Fortune Chapter 271

Single combat!

Ye Han looked at the tall and imposing looking Zhu Meng, he nodded and said; "Yes, it just so happens that there is nothing to do this afternoon, so let's just pass the time."

"Good." Zhu Meng threw the ball to Ye Han, he would give Ye Han a warm up to prepare before the one-on-one. But just as Zhu Meng threw the basketball to Ye Han, Ye Han unexpectedly failed to catch it and it ran straight out of his hand.

Seeing this, a burst of laughter erupted from the surrounding onlookers, not even being able to catch the ball, how could this guy still play ball? Not to mention being an expert basketball player like Zhu Meng.

"Holy shit, can this guy not be so humiliating." Liu Mang's face had a black line on it, he was wondering if Ye Han wasn't as good at playing basketball as he was as a fatty, he had just embarrassed himself right out of the game, how could he continue next.

Zhu Meng was also looking at Ye Han in amazement, he couldn't even catch the ball he passed over, did he challenge the wrong person?

Ye Han's face was also a bit embarrassed, this was a bit of a disgrace.

"Hey, buddy, you'll have to catch it steadily now." Outside the court, a cadet threw the basketball that he had just run out, but this time, Ye Han did not make a fool of himself and caught the basketball securely in his hand.

"Can we start?" Ye Han looked at Zhu Meng who was dribbling the ball and said.

"Naturally you can, I'll let you go first." Zhu Meng threw the ball in his own hand to his companion, then he walked up to Ye Han, his eyes looking at him quietly, for Ye Han, there was no need for him to make a defensive stance at all, unless Ye Han showed some fighting spirit.

The two passed the ball to each other, and finally the basketball returned to Ye Han's hand. Under the expectant gaze of everyone on the basketball court, he only saw Ye Han start to dribble the basketball and run up and down the court, his dribbling movements were not very skillful, very ordinary, and just when Ye Han was about to pass and shoot, the basketball in his hand was snapped by Zhu Meng, fast, fierce, and extremely accurate, Ye Han's first The ball was intercepted by Zhu Meng just like that.

"Holy shit, that's the standard!" After seeing this scene, the people around them had a feeling that they had fallen on their faces, originally they were quite excited about Ye Han, but they would not have thought that Ye Han's first ball would be so easily intercepted by Zhu Meng.

Many of the sisters who had admiration for Ye Han had extremely disappointed expressions on their faces, Ye Han touched his nose, his face also had a look of embarrassment, Zhu Meng held the basketball tightly in one hand, he looked at Ye Han and said; "So that's all you've got, disappointing me."

Ye Han shrugged his shoulders and said; "It's your turn next, take a shot."

“Good, I’ll teach you to play with the ball next, so you can see what real basketball is all about.” After saying that, Zhu Meng began to dribble the ball with his hips, his movements were extremely fast, the thumping sound of the basketball hitting the ground touched the nerves of the crowd, and this Zhu Meng’s admirers, seeing this scene, were already chanting his name, their voices connecting in the playground.

In this hot atmosphere, Zhu Meng smiled at Ye Han coldly, and after a fake move, he managed to dash past Ye Han’s defence and came under the basket, his tall and majestic body jumped up high, and the basketball in his hand was aimed directly at the basket.

However, as the crowd watched Zhu Meng jump and dunk, a black shadow followed him, also jumping high, right behind Zhu Meng, and he jumped even higher than Zhu Meng, just as the basketball in Zhu Meng’s hand was about to slam down towards the rim, this black shadow quickly shot out and directly slapped the basketball in Zhu Meng’s hand.

The two of them landed on the ground and Zhu Meng turned around and looked at Ye Han in disbelief. Ye Han jumped up from behind him and slapped the basketball out of his hand.

The crowd around the court was also a bit surprised, Zhu Meng is called the dunking maniac, his bouncing power is recognized as the number one in Fudan University, no one has ever been able to beat him in bouncing power.

“Shit, I finally got some face back.” Liu Mang’s face was as happy as a chrysanthemum, Ye Han had slapped Zhu Meng with a slap, this big slap, at least it proved that Ye Han was qualified to be Zhu Meng’s opponent.

“Next, it’s my turn.” Ye Han watched Zhu Meng take a few steps back and then started to dribble the ball quickly. After warming up, Ye Han had already found a bit of a feel for the ball, so he was much more agile in dribbling than he was just now, and the basketball kept changing around in his hands, which was dazzling to watch.

Zhu Meng also started to take Ye Han seriously. He felt that he could not take him lightly, at least in terms of his bouncing power.

The basketball bounced past Zhu Meng’s crotch and before Zhu Meng could react, Ye Han’s body turned and he came behind Zhu Meng quickly, caught the basketball and then took three big steps to the basket, the basketball went into the rim and bounced on the ground.

Seeing this, the people around were a bit shocked, the dunking maniac Zhu Meng actually failed to defend Ye Han from this one ball!

“Beautiful!” Liu Mang clapped his hands vigorously at Ye Han from below, Ye Han had scored a goal making him feel twice as dignified.

“Go on.” Ye Han passed the ball to Zhu Meng and stood quietly on the two-point line, waiting for Zhu Meng to attack. Zhu Meng grunted coldly, his eyes were fixed on Ye Han and he dribbled the basketball in his hand extremely fast, but this time he did not choose to break through Ye Han’s defence, instead he stood outside the three-point line and shot the ball, the basketball flew a perfect parabola in mid-air, and when it was about to fall into the basket, a hand steadily intercepted it. Ye Han jumped up and grabbed the basketball in his hand just as it was about to fall into the basketball hoop.

Seeing this, a buzz came from the basketball court, Ye Han did not seem to be as bad as he had just shown, Zhu Meng had intercepted both of his shots, the first dunk was met by Ye Han coming up behind him with a big cap, this time he jumped up directly under the rim and intercepted his ball.

Zhu Meng's face looked a bit unsightly, he was surprisingly intercepted by Ye Han on both of his shots.

This time, it was Ye Han's turn, he held the basketball and looked at Zhu Meng and said; "I heard that you like dunking, today I'll have one for you to see if it's still good enough."

"Hmph, come on." After dribbling the basketball on the ground for a while, he jumped up outside the three-point line, more than two metres above the ground, and flew forward like a trapeze artist, and as he passed over Zhu Meng's head, Ye Han's foot lent a hand on his shoulder and his whole body flew towards the basket. The basketball then passed behind him and went through his hips, and was smashed down hard by Ye Han towards the inside of the basketball hoop.

The basketball landed on the ground, and the audience were all shocked and looked at the scene with their mouths wide open.

Fortune Chapter 272

The crowd was shocked and then applauded. Today, they had witnessed a miracle on the basketball court, a dunk that no one had ever been able to do.

Zhu Meng was equally stunned, his mouth was wide open, he felt he had challenged a basketball demon today, flying over from such a distance and dunking with his hips, was this guy still human?

"This guy, can't he keep a low profile?" Listening to the deafening boiling sound on the basketball court, Li Xinran felt that it was a bit too noisy and took out her headphones to listen to a song while watching the two people on the basketball court.

"Senior, it's your turn." Ye Han passed the ball to Zhu Meng and stood on the opposite side of him.

After Zhu Meng caught the basketball, he looked at Ye Han and said; "I still have a few tricks I haven't used, so you have to defend well next."

"Willing to learn senior's high moves." Ye Han smiled lightly, Zhu Meng nodded and started dribbling with both hands, faking again and again to test Ye Han, not rushing to take the shot, at that moment, only to see Zhu Meng seize an opportunity and managed to rush past Ye Han's defence, but just as he jumped up to shoot, in front of him, Ye Han also jumped up, directly a big pot lid towards him.

Zhu Meng missed his shot again, and cheers came from the basketball court once again.

This time, Ye Han took a shot and after rushing past Zhu Meng's defence, he went straight for a 360 degree turnaround dunk that stunned the whole crowd.

The scene that followed was predictable, as every shot Zhu Meng took ended in failure, looking dishevelled, while on the contrary, Ye Han was getting more and more energetic, with two-pointers, three-pointers, violent dunks, two-handed dunks, reverse dunks, all sorts of dunking moves in his hands, and each of those dunks would cause a violent stir.

It seemed that the name of dunking maniac had already changed hands, because Zhu Meng, the dunking maniac, did not have a single chance to dunk under Ye Han's hands, and did not even make a single shot, while Ye Han scored one after another, igniting the passion of the whole crowd.

This ball game was a complete violent aesthetic, and that basketball iron frame could barely withstand this violence and became shaky.

"Alright, no more fighting, I admit defeat."

After losing under Ye Han's hands one after another, Zhu Meng had lost the urge to continue to compete with Ye Han, this kind of game was too devastating, he directly came to sit on his butt under the basketball frame and looked at Ye Han and said; "You guys are not human, continuous dunks and you don't even feel tired, I'm not playing anymore, I admit defeat."

Ye Han once again shot a three pointer, he looked at Zhu Meng and smiled; "You play good basketball, you can see that you are a basketball genius, let's stop here today, let's have a sparring session later."

After saying that, Ye Han turned around and walked towards Li Xinran and Liu Mang.

"And cut a sparring session!" The corner of Zhu Meng's mouth twitched, he swore that he would not play with anyone in the future, not Ye Han.

Watching Ye Han leave the court with Li Xinran and Liu Mang, many people were still on the court reminiscing about that one-on-one ball game just now, that level of excitement was even more exciting than even NBA professional ball games, Ye Han stood on the court, that was completely his world alone, he could show his self on it to his heart's content and would not give his opponent any chance to score.

"It was a great basketball game, I recorded it." Li Xinran shook the phone inside her hand at Ye Han, which had the video of Ye Han's match with Zhu Meng just now.

Ye Han laughed; "It was recorded, do you still want to take it home and watch it a few more times?"

"What's impossible to?" Li Xinran gave him a blank look, then continued; "To be honest, you are a guy who loves to pretend to be a pig and eat a tiger, of course, to put it bluntly, you love to pretend to be a B."

At these words, Ye Han and Liu Mang were stunned in unison, were these words coming from the mouth of Li Xinran, a knowledgeable and versatile school girl?

"Shit, it turns out that Big School Girl Li also has a mortal side." Looking at Li Xinran's departing back, Liu Mang said with a stunned expression.

"She was originally a mortal." Ye Han shrugged his shoulders and said.

A basketball match came to an end, making Ye Han's fame in Fudan University even higher, directly surpassing the three great masters and school grass Wu Tianxu at the beginning, becoming the number one figure in Fudan University.

Of course, fame and troubles were also opposed to each other. Ever since Ye Han became famous at Fudan University, there were a lot of female students who came outside the classroom every day to send him love letters and flowers, causing Ye Han to sneak out of class every day, and for this reason, he even made Li Xinran laugh at him.

But fortunately, this only lasted for two days before Ye Han left the school, because the materials sent by Cai Jiexiong had arrived in Singapore and were all placed inside the medical school.

After learning this news, Ye Han gave Principal Zhong a few days' leave and immediately went to the Medical Hall. Since the materials had already arrived, it was time for him to start making big moves and refining pills in large quantities.

After arriving at the Medical Center, Ye Han talked to Liu Zongyuan about the recent situation of the Medical Center, and then entered the small dark room to start the alchemy.

Of course, this time the alchemy Ye Han still should give notice to the people who should be notified in place before saying, otherwise, if he could not contact others, Zhou Yun'er and his sister Ye light they should worry about him again.

Turning off his mobile phone, Ye Han began to devote himself to refining pills. There were five kinds of pills that Ye Han wanted to refine this time, and all the materials were in place, namely, Yuan Yuan Dan, Realm Breaker Dan, Qi Gathering Dan, Marrow Cleansing Dan and Instant Explosion Dan. Of course, it is not possible to break through to the state of Ren Du.

The Pill of Marrow Cleansing is a pill used to change one's talent. For those who are not highly gifted and do not have enough enlightenment, the Pill of Marrow Cleansing is the greatest treasure.

The Instant Explosion Pill Ye Han was going to use for himself as well as Sun Bumin and Zhou Lie and Zhao Hengtian, this Instant Explosion Pill could double one's combat power in an instant, if one was in danger, this pill would be equivalent to a life-saving talisman, if this pill was put up for auction, it would definitely become a rare item in the underground world.

In terms of materials, Ye Han had no worries, Cai Jiexiong had given him enough of them.

However, if Ye Han wanted to refine all five of these pills, he could not do so without three days.

Therefore, for the next three days, Ye Han stayed in the small dark room of the Medical Hall and did not go out. At his level, not eating for two or three days did not affect him, but during these three days, Ye Han would cultivate for a while after refining each pill before continuing to refine the next pill, as refining pills consumed too much spiritual energy for him. If he had been in the cave at Tengchong, Ye Han would not have been worried about his own spiritual energy being insufficient.

Fortune Chapter 273

It was after four o'clock on the third day when Ye Han dragged his tired body out from inside the small dark room, but his face was surging with wild elation because all five of the pills he had to refine had been refined, and because he had sufficient materials, Ye Han had refined quite a number of pills this time.

There were over six hundred Yuan Increasing Pills alone, three hundred Realm Breaking Pills, three hundred Qi Gathering Pills, and two hundred Marrow Cleansing Pills. The number of these four pills added up to close to over fifteen hundred, with these pills, the force personnel of the Tian Long Group could definitely achieve the effect he wanted in a short period of time.

However, the Instant Explosion Pills were more difficult to refine, and Ye Han only refined fifty Instant Explosion Pills out.

After all the pills were refined, Ye Han washed up inside the medical hall, and after saying hello to Liu Zongyuan, he went straight to the training ground of the Tianlong Group and found Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie.

Looking at these pills handed over by Ye Han, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie were overjoyed and immediately summoned the group to take the pills, one by one, of course.

Ye Han said; "Elder Sun, you and Big Brother Zhou each keep ten Instant Explosion Pills, the rest of the pills, you still send them to Big Brother Zhao for that group of people to take, remember, the Instant Explosion Pills for Big Brother Zhao to use at his own discretion, by the way, has Silly Ben returned?"

Sun Buwei smiled; "He just arrived today, he should be inside that villa of ours at this moment, you can see him when you go back later."

Ye Han nodded and said; "Tomorrow, tomorrow Brother Zhou and I and Silly Ben will go to Jiangsu and Zhejiang, so I'll trouble Elder Sun to worry about this side of Shanghai City."

"It's alright, you guys can go without worry, your villa is guarded by that old senior, I'm here, so you can rest assured. Nothing can happen." Sun Buwei said.

After staying at the training ground for a while, Ye Han was ready to go back to his villa, but after turning his phone on, Ye Han found several text messages coming from his phone, they were all sent to him by Yan Lingjiao, the content of the text messages were basically asking him what he was doing, if he had time, I miss you and other language.

After reading through the text messages, Ye Han called Yan Lingjiao back and said with a smile; "Big beauty Yan, I haven't seen you for a few days, you miss me so soon."

"Where have you bastard been dead these past few days?" A very irritated voice came from Yan Lingjiao inside the phone.

Ye Han said; "Alright, don't be angry, I've had a few things going on the past few days, and I'm on my way back now."

"On your way back? That's good, later on when you come back come directly to my villa, I have something to say to you, that's all, I'll wait for you." After saying these few words, Yan Lingjiao hung up the phone. Ye Han looked at the sky outside, it was already late in the evening, what could Yan Lingjiao be looking for him for?

Half an hour later, the taxi Ye Han took stopped at the entrance of the Hai Sha Villa area, then Ye Han went straight to Yan Ling Jiao's villa and knocked on the door, without even going back to his own home,

Yan Ling Jiao, who was wearing a sexy nightgown, opened the door, the exquisite curves were hidden under the evening breeze blowing Buddha.

“What, aren’t you going to come in?” Looking at Ye Han standing stupidly at the door without moving, Yan Lingjiao dug a glance at him.

Ye Han walked in and smiled; “No way, who let you charm me with your beauty.”

Saying that, Ye Han sat down on the sofa, but unexpectedly, just as he sat down, Yan Lingjiao looked at him and said; “Go, follow me upstairs.”

Upstairs?

Ye Han looked at Yan Lingjiao with surprise, he felt that Yan Lingjiao seemed to be a bit different from before today, but what was different he could not say.

“Humph, is going to my room a dragon’s den?” Seeing Ye Han sitting on the sofa without moving, Yan Lingjiao immediately gave a light hum, Ye Han smiled sarcastically and said; “How come, let’s go, I haven’t been to your room yet.”

Subsequently, Ye Han followed Yan Lingjiao upstairs, but after arriving at her room, Ye Han realized that two glasses of red wine had already been poured inside this room, it looked like this was something Yan Lingjiao had prepared a long time ago.

Seeing this, Ye Han was a bit surprised, Yan Lingjiao, this woman was going to make a scene, what kind of wine was she drinking in the room at night?

“This wine is 82 years old, don’t you want to try it?” Yan Lingjiao slowly sat down next to the wine table, then she looked at Ye Han who was standing dumbfounded, she immediately rolled her eyes in anger and said; “Where is your usual boldness? Why are you shying away today, this is not like the you I know.”

“This Lingjiao, what exactly is it that you are looking for me tonight?” Ye Han sat down opposite Yan Lingjiao, but looking at the scene, he was a little weak in his heart, not understanding what medicine Yan Lingjiao was selling in this gourd.

Hearing this, Yan Lingjiao gave him a white look and said; “You bastard, can’t I ask you to drink and chat with me if I don’t have anything to do? Don’t you know that a woman living alone inside a villa is very lonely and isolated?”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said somewhat apologetically; “I’ve been busy with my own affairs these last few days, you know, I’ve gone inside Fudan University now, so”

“Well, as long as you guy has time to give me a call every day I’ll be satisfied, in fact, I don’t ask for much.” Yan Lingjiao smiled to herself, seeing this, Ye Han was a little heartbroken, then he looked at Yan Lingjiao and said; “Lingjiao, do you really not mind that I already have Yun’er?”

“I don’t mind.” Yan Lingjiao shook her head and said; “I can only blame myself for not knowing you one step ahead of Zhou Yun’er and missing out on the opportunity, if I minded, I wouldn’t have let myself fall for you, forget it, let’s not talk about this tonight, let’s have a toast.”

“Good.” Ye Han lifted the red wine glass in front of him and clinked it with Yan Lingjiao, Yan Lingjiao drank it all in one go, then put the glass down and said; “Ye Han, after drinking this glass, I’m just afraid that we won’t have the chance to chat together like we did tonight.”

Hearing these words, Ye Han was a bit strange, today’s Yan Lingjiao gave him a strange feeling, not at all like the Yan Lingjiao he used to know, but Zhou Yun’er had drunk, Ye Han also drank the glass of red wine in his hand, seeing Ye Han drink, Yan Lingjiao smiled, but it was a smile with tears in her eyes, a smile that made Ye Han a bit heartbroken and a bit self-conscious, what was wrong with Zhou Yun’er today?

At this time, Ye Han suddenly felt a burning breath inside him rising all the way up from the small of his back, the kind of breath that was going to make him lose his mind and fall into lust in just a moment’s effort.

He had been drugged!

This thought immediately flashed through Ye Han’s mind, and immediately, his eyes looked at the red wine cup in his hand, which had long been drugged by Yan Lingjiao.

Fortune Chapter 274

After a night of madness, what remained was not two people in love lying in each other’s arms, enjoying the sweetness, but Ye Han lying alone in bed, fighting for his eyes to look at the ceiling, he had lost some of his memory of last night, but he knew that between him and Yan Lingjiao, the two of them had pierced that last layer of their relationship.

Ye Han got out of bed and put on his clothes, and suddenly found a piece of the flyer torn on top, which should have been cut off by a tool similar to scissors, and there was also a note on the bedside table.

“Ye Han, I’m leaving, I’m going back to Yanjing to take up my post, I won’t come back to Shanghai City in the future, don’t have any psychological burden about what happened last night, that was voluntary on my part, don’t come looking for me, there’s only a process between us, there won’t be any result, it’s enough that you have Yuner, Sister Ye Qing and Sister You You by your side.”

“I love you, really, I want to guard you well for the rest of my life, you will always be the one who looks both horny and nasty bad guy in my eyes, I so want to spend my life with you, the bad guy, but between us, we can only choose to let go, not to stay together, promise me, forget about me, if there is another life, Ling Jiao will definitely be your woman, definitely only your Ye Han’s woman

“Silly woman, why are you suffering!” After reading this letter, Ye Han sighed, he should have been able to guess those strange actions of Yan Lingjiao last night, but he didn’t think about it, but wanting him to give up, Su Yuqin couldn’t do it, Yan Lingjiao the woman couldn’t do it even more, the woman who loved herself and loved herself, what Ye Han wanted to do was to hold her firmly in his hands, not to give up on this.

“Lingjiao, wait for me, wait for me to go to Yanjing, this time will not be too long!” Ye Han looked out of the window, a gleam of cold mane in his eyes, Yan Lingjiao was his woman, whoever dared to stop him, he would fight tooth and nail to oppose, even if, that person stood tall and high.

Leaving Yan Lingjiao's villa, when Ye Han arrived at his own courtyard, he saw that, at this moment, inside the courtyard, a large and a small man were staring at each other, the scruffy old dao was sitting on the steps drinking strong wine, smiling and looking at Silly Ben, who looked a bit wretched, looking at the situation, he should have moved with the scruffy old dao just now, but the scruffy old dao should have been merciful.

However, going to Teng Chong for a month, now Silly Ben's body was filled with endless wild killing power, killing aura, the fierce aura in those eyes was filled with fury, like a fierce and vicious god of hell, if ordinary people looked at him, they would only have nightmares at night.

Looking at Silly Ben at this moment, Ye Han was very satisfied, the inner burst of power in this guy's body was already comparable to that of an expert of the Ren Du realm.

Only when he saw Ye Han coming did Foolish Ben collect the fierce aura from his body, smiled foolishly at Ye Han, and then said with a goaded head; "I can't beat this old man."

"That's normal." Ye Han smiled as he walked over.

When the scruffy old dao saw this, his gaze changed and he said; "Kid, this guy is one of yours?"

When Old Dirt came to the villa, Silly Ben had already gone to Teng Chong, so Old Dirt had not seen him, early this morning Silly Ben came to the villa, Old Dirt felt the fierce aura on him and naturally stopped him, but looking at Silly Ben's extraordinary talent, Old Dirt did not lay a cruel hand on him.

"Old man, how is he?" Ye Han turned around and asked.

"Not bad, with a strength bone, much stronger than those two guys, train him well, he will definitely be an amazing killer in the future." The scruffy old dao took a sip of wine and said, as for the two guys he was talking about, Ye Han naturally knew who he was talking about, in terms of talent, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie were naturally no match for Silly Ben.

Ye Han nodded, to receive such high praise from Dirt Old Dao, it was clear how high Silly Ben's future would be.

Ye Han said; "Old man, I'm going to Jiangzhe for a while, I'll trouble you to keep an extra eye on this side of the villa, what I owe you now, I'll pay back in the future."

"Alright, I'll wait for you old dao, go ahead." The scruffy old dao waved his hand and disappeared with a flash.

Before leaving, Ye Han had a meal with Zhou Yun'er, his sister Ye Qing, Zhao Youyou and the others, and repeatedly assured him that nothing would happen to him before he took Silly Ben and Zhou Lie to Jiangzhe, but before he went there, Ye Han also called Li Xinran, and all he said was something about telling her to be safe and just stay at school.

If Li Xinran stayed at school peacefully, basically there would be no danger, especially with his current reputation at Fudan University, even those who had ill intentions towards Li Xinran would not dare to mess around.

When he went to Jiangsu and Zhejiang again, Ye Han's mind also recalled some acquaintances, such as the group of rich kids in Hangzhou, such as Xiao Yunyan and Li Meiqi, this time when he went to Jiangsu and Zhejiang, he had to contact these people when he had the chance.

But the news that Ye Han was heading to Jiangsu and Zhejiang today had already spread in the East China underground world, because today in Hangzhou, Jiangsu and Zhejiang, the news that the five leaders held a feast to invite Ye Han spread like the wind in the East China underground world, and everyone who could know the news knew about it.

At this moment, in the city of Wenhai in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, the stronghold of the Heavenly Dignity Society in the underground world of eastern China is in Wenhai.

The First Day King said as he crossed his steps; "No movement for so long, I thought he was in Shanghai City laughing at the storm and watching the fire from across the river, I never thought he would choose to get involved at this time, damn him."

The Second Day King was injured and his mobility was a little limited, he sat on a stool and said; "It seems that Madam's guess was wrong, this Ye Han is a restless master, if he gets involved, it is hard to say whether it will be good or bad for us."

The First Day King said; "This bastard is trying to take advantage of our firefight with the Blood Hand Hall to secretly take control of these people in the East China Underworld, this is a threat to us and an equal threat to the Blood Hand Hall, it depends on what this guy does."

"So what should we do now?" The Second Heavenly King asked.

The First Heavenly King snorted coldly and said; "This bastard has come to the banquet, then we will go and meet him, I think the Blood Hand Hall has the same idea."

Jiangzhe, Hangcheng, Ye Han had once again arrived in this city.

After arriving in Hangzhou, Ye Han and the three of them were arranged by He Yaozong to go to a private villa of his, where the environment was excellent. The banquet started at 6pm, and there were still a few hours before the dinner started.

The Heavenly Dignity Society was stationed in East China, and their stronghold was in Wenhai City, Jiangsu and Zhejiang, while the Blood Hand Hall's headquarters was in Xijiang, but in order to deal with the Heavenly Dignity Society, they had also brought their men to Jiangsu and Zhejiang, and they had their own stronghold in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, just like the Ninth General and Tenth General's stronghold in Shanghai City, in fact, there were strongholds of the Blood Hand Hall in the whole of East China, but seven of the ten war generals had died, and these strongholds existed in name only.

Right now, Jiangzhe is the battleground between the Heavenly Dignity Society and the Blood Hand Hall.

Fortune Chapter 275

After learning about the power of the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, it was almost time for the dinner party, which was held in a tavern, the decor of which was on the retro side, and the scene was decorated in a way that had the appearance of a great gathering of martial artists in ancient times.

At this moment, inside the restaurant, Jianfu Lin Changshou, Dongshan Bai, Hui'an Iron Maiden and Sujiang Jiang Wu, all of whom had brought their men, were waiting for Ye Han's arrival.

At this time, Ye Han walked into the restaurant, beside him was He Yaozong, two steps behind Ye Han, as a human being, He Yaozong undoubtedly did a good job, although today was their treat, but this host was Ye Han.

Seeing Ye Han walk in, inside the restaurant, everyone stood up and gazed at him.

"Mr. Ye" neatly shouted inside the restaurant, a gaze of admiration looked at Ye Han, right now in the underground world of East China, there was no one among them ruthless people in the mix who did not admire this youth who dared to call out to the Blood Hand Hall and remained unscathed.

Ye Han nodded and then took a seat at the position prepared for him by the five leaders, which was located in the north, which was the main seat, so it could be seen that the five leaders had also put some thought into it, after everyone had sat down, only to see He Yaozong stand up and say; "Friends of the East China underground, today we have invited Mr. Ye, for Mr. Ye, I don't think I need to introduce him much, from now on, he will be our In the future, he will be our principal, our friends from Jiangzhe, Jianfu, Dongshan, Hui'an and Sujiang, the five major provinces, will follow Mr. Ye's lead, come on, let's all raise our glasses, for our future, let's toast Mr. Ye."

"To Mr. Ye." Inside the restaurant, everyone said together.

As he finished his glass of wine, Ye Han looked at the people from different provinces inside the restaurant and said; "I would like to thank you all for looking up to me, Ye Han, I am still young and I hope that you will bear with me if I do anything wrong in the future, the five leaders have invited me sincerely, I, Ye Han, will definitely work with you all in the future."

"Oh, well said."

Suddenly, after Ye Han had finished these words, outside the restaurant, Wu Ji, the warlord of the Blood Hand Hall came, he clapped his hands while laughing as he walked inside the restaurant, looking inside, he continued to laugh; "I heard that a group of insensitive guys here today are holding a play to change to another master, so I have come to join in the fun, I don't think I have disturbed you all. "

Hearing these words from the white-faced warlord, the faces of the five leaders all changed, and then their gazes looked towards Ye Han in unison.

Ye Han laughed; "I thought it was someone, it turns out to be Military Master Wu, but I don't think it's necessary to join in the fun, if you want to dabble in food and drink just wait at the entrance, someone will bring it to you later."

At those words, the white faced military master's face instantly went cold, Ye Han was being sarcastic was he was a dog.

"Bastard, aren't you afraid that you won't be able to walk out of here today?" Behind the white-faced warlord were the first general and the second general, they heard Ye Han's words and looked at him with murderous anger in their eyes.

Hearing this, Ye Han laughed as he said; "Aren't you afraid that I and the Heavenly Dignity will join forces and leave all three of you behind?"

This statement instantly made the faces of the White-Faced Warlord, the First General and the Second General look ugly and dumbfounded, if Ye Han really wanted to do this, the three of them would indeed be in bad luck today.

He had already failed twice in the hands of this youth, today he had wanted to come and stomp on Ye Han's arrogance, where did he expect that he would be killed by Ye Han's words just after he had appeared, Ye Han's words were a threat and a warning, if you, Blood Hand Hall, really dared to act in a reckless manner, then I would dare to unite with the Heavenly Dignity Society to kill the three of you first.

"Hahahaha, Duke Ye is quick to speak, I like that."

Just when this seemed a bit cold, the First Day King and the Second Day King came, both of them walked inside the restaurant at the same time, the First Day King looked at Ye Han and smiled; "If Sir Ye really has such an idea, Mister Qin is very willing to become a family with Sir Ye, and we will jointly rule this East China underground world."

The First Heavenly King did not expect Ye Han to say such a thing, so the words he had thought of stepping on Ye Han at the beginning did not come out at all, because if Ye Han really had such an idea, he also looked forward to working with Ye Han, as for co-ruling the East China Underworld, it was just a blank check, when the Blood Hand Hall was settled, he would not co-ruled the East China Underworld with Ye Han.

"So it's Qin Tianwang who has arrived." Ye Han smiled and said; "It seems that this wind is blowing quite well today, we are here to eat and drink, and it is surprising that several big shots have come to visit."

"Sir Ye, it's been a long time, I hope I haven't disturbed your elegance by coming here today, Qin." The First Heavenly King looked at Ye Han and said with a smile, that look was as if he was an old friend who had not seen him for many years, and it was as if the First Heavenly King had let go of the loss he had suffered in Shanghai City last time.

Of course, this was not possible.

Ye Han laughed; "Today I just want to have a quiet meal, if it's someone who comes to drink with me, I welcome it, if it's someone who comes to pick a fight, I wonder if the First Heavenly King Qin is interested in helping me kick him out?"

"Haha, since someone has disturbed the elegance of Duke Ye's drinking, Mister Qin will only help Duke drive certain ungrateful fellows out." After saying that, the First Day King glanced at the white-faced military master and said; "Military Master Wu, today is a good day for the five leaders to feast on Duke Ye, may I ask why Military Master Wu is here? If there is no other business, I think Military Master Wu can leave, I have met Lord Ye like a friend, we still need to have a good drink later, I don't have time to waste with some unenlightened guys."

The white-faced military master's cold gaze swept over Ye Han and the First Day King's body and said; "Qin Tian Wang, don't talk too much, I have controlled East China for decades in the Blood Hand Hall, no one will try to take it away, let's ride a donkey and see."

He was really afraid that if he continued to stay, Ye Han would join forces with the First Heavenly King to leave him behind, looking at the conversation between Ye Han and the First Heavenly King, anyone with a discerning eye could guess that they had the idea of coming together, but whether this was the case or not, the White Faced Master couldn't figure it out, of course, he didn't dare to bet either, having dealt with Ye Han several times, he knew that Ye Han was a person who didn't follow the usual rules. If Ye Han really joined forces with the First Day King, it would be a day of disaster for him.

In fact, not only was the white-faced warlord at a loss, but even the five leaders did not know what medicine Ye Han was selling in his gourd, was Ye Han really prepared to join forces with the First Heavenly King?

Fortune Chapter 276

The white-faced warlord with the first and second generals came and went quickly. For Ye Han, he did not dare to gamble with his life.

For if he angered Ye Han, who knew what shocking actions he would make?

"First Heavenly King Qin, First Heavenly King Luo, the two of you please take your seats." Ye Han smiled as he invited the First Heavenly King and the Second Heavenly King to sit down beside him, the sincere smile that surfaced on his face caused the five leaders to become even more puzzled in their hearts, Ye Han, what exactly did he want?

After sitting down, Qin Tian Wang laughed and said; "Ye Gongzi is young and talented, I admire him, although we have had bad blood in the past, but I hope Ye Gongzi will not take it to heart, this cup of wine will be considered as an apology to Ye Gongzi from me, Qin."

After saying this, Qin Tian Wang drank the wine in his hand in one go. Ye Han laughed; "This is serious from Qin Tian Wang, today we are not talking about the past, we have the fate to meet here, we should look forward, people, we cannot always live in the past, come, I will drink to you both."

"Sir Ye, please." Qin Tian Wang and Luo Tian Wang raised their glasses together.

Qin Tian Wang looked at the five leaders and said; "The five leaders are very discerning, in terms of youth and talent, Duke Ye is much better than Blood Hand Hall today, with Duke Ye as your leader, you all have a bright future ahead of you."

"You are very kind, King Qin." The five leaders said at the same time.

Qin Tianwang smiled lightly, then he looked at Ye Han and said; "I don't know what Mr. Ye's views are on my Heavenly Dignity Association and Blood Hand Hall when he comes to Jiangsu and Zhejiang this time?"

Ye Han laughed; "In the world of Jianghu, the strongest has always been the most respected, the Blood Hand Hall is old, if someone is more capable than them, it is time for them to step aside."

“Haha, well said.” Qin Tian Wang laughed twice and continued; “Since Duke Ye has such insight, then I wonder if Duke Ye can have an idea to overthrow the Blood Hand Hall? If Duke Ye is willing, I, the Heavenly Honor Society, would be willing to help Duke Ye eradicate the Blood Hand Hall, the East China Underworld should be put in the hands of a young and talented person.”

Hearing these words from Qin Tianwang, Ye Han sneered in his heart, helping him eradicate the Blood Hand Hall? As for taking control of the East China Underworld, did he think he was a three-year-old child? If he was not a child, he would not give up this piece of meat to others.

Ye Han laughed; “Naturally, I have such an idea, I think King Qin Tianwang also knows the enmity between me and Blood Hand Hall, it is impossible for Blood Hand Hall and I to co-exist, so either I die or Blood Hand Hall dies, there are only these two possibilities.”

“So, does Lord Ye agree to work together with us to deal with the Blood Hand Hall?” King Qin Tian asked with narrowed eyes.

“Not also.” Ye Han laughed; “King Qin Tianwang, it is still a bit early to say this, I have just arrived in Jiangzhe, I always have to clarify some situations before I can do so, all I can promise now is that it is impossible for me and the Blood Hand Hall to be friends.”

Ye Han had one more sentence that he had not said, he was not friends with the Blood Hand Hall, but he was also not friends with the Heavenly Dignity Society, and if he was not a friend, he was naturally an enemy.

The deeper meaning within Ye Han’s words, Qin Tian Wang naturally did not guess, Ye Han and Blood Hand Hall were not friends, for him having this sentence was enough, as long as Ye Han did not get involved now, when he settled Blood Hand Hall, he would come to settle the score with Ye Han, this piece of fat meat in East China could only go into his Heavenly Dignity Society’s mouth.

“Good point, plan before you act, I like to be friends with a smart person like Lord Ye.” Qin Tianwang smiled; “Since that’s the case, I will not bother you today, I will wait for good news from Ye Gongzi, I hope that in Jiangzhe, our Heavenly Dignity Society and Ye Gongzi will have the opportunity to cooperate.”

“There will be.” Ye Han smiled and nodded, then the two Qin Tianwang left the restaurant.

As they watched the two Qin Heavenly Kings leave, the five leaders looked at Ye Han with puzzled faces, they were really confused as to what Ye Han’s intention was with this move. Ye Han looked at them and smiled; “What, can’t understand?”

“Mr. Ye, forgive our stupidity.” He Yaozong shook his head and said, “They could not figure out what deep meaning Ye Han’s move had, the young man’s mind was deeper than even their old foxes who had been in the underground world for decades.

Ye Han said; “It’s right if you don’t understand, since you all can’t see it, I’m sure the White-Faced Scholar and Qin Tian Wang can’t see it either, wouldn’t it be better to be sparse like this, just so I have time to plan.”

At these words, a look of seeming understanding flashed across the faces of the five leading figures, Ye Han was making peace with the situation, seemingly meaning to get closer to the Heavenly King, but in fact, who understood his mind anymore.

“Heavenly King Qin, do you think that Ye Han will really join forces with us against the Blood Hand Hall?” On the way back, Luo Tian Wang asked in a deep voice, Qin Tian Wang said; “Ye Han and Blood Hand Hall have a deep hatred, Blood Hand Hall can’t tolerate him, and he can’t allow Blood Hand Hall to exist, from this point of view, it is indeed possible for him to join forces with us against Blood Hand Hall, but this son’s real mind is hard to guess, but one thing is certain, coming to Jiang Zhe, he won’t join forces with Blood Hand Hall to We don’t have to worry too much for the time being based on this alone. Hmph, when we settle the Blood Hand Hall, this Heavenly King will definitely make him look good and make him spit out all that he has eaten, the East China underground world can only belong to our Heavenly Dignity Society.”

“In that case, we still only need to focus on the Blood Hand Hall at the moment?” Luo Tianwang asked.

“That said, but we have to guard against this Ye Han as well.” King Qin Tianwang said indifferently; “This man brought his experts to Jiangzhe, and now all five leaders have fallen to him, if he has bad intentions it will be troublesome for us as well, I will report the situation here to Madam, we still have to listen to Madam’s opinion on what to do.”

To him, he would rather work with Blood Hand Hall, a wolf that he had pulled a few teeth out of, than seek skin with the still strong tiger of the Heavenly Respect Society, once he and the Heavenly Respect Society had destroyed Blood Hand Hall, after the Heavenly Respect Society had no worries in East China, it would be his turn next.

Ye Han’s purpose in coming to Jiangsu and Zhejiang was to drive away the Heavenly Clan and weaken the Blood Hand Hall again.

As for Ye Han, he could take advantage of this opportunity to work on this and achieve his goal step by step.

After the banquet, Ye Han returned to the villa prepared for them by He Yaozong, and of course, the five leaders went with him, and their faces were also shown. .

Fortune Chapter 277

“I came to Jiangzhe, right now both the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society already know about it, the road ahead has been paved, the next thing we have to do is to keep a close eye on the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society.” Inside the villa, Ye Han looked at the five leaders and said; “Everyone, for the next period of time, I want you to keep an eye on the Heavenly Dignity Society and the Bloodshed, I need to know whatever moves they make, this should not be a difficult task for you, right?”

He Yaozong had been in Jiangsu and Zhejiang for a long time, he had the most say on this issue, he said with a straightforward smile; “Please don’t worry Mr. Ye, this is my chassis in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, I have people from the highest officials to the lowest street beggars, there are my people in here, no matter what moves they make, the Heavenly Respect Society and the Blood Hand Hall cannot escape my ears.”

“That’s good.” Ye Han nodded and said; “Since I have come to Jiangsu and Zhejiang, I naturally have to do something, what I lack right now is an opportunity, as long as this opportunity appears, no matter if it is the Blood Hand Hall or the Heavenly Dignity Society, I have to give them a good pain, so I must keep a close eye on them during this period of time.”

Having come to this place in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, right now Ye Han would not yet collide head-on with the Heavenly Dignity Society and the Blood Hand Hall, this was the next best thing, what he wanted to do was to act secretly and fish in troubled waters.

Ye Han stood in front of the window and thought about the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society, if he wanted to make these two families suffer, it would be difficult to say, but not difficult to say.

As for why Ye Han wanted to deal with the Heavenly Dignity Society and not the Blood Hand Hall?

There is a reason for this, the Blood Hand Hall has lost continuously at the hands of Ye Han, seven of the ten war generals have died because of him, the living force has been sharply reduced, at present, the only person who can make Ye Han afraid of the Blood Hand Hall is Jiang Yu Tang, but the Heavenly Dignity Association is different, they are still very powerful, the top force has four heavenly kings, Ci Mei and Angry Buddha two great vajra, so, what Ye Han wants to do is to weaken the power of the Heavenly Dignity Association step by step, rather than continue to deal with the Blood Hand Hall, not to mention that the existence of the Blood Hand Hall was also a check and balance to the Heavenly Dignity Society.

For the above reasons, therefore, Ye Han would not deal with the Blood Hand Hall, but rather point his sword at the Heavenly Dignity Society.

“Brother Zhou, what do you think will happen if we do some small moves in the dark and frame the Heavenly Dignity Society or the Blood Hand Hall?” After Ye Han stood in front of the window and thought for a while, he turned around and looked at Zhou Lie who was currently sitting bored on the sofa and asked.

Hearing this from him, Zhou Lie said; “It depends on how big the impact of the graft is, if it’s big enough, both the Heavenly Dignity Society and the Blood Hand Hall will be led by our noses.”

“Yes, right now we can only wait for good news from the five leaders.” Ye Han smiled lightly as he already had certain notes in his mind.

Just like that, Ye Han began to stay temporarily in Hangcheng, observing the movements of the Heavenly Dignity Society and the Blood Hand Hall in secret while making high-profile trips, giving outsiders the impression as if he did not care about the matters between the Heavenly Dignity Society and the Blood Hand Hall, such a move soon reached the ears of the Heavenly Dignity Society and the Blood Hand Hall.

After knowing that Ye Han had nothing to do, the First Heavenly King and the White-Faced Warlord both breathed a sigh of relief. In the past few days, they had not dared to make any moves without knowing Ye Han’s true intentions, and both sides had a tacit agreement to calm down, but now they were basically sure that Ye Han would not get involved, otherwise he would not have acted so calmly.

This night, after three days of calm, there was a new action between the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society. The Blood Hand Hall's Earth Demon group raided the stronghold of the Heavenly Dignity Society, but this raid was not an ordinary raid, the sinister villain, the White Faced Warlord, even used heat weapons, without any sense of jianghu morality.

A few rocket launchers flew into the stronghold of the Heavenly Dignity Society, killing and injuring close to twenty people, causing Qin Tianwang and Luo Tianwang's lungs to explode with anger. In the end, the two of them chased out together and killed many people from the Bloodshed Hall's Earthly Demon group.

All in all, after a few days of calm, the clashes between the Blood Hand Gang and the Heavenly Dignity Society were as fierce as they had been some time ago, with both sides going back and forth and killing each other in a fierce manner, but of course, these killings and firefights all took place in the dark at night and did not bring panic to the ordinary citizens, otherwise, even if the Blood Hand Gang and the Heavenly Dignity Society were powerful, they would not be able to withstand the killing by the state machinery.

After knowing these things, Ye Han wasn't surprised, as long as he didn't get involved in the action, the Blood Hand Hall and the Heavenly Dignity Society would often have firefights, one wanted to take over East China as soon as possible, the other wanted to maintain the hegemony of East China, one side didn't fall, how could they stop?

However, on the fourth day of Ye Han's arrival in Hangzhou, Xu Qing came looking for him, along with the other three young men of Hangzhou, the news of Ye Han's arrival in Hangzhou was known to them through some channels in the past few days.

"Young Ye, I heard that you had come to Hangzhou, so, I purposely came to meet you, I didn't disturb you, right?"

Inside the villa, Xu Qing and the others sat down and said, but these four guys were acting a bit formal, although they had offended Ye Han last time and finally resolved it, they were still unable to do that kind of casual talk, especially when Ye Han was looking at them, making them always feel a bit awkward.

Ye Han laughed; "Alright, since you guys are sincere in making me a friend, there is no need to be so formal, just call me Hanzi in the future, I was never born to be a young master."

Hearing Ye Han's words, Xu Qing and the four of them were very happy in their hearts, Ye Han said this to prove that he recognized them and started to treat them as friends, instead of taking a superior stance.

Xu Qing laughed; "OK, we are quite awkward to call you Ye Shao, by the way, I heard that five leading figures in East China have all defected to you now, Hanzi, it seems that this East China will be yours sooner or later."

"It's still too early to talk about this." Ye Han said; "Why have you four guys come to my place, did He Yaozong tell you about this?"

"It was indeed Mr. He." Xu Qing said; "But the reason the four of us came to see you today was to invite you to a racing party, Hanzi, are you free tonight? Why don't you come with us and have some fun?"

“A racing party?” Ye Han laughed; “You guys have nothing better to do all day than to play with this, you might as well share the work for your parents if you have this time.”

Xu Qing laughed; “Hanzi, today’s racing party is not an ordinary party, there are many rich and powerful youngsters from all over the south in Hangzhou, all of them are here for the establishment of the Southern Business Alliance, but these guys have nothing to do, and they are all unruly, they don’t like each other, so they have to show themselves off in a racing race. “

“Southern Business Alliance Founding Meeting?”

Ye Han noticed these words inside Xu Qing’s mouth, his brow furrowed, there was a Northern Business Alliance in the North, and the South had even established a Southern Business Alliance, was the North and the South opposing each other?

“Hanzi, don’t you know about the Southern Business Alliance?” Xu Qing asked with some surprise, right now during this period of time, within the business community, the most talked about topic was this Southern Business Alliance being established.

“I only know about the Northern Business Alliance.” Ye Han shook his head, he generally did not care about matters in the shopping malls, so he did not know that a Southern Business Alliance had recently been established in the south.

Xu Qing said; “The nature of the Southern Business Alliance is the same as that of the Northern Business Alliance, the Southern Business Alliance is an alliance that brings together some large consortia in the south, but there are more members underneath and they are widely distributed, to say the least, the Southern Business Alliance is not officially established yet, only after the inaugural meeting tomorrow night will the name of the Southern Business Alliance be true to its name. ”

Ye Han asked; “To set up such an alliance, I guess his initiator should not be simple, right?”

“That’s a good point.” A flash of admiration flashed across Xu Qing’s eyes as he said; “The initiator of the Southern Business Alliance is Murong Tiandu, the number one young man in the south, and the president will also have himself as the president.”

“Murong Tiandu.” Ye Han’s eyes slowly narrowed as he heard this man’s name once again, it seemed that there was no one who was on the stage in the entire South who didn’t know him, even the powerful families in the North knew his name.

Ye Han asked; “Xu Qing, when will this inaugural meeting be held? At what place?”

“It will be held at our Hangcheng Heavenly Palace Club, and it will be tomorrow night.” Xu Qing asked; “Hanzi, you are interested in this establishment meeting?”

“Indeed, I have some interest.” For Murong Tiandu, how could Ye Han not be interested, Su Yuqin had said that if he wanted to step on the Northern Nalan Mingtian, he had to step on the Southern Murong Tiandu first, so sooner or later, Ye Han would meet with Murong Tiandu, and this establishment meeting was the opportunity for them to meet.

“Cheng, I’ll take you there tomorrow, it just so happens that our Xu family is also a member of the Southern Business Alliance.”

“Thanks, let’s go and take a look at the racing party you guys were talking about.” Ye Han stood up and straightened his clothes, then took Silly Ben and Zhou Lie to follow Xu Qing and the four of them out the door. The racing party was held at the Pan Yuan Mountain in Hangzhou, where the terrain was steep and the road circled around the whole mountain before returning to the bottom.

This place was ideal for racing, and the rich kids of Jiangsu and Zhejiang usually chose this place for racing.

At night, Xu Qing and the four of them arrived at the foot of Pan Yuan Mountain with Ye Han in his dazzling sports car. At this moment, many well-dressed young men and women had gathered at the foot of this mountain, and there were close to a hundred cars parked around, and all of them were some very expensive and famous cars.

When they saw Xu Qing and the four of them coming in their cars, all the local rich kids from Jiangsu and Zhejiang converged on them. People from other provinces and major southern provinces and cities didn’t give a damn about Xu Qing and the others, in their eyes, no one would be better than themselves.

The rich kids who came here today included those from Hunan, Hubei, Xijiang, Jianfu, Yunnan, Guizhou and Sichuan provinces, etc. Basically, each province had a leader, just like in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, Xu Qing was the leader.

“A few people, it’s almost time now, I wonder if we can start?” Surrounded by a group of rich sons from Jiangsu and Zhejiang, Xu Qing walked over and looked at the group of leading figures from each province and asked, Ye Han and the three of them were just leaning under the street light, smoking cigarettes, their eyes glancing over the bodies of this group of rich sons who would make the whole southern business world quake when they stomped their feet.

“What’s the hurry, there are still people on our side who haven’t come yet, waiting for a few minutes, as the hosts, you people from Jiangsu and Zhejiang can’t even afford to wait for that, right?” A young man with dyed yellow hair was seen looking at Xu Qing and the others with a disdainful smile.

“That’s right, our people from Dongguang are likewise not here yet, so wait a little longer.”

“Shit, you Hubei and Dongguang people have no sense of time at all, don’t make us all wait too long, we all still have fun tonight, if you can’t, you can just admit defeat voluntarily.” The man who spoke was a guy who came from the Sichuan province side, and the rich kids from Sichuan province who came here were led by him.

“Let’s wait, I’ll see what you guys in Hubei and Dongguang leading the fight are capable of?”

“Hmph, what’s the point of you guys from Yunnan and Yunnan getting cocky, when our side arrives, I’ll make sure you even lose your underwear.”

“Shit, what the hell, do you want to fight with our people from Yun Dian?”

As they watched the noise get more and more violent, Xu Qing and the others stood on the periphery looking like they were watching the action, these guys from other provinces were really more and more crazy, and they still didn't have any restraint when they arrived on their turf.

But just as the people from Hubei, Dongguang and Yun Dian were making a lot of noise, two sports cars arrived at the foot of the mountain in a breeze and stopped at the foot of the mountain almost at the same time, then a man and a woman got down from each of these two cars, the leaders from Hubei and Dongguang arrived, and in unison, the eyes of everyone present fell on them.

"Young Wu." The man from Hubei's side looked at the youth who got out of the car and shouted.

"Big sister." The man from Dongguang over likewise opened his mouth and shouted at the woman, who was wearing a tight black leather jacket and leather trousers, sunglasses and long hair that flowed in the wind, just like a big sister.

"So it's this guy." Ye Han leaned against the street lamp and smoked a cigarette, he looked at the young man who came here, the corner of his mouth curled up, this guy Wu Tianxu would meet him here after he dropped out of Fudan University, and it looked like he was also the leader of that group of rich kids from Hubei.

"Shit, so it's just a little white guy and a woman, I thought what kind of big shot would come." The leader of the rich kids from Sichuan province bristled disdainfully, people like them were used to being arrogant in their own turf and usually didn't easily serve any of their peers.

"Hmph, cut the crap, now that everyone is here, aren't we going to race cars, let's start now, one person from each side, let's run around this mountain and see who comes back first, the one who comes back first wins." The rich son of Dong Guang said as he looked at the crowd around him, now that everyone had arrived, the racing could begin.

"Let's get started then." Xu Qing stomped out the cigarette he had thrown on the ground, their side was represented by Zhang Xu, in terms of racing, Zhang Xu had the best car skills among the four youngsters of Hangcheng.

"Hold on." Suddenly, he saw Wu Tianxu slowly light a cigarette for himself, then he said indifferently; "Isn't it too meaningless to just have a competition like this, it's not difficult at all, and in the end, even if whoever wins won't get any benefit, how about we change to a more exciting way of playing, and add some more prizes to the competition?"

Fortune Chapter 279

Hearing Wu Tianxu's words, the leader of the wealthy sons of Sichuan Province said with displeasure; "twittering a hair, I don't know how you Hubei people are so long-winded, not as quick as our people in Sichuan Province, how to play it out, I Cheng Missy Chicken will accompany you to the end."

"Hubei, tell us, how to play?" The leaders of other provinces also looked at Wu Tianxu and asked.

Wu Tianxu sneered; "Since we are looking for excitement, of course it is more fun to be more dangerous, this is more interesting, we will send one representative from each province to go around this mountain, but, instead of driving down, we will drive backwards, whoever reaches here first will be considered the winner. reward for the first place, I wonder if you all would like to?"

“This guy’s crazy! This is a steep hill, and it’s so dark, in case there’s an accident and he falls off the cliff, he’ll lose his life.”

“No, it’s not. Besides, someone is bound to crash the car during the race, who would dare to play such a game?”

“Damn, this is not racing, this is playing with your life, Hubei, you are not talking nonsense, right?”

After Wu Tian Xu finished his words, the leaders of the major provinces all frowned, even Xu Qing and the others, they were indeed a good hand at normal racing and would not be afraid of anyone, but driving backwards was the first time they had heard of it, and they all opened their mouths to look at Wu Tian Xu angrily.

“Hmph, what, don’t you guys have the guts to play?” Wu Tian Xu coldly snorted and looked at the leaders of the provinces with a disdainful smile, the people from the Hubei side were also comparing their middle fingers and opened their mouths to sneer; “That’s right, if you don’t have the guts then don’t play, go home and play with women.”

“Shit, I thought they were a bunch of bold guys, but it turns out they’re all a bunch of wimps, that’s all they have the guts to play with cars?”

“Drive it backwards, it’s only 100 million, I’ll play with you.” But just as no one spoke up, the big sister who had come over from Dongguang took off her sunglasses and then sat down directly inside her own sports car.

“Big Sister, good job!” Seeing the woman’s action, the people from Dongguang applauded, and then someone looked at Wu Tianxu and shouted; “Hubei, I’ll give you a lung, our big sister won’t be afraid of you.”

“Any more,” Wu Tianxu looked around indifferently.

“Shit, when I Chen youngest chicken afraid of you turtle like, I come.” The leader of Sichuan Province, Chen youngest chicken fished up his sleeves and also went inside towards his car, chewing gum while inside his mouth.

After the big sisters from Dongguang and Sichuan’s Chen Youji sat in their cars, the leaders from Hunan, Jianfu, Xijiang, Yunnan and Guiqian also joined in, arrogant rich kids like them, who would not give in so easily for the sake of face.

“Boss, I’ll go.” Zhang Xu gritted his teeth and was about to walk towards his car, now they were the only ones left from Jiangzhe who hadn’t moved, a face they couldn’t afford to lose.

“Don’t go, you’re the only one in your family, even if I concede this match, I won’t joke with my own brother’s life.” Xu Qing pulled Zhang Xu, then he looked at Wu Tianxu and said; “Sorry, we’re out of this match, you guys play.”

“Boss!” A touching look appeared in the eyes of Zhang Xu, Wu Yu and Hong Sen.

“Shit, Jiangzhe’s, you are the hosts, I didn’t expect to be so gutless, I, Chen youngest chicken, look down on you.” Chen youngest chicken from Sichuan province said with contempt as he raised a middle finger at Xu Qing and the rest of the rich children from all the other provinces also looked at Xu Qing and the others with a contemptuous look on their faces.

Seeing this scene, a group of rich children from Jiangzhe Province all lowered their heads in shame, they did not have the courage to look at them in the face of the despised eyes of the group of rich children from various provinces.

“It seems that there are still people who are afraid of death.” Wu Tian Xu sneered and said disdainfully; “Since you chose to withdraw yourselves, then just stand aside and watch us perform properly, this racing today has nothing to do with you people from Jiangzhe.”

At these words, Xu Qing’s face was silent as he did not speak, this kind of playful racing not to mention not allowing Zhang Xu to compete, he would not allow any of the rich children of Jiangsu and Zhejiang.

“Who said this racing today has nothing to do with Jiangzhe, Jiangzhe side, I’ll do it.” Ye Han stomped out his cigarette and smiled as he walked over from under the street light, suddenly hearing these words, the eyes of people from all provinces fell on him, the faces of people from Jiangzhe even showed a look of ecstasy as they all chanted; “Young Ye, Young Ye, Young Ye ……”

A loud chant came out from the mouths of this group of rich kids in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, looking at the people from other provinces quite surprised, who is this guy? The prestige in Jiangsu and Zhejiang was so high! Could it be that he was the leader of that group of rich kids in Jiangsu and Zhejiang?

Ye Han waved his hand at the rich children of Jiangsu and Zhejiang, and then those chants slowly diminished, although their eyes were still looking at Ye Han with great admiration.

“Ye Han, it’s you!” He had dropped out of school all because Ye Han had made him lose face at Fudan, and Ye Han had stepped on him last time in Shanghai City, causing him to lose face, so he was quite bitter towards Ye Han.

“Ye Han, could he be!” Xijiang and Jianfu came with a fierce change of face, Xijiang and Jianfu belonged to the same part of East China, so they naturally knew Ye Han’s name, they just hadn’t seen him before.

“Oh, Senior Wu, I didn’t expect you to come here to flaunt your power after dropping out of school.” Ye Han smiled lightly at Wu Tianxu and said; “I’m on the Jiangzhe side, Senior Wu shouldn’t have any problem with that, right?”

“Hmph, you want to seek death, then I’ll make it happen.” Wu Tianxu looked at Ye Liang and smiled coldly, saying; “In Shanghai City, that’s your place, but today’s racing competition, I don’t believe that you can still step on me.”

“Since I can step on you the first time, naturally I can also step on you the second time.” Ye Han laughed; “But Elder Wu must be careful, the road is slippery in the dark, don’t fall into the ravine and lose your life later.”

“It’s not certain who will lose their lives.” Wu Tianxu snorted coldly and then ran to his car and sat up.

Xu Qing came over and said with a bitter smile; “Hanzi, this racing is too dangerous, I think you should give up, there is no need to play with these guys, let’s just admit defeat, there is nothing to be ashamed of.”

“How can a man admit defeat so easily.” Ye Han patted Xu Qing’s shoulder and laughed; “It just so happens that I’m short of money to spend recently, one hundred million for one person, such a good opportunity can’t be missed, it just so happens to earn me some money to support my wife, this money is not earned for nothing.”

Fortune Chapter 280

After saying that, Ye Han looked at this group of rich kids from Jiangzhe and said; “Who has another car? I can’t play with this sports car.”

“Young Ye, use mine, I’ve modified this car and it’s definitely not worse than those guys’ sports cars in terms of performance.” A young man threw the car keys towards Ye Han, who then caught them in his hand, this guy was driving a British Lung Nidhi.

“Come on, it’s just a car race, look at you guys like you’re dead or something.” Ye Han waved his hand at Xu Qing and the others, then drove that one Ying Lung Nidhi over, on the same line as those who were participating in the race.

“Shit, don’t say count begging.” Cheng Xiaoji raised a middle finger at Ye Han.

After all the contestants were ready in place, a woman dressed as a lady stood in front and said in English; “Ready? go!”

As the woman’s voice fell, the sound of engines hummed on the starting line, and a sports car began to back out quickly, soon disappearing down the straight road, and Ye Han was naturally among them.

The dark highway, only the lights of some street lamps could illuminate the road dimly, driving backwards, and in a racing situation, this was a first for many of the participants, but in order not to lose the race, these people were driving very fast, basically no different from driving down the road, only the danger some great.

The test of a race like this is one’s reflexes and speed, and accidents can happen if one is not careful, but among them, Wu Tianxu’s skills are really very good, and he is now far ahead of everyone else, and after him are the big sister of Dongguang and Ye Han.

The woman from Dongguang was worthy of being the eldest sister of the rich kids, no matter it was her guts or her racing skills, she was top-notch, the speed of shifting gears and steering wheel in her hands was dazzling, especially in the cornering position, that kind of 360-degree rotation plus drift, which many people could hardly do.

Of course, Ye Han could. Although it was Ye Han’s first time racing, he was still very confident in his car driving, and in terms of reaction ability and the speed of his hands and feet, who could beat him here?

So, at the next bend, Ye Han successfully crossed over the big sister with a difficult ninety degree drift, and did not even brush the other car, this scene, the big sister was a bit shocked, they both came from that ninety degree bend at the same time, she had already slowed down here, but Ye Han did not slow down at all, instead, he accelerated and passed her with a beautiful drift. .

“Boss, I didn’t expect young Ye to be so good at playing with cars!” At the starting position, many people were watching the live broadcast with their mobile phones at this time, the live broadcast was naturally about this racing competition, the road on Pan Yuan Mountain had been installed with many wireless cameras, so you could watch the situation on the road with your mobile phone.

“With him, we can only be convinced.” Xu Qing sighed, and Zhang Xu and the others nodded in agreement.

“Look, Young Wu is almost at the top of the mountain!” At this moment, only to see the shadow of Wu Tianxu appearing in the camera screen not far from the top of the mountain, right now he was still far ahead of everyone and was almost near the top of the mountain.

“Hey, hey, playing cars with Young Wu, aren’t these guys asking for abuse?” The group of rich kids from Hubei all looked at the other provinces with disdain, and for their contemptuous, disdainful eyes, the people from the other provinces didn’t say anything even though they were upset, they did know from the picture that Wu Tianxu’s car skills were the best among all the participants.

Not long after, Wu Tianxu’s car managed to reach the top of the hill and then from the other side of the road had started to drive backwards towards the starting point, this situation saw a burst of cheers from the people of Hubei, as long as there were no accidents next, this race would be a sure win for them in Hubei.

“Hey, look, this guy’s car is driving so fast, he’s not putting his foot on the gas, is he?” At this time, someone noticed that not far from the top of the hill, an Infiniti appeared in the picture, a flash of light, followed by his shadow in the next picture, he didn’t even see him slowing down when he crossed the bend, so fast that many people were scared to look at the car, Wu Tianxu’s driving skills are so good in this kind of road don’t dare to drive so fast, this guy is crazy, right?

“It’s Young Ye’s car, it looks like he’s trying to catch up with Hubei.” After Jiangzhe’s people saw this scene, they were overjoyed, but they couldn’t help but worry about Ye Han, Ye Han must not have any accidents when he drove his car so fast.

He looked at the curve that appeared in the rear view mirror and still didn’t slow down, his foot on the brake and the steering wheel in his hand, the whole car went around the curve, the sound of tyres and the ground was extremely harsh and smoke was coming out.

In this situation, even if Wu Tianxu’s driving skills were good, he would not dare to play with his own life, in case he rolled down the hill with his car, his life would be over.

Even if Ye Han’s speed had reduced at this point, but it was still faster than Wu Tianxu’s car.

“Hmph, playing with me!”

Wu Tian Xu looked at Ye Han who appeared, a cold look flashed across his face, and then he only saw his backwards car drive violently down towards the mountain, and a violent impact was made on Ye Han’s car butt, as if he was going to send Ye Han flying down the mountain.

After feeling Wu Tianxu's action, Ye Han likewise sneered, and then he only saw him slamming on the accelerator, because it had been in reverse gear, Ye Han stepped on the accelerator, and there was a buzzing sound, Wu Tianxu was just about to give Ye Han a bump, and then he saw Ye Han's car coming backwards, denting the front of his car.

"Damned fellow!" Wu Tianxu cursed angrily and could only put on the reverse gear, stepped on the accelerator and quickly backed out, on this steep mountain road, he really did not have much guts to fight with Ye Han, it did not matter if Ye Han died, the key was that he was afraid that he was also unlucky to report to the king of hell along with him.

Without Wu Tianxu in the way, Ye Han watched the situation in the rear-view mirror while steering and backing away quickly, but when Ye Han wanted to overtake, Wu Tianxu naturally wouldn't let him, and his car backed up while drifting left and right on the road to prevent Ye Han from successfully overtaking.

However, Ye Han didn't care about these moves of Wu Tianxu, he directly backed up quickly and stepped on the accelerator to the bottom, if Wu Tianxu didn't let him, then he would have to meet him with this violent impact.

With a bang, Wu Tianxu's car came into close contact with Ye Han's car, which almost sent Wu Tianxu's car off the edge of the road, scaring him so much that he hurriedly hit the left side of the road and stopped the car against the mountain.

At that moment, without Wu Tianxu behind him, Ye Han's car managed to shoot past.
