tiger's poison does not eat its son.

However, at this moment, Jiang Yutang was already cold-blooded to the point where he was not human, no wonder he could strangle his most beloved woman back then in order to have no worries, now that Jiang Xiaofeng had given him scruples, he was only afraid that he would do the same and kill his own son with his own hands.

Ye Han's eyes became grave for the first time since Jiang Yutang arrived here, it was he who had somewhat underestimated Jiang Yutang, a cold-blooded and ruthless lord, Jiang Xiaofeng might be able to threaten the group of people like the white-faced warlord, making them scare not to act recklessly, but Jiang Yutang he had no such scruples, Jiang Xiaofeng had become a liability to him, he could discard it as usual.

"So, you are really prepared to make a move, not even caring about the death of your own son?" Ye Han's voice became incomparably cold.

"Hahahahaha, kill, kill, just save me from killing him with my own hands."

Jiang Yutang laughed crazily, his voice shook the sky and pierced the clouds, what is a lord? Jiang Yutang has undoubtedly achieved this, becoming a lord who does not recognize his own family.

Fortune Chapter 242

"What a lord Jiang Yutang!" Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie both let out a sigh of relief at the same time... How many people in this world could truly achieve this? Jiang Yutang was one.

"A tiger's poison does not eat its son, it seems that your coming here today is not for Jiang Xiaofeng at all, perhaps there are some factors that are for him, but now, you have completely given up on him, so you have come here today to kill me, whether I do as you say or not, I will die, right?" Ye Han looked at Jiang Yutang as he slowly stood up, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie also stood close beside him, their eyes gazing at Jiang Yutang.

"Not bad, but you're a little late in understanding." Jiang Yutang smiled bloodthirstily at Ye Han and said; "Within my Jiang Yutang's creed of life, no one can threaten me, and even more so, no one can be a burden to me, so next you can go to your death with regrets, but don't worry, I have another merit in being a man, that is, I won't let the dead be too lonely, cut off the grass and let them give you a companion."

After saying that, a terrifying aura was once again released from Jiang Yutang's body, and his slender, white-zephyr hands, as if they were the most powerful weapons in this world, were indestructible, like a phantom shadow attacking and killing Ye Han, to tear him in half.

"Old man, after watching for so long, it's time to come out and move your muscles, right?"

Looking at Jiang Yutang who burst over, Ye Han, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie joined forces and resisted his move at the same time, but after one move their bodies were burst back from the impact, their eyes horrified, the three of them joined forces, but they couldn't even resist one move from Jiang Yutang, what realm of power was this?

"You three fellows are too useless." The scruffy old dao appeared, that indolent look almost made Ye Han vomit blood, this old man should not take the enemy lightly, the three of them were counting on this old man to save their lives.

"Humph, those who stand in my way will die!"

Seeing the appearance of the scruffy old man, the aura on Jiang Yutang's body became even more fierce, a fist blasted away, a tremor came from the entire void, making Ye Han and the others feel as if the air was about to explode, the power of Jiang Yutang's fist could simply shake the mountains, terrifying to the extreme.

However, in the face of Jiang Yutang's terrifying punch, they saw the scruffy old dao perform a starting stance that made Ye Han almost faint.

But, the next moment, Ye Han was shocked.

Instead of the earth-shattering collision they had imagined, they saw that the palm of the scruffy old dao seemed to have a magnetic force, dragging Jiang Yutang's fist left and right, wavering, and then a palm was pushed out, and Jiang Yutang's body immediately burst back, directly knocking the iron door of Ye Han's courtyard away.

This scene made Ye Han and the others dumbfounded, this old man's Taiji was so powerful? An expert as strong as Jiang Yutang could not even stop the might of his palm!

"Who are you?" Jiang Yutang stood up, his eyes gloomy and scornful as he looked at the scruffy old dao, such a powerful expert was the only one he had ever seen in his life, was it some old monster from the unearthly land of China?

Old Dirt poured in a mouthful of wine and said; "Don't ask what you shouldn't ask, I won't tell you even if you do, from where you came from, go back to where you came from, next time, I won't be merciful."

Show mercy!

Hearing these four words, Ye Han's heart shook, Jiang Yutang's face was ugly to the extreme, in the underground world as strong as an expert like him, this scruffy Daoist still showed mercy.

"Still not leaving, do you want to stay and grab dinner with Old Dao?" Seeing Jiang Yutang standing and not leaving, the scruffy old Daoist's face instantly fell, seeing this, Jiang Yutang, who was the lord of the underground world in East China, his face was cold and he waved his sleeve and left, the first time he tasted such a blow, for Jiang Yutang, the lord he was angry and at the same time, his fury was even heavier.

This man was so powerful that he, Sun Bumian and Zhou Lie could not even stop him with a single move, but in comparison, this unattractive old man was even more powerful.

At this moment, at the entrance of the Hai Sha Villa area, Jiang Yutang could not hold back after all, and spat out a mouthful of blood violently.

“Four taels to a thousand jins, borrowing strength to beat the force.”

Jiang Yutang’s face was cold to the core, he had actually been injured by that scruffy Daoist using the power he had struck out himself to strike him in turn.

However, the mouthful of blood Jiang Yutang spat out was a shock to those who saw this scene in the dark.

Jiang Yutang, the kingpin of the East China underground world, had entered the villa and had come out with injuries! What exactly had happened inside that villa?

In an instant, this news swept through the East China Underworld like a gale, not only the East China Underworld, but also the South China side, where the Black Widow of the Heavenly Dignity Society had also gotten the news from the secret spies in Shanghai City.

“Jiang Yutang was actually injured, what the hell is going on? Was it a toss-up? Or Could it be that the power behind that youth in Shanghai City is actually terrifying to this extent? No, I must have overlooked something? Check for me, make sure you find out, I want to know if that Ye Han is alright.” At this moment, the Black Widow, who had always seemed to be able to strategize, became unsettled.

The Black Widow naturally knew how powerful Jiang Yutang was, and anyone who could injure him was at least an expert on the same level as Jiang Yutang, or even stronger than him, but, no matter which one it was, the Black Widow had to know, she didn’t like the feeling that things were out of her control.

Hearing these words from the Black Widow, someone from below immediately set about it.

Jiang Yutang left that young man’s villa in Shanghai City with his injuries, and the news was destined to rock the underground world of southern and eastern China, no, only that soon, the entire southern underground world would be rocked by it.

Jiang Yutang and Huo Tianzun, they were both among the top three experts on the Tiger List, and the only people who could hurt them, apart from Murong Hetu, who was number one on the Tiger List, would be old monsters at that level of the Dragon List.

After the news spread, East China, the underground world was completely stirred up, a stir that was even more sensational than the last time Ye Han forced back the White-Faced Scholar, last time, the White-Faced Scholar came strongly with the experts from the Blood Hand Hall, but, in the end, to everyone’s dismay, the White-Faced Scholar had returned to Xijiang without doing anything.

If that time was just a sensation, then this time, Jiang Yutang left that youth’s villa in Shanghai City with injuries, no matter what the reason for this was, but it was enough to make the underground world completely boil over!

Fortune Chapter 243

He was looking at Old Dirt like he was a monster. This old man was unattractive, but he had never thought that he would defeat the big boss Jiang Yutang as soon as he appeared on the stage, and for this, Ye Han admired him to the core.

Although Ye Han knew that Old Dirt Dao was an unfathomable expert, but exactly to that extent, Ye Han had never had a pu in his heart, but after today's battle with Jiang Yutang, he could finally guess how strong this old guy was.

Tiger Ranking, there was definitely no place for this old guy, he was at least an old monster at that level of the Dragon Ranking.

"I say you kid have been watching me for half an hour, don't you get tired?" As the scruffy old dao watched Ye Han keep staring at himself fiercely, goose bumps rose on his body and he hurriedly poured in a mouthful of wine.

"Hehehe, old man, I didn't see that, so you're so bullish!" Ye Han grinned and poured a cup of tea for Old Dirt and handed it over, Old Dirt took a sip and said; "Well, you know what you're doing, I didn't let Old Dao do it for you for nothing, let the girls make me some delicious food later, no need for wine, I don't care about your wine."

"Okay, I'll make you whatever you want to eat later." The old man had driven away Jiang Yutang for himself, not to mention a good meal, he would have gotten him a certain Japanese actress, of course, the scruffy old Taoist did not know what Ye Han was thinking at the moment, otherwise he would have given him a taste of Taijiquan.

At dinner time, Ye Qing and You You cooked together and made a rich meal, with chicken, duck, fish and meat, and after hanging out with Ye Qing for a while, Zhao You You's cooking skills were beyond description.

Of course, Ye Han also kept Sun Bumin and Zhou Lie for dinner.

At the dinner table, Ye Qing and the girls were affectionately called 'Grandpa Dao' one after the other, making the scruffy old man overjoyed. It was not known whether the old man was drunk or deliberately, but he praised Ye Han's good eye for finding such a group of understanding daughters-in-law, causing all three women to blush profusely.

"Grandpa Dao, come, you try this piece of red winding meat."

"Grandpa Dao, try this chicken leg, I made it."

The scruffy old Dao's words made all three women blush profusely, but they were shy and at the same time became even nicer to the scruffy old Dao, giving him dishes in his bowl one after another.

"Senior, the two of us would like to toast you." At the dinner table, Sun Bu Mian and Zhou Lie both toasted Old Dirt at the same time.

Old Dirt Dao lifted his own wine gourd and poured a mouthful as he looked at Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie and said; "You two have a good chance, keep hanging around with this kid and you might have a chance to break through to another level in the future."

Hearing these words, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie nodded respectfully, they were now treating Old Dirt like a mythical figure, and of course, Old Dirt's words made them even more determined in their hearts to follow Ye Han around and break out into the world.

When dinner was over, Old Dirt ran up to the roof in a flash, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie also went back, Ye Qing and Zhao Youyou cleaned up the table, while Ye Han sent Yan Lingjiao home, sending Yan Lingjiao home was not the purpose, he wanted to continue treating Yan Lingjiao, using spiritual qi to treat her, the woman would also recover faster.

“Is it really necessary to treat?” Inside Yan Lingjiao’s villa, she looked at Ye Han with a flushed face, last time in the operating room without her knowledge Ye Han treated her and looked at her body, but now she was not unconscious, so naturally she was a bit put out.

Ye Han said; “Of course, with me treating you, in less than two days, you will be able to continue to live and breathe.”

At these words, as if she had gathered her courage, Yan Lingjiao slowly unbuttoned her blouse with a red face, she liked Ye Han anyway, and Ye Han also liked her, since she had seen it all, what harm would it do to see it again?

“This Lingjiao, no need to take off your clothes.” Seeing Yan Lingjiao’s movements, Ye Han said somewhat awkwardly.

Hearing Ye Han’s words, Yan Lingjiao brushed her face red and hurriedly buttoned herself up, glaring at him in anger, why didn’t this guy tell her earlier that he didn’t need to take off his clothes, causing her to make a fool of herself.

But seeing Ye Han’s embarrassed look, Yan Lingjiao suddenly wanted to tease him a little and said; “What, are you afraid of me taking off my clothes? Or has someone lost interest after seeing it and doesn’t want to see it a second time?”

“No, how could it be.” Ye Han waved his hand repeatedly.

“Then you help me take off, I’m a bit hot after drinking some wine just now.” Yan Lingjiao looked at Ye Han as if she was serious and flirtatious, that look, looking at Ye Han cursed a demon, this big night to say these words, a man can not stand ah.

“This, how about I give you a fan.” Ye Han picked up a relatively stiff piece of paper and fanned it in front of Yan Lingjiao’s face.

Seeing this, Yan Lingjiao was so angry that she had the urge to smash this guy with a gun, didn’t this bastard used to be quite horny? Why is he so serious now? Could it be that he hadn’t tempted him enough?

Thinking of this, Yan Lingjiao said; “There is air conditioning in the house, you don’t need to fan me, now my wound hurts, you can rub it for me.”

What! Rubbing?

Ye Han looked at Yan Lingjiao in a strange way, was this woman deliberately tempting him tonight?

“This, you wait.” No matter what Yan Lingjiao’s reason was, since the relationship was clear, of course he had to do as he was told, then Ye Han fished up his sleeve, and with a somewhat unnatural expression, he reached out and pressed his hand to Yan Lingjiao’s wound, and by the way, he also transmitted his own body's spiritual qi to Yan Lingjiao's wound, which would make her wound heal faster.

He had no relationship with Yan Lingjiao in the past, and they still didn't see eye to eye.

After giving Yan Lingjiao a massage for ten minutes, and seeing that the woman's face was getting redder and redder, and some slight reactions were coming from her body, Ye Han, who could not resist any longer, immediately ran away, afraid that if he waited any longer he would commit a crime himself, although looking at Yan Lingjiao's intention, she was indeed deliberately leading him to commit a crime, but Ye Han was not ready for that.

At the beginning she did want to tease Ye Han, but in the end she had actually made a decision in her heart that she and Ye Han were not destined to be together, but she wanted to give her first time to this man, but unfortunately, Ye Han ran away and failed to live up to the good man's heart.

Fortune Chapter 244

For Yan Lingjiao's thoughts, Ye Han naturally did not know, but even if he did, if Yan Lingjiao was of such thoughts, he would not do it, if she was his woman, she could only belong to him, what kind of Nalan Miantian, wanted to straddle between them, unless there was no such person as him, Ye Han, in this world, otherwise, Yan Lingjiao would only belong to him in this life.

However, after seeing Jiang Yutang's terrifying strength today, Ye Han had a question inside his heart.

Jiang Yutang and Huo Tianzun were known as the top three experts in the Tiger Ranking, but Zhao Hengtian, who was Huo Tianzun's enemy back then, was far worse than them today. The fact that Zhao Hengtian could still occupy the southwestern part of the world under the oppression of Huo Tianzun and even the Shouyi Sect back then was enough to show that Zhao Hengtian could be more powerful than Huo Tianzun, and conversely, he would not be worse than Jiang Yutang.

But nowadays, Zhao Hengtian was clearly no match for Jiang Yutang, and even the First Day King of the Heavenly Dignity Society dared to fight him head-on, which Ye Han could feel from Zhao Hengtian's body.

Although it was said that Zhao Hengtian had been silent for some years due to poisoning, but it was not so big a gap between him and these people, among them, there must be a reason that he did not know.

Jiang Yutang entered Shanghai City and finally retreated with injuries, this matter was boiling in the underground world of East China, and there were people who were closely watching the movement of Ye Han's side in Shanghai City, they all wanted to know that Jiang Yutang was injured, so, what about Ye Han? What about him?

But to the dismay of those who were paying attention to this matter, Ye Han, who had nothing to do with it, continued to go to the medical school early the next morning to treat people, and after this news spread, it naturally became even more boisterous.

Many people were speculating that there might be a high level person behind Ye Han, but of course, this high level person would not be Zhao Hengtian, because some people had found out that Zhao Hengtian was not even in Shanghai City. Otherwise, with an expert of Jiang Yutang's level heading to Shanghai City, Ye Han alone would never be able to stop him.

Therefore, behind him, there must be an even more powerful expert present.

“It seems that I have underestimated this Ye Han, for him, we have not yet become truly acquainted.” The Black Widow’s long, slender legs were crossed together and her two hands were clasped together, a habitual action when she was thinking about things.

“Did you find out anything useful?” Looking at the Four Heavenly Kings, Black Widow asked out loud.

“Haven’t found out anything yet.” The First Heavenly King said with a frown; “According to the report from our spies who are watching, there are only a few women inside Ye Han’s villa, even Zhao Hengtian has disappeared, and the monster that injured me has also disappeared, right now the only two people in Shanghai City who are following him are Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie, and are helping him train a group of soldiers who have retired from the army.”

“The fact that he hasn’t been traced just shows that there is someone high up behind him, an expert who can injure Jiang Yutang, would he make it that easy for people to trace him?”

The Black Widow’s eyes slowly narrowed as she continued; “It seems like we need to get reacquainted with that Ye Han, this person is too mysterious, also, find out about Zhao Hengtian as soon as possible, I need to know exactly where he has gone? What this Ye Han has done is beyond my control, I need to know more details about him and the people around him, perhaps it would have been a mistake for us to let him fight with the Blood Hand Hall before this, at that time, we should have stabbed him when he was fighting with the Blood Hand Hall, but alas, the opportunity was missed! This cub has stretched out his fangs and it’s a bit difficult to deal with him.”

“Madam, why do you have to grow the ambition of others, just a mere upstart, our Four Heavenly Kings are out at the same time, I don’t believe we can’t destroy him.” The Second Heavenly King of the Heavenly Dignity Society said indifferently.

“Humph, even Jiang Yutang can’t be exterminated, do you think you guys can do it?” The Black Widow snorted coldly and said; “Since this cub already has fangs, we should hold off for a while, what we should do now is to move into East China as soon as possible while this poisonous wolf, Jiang Yutang, is injured, how is the news I asked you guys to check on Jiang Yutang?”

The First Day King said; “Jiang Yutang has returned to Xijiang with injuries, according to the information we got, after returning to Xijiang, Jiang Yutang went into seclusion, at the moment the matters of Blood Hand Hall are still being handled by the White Faced Warlord, it seems that this time he was not lightly injured.”

“Good, that cub from Shanghai City has finally done something to make me happy.” The Black Widow smiled lightly, then she looked at the Four Heavenly Kings and said; “Jiang Yutang is injured and in seclusion, I’m afraid he won’t come out of seclusion anytime soon, right now the Blood Hand Hall is presided over by that useless trash Wu Ji, Qin Heavenly King, Luo Heavenly King you two immediately lead your experts to East China, make sure you get a firm foothold in East China, Jiang Yutang is injured, three of the ten war generals of the Blood Hand Hall are left, plus a With the useless Wu Ji, this should not be a difficult task for you, right?”

“Please rest assured, Madam, the two of us will not let you down.” The First Day King and the Second Day King said at the same time.

“Good, I believe you guys can do it.” The Black Widow smiled lightly, her eyes filled with a wise like light.

The First Day King pondered for a moment and said; “Madam, when we move into East China, our opponent is Blood Hand Hall on the surface, but what if that person from Shanghai City intervenes?”

“It won’t.” The Black Widow said confidently; “Having driven Jiang Yu Tang away, his own ass is just now sitting down and enjoying this rare peace and quiet, he won’t cause trouble for himself, for him, what he needs now is to grow quietly and grow his fangs, and even if he has other ideas, he will only watch us and Blood Hand Hall in secret as we did before. He will understand the reasoning of the snipe and the clam fighting for the fisherman’s profit.”

“Of course, provided you don’t take the initiative to provoke him, those who provoke him don’t end up well, Jiang Xiaotian did, so did the Fourth General and even the Tenth General, the same goes for the White Faced Warlord, even Jiang Yu Tang didn’t get a bargain.” The Black Widow looked at the First Day King and the Second Day King and cautioned cautiously, as for Ye Han, she did not want to mess with him just yet, because the person behind Ye Han was too terrifying, right now Huo Tianzun had not yet come out of the gate, if that terrifying expert descended on South China, it would be a disaster for their Tianzun Society.

Only after settling the Blood Hand Hall would the Black Widow come to slowly settle accounts with Ye Han.

It had to be said that Black Widow was a very clever woman who knew the trade-offs and knew how to advance and retreat. A person like her was the most terrifying of all, a head that was terrifying enough to be more terrifying than even a great expert. In comparison, Wu Ji, the so-called white-faced military master of the Blood Hand Hall, his little tricks could only be said to be small compared to the Black Widow, nothing comparable.

Fortune Chapter 245

The Black Widow’s movements could only be described as lightning. Just after Jiang Yutang closed down, the First Day King and the Second Day King brought their experts into East China, and the place was Jiangsu and Zhejiang, the First Day King and the Second Day King each had a strong battle team under their hands, and these battle teams even included some experts from the top of the Tiger Ranking.

For example, Cao Chong, who was killed by Ye Han, and Wu Miao, who was beaten to death by Silly Ben, these two were the strongest forces under the First Day King’s hand.

The First Day King and the Second Day King have entered East China with their respective battle groups, causing everyone to feel a stormy momentum. The wolf of the Heavenly Dignity Society has chosen to enter East China at this time, and its wolfish ambition is evident to everyone, as they have been coveting the East China region for a long time, and as soon as the opportunity arises, they will show their fangs.

Now is the best opportunity, Jiang Yutang returned from his injury in Shanghai City and immediately closed down.

“Bastard, what a scheming Black Widow, it seems she has been planning this for a long time.” The First Day King and the Second Day King had blatantly entered the East China region, which was a provocation to the Blood Hand Hall, and if they were not driven out, the Hall's reputation as the hegemon of the East China region would be lost in name only.

Ying Shan's face was equally ugly as he said; "Master, at the moment, the Hall Master is in seclusion and the First Day King and the Second Day King are coming with great force.

"I've thought of what you said, tell the First and Second Generals to make sure they return to Xijiang within two days, and also, tell them to bring back the 'Heavenly Fury Group', after so many years of secret training, it's time to let this force of our Blood Hand Hall come out." The white-faced warlord said with a sinister expression, it was not that easy for the Heavenly Dignity Society to take advantage of the opportunity to reap food.

On the surface, the Blood Hand Hall only had the killing force of the 'Earth Death Group', but secretly, the First and Second Generals had been secretly training another force over the years, this force was called the Heavenly Death Group, and its degree of power was even higher than that of the Earth Death Group, this was something that even the Heavenly Dignity Society did not know.

Of course, it was not surprising that the Blood Hand Hall had a hidden power, just like Ye Han, he was openly training that group of people from the Heavenly Dragon Bodyguard Group, but secretly, there was also Zhao Hengtian training that group of aces, which was also a power unknown to the people.

As the First Day King and the Second Day King entered East China strongly, many people in the East China underground world are now watching, because everyone knows that after the battle between Ye Han and Blood Hand Hall has come to an end, what is about to start now is the battle between the Heavenly Dignity Society and Blood Hand Hall, these two behemoths clash, in the end who will win and who will lose? It is not yet clear who will win and who will lose.

But the fact that the Heavenly Dignity Society has entered the East China Underworld forces the people of the East China Underworld to make a choice, to stand on the wrong side.

The Blood Hand Hall has been in control of the East China Underworld for so many years, and all the ruthless people in the East China Underworld have to pay them a lot of money every year, no matter who they are, but who should they turn to when the Heavenly Dignity Society is here? If they sided with the Heavenly Dignity Society, once the Blood Hand Hall won in the end, with the Blood Hand Hall's poisonous style of action, they would definitely not let them go.

However, in the event that the Heavenly Dignity Society won, they would likewise not end up well.

"The Heavenly Dignity Society has moved really fast!" Inside the medical hall, Ye Han was making tea with Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie.

"Maybe the Heavenly Dignity Society is waiting for this opportunity, they didn't move a while ago, they are only waiting for us to fight with the Blood Hand Hall, watching the fire from the other side of the river and reaping the benefits of the fishermen." Sun Buwei said.

"In that case, whether it's me or Jiang Yu Tang, both have become pawns in their hands." Ye Liang let out a laugh, this was a shrewd calculation by the Heavenly Dignity Society, with anyone ignoring them, in the end, they gave everyone a shocking start by forcefully entering East China.

Sun Buwei nodded and said; "Black Widow is not called Black Widow for nothing, this woman is both smart and poisonous, back then Zhao Hengtian ended up in a miserable defeat, there was a shadow of this woman, but them fighting with Blood Hand Hall has nothing to do with us, right now we should secretly develop our own power."

"Normally speaking, this is indeed how it should be." Ye Han said; "But I think that's what that Black Widow is thinking, she must think that we will sit back and watch the tiger fight."

"Hanzi, do you have other ideas?" Hearing Ye Han say this, both Zhou Lie and Sun Buwei looked at him, as far as the current situation was concerned for them, it was indeed in their best interest to sit on the mountain and watch the tiger fight.

"A woman as smart as the Black Widow is naturally able to figure out what we are thinking, but I for one don't like to be led by the nose and have my sword go against her will." Ye Han laughed; "Don't see that this woman is not a threat to us now, once she is done with the Blood Hand Hall, the butcher's knife in her hand will dare to reach for our necks, since that is the case, I will make her suffer first, so that she will regret using me as a pawn in her hands."

Sun Buwei frowned and said; "With the feud between us and the Heavenly Dignity Society, the Black Widow will indeed not let us go in the end, but right now we simply have no one available in our hands, how can we fight with the Heavenly Dignity Society?"

"There's no rush, let's let the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society liven up for a while first." Ye Han smiled lightly and continued; "Right now, the Sky Dignity Society has entered East China strongly, it will definitely force the people in the East China underground world to make a choice between the Blood Hand Hall and the Sky Dignity Society, all we have to do now is to wait, when these people make a choice, that's when we will get involved."

"Hanzi, what do you mean?" Zhou Lie's eyes lit up, right now in the East China underground world, although the Blood Hand Hall was still the hegemon, but after losing several times in a row at Ye Han's hands, their position as that hegemon had inadvertently been lowered, especially after Jiang Yu Tang left Shanghai City with injuries, right now in the East China underground world they talked about Ye Han the most, the person they admired was also Ye Han, and the one who was more optimistic was likewise Ye Han, the new nobleman.

Ye Han's name has come to represent another rising force in Eastern China.

Once it really came to a difficult choice, if these people did not choose Blood Hand Hall, their old boss, they would be even less likely to choose the Heavenly Dignity Society and would instead set their eyes on the local power, Ye Han.

"Brother Zhou, you're thinking well, next we just need to take our time and wait."

The three men looked at each other and smiled, this place in Eastern China, Ye Han would not give it away, he was bound to get it.

Fortune Chapter 246

Ye Han did not pay attention to what kind of hot blooded killings would come out of these two behemoths, Blood Hand Hall and Heavenly Dignity Society, for the time being, the matter at hand was still irrelevant to him, he just needed to quietly wait for the change of events.

On this day, a piece of good news reached Ye Han's ears, a Singaporean tycoon came to Shanghai City, this tycoon was introduced to him by Old Mike.

What they needed was a healthy body and a long life.

When Ye Han and Ye Qing arrived at the medical hall, the rich Singaporean had already arrived, at this time, Liu Zongyuan was entertaining him, this man was thin and tall, about fifty years old, and appeared to be very amiable, along with this rich man was a secretary-like young man, wearing a suit and looking civilized.

"Oh, Little Han is here, this gentleman can hardly wait." Seeing Ye Han walk in with them, Liu Zongyuan stood up and said with a smile, hearing his words, the tall, thin, rich man's gaze first fell on Ye Han's body, carefully sizing him up, seemingly excited and a bit skeptical, could Ye Han be so young and cure his illness?

Ye Han nodded to Liu Zongyuan, then extended his hand to the rich man and smiled; "Hello, I'm Ye Han, I'm the Chinese doctor of this medical school, I don't know what ailment you have on your body? It made you travel a long way to come here to seek medical help."

"Hello, Mr. Ye." The rich middle-aged man shook hands with Ye Han and said; "My name is Cai Jiexiong, I think Mr. Michael has already told you Mr. Ye, I came from Singapore, as for the disease in my body, I would like to ask you how sure you are about cancer?"

"Cancer." Ye Han sat down and smiled; "It depends on the kind of stage this cancer has reached Mr. Cai, if it is early stage cancer, it is not difficult for me, of course, late stage cancer is difficult but I still have some certainty in curing this condition, only that the price may be higher."

At these words, a look of joy flashed across Cai Jiexiong's eyes as he looked at Ye Han and said; "If Mr. Ye can really cure me, I am willing to do so no matter how much it costs, in fact, I am not going to hide it from you sir, this cancer is already at an advanced stage, if I don't get treatment, I may only have half a year to live, so please do save me sir."

"Mr. Cai don't get too excited, first let me give you a look go, we'll talk about the rest later." With that, Ye Han began to pretend to check Cai Jiexiong's pulse, checking his pulse was actually something Ye Han had learned from Liu Zongyuan, of course, it looked like he was checking his pulse, but in reality, he was using his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to see through Cai Jiexiong's body condition.

After looking for a while, Ye Han surprisingly found many remnants of precious herbs inside Cai Jiexiong's body, which proved that Cai Jiexiong had been taking herbs to regulate his body all along, moreover, these herbs were all very valuable.

"Mr. Cai should have taken certain precious herbs before, right?" Ye Han let go of Cai Jiexiong's hand and looked at him as he asked.

Hearing Ye Han's words, Cai Jiexiong now really believed that Ye Han was a capable divine doctor, he hurriedly nodded and said; "Mr. Ye is worthy of being the divine doctor that Mr. Michael esteems, what you said is not wrong at all, I am indeed taking some precious medicinal herbs to regulate my body, to be honest, my Cai family is in the medicinal herbs business, specializing in collecting all kinds of medicinal herbs for sale, so our Cai family clansmen up and down basically do so.”

“In the medicinal herb business.” Ye Han was a little surprised as he looked at Cai Jiaxiong, at the same time, his mind was also active, what he needed to refine pills now was medicinal herbs, and the more precious the better, this Cai Jiaxiong being in the medicinal herbs business, to Ye Han, it was simply like having a pillow delivered to him immediately when he wanted to sleep.

Thinking of this, Ye Han said with a smile; “Mr. Cai, in fact, you don’t need to be like this, although medicinal herbs can indeed play a role in toning the body and preventing diseases, but in the long run, tonic too much, it is not good for the body, understand, it is medicine three times poisonous, not any medicinal herbs can be taken at will.”

“Thank you sir for reminding me, I will definitely caution my clan members properly after I return this time.”

Ye Han nodded, then stood up and said; “Mr. Cai, please come with me to the inner room, I can treat you now, others can just wait outside.”

At these words, Cai Jiaxiong was overjoyed and hurriedly stood up and spoke to his secretary before following Ye Han and heading towards the inner room of the medical hall.

Cancer, in fact, was what people called a malignant tumour, when a mutation occurred in the cells in the body, it would continuously divide, out of the body’s control, and finally form cancer, devouring the patient’s life.

To cure cancer, in fact, the only way is to kill the cancer inside the patient’s body. Although today’s western medical technology can treat cancer, it also depends on whether it is early or late stage, and what symptoms are classified, not all cancers have the hope of being cured.

In fact, it was not difficult for Ye Han to cure Cai Jiaxiong’s cancer, as long as he used the Nine Needles to control the cancer inside his body from dividing, and then used his spiritual energy to kill the cancer inside his body.

This process took Ye Han more than two hours, after all, Cai Jiaxiong’s cancer was advanced and was distributed in cells all over his body, so it was naturally impossible to get rid of it all in a short time.

However, the cancer that many major hospitals had little hope of curing was completely eliminated in two hours by Ye Han’s hands, which would definitely cause a shock to the medical community if word got out.

“Mr. Cai, you can put your clothes on now, congratulations, the disease has been eliminated.” Inside the room, Ye Han pulled out the golden needles inserted in Cai Jiaxiong’s body and said with a smile, hearing him say this, Cai Jiaxiong asked somewhat dumbfounded; “Mr. Ye, is this good?”

“Naturally, if Mr. Cai doesn’t believe you can go to the hospital right away for a chemotherapy treatment.” Ye Han said confidently, under his hands, what was cancer worth?

Cai Jiexiong didn't know whether he should trust Ye Han or not, but he felt that his body was indeed much better compared to before.

After saying some polite words, Cai Jiexiong went to the nearest big hospital. He was cured of his cancer in just over two hours, Cai Jiexiong was really a bit incredulous. For the sake of his health and to test this result, he had to go to a big hospital for a chemotherapy treatment to see if the cancer inside his body was really eliminated.

"Why is this man leaving, the consultation fee has not been paid yet." Looking at Cai Jiexiong walking out like that with his secretary, Ye Qing said a little unhappily, Ye Han laughed; "Don't worry, within a few hours, he will come back again."

Just as Ye Han had said, three hours later, Cai Jiexiong returned with his secretary and walked inside the medical hall with a delighted face.

"Mr. Ye, I, Cai Jiexiong, thank you for your great kindness!" When he entered the medical hall, Cai Jiexiong immediately wanted to kneel down and kowtow to Ye Han, Ye Han had cured him of his cancer, not only saving his life, but also saving the foundation of his Cai family, if he died of cancer, then the Cai family would definitely be divided in the future, and the whole family industry would decline as a result.

"Mr. Cai, don't make it, the doctor is a parent, get up." Ye Han helped Cai Jiexiong up and sat him down, and poured him a cup of tea to stabilize his emotions, because he had to talk to Cai Jiexiong about a business deal next.

Ye Han looked at Cai Jiexiong and said; "Mr. Cai, saving you is because I have the ability to do so, and since I have the ability to save you, I naturally won't stand idly by, not to mention that saving a life is better than creating a seven-level pagoda, this is also considered a merit."

Cai Jiexiong was still a bit emotional, he took out a cheque from his pocket and placed it in front of Ye Han, saying; "Mr. Ye, there is no way to repay you for saving my life, so please accept this small token of appreciation."

Ye Han glanced at the number on the cheque, nine figures, that was a fortune of hundreds of millions of dollars, and it was also in US dollars.

Ye Han smiled and pushed the cheque back, seeing this, Cai Jiexiong hurriedly said; "Mr. Ye, if you are not satisfied, you can fill in the numbers on this cheque as you wish, I, Cai Jiexiong, will definitely not bat an eyelid."

Ye Han shook his head and said; "Mr. Cai, you're serious, I won't take a penny for curing your illness."

Not a penny!

At these words, Cai Jiexiong was astonished, this was cancer, a terrible disease that could kill him, even more money might not be able to save his life, and Ye Han would not take a single penny. However, in the face of his heavy gratitude, Ye Han had such a heart and was not moved at all, which made Cai Jiexiong admire him, if it were him, he would have happily put it in his own pocket.

“Mr. Ye, if you don’t accept this money, it’s really hard for me to repay you for saving my life. If Mr. Ye doesn’t like these extraneous things, you can say what you need, and I, Cai Jiaxiong, will do it for you even if I have exhausted my family fortune.” Cai Jiaxiong said with a solemn face.

Ye Han looked at him and smiled; “Speaking of which, I really have something I want to talk to Mr. Cai about. Mr. Cai is in the medicinal herb business, I wonder if you can collect some valuable medicinal herbs?”

Hearing his words, Cai Jiaxiong immediately said; “Mr. Ye, I am not boasting, within my Cai’s enterprise, as long as it is available in this world, even if you need any valuable medicinal herbs I can help you find them, why, is Mr. Ye interested in medicinal herbs?”

“Indeed.” Ye Han laughed; “I am a Chinese doctor, and I need to use various herbs in the case of treating some diseases, if Mr. Cai is willing, I would like to cooperate with you, the herbs I need will be acquired by you for me, when the time comes, I will buy them from your hand, I wonder what Mr. Cai would like to do?”

“Haha, so Mr. Ye refused to accept this thank you gift from me, so it was because of this small matter.” Cai Jiaxiong laughed twice and said; “Mr. Ye, this is a trivial matter, how about this, you make a list of the herbs you need, I will ask someone to arrange it, no matter what kind of herbs you need, I, Cai Jiaxiong, will give them away for free, I hope Mr. Ye will not refuse, otherwise I always feel ashamed of you in my heart.”

Ye Han smiled; “Since Mr. Cai said so, then I’ll respectfully do as I’m told.”

After saying that, Ye Han placed a list that had already been made in front of Cai Jiaxiong, this was something that Ye Han had already prepared when Cai Jiaxiong went to the hospital just now, on it were the ingredients for several kinds of pills to be refined, of course, these pills were all relatively simple, such as pills that increased a martial artist’s strength, pills that improved one’s cultivation talent, pills that instantly increased strength by leaps and bounds, and so on.

The pills that were too difficult, Ye Han was not prepared to refine them for the time being, for one, he did not have much time, and for another, if he went to refine them without being completely sure, he would most likely waste the materials.

Cai Jiaxiong took a look at the herbs on the list and handed them to his secretary standing behind him, instructing him to do this, and then smiled at Ye Han; “Mr. Ye, your medical skills are simply divine, my body has been to many big hospitals in many countries, they either gave me perfunctory treatment or gave me a death notice directly for this illness. I didn’t expect a miraculous reversal from you, it’s amazing!”

Ye Han laughed; “Mr. Cai, in fact, everything has a way to restrain it, and the so-called terminal disease is not necessarily incurable, but it is just that mankind has not yet researched it yet, for any disease, we should all have hope.”

“What Mr. Ye said is true, this time when I came to China, I was fortunate to know you, Mr. Ye, a miracle man, it is really a fortunate thing in life, today, I, Cai Jiaxiong, must have a few drinks with Mr. Ye.”

With his illness removed, Cai Jiaxiong seemed to be several years younger and glowing.

After the meal, Cai Jiexiong happily returned to Singapore and promised that within a week, the herbs Ye Han needed would be delivered to Shanhai City.

The Northwest Medical King was dead!

When Ye Han heard the news, there was not much surprise on his face. Shen Tian Ao originally hated the Northwest Medical King and wanted to kill him, and Ye Han's means of controlling him also compelled him to kill the Northwest Medical King; only by killing the Northwest Medical King could he hope to be free from Ye Han's control and become a free man.

However, the death of the Northwest Medical King caused a huge uproar in the Northwest region, which was the lair of the Northwest Medical King, and he naturally had a wide network of connections and contacts.

Of course, many people had doubts about the sudden and sudden death of the Northwest Medical King, as a medical king with a marvellous medical skill, how could he die suddenly? However, Shen Tian Ao's killing of the Northwest Medical King was very stealthy, as he was also a national expert in Chinese medicine, it was not difficult to kill a person unknowingly.

As the saying goes, it is difficult to guard against a family thief. In fact, when the Northwest Medical King died, he did not even know that he had died at the hands of his own disciple, which had to be said to be very ironic.

The Northwest Medical King has personally raised an ungrateful wolf, and the wolf he raised has buried his own life.

"What a sinister and vicious fellow, originally thought that if he wanted to finish off the Northwest Medical King, he would at least have to wait for some time, but he never thought that Shen Tian Ao would succeed so quickly, the Northwest Medical King has lived most of his life, I am afraid that he would never dream that he would die at the hands of his disciple." Inside the training ground of Tian Long Bodyguard Group, Zhou Lie said with an emotional expression.

Ye Han said; "This master and disciple duo, both have similar character, with the Northwest Medical King dead, it will be Shen Tian Ao's turn to be a sinister villain next, Brother Zhou, have someone spread the real reason for the Northwest Medical King's death in the Northwest, I think there will be many people who want to avenge him then."

"Hehehe, no problem, once someone knows that the Northwest Medical King died at Shen Tian Ao's hands, then Shen Tian Ao's time to die will come, effortlessly solving these two enemies, Han Zi, this is a great move on your part." Zhou Lie grinned.

This ploy was a bit poisonous, but Ye Han didn't have any psychological burden at all, thinking back to the time when the Northwest Medical King had used the same insidious ploy against him, and Shen Tian Ao had even dragged Murong Jiu in when he wanted to deal with him, adding a powerful enemy for Ye Han.

“By the way, Brother Zhou, has there been any movement in the underground world of Eastern China?” Three or four days had passed since the Sky Dignity Society had forcefully entered East China, and the battle between the Blood Hand Hall and the Sky Dignity Society should have started.

“The battle between the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society has already started, the First General and the Second General have returned and also brought back a strong force, both sides have collided and each has suffered damage, for the time being no one can help anyone, although the First General and the Second General are powerful, but the First Day King and the Second Day King are not vegetarians either.” Zhou Lie continued; “But there are rumours that the Blood Hand Hall is gathering people from the underground world in Eastern China, wanting to twist these people into a common force against the Heavenly Dignity Society.”

Ye Han laughed; “Without a common interest, this move by the white-faced warlord would only be difficult to be effective, to twist these people into a rope, unless they have a common interest with the Blood Hand Hall, these people have been paying a large amount of money to the Blood Hand Hall every year, why would they want to sell their lives to the Blood Hand Hall?”

“That is indeed the case.” Zhou Lie said; “Right now, except for the West River side which chose to join the Blood Hand Hall due to the pressure from the Blood Hand Hall, the people in the entire East China, the East Mountain Province, Jianfu Province, Hui’an Province, Sujiang Province, Jiangzhe Province, all these places have not agreed to do so, there are rumours that the Heavenly Dignity Society also has such an idea and wants to take control of the East China Underworld to deal with the Blood Hand Hall.”

“All have such an idea.” Ye Han laughed; “Surviving in the cracks under the oppression of the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society does make it difficult enough for these people, just wait, under the oppression of the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society, I think it won’t be long before these people will make a choice.”

The only way for these people to survive is to look at Ye Han, because whether it is to the Blood Hand Hall or the Heavenly Dignity Society, neither of them dare to provoke Ye Han for the time being, and since neither of them dare to provoke Ye Han, the only way for these people to stay out of this is to stand in the same boat as Ye Han.

After watching the training results of that group of people for a while, Ye Han left the training ground of Tian Long Bodyguard, and on his way back, Ye Han received a call from Situ Zhentian from Yanjing.

“Haha, kid, congratulations on getting a firm foothold in Eastern China.” Situ Zhentian laughed out loud as soon as he opened his mouth, all the things that had happened in East China recently during this period of time Situ Zhentian had paid attention to.

Ye Han said; “Boss Situ, I didn’t expect you to be quite concerned about me, but you’re busy with affairs, calling me now shouldn’t be as simple as congratulating me, right?”

“You brat, how can you say that you are also a member of our Security Bureau, shouldn’t you be congratulated for such an achievement right now?” Situ Zhentian cursed with a laugh, then asked; “By the way, how on earth did you brat drive Jiang Yutang away?”

This was something that even Situ Zhentian had not found out, and he suspected that Ye Han had an expert behind him to help him.

“Secret.” Ye Han grinned and did not answer.

“Shit.” On the other side of the phone, Situ Zhentian raised a middle finger, then said; “Forget it, I’m too lazy to pry if you don’t tell me, now that there’s no more trouble around you, you’re kind of free, I’ll give you a task, you kid make sure you do it well for me.”

“A mission?” Ye Han asked; “What kind of mission?”

In fact, to say trouble, the trouble around Ye Han had not ended, the quietness was only temporary, but last time when the white-faced warlord came in a raging manner, it was thanks to Situ Zhentian helping him behind the scenes that he was able to get through, so when Situ Zhentian wanted to arrange a mission for him, Ye Han did not refuse, he always had to return the favours he owed others, not to mention, he still had the identity of a member of the Security Bureau hanging over his head.

“A protection mission, the identity of the person being protected this time is a bit unusual, you kid have to give me a little bit of attention, don’t make a mess.”

“Who exactly is it? Can make you so attentive, Boss Situ.” Ye Han asked curiously.

Situ Zhentian said; “Don’t ask about her identity, I can only tell you that she is an exchange student from Xiangjiang, she will study at Fudan University in Shanghai City for a month, in any case, just protect her for this month.”

“Fudan University.” Ye Han said; “I say, Boss Situ, you’re not asking me to go to university, are you? Are you kidding, I haven’t even graduated from junior high school, wouldn’t I be laughed at if I went to university, not to mention that I don’t have much of a diploma to get into Fudan University?”

“You don’t have to worry about that, I’ve already done your identity for you, when the time comes, you can go directly to Fudan University and find Principal Zhong, our people there have already said hello, remember, your purpose of going in is to protect her, not to study, if you have anything at school you can go directly to Principal Zhong, he will help you out.”

“Okay, when do I go to report on my side?” Ye Han asked.

Situ Zhentian said; “The sooner the better, preferably tomorrow, this mission can’t go wrong, I have no personnel on my side to mobilize for the time being, so I’ll have to put you on, I’ve sent the protector’s information on your phone, so you can take a look at it later.”

After hanging up Situ Zhentian’s phone, Ye Han found a text message on his phone, the content of the short message was very simple, only a photo and a name, and a phone number, nothing else.

It was a girl around twenty years old, called Li Xinran, dressed very fashionably, with long black hair, melon face, big eyes, as if she could talk, and two small dimples on her face when she smiled, very beautiful.

There was a time when he dreamed of going to university and enjoying the good life on campus like other adults, but as fate would have it, after the death of his parents, he and his sister stepped into society and went through hardships to get to where they are today, experiencing things that many people his age have never experienced.

Fudan University in Shanghai City, founded relatively early, is a first-class university in China, on par with Yanjing University, a holy place for students to aspire to.

In front of the main gate of Fudan University, after Ye Han looked at the courtyard gate and lamented for a while, he stomped out his cigarette and walked directly towards the inside of the school.

“Hey hey hey, stop, I said you, who are you? Do you have a student ID?” When the security guard who had noticed Ye Han just now saw that Ye Han was actually walking directly towards the inside of the school, he immediately came over and stopped him, asking with a disdainful face; “What are you doing? Are you one of our students here?”

Ye Han looked at the security guard who had stopped him, shook his head and said; “Not yet.”

“If you’re not a student here, why are you going inside? Do you think this is a public place where anyone can enter? Go go go, don’t block the way here, we are a top university in China, not just anyone can enter.” The security guard started to shoo people away, Ye Han was dressed rather ordinary today, his whole body only added up to a few hundred dollars, this kind of person was even worse than him, the security guard.

“Buddy, I’m here to go to school, are you just going to block me out and not let me in?” Ye Han looked at the security guard with a speechless expression.

“What’s wrong? Gangzi.” At this moment, a tall security guard came to the two and asked.

“Captain, this kid wants to go inside the school and says he’s here for school, do you see how possible it is for him to be like this? I think he probably has an ulterior motive.” The security guard called Gangzi looked at Ye Han with a disdainful expression.

Hearing this, the tall security guard looked at Ye Han and said; “Kid, you said you are here to go to school, bring me your enrolment notice.”

“Sorry, I don’t have an enrolment letter.” Ye Han shrugged his shoulders and said.

The tall security guard gave him a contemptuous look and said; “I think you’re here to pick up girls, you didn’t even dress up properly before coming here, come on, don’t cause any trouble here, the students inside are not something you can chase after either.”

Before Ye Han could say anything, at that moment the sound of a car horn came from behind him, Ye Han turned around and saw that it was a young woman driving over in a small red car.

“What’s going on?” The woman asked from inside the car towards the tall security guard.

Seeing the woman ask, the tall security guard’s face smiled as brightly as a chrysanthemum and said; “Tutor Wang, it’s nothing, it’s just a punk who wants to get into our school to chase girls, I’ll send him away.”

Hearing these words from the tall security guard, the young woman gave Ye Han a disgusted look, what she hated most was those people in society who liked to play with female students, she then drove her car inside the school under the watchful eyes of the two security guards.

“Captain, Mentor Wang is worthy of being the most beautiful female mentor in our Fudan University, if I could marry a wife like her, it would be worth dying.”

“Fuck off, don’t daydream, you want to? I’d fucking love to.” The tall security guard kept watching that Mentor Wang drive his car and disappear from his sight before he turned around, but when he saw that Ye Han hadn’t left yet, his eyes went cold; “Kid, why aren’t you leaving yet? Is it because you want me to blow you away?”

“Blast me away, I see that you don’t want to do this captain anymore, right?” Ye Han gave him a look, then took out his phone and dialed the number that Situ Zhentian had sent him yesterday, once the call was answered, Ye Han said straight away; “This is Ye Han, I’m currently being blocked by two security guards at the entrance of your school.”

The caller hung up after saying two words, not long after, an old man in his sixties arrived at the school’s entrance with someone, this old man had a rosy face, his body was still in good shape, he walked with a strong pace, and his body had a refined like aura all over.

“Principal Zhong, Director Liu.” Seeing this old man coming over with the school’s director, the two security guards immediately called out respectfully.

Headmaster Zhong nodded lightly before he walked over towards Ye Han and said with a smile; “Mr. Ye, sorry, it was me who didn’t greet you beforehand, please forgive me.”

Ye Han shook his head and said; “No matter, but your security guards here are really not good, to a certain extent, the image of the security guards represents the image of the school, seeing them, it is really hard to believe that this is the security guards of Fudan University, a famous school in China.”

Hearing Ye Han’s words, that Director Liu immediately turned to the two security guards with a cold face and said; “How did you two do your job? Why don’t you apologize to Mr. Ye quickly.”

The two security guards could already see that Ye Han was a bit of a big deal, to have the headmaster and director personally come to fetch him, so they immediately bowed their heads and said in fear; “Mr. Ye, it was our eyes that were blind, please forgive us.”

“Forget it, the reason I said that about you guys is because you really didn’t do well enough, Fudan University is a famous school in our country, and the way you behave represents the face of this school, what you should do in the future when you meet someone is not to shoo them away, but you should understand the situation first.”

Headmaster Zhong gave Ye Han an appreciative glance, after seeing Ye Han finish, he smiled and said; “Mr. Ye, we have arranged everything for you, you belong to the history department in our school, before that you can visit the dormitory first, then you can go to class.”

“That’s fine, I’ll trouble Principal Zhong, please lead the way.”

Ye Han's dormitory inside Fudan University was not bad, inside a building, although there were four people living there, but each person had one room, after visiting the dormitory, that director Liu took Ye Han to the teaching building, walking inside the school, feeling that school's unique vigorous energy, he felt as if he had returned to his childhood school days.

Age is a killing knife, time never comes back!

Director Liu led Ye Han to a teaching building, then knocked on the door and arrived inside a classroom, and it just so happened that the teacher inside this classroom was the same Tutor Wang that Ye Han had just seen at the school gate.

"Tutor Wang, this is the new student Ye Han, from now on he will be a student in your class, you make the arrangements, I will leave you to your class." Director Liu left after saying that, that Mentor Wang looked at Ye Han and said; "You're really here for class?"

"Yes, Tutor Wang." Ye Han responded with a smile.

"Alright, you can find a seat first." After saying that, Wang Xiaoxiao went on with the class, not bothering about Ye Han.

Ye Han looked around, the classroom was quite large, it should be a large classroom with many people sitting, Ye Han glanced around before he found an empty seat in the last row and sat down.

The person sitting next to Ye Han was a fat guy, but this guy's mind was not on studying at all, his pair of thieving eyes kept staring at Tutor Wang on the podium, not only him, Ye Han also found that many people were like him.

After sweeping around, Ye Han also found the target he wanted to protect this time, right in a position not far from him, currently listening carefully to the lecture, concentrating on it, with a pencil sitting on the side of his hand.

"Buddy, you're a new transfer student?"

The fatty sitting next to Ye Han saw that Ye Han's eyes were glancing around inside the classroom, and that look immediately became lewd, oozing out a fellow student and said; "Buddy, stop looking, be careful of Big Beauty Wang naming you later."

Ye Han looked at him and said; "My name is Ye Han, what's your name?"

"Hey, I'm Liu Mang, buddy, I'll take you with me when you see beautiful women in the future, we have a lot of beautiful women at Fudan University, you'll be dazzled by them guaranteed." Liu Mang smiled lewdly, those eyes were narrowed into a slit.

"Rascal." Ye Han looked at this guy with a look of wanting to laugh, did his parents give him this name?

As if he knew what Ye Han was thinking, Liu Mang didn't mind and said; "Laugh if you want to, our name is unique in Fudan University, no one else wants to have such a personalized name."

Ye Han was a bit speechless, this guy's cheek was really thick.

“Ye Han, what do you think of Ms. Wang? Is she pretty?” Liu Mang elbowed Ye Han and asked with a lewd face.

“Quite pretty, just a bit older.” Ye Han looked at Wang Xiaoxiao on the podium, the woman should be twenty-eight or twenty-nine years old. Liu Mang laughed; “Older is a bit older, but the more mature, the more flavorful. Isn’t she beautiful? The buddies who came to class here today are all here for Teacher Wang and her.”

Liu Mang was naturally talking about Li Xinran, whose appearance was even more beautiful than in her own photo, gentle, serene, full of an air of books, and giving people a feeling of being knowledgeable just by looking at her.

“Hey, Ye Han, let me tell you, don’t look at her, she’s only been in our class for a few days, but she’s already one of the top school girls in our Fudan University, and there are many people who are after her.”

“How many school girls are there in your school?” Ye Han asked curiously.

“Hey, hey, I knew you kid would ask that.” Liu Mang gave Ye Han a look that you and I understand, then said; “In the past, our Fudan University had four big school girls, but since this Li Xinran came, it has become five big school girls, inside the school, I don’t know how many pairs of wolf eyes are staring at them, if I could chase one, I would be willing to live 20 years less!”

“New student, please pay attention, don’t think that just because the director brought you here I’ll treat you special, make small movements in my classroom, I’ll deduct your credits as usual.” On the podium, Wang Xiaoxiao looked at Ye Han with an angry face, these students who relied on connections to go through the back door were the most disgusting to her.

Hearing these words, Ye Han did not reply and sat honestly, his status now was that of a student.

But fortunately, not much time passed before the class ended, and as for what was taught in the class, Ye Han did not remember it at all. At the end of the class, all the people in the classroom dispersed, but some of the bold ones were inviting Li Xinran to eat with them, to go play together, and so on.

In the face of these people’s warm invitations, Li Xinran politely declined, her character is not warm, and she knows how to read and write, with such an inculcation, it can be seen that this Li Xinran’s family background should not be simple.

“Don’t look, everyone else has left, come on, Ye Han, I’ll treat you to dinner.” Seeing that Ye Han was gazing at Li Xinran’s back, Liu Mang stood up and hooked his shoulders and said.

“Sure, I’ll treat you next time.” The two of them walked out of the classroom together and went straight to the canteen of Fudan University, there were several canteens in Fudan University, some were a bit similar to the dining hall, some were also similar to buffet-like, when they arrived at a canteen, they found a table and sat down, Liu Mang went to order, Ye Han was a bit bored and sat on the seat waiting for Liu Mang to order over.

“Hello, this student, may I sit here please?” Just when Ye Han looked a bit bored, a soft voice rang out beside him, hearing this, Ye Han looked up and into his eyes, it was a plainly dressed girl, carrying a lunch box in her hand, also wearing a pair of old cloth shoes on her feet, but very clean, the girl's face was pure and pretty, giving a feeling of being full of spirituality.

Ye Han looked around, there seemed to be no empty seats left inside the canteen, only he had one here.

"Of course, please sit down."

The girl nodded and then sat down opposite to Ye Han, Ye Han then realized that the girl's lunch box only had one green vegetable inside, along with a bowl of soup and a bowl of white rice, less than five yuan in total, looking at the girl's dress, Ye Han understood a few points in his heart, this was a child from a poor family, just like him.

However, after the girl sat down here, Ye Han immediately felt an envious gaze towards him.

"This guy is so lucky to be eating at the same table as a commoner school girl."

"Ugh, if I had known I would have given up my seat to the commoner school girl just now, where would that guy have gotten his turn."

At this moment, that guy Liu Mang had already walked over with two meals, and when he saw the girl sitting opposite Ye Han, this guy's eyes looked like he had found some treasure, and hurriedly sat down next to Ye Han and whispered; "Ye Han, you're good, what did you use to trick the What did you use to trick the commoner school girl over? I can't tell you're still a master."

Ye Han gave this guy a speechless blank look.

Seeing that Ye Han was not paying attention to himself, Liu Mang took the initiative to greet the girl opposite him; "Hi, Xie Xuan Yan, what a coincidence, you are also eating here."

Xie Xuan Yan nodded, didn't say anything, continued to pick at the white rice and eat the vegetables, didn't waste a bit, it was a bit heartbreaking to watch, Liu Mang continued; "Classmate Xie Xuan Yan, my name is Liu Mang, this is the good buddy next to me, Ye Han, he just transferred to our school today."

"Hello guys." Xie Xuan Yan looked up and smiled, then lowered her head and continued eating.

Ye Han looked at the contents of his lunch box, this guy Liu Mang ordered a lot, two chicken legs, a fish, and other meat, then Ye Han picked up two chicken legs and put them in Xie Xuan Yan's bowl opposite him and said; "You are too skinny, you should eat more, otherwise a typhoon can blow you away when it comes, if you want to study well, you must have a good body to do so. "

"This, classmate Ye Han I don't need it, you yourself"

"Do not refuse." Ye Han directly a look at the past, may be a bit inferior by nature, Xie Xuan Yan moved his mouth did not speak, but in the end she still softly said 'thank you'.
