Fortune Chapter 291

“Wolf cub, how dare you use me!”

The First Heavenly King’s eyes surged with murderous energy, thinking that it was Ye Han who had shaded him behind his back without saying a word, the First Heavenly King was extremely angry, more importantly he had a feeling of being deceived, Ye Han had deliberately shown goodwill to him when he came to Jiangzhe at the beginning, all this was just an illusion that he wanted to reap the benefits of fishing, his purpose was to make him drop his guard and only stab him at the crucial time.

“First Heavenly King, this time we have lost so much, if this Ye Han wants to make a move against us next, we are only afraid that it will be difficult for us to stop him, those two experts beside him are not inferior to us, not to mention that both of us are injured.” The second day king analysed.

The First Heavenly King calmed himself down and said; “At this point in time, we can only turn to the madam for help.”

“Seek help from the Lady.” The Second Day King frowned, the Black Widow had sent the two of them to fight down the East China Underworld, but not only had the two of them failed to succeed, but they had also lost a lot of people under their hands, and now they still had to turn to the headquarters for help, which really made him a bit resentful.

The First King would have guessed that he had planted the evidence to frame him, and even if Ye Han had known this, he would not have been surprised. If the First King did not even have this kind of eyesight and awareness, then he would not deserve to sit as the First King of the Heavenly Dignity Society.

As Ye Han wished, on the third day after the death of the first and second generals, the third general of the Blood Hand Hall, Ying Shan, arrived in Jiangsu and Zhejiang.

After arriving in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, Ying Shan began to reorganise the remaining Earth Demon Group, which was now the last living force of the Blood Hand Hall, with less than 300 men capable of fighting, but it could already deal with the Heavenly Dignity Society, especially when both the First and Second Kings were injured.

Therefore, after arriving in Jiangzhe, Ying Shan’s hand went to the First Day King and the Second Day King.

What happened next, Ye Han did not bother to inquire, because today was the day he had an appointment to fight with Murong Tiandu, and his mind was focused on that.

The West Lake in Hangzhou, it was not the first time that Ye Han had come here, the last time he came was when he came over to recruit his troops, met Xiao Yunyan and the two of them at the West Lake Park, and ended up befriending Xu Qing, a group of rich kids by mistake, but today, once again, he had come to the West Lake, but he was not here to have fun.

Today, Ye Han had a larger line-up behind him than last time: Silly Ben, Zhou Lie, Xu Qing, plus the five leaders, a total of nine people.

The West Lake was still as crowded as usual today, but one of the sub-districts was closed to visitors today, with Murong guards guarding all entrances, and no one could enter this sub-district without their permission.

Ye Han and the others of course swaggered in, and the Murong guards would not stop them.

However, after arriving here, Ye Han realised that there were surprisingly quite a few people besides them coming in here, among them were some of the celebrities and rich people who had attended the party that day, but of course, these guys were purely here to watch the fun. Murong Tiandu didn't stop either, he was trying to defeat Ye Han in front of the southern celebrities and humiliate him severely, so that everyone could see that no one in the south could match him, Murong Tiandu, and anyone who wanted to match him was destined to be stepped on by him.

"Oh, there are quite a lot of people." Ye Han swept a glance at the entire scene as he smiled lightly.

"Just a bunch of guys eating melons and watching the fun, but I think this is also Murong Tiandu's intention, its purpose, to make you look bad in front of this group of people, Han Zi, are you really sure?" Xu Qing asked as he stood by Ye Han's side.

"Half and half." Ye Han replied like this, Murong Tiandu's strength Ye Han could probably sense that he should belong to the level of Ren Chakra expert, once he broke through the Governor Chakra, he would be an expert of the Ren Chakra realm.

At this moment, Murong Tiandu was already standing in a pavilion in the centre of the lake, the pavilion was located in the centre of the lake, and the only way to reach it was by boat.

Ye Han didn't care about this at all, it wasn't up to these people to say whether he would lose or win.

The next moment, his body swung like a light breeze and floated towards the pavilion in the centre of the lake. Halfway, his toes touched the surface of the lake, and with a bit of force, he landed in the pavilion, looking at Murong Tiandu face to face.

Seeing this scene, many people applauded in their hearts. They had never seen such a non-human competition before, and no matter who lost or won today, they had seen a lot of things today.

"You and I are having a competition, is it necessary to have these guys watching from the side?" In the middle of the pavilion, Ye Han looked at Murong Tiandu and said with a faint smile. Murong Tiandu said with a calm expression; "What, are you afraid of losing face in front of the people of the southern world?"

Ye Han laughed; "If you have to think so then I have nothing to say, now that I'm here, is this competition between us ready to begin, I think these melon eaters are all still waiting to see you and I perform."

"So anxious, it seems that you are very confident." Murong Tiandu looked at Ye Han and said; "If I don't crush you on all fronts today, I will really let you think that you can ignore me, Murong Tiandu, just because you have made a name for yourself in East China."

Ye Han looked at the Dragon Spring Sword, he slowly pulled it out and said; "You are really right, I am ignoring you Murong Tiandu, everyone else treats you like a god, but I treat you like a mortal."

“Then, you will know how ridiculous this idea of yours is.” Murong Tiandu sneered as he also slowly pulled the sword out of his hand and said coldly; “In the south, I suppressed the other three people who wanted to claim the title of king and earned the reputation of the number one young man in the south, compared to them, you are still a long way off, in the whole of China, I, Murong Tiandu, only have one rival, but he is in the north and I am in the south, one day I, Murong Tiandu, will not only step on the south One day I will not only trample down the South, I will even enter the North and show everyone in the world who is the real king!”

Hearing Murong Tiandu’s domineering and conceited words, Ye Han smiled gently and said; “The one in the north should be Nalan Miantian, right? Let me tell you a story; I like a woman, but to get her, I have to step on Nalan Mietian, but to step on Nalan Mietian, I have to step on you Murong Tiandu first, so the two of us have been destined to be rivals for a long time, there is no changing that.”

After saying that, Ye Han’s body was charged with battle intent, his killing aura was like a sword, his sword eyebrows flew up, the next moment he moved his feet, the sword in his hand, had turned into a lightning bolt and swung towards Murong Tiandu, his sword aura was sweeping.

Fortune Chapter 292

In the middle of the lake, in the middle of that pavilion, a burst of invisible sword qi streaked across, a terrifyingly harsh aura was released, causing the air around it to sharpen, as if it was already a world of swords, and the gazes around the lake were all directed there at the moment.

The next moment, the clash of the two world-famous weapons resounded like an explosion of thunder, and even from a hundred meters away, people around the lake could feel the power of that sound.

The sword in Murong Tiandu’s hand was not an ordinary item, but a famous Chinese weapon, the Tai Ah Sword, which was on a par with the Dragon Spring in Ye Han’s hand.

At the first clash, whether it was Ye Han or Murong Tiandu, both of them felt the overwhelming power released from the other.

“Dragon Spring Sword, is this divine weapon worthy of you to use it?” The domineering aura in Murong Tiandu’s cold eyes was unparalleled as the Tai Ah Sword in his hand swept out a burst of sword aura, blanketing Ye Han’s position.

Ye Han waved his sword against it, his spirit energy released furiously within his body as he simultaneously sneered; “I’m not worthy of using Dragon Spring? Are you Murong Tiandu worthy of using the Tai Ah Sword?”

“Yin and Yang Two Yi Sword Technique!”

The next moment, Ye Han moved like lightning, the Dragon Spring in his hand waved out, the curtain of swords seemed to be a curtain of water standing across the sky, one yin and one yang, two extreme powers collided with Murong Tiandu’s sword technique, erupting into a rolling destructive force, causing the entire pavilion to become shaky, as if under the two of them attacking each other, the pavilion would sooner or later break apart in pieces.

The eyes around them watched them move across the pavilion, their super-fast figures simply surpassed the limits of human beings, and it was hard to believe that human speed and strength could reach such a level.

The pavilion could no longer withstand the power of both Ye Han and Murong Tiandu, and exploded into pieces, causing pieces of broken wood to fly across the lake, sending waves of water two to three feet high, causing the faces of the surrounding crowd to turn appalled and wonderful, this competition was even more exciting than a martial arts movie, and the impact of the scenes was even more shocking.

However, the pavilion shattered, and the competition between Ye Han and Murong Tiandu still did not stop.

Both Ye Han and Murong Tiandu were highly concentrated on their opponents' bodies at the moment, as they had already exchanged hundreds of strokes with each other, and they could both feel the strong strength of each other.

In fact, in terms of realm, there was still a gap between Ye Han and Murong Tiandu. Right now, he was still a late stage Peiyuan expert, while Murong Tiandu was already an expert who had opened up the Ren Vein, and had already stepped into the Ren Du realm with one foot, but with the powerful spirit qi in his body plus the power of the Dragon Spring Sword, even if Murong Tiandu's realm was higher than Ye Han's and he was also holding a divine weapon, Ye Han could still fight him on equal terms.

Therefore, Ye Han's fighting power surprised Murong Tiandu, this person who dared to accept his appointment to fight really had some skills, of course, Murong Tiandu's strength also surprised Ye Han, with his current fighting power plus the Dragon Spring, not to mention against an expert who had opened the Ren Vein, even if he added another one, he would not be under pressure. But there, Ye Han had the record of killing three experts who had cleared the Ren Vein head-on.

Boom!

At this moment, both of them retreated and landed directly on top of the broken wood on the lake, but the next moment, Murong Tiandu waved his sword out, and this sword directly drove the lake water to explode, killing all the way to Ye Han's position with astonishing power.

Facing the equally powerful Murong Tiandu, Ye Han knew that he had somewhat underestimated this arrogant and conceited man, so he did not dare to be careless, and he immediately executed the Great Free Sword Technique, with thunder rolling and the terrifyingly fierce sword Qi turning into a terrifying force to ward off Murong Tiandu's sword.

On the surface of the lake, the water stirred and a column of water rushed up five or six metres into the air, the shocking nature of the scene was indescribable.

Of course, while the lake water was splashing and exploding, Murong Tiandu had already stepped on the waves, so dashing that it was as if he was a god-like glory enveloping him, so that the celebrities from all over the south finally saw the divine side of the number one young man in the south.

In just a second, the two world-famous weapons, the Dragon Spring and the Tai Ah, collided with each other in a wild and unrestrained manner, and the terrifying power was released, causing the lake to explode once again, and the water fell, soaking both Ye Han and Murong Tiandu through, but the eyes of both sides were still warlike. monstrous, and the fury was astonishing.

Without unnecessary words, the two once again engaged in a new round of combat on the surface of the lake, staging an extreme battle on the surface of the lake, but at this point in the battle, both Ye Han and Murong Tiandu understood that if they wanted to take each other down, apart from fighting a protracted battle, they could only look for each other's weaknesses in the battle and deliver a fatal blow at the critical moment.

However, both Ye Han and Murong Tiandu were extremely clever geniuses, and it was very difficult to find out the opponent's weaknesses in a battle like this, because revealing a weakness meant defeat, and no one dared to be careless.

In this way, the battle on the lake continued for an hour, causing the celebrities who came to watch the battle to cry out in delight.

However, after an hour of fighting, both Ye Han and Murong Tiandu were a bit overwhelmed, as this kind of battle not only consumed the strength in their bodies very quickly, but also consumed them mentally, as the slightest inattention would mean defeat, and they could not afford to be distracted.

Therefore, Murong Tiandu and Ye Han both stopped at this time, each gazing at the other, Murong Tiandu said indifferently; "I admit to having underestimated you, in terms of strength, you and I are neck and neck."

"I have also underestimated you Murong Tiandu." Ye Han said this was the truth, he had indeed underestimated Murong Tiandu, this young man born in the Murong family was not only superb in shopping malls, his own strength was also the top among his peers, no wonder he was so conceited and domineering.

"How about this battle being considered a draw?" Ye Han looked up at Murong Tiandu, continuing the battle, would the two of them be able to tell the difference between victory and defeat? This was something that no one could say. Of course, this was not the reason for Ye Han to stop, but because not far from the lake, an ancient wooden boat was already travelling towards this side, and on top of that wooden boat, Ye Han could feel a terrifying look staring at him.

Murong Tiandu nodded indifferently, this ending was the best.

Fortune Chapter 293

The fight ended in a draw, which surprised the surrounding celebrities, but the strength Ye Han had just displayed in the fight was indeed very strong, which everyone could see, as the number one young man in the south, Murong Tiandu, could not completely suppress him, which made many people's hearts sigh with emotion.

Of course, this does not mean that Ye Han has the ability to go up against Murong Tiandu. In terms of his own force, he may not be on par with Murong Tiandu, but don't forget that behind Murong Tiandu there is still the Murong family, a huge powerhouse, and moreover, Murong Tiandu has now established a cornerstone in the southern business world, and few people can compare to him in terms of influence.

In terms of his family background and his energy and influence in the business world, how could Ye Han compare to Murong Tiandu?

The number one young man in the South was not that easy to be stepped on.

As the saying goes, one mountain does not allow two tigers, unless one male and one female, it is impossible for Ye Han and Murong Tiandu to become friends, let alone submit to each other, so he can only let one side fall completely.

In the past, perhaps Murong Tian didn't even take Ye Han seriously, a new nobleman who only had a bit of prestige in Eastern China, could he compete with him, the number one young man in the South? But after seeing Ye Han's strength today, Murong Tiandu knew that this opponent in front of him, although he could not be compared to him for the time being, but in order to eliminate future problems, he had to get rid of Ye Han as soon as possible, he would not allow someone who threatened him to exist in the south.

Above the lake, a wooden boat in the shape of an excursion slowly moved over, Ye Han and Murong Tiandu's eyes fell on this wooden boat, they could both feel that there was a terrifyingly strong expert on top of this wooden boat, when the wooden boat was close, they could see a plump woman sitting in that wooden boat, the woman's face was as round as jade, wearing a black cheongsam, looking at her age, she should be in her thirties At this moment, she was looking at Ye Han and Murong Tiandu with a smile on her face.

Behind the woman stood a cold-faced woman as well as a monk, who was holding a Buddhist bead and chanting in his mouth as if he was chanting a sutra.

"The Black Widow." Murong Tiandu looked at the woman who had appeared, the corners of his mouth curled up and his smile was playful.

Hearing these words from Murong Tiandu, Ye Han then realised that this woman was actually the Black Widow of the Heavenly Dignity Society, that woman with a heart like a snake, could it be that the First Heavenly King had asked for backup so soon? Why else would the black widow appear in Jiangzhe.

As they watched the wooden boat travel towards Ye Han and Murong Tiandu's position, the gazes of the surrounding celebrities also fell on this wooden boat, and they all wondered what kind of person could this be that was coming?

As everyone watched, they saw the woman inside the wooden boat strolling out, her voluptuous, sexy body causing everyone around to widen their eyes, not only was this woman beautiful, but she also exuded the smell of a mature woman, making people want to conquer her.

But if people knew that this beautiful and sexy woman in front of them was the Black Widow, a woman who collected men's lifeblood for fun, I'm afraid that the people present would not have had such thoughts.

"Duke Murong is worthy of being the number one young man in the south, it seems that I came a little late and missed the exciting scene." The Black Widow walked out of the cabin, her face seemed to never lack a smile, allowing people to feel a glow similar to that of a mother's love and could not help but feel good about her.

Murong Tiandu smiled lightly and said; “Madam is quite idle, to come to Jiangsu and Zhejiang from Dong Guang, a farce only, let Madam laugh.”

The Black Widow took a few steps forward as she said with a smile; “A farce? For someone who can make Lord Murong take a shot, if it was just a farce, then I wouldn’t have to come all the way from Dong Guang to this Jiang Zhe, you said, Lord Ye?”

The Black Widow’s gaze looked towards Ye Han, this young upstart, she had really underestimated him, originally the Black Widow thought that Ye Han would watch the fire from across the shore in Shanghai City and sit back and reap the benefits of the fishermen, where could she have imagined that Ye Han would get involved without moving a muscle, and the moment he struck was a thunderous strike, not only did he get rid of the two great generals of the Blood Hand Hall, he made his Heavenly Dignity Society suffer heavy losses as well, forcing her to rush over from Dongguang to preside over the The big picture.

“Forgive my stupidity, I don’t understand what Madam is talking about.” Ye Han said indifferently.

“Hehe, if Duke Ye is that kind of foolish person, then there are no smart people in this world.” The black widow smiled as she looked at Ye Han, no anger could be seen on her face, it was as if she was talking to a friend.

Ye Han said; “If Madam is here to chat, then I am sorry, I do not have that leisure time, so I am sorry for not accompanying you.”

“Hold on.” Seeing that Ye Han was about to leave, the black widow said; “Can Mr Ye come aboard for a chat, I have come all the way here for you today, I’m sure Mr Ye won’t deny me this opportunity, right?”

Ye Han looked at the black widow and was silent for a moment, he said; “Since the lady is sincerely invited, I naturally won’t refuse.”

After saying that, Ye Han’s body flashed and he was already stepping on the lake, however, just as Ye Han was about to land on top of the wooden boat, the Black Widow smiled very brightly as she slowly stepped back, and immediately, only to see the woman standing behind her as well as the monk moving at the same time, shooting towards Ye Han with a burst of terrifying pressure coming from both of their bodies.

“Not good!” Ye Han’s eyes stared and hurriedly burst back, this shameless woman, the Black Widow, had actually lured him into a trap and wanted to deal with him here, he had really underestimated this woman’s scheming, but while Ye Han retreated quickly, the woman as well as the monk moved even faster, the two of them, left and right, grabbed Ye Han’s hand in an instant.

“Roar!”

Just at this crisis point, Foolish Ben and Zhou Lie also arrived, the two descended from the sky like gods of war, Zhou Lie kicked at the woman, Foolish Ben held the Crescent Moon Sword and slashed down across the sky, that slash was like trying to split the monk in half, seeing this, the monk could only be forced to give up on Ye Han, the Buddha beads in his hand turned into a terrifying dark weapon and attacked towards Foolish Ben, but this monk was insidious, and on his way out, he did not forget to give

Ye Han a palm strike, this strike The Buddhist palm strike was so overbearing that it caused Ye Han to spit out a mouthful of blood so violently that he almost fell into the lake.

However, with Zhou Lie and Silly Ben joining in just in time, they also helped to defuse Ye Han's crisis.

Seeing this, the Black Widow secretly said a pity, she was so close to catching Ye Han, her idea was simple, to take Ye Han, just like Ye Han had detained Jiang Xiaofeng in the first place, she would also detain Ye Han, so that the experts behind Ye Han would be afraid of him and would not dare to go against the Heavenly Dignity Society, for this reason, she would rather be a shady woman that people would not be ashamed of, unfortunately, she was so close to that step.

However, just as the Black Widow was secretly saying that it was a pity, a scene that made her eyes light up appeared, only to see that at this moment, a black shadow carrying a shocking killing intent burst towards Ye Han.

Fortune Chapter 294

A battle with Murong Tiandu just now had consumed Ye Han, and now that he had taken a hard slap from the monk, he was already traumatized, but just as Ye Han spat out a mouthful of blood and was just standing firm, a terrifying killing machine came rolling behind him.

It was Murong Tiandu, Ye Han was a threat to him, and since he was a threat, as long as he had the chance, he would of course get rid of Ye Han completely to eliminate future problems, and now was the best time for Murong Tiandu, so of course, he would not let go of this good opportunity, in the underground world, there was no credibility to speak of, and it was common to take advantage of people's danger and stab them in the back.

"Murong Tiandu the bastard!" On the shore of the lake, Xu Qing's face changed greatly after they saw this scene, as the number one young man in the south, he was so shameless as to strike at Ye Han at this time.

With a snort, Ye Han's back was cut with a bloody wound by the Tai Ah sword in Murong Tiandu's hand, if Ye Han had not reacted quickly and moved a step forward in time, then this sword of Murong Tiandu would have been enough to take Ye Han's life.

However, Murong Tiandu did not give Ye Han the chance to react again, and after he had won the blow, his body continued to close in on Ye Han, and the cold light of the Tai Ah Sword in his hand rose up, and in a flash he had already swung out more than ten swords, causing several more wounds to be inflicted on Ye Han's body.

Seeing this scene, the Black Widow smiled faintly and said to herself; "Murong Tiandu, it seems that I have to thank you today, perhaps he will die by your hand without me, it's better this way, if you kill him, at least I, the Heavenly Dignity Society, will not have to face the mysterious expert behind him."

The battle had already started, Silly Ben versus the monk, Zhou Lie versus the indifferent woman, while Murong Tiandu chased after Ye Han, all around the lake, celebrities from all over the world watched the scene with wide eyes, today this thing had actually developed to this point, so that they really did not expect it, what was originally a competition had turned into a killing, according to this momentum, today Ye Han would not let go until he died, Murong Tiandu.

The monk was an even more powerful expert than the First Day King, he was one of the two great vajra of the Heavenly Dignity Society, the Angry Buddha Vajra.

On the lake, Ye Han's eyes were cold to the core, he was already injured, at this moment, if he didn't rely on his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to be able to see through the trajectory of Murong Tiandu's attack, he was afraid that he would have already lost his head. Soon, with Murong Tiandu chasing after him, Ye Han fled to the edge of the lake, behind him, Murong Tiandu was close behind him with a killing intent.

"Ye Han, it seems that today is the day of your death, you will not be able to escape." Murong Tiandu shot up, his eyes coldly looking at Ye Han, on his sword, drops of blood fell, all this blood was Ye Han's, to the Black Widow, Murong Tiandu had done her a great favour, but to Murong Tiandu, how could the Black Widow not have done him a great favour.

Ye Han's eyes were cold as he looked at Murong Tiandu; "You will regret what you just did, to kill me, you, Murong Tiandu, are not qualified."

After saying that, Ye Han took out an Instant Explosion Pill and put it into his mouth, this tricky scene today had forced him to choose to take this kind of pills that instantly doubled his combat power.

"Is that so? Do you think you still have a chance of turning defeat into victory now?" Murong Tiandu sneered as he strolled closer to Ye Han with his sword in hand, a cold light blooming in his eyes and a murderous aura, but just as Murong Tiandu chose to continue to strike at Ye Han, suddenly, a great change occurred in Ye Han's body, his original aura that was depressed suddenly became fierce, a terrifying aura kept releasing from his body step by step, causing Murong Tiandu to stop in his tracks and look at him with a surprised expression, Ye Han Why did the aura on his body become so powerful all of a sudden?

"Murong Tiandu, now it's my turn to collect my debt."

After taking the Instant Explosion Pill, Ye Han's combat power increased greatly, he felt that his body was filled with terrifying explosive power and wanted to give vent to it fiercely, just when Murong Tiandu was surprised, Ye Han had already shot towards him like a fierce beast, the aura around him was terrifying, the Dragon Spring Sword was raised high, without any fancy moves, it just cut down directly towards Murong Tiandu.

Boom!

Faced with Ye Han's sudden counter-attack, Murong Tiandu did not retreat, but met it with his sword, the Dragon Spring and Tai Ah clashed with each other, vibrating with a terrifying sound of gold and iron, however, to people's surprise, with Ye Han's clash, Murong Tiandu, who had appeared to be overbearing just a moment ago, was actually shaken backwards step by step, his face flushed.

"Impossible!" The tumbling tide-like sensation within his body caused Murong Tiandu's face to turn incredulous, why had Ye Han become so powerful all of a sudden? However, Ye Han did not give Murong Tiandu the chance to look deeper into this question, although the Instant Explosion Pill could instantly enhance his combat power, there was a limited amount of time, he had to hit Murong Tiandu hard within that time.

Therefore, Ye Han moved again, frantically, attacking Murong Tiandu with sword after sword, not giving him the slightest chance to catch his breath. Faced with Ye Han's storm-like strikes, Murong Tiandu could not withstand the attacks several times before he finally vomited blood, frantically dodging Ye Han's attacks, his face hardened to the point of embarrassment.

Some of the celebrities who noticed this scene were stunned to the point that their mouths were wide open, their expressions stunned, as Murong Tiandu, who had the upper hand a moment ago and was chasing after Ye Han, was now being chased by Ye Han in a way that made him feel helpless. The contrast between this back and forth was too great!

"This can't be right? How could it turn out like this?"

"Could it be that this Ye Han was originally stronger than Murong Tiandu, and that was all a pretence just now?"

One by one, questions emerged from the minds of the celebrities onlookers, they really couldn't figure out why the situation would be so contrasting?

"Roll!" When he saw Ye Han's sword coming again, Murong Tiandu roared madly, holding his sword with both hands to resist, the power in his body exploding out madly, however, his action was of no use, he was directly split out by Ye Han's sword and fell to the ground, spitting out blood from his mouth repeatedly.

"Murong Tiandu, how does it feel to be crushed?" Ye Han laughed wildly, looking at Murong Tiandu as if he were a dead man, it was a look of contempt, as if he himself used to look at Ye Han, naked contempt, this look made Murong Tiandu feel that he had been greatly insulted, he had never been in such a sorry state before he could not wait to chop off Ye Han's head and use it as a night pot.

However, just as Ye Han was about to continue to deal with Murong Tiandu, the surrounding Murong Guards made their move, one athletic figure swept in, and they attacked Ye Han at the first opportunity, the strength of these Murong Guards were basically all experts of the Peiyuan realm, not comparable to ordinary people, right now, attacking Ye Han at the same time was also very terrifying.

However, when facing Murong Wei, Ye Han had no scruples at all. When he fought with Murong Tiandu just now, he didn't strike at all because he knew how big the impact would be if he killed Murong Tiandu, but Murong Wei Ye Han didn't have such scruples, he killed as many as he could, just so he could vent his anger.

Of course, Murong Wei has taken action, the five leaders can not watch, joined in together, Ye Han and Murong Tiandu battle they may not be able to intervene, but against Murong Wei with their strength can still deal with one or two.

In the end, after Murong Wei left some corpses behind, they took Murong Tiandu and retreated, leaving the area, and only then did Ye Han's battle here officially end.

In fact, Murong Tiandu had brought this on himself. A battle that ended in a draw would have been the best outcome for him, but unfortunately, he was too greedy and wanted to completely kill Ye Han here to end his problems, which led to his current downfall.

But after the battle with Murong Wei was over, Ye Han's gaze first looked at the Black Widow on top of the wooden boat, fury filled his eyes, this sinister woman, he had almost been carried in her hands today.

"Bitch woman, accept your life."

Ye Han's figure swept quickly towards the wooden boat, he was going to kill the black widow.

"Retreat!"

Seeing Ye Han sweeping in, the Black Widow's eyes remained unchanged as she spoke indifferently, then the cold woman and the monk who were fighting with Silly Ben and Zhou Lie both landed on the wooden boat and protected the Black Widow.

Seeing this, Ye Han could only stop, as these two experts around the Black Widow were not yet something he could deal with. Silly Ben and Zhou Lie also came to stand by Ye Han's side, and the three of them looked at the Black Widow with icy gazes.

"Little brat, it seems I still underestimated you somewhat, even Murong Tian was pinned down by you, in Jiangzhe, we will meet again, there is no need to rush." The black widow smiled flirtatiously at Ye Han, she then waved her hand and the wooden boat automatically left.

"In Jiangzhe, I will make you Heavenly Dignity Society pay!"

Ye Han's heart was cold, Black Widow, this sinister woman, he must get rid of her, this woman would not be moral in the slightest, her heart was very scheming, she came here today, seemingly sincere to invite Ye Han for a chat, but in reality, she wanted to take this opportunity to capture Ye Han, this, was Black Widow's first plan after coming to Jiangzhe, this plan was very good, if she captured Ye Han, then the Heavenly Dignity Society would not be in danger in Jiangzhe, If they captured Ye Han, then the Heavenly Honor Society would not be in danger in Jiangzhe and they could wipe out the remnants of the Blood Hand Hall in one fell swoop and dominate East China, and they could make the mysterious expert behind Ye Han afraid of him.

However, from this point on, we can also see how terrifying the Black Widow is. In terms of scheming, it is the first time that Ye Han has encountered an opponent.

The battle at West Lake, from the beginning when Ye Han and Murong Tiandu competed against each other, to the end when the Heavenly Dignity Society was drawn out, had a wide impact. Moreover, the celebrities watching the battle today came from all over the world, so I'm afraid that it wouldn't take long for word to spread throughout the South.

Who is the winner of the twists and turns that took place at West Lake? To say the least, there was no winner at all, the Black Widow did not win because her plan fell through, Ye Han likewise did not win because he was injured, and not lightly, as for the loser, it could only be Murong Tiandu, who became the outright loser today at West Lake, he lost to Ye Han in terms of force, so much so that in the end he had to retreat under Murong Wei's guard.

"Brother Zhou, call Sun Lao and ask him to come to Jiangzhe."

After returning to the villa, Ye Han said this and then he was alone inside his room dealing with his injuries, his injuries were completely given by Murong Tiandu to say the least, a total of eight hideous wounds, all of them were sword wounds, and there were also after-effects after taking the Instant Explosion Pill, which depleted the spiritual energy in his body, it would take at least three days for Ye Han to recover to his peak state.

This was mainly because the spiritual qi in Ye Han's body had a strong repairing effect, otherwise if it was anyone else, three days would not even be thought of.

"Has it become a climate!" The Black Widow thought of Ye Han's young face, and her smiling face flashed with a thick murderous look.

"Madam, when are we going to move?" The First Day King looked at the Black Widow and asked, now that the experts from the Heavenly Dignity Society had arrived, it was also time for them to take action to exterminate the Blood Hand Hall.

The Black Widow looked at him and said indifferently; "Our enemy now is no longer the Blood Hand Hall, the Blood Hand Hall has lost almost all of its strong soldiers and generals, the remaining third general is not enough to worry about, the person we have to deal with now is Ye Han, a group of experts have surfaced under his hand, so right now we should eliminate him as early as possible, we cannot give him any more opportunities to build up his strength opportunity, for him, we should treat him more cautiously than before, don't act in these few days, I want to think of a foolproof plan to completely obliterate him."

Three days later, Ye Han walked out from inside his room, his injuries had all healed, and after this injury, he felt that his strength had refined by another step, and he could already try to impact the Ren Vein.

During this period, Sun Buwei also rushed over from the Mountain and Sea City side.

Ye Han had no choice but to let Sun Bu Mian leave Shanghai City, originally he wanted to set out to destroy the Heavenly Dignity Society immediately after the battle with Murong Tiandu was over, but Black Widow had moved too fast and had brought her experts to Jiangzhe while he was fighting with Murong Tiandu, since Black Widow had brought her experts, Ye Han had no choice but to transfer Sun Bu Mian over.

"Little Han, I heard that the Angry Buddha had also come to Jiangzhe?" Sun Bu Mian looked at Ye Han and asked.

Ye Han nodded his head, Nu Fu's strength was even more powerful than even the First Day King, with Silly Ben's power to fight him he could only pester him, this person, was a powerful and strong enemy.

Ye Han said; "Although Furious Buddha is strong, but our aim is not to kill him, we just need to drive them out of East China. Of course, if there is a chance, we must keep this sinister woman, the Black Widow, keeping her is even more dangerous than keeping the Furious Buddha."

He Yaozong frowned and said; "With our current power, we are only afraid that it will be difficult to drive the Heavenly Dignity Society out of East China, with Raging Buddha, the First Day King and the Second Day King, plus the Black Widow's personal escort woman, they have four powerful masters on their side, not to mention the fact that they have people under their hands."

"Naturally, we can't do it alone." Ye Han said; "But we still have an ally, if we add them, I think we should be able to drive the Heavenly Dignity Society out of East China."

Fortune Chapter 296

Allies?

Ye Han's words made the five leaders confused, in Jiangzhe, did they still have allies?

"Little Han, are you talking about the Blood Hand Hall?" Sun Buwei understood.

"Not bad." Ye Han nodded and said; "With the power we are showing now, the Black Widow will definitely classify us as the most powerful enemy in East China, her focus should be on us next, but even if the Heavenly Dignity Society destroys us, the Blood Hand Hall will not end up in a good place, the truth of the lips dying and the teeth getting cold I think the White-Faced Warlord should understand, contact the White-Faced Warlord for me, I want to meet with him alone I want to meet with him alone."

"Good, we will arrange this." The five leaders obliged.

It was probably the arrival of the Black Widow with the Raging Buddha Vajra that shocked the White-Faced Warlord, Ye Han offered to meet him and he did not refuse, but the premise of the meeting was that only Ye Han could go alone and the meeting place was arranged by him, the White-Faced Warlord's timid character Ye Han had already seen, so he did not refuse and went to the meeting place alone, the place where the two met was not in Hangzhou, but in Xuzhou.

When Ye Han arrived at the meeting place in Xuzhou, he realised that it was an old courtyard, the outside looked dilapidated but the inside was quite elegantly decorated with flowers and plants planted, a good place to cultivate oneself.

"The military commander is so elegant, there's even such a place for recuperation in Xuzhou."

Inside the courtyard, Ye Han and the white-faced warlord were sitting opposite each other, and behind the white-faced warlord stood the third general, Ying Shan, staring at Ye Han without a word, not hiding the hostility in his eyes. After the white-faced warlord brewed his tea, he said; "The place is good, but there are too many foreign bandits who are eyeing my place, so it's hard to say whether I can chase away the bandits and hold the place."

Ye Han smiled lightly, not minding that the white-faced warlord described him and the Heavenly Dignity Society as bandits, he laughed; "Since the warlord knows that there are too many bandits, why not change the defensive to the offensive to drive the bandits out."

"Hmph, Ye Han, you have a lot of nerve to really dare to come alone, aren't you afraid that I will set up an ambush here to kill you?" Ye Han laughed; "If I were afraid, I wouldn't have come alone, of course, I came here today with sincerity, it depends on whether the military commander also has the sincerity to have a chat with me?"

The white-faced warlord said indifferently; "I know very well what kind of person you are, let's not talk in secret, what do you want to meet with me? Hurry up and say it, and when you're done, get the hell out of Xuzhou."

Ye Han smiled, lifted his teacup and took a sip of tea, then said; "I guess the Military Master already knows that the Black Widow has brought the Angry Buddha to Jiangzhe, right?"

"So what if I know?"

"Hehe, that's why I came to see Military Master." Ye Han smiled lightly and said; "Right now the Black Widow has come to Jiangzhe with a strong army, I think Military Master should know that they are determined to win East China, among them, I am their enemy, so is the Blood Hand Hall, if we want to drive this wolf out of East China, it won't work with either of our two families alone, so today I am here to cooperate with Military Master, I wonder what Military Master thinks? "

"Cooperation?" The white-faced warlord let out a loud laugh, then he looked at Ye Han cold and laughed; "Ye Han, are you joking? You can't forget that my Blood Hand Hall and you have an unbreakable feud, do you think I will cooperate with you?"

"That was all in the past, and it was an internal matter within our Huadong." Ye Han said; "As the saying goes, one mountain cannot tolerate two tigers, there is your Blood Hand Hall in East China, you naturally cannot tolerate me, in order to stay alive, so we can only become rivals. But now it's different, we have a common enemy, the military division should be able to know what the Heavenly Dignity Society's next intentions are, it won't do any of us any good if our lips fall and our teeth get cold."

"Hmph, working with you, that's no different from seeking skin with a tiger." The white-faced warlord sneered; "After driving away the Heavenly Dignity Society, I'm only afraid that you should then extend your claws to my Blood Hand Hall, right?"

"Hehe, there is no excuse for Military Master to have such a thought, but I wonder which one Military Master thinks is a greater threat to Blood Hand Hall, me or the Heavenly Dignity Society?" Ye Han said with a faint smile.

At those words, the white-faced military master fell silent, in terms of strength, it was naturally the Heavenly Dignity Society that posed a greater threat to the Blood Hand Hall.

Ye Han continued; "I don't know if Military Master has ever thought about this, if I really can't resist the Heavenly Dignity Society, I can retreat back to Shanghai City, I don't believe that the Heavenly Dignity Society's claws dare to reach into Shanghai City, you know that it is my main base, and Military Master should also be able to guess that there is an expert standing behind me, so the Heavenly Dignity Society simply doesn't dare to reach into Shanghai City, if I withdraw from out of Jiangzhe, then who will the Heavenly Dignity Society deal with next?"

Looking at the white-faced warlord who was still silent, Ye Han continued; "Today I came to seek the cooperation of the warlord because I don't want our East China to fall into the hands of the Heavenly Dignity Society, that would not be good for you or me, so I hope the warlord will consider my proposal carefully, it's not a loss for the Blood Hand Hall."

“Humph!” The white-faced warlord coldly snorted as he looked at Ye Han and said; “I don’t deny that what you say is all very reasonable, but wanting me to cooperate with you, how can I trust that after driving away the Blood Hand Hall, you won’t turn around and shade me, you know that with my current power if you were to deal with me, I wouldn’t be able to stop you at all.”

“You can rest assured of this, Military Master.” Ye Han laughed; “If I were to destroy your Blood Hand Hall right now, it would actually not benefit me at all, at least your existence would make people who want to put their hands into Huadong scare for a second, not to mention that Huadong still has me, Ye Han, with the existence of our two families, anyone who wants to put their hands in would have to think clearly about the consequences.”

“Hmph, having said that, but how do you want me to believe that you have come with sincerity? At the very least, you should show some sincerity first.”

“So, how do you want me to show this sincerity?”

“Release Young Hall Master, and I will cooperate with you, otherwise, no discussion.” The white-faced military master said, cooperating with Ye Han to deal with the Heavenly Dignity Society together, in fact he was also very moved, but just like that he agreed to Ye Han he really had a reluctance.

At this aggressive request from the white-faced warlord, Ye Han just smiled and then said; “Yes, I can call and release them right now.”

After saying that, Ye Han took out his mobile phone and made a call over to the Shanghai City side.

Releasing Jiang Xiaofeng was no big deal to Ye Han, right now Jiang Xiaofeng had no more value to use, because Jiang Yutang didn’t care about his life or death, keeping him still had to manage his food and drink daily, not long after Ye Han made this call, White Faced Warlord’s phone rang, after getting through, White Faced Warlord said a few words and hung up the phone.

Afterwards, the white-faced warlord looked at Ye Han with a smile on his face, raised his cup of tea and said; “Since you have come with sincerity, then I wish us good luck in our cooperation.”

Fortune Chapter 297

After the agreement with the White-Faced Warlord, Ye Han left Xuzhou to cooperate with the White-Faced Warlord. In fact, Ye Han had this idea when he first came to Jiangzhe, but at that time, the time was not ripe, and he did not lose the living strength of the Blood Hand Hall, but now the Blood Hand Hall has lost almost everything, the first and second generals died one after another, and also caused the Heavenly Dignity Society to lose a handful of people.

With the power he has now and the power of the Blood Hand Hall, if the Black Widow had not come to Jiangsu, it would have been enough to keep the First and Second Kings in Jiangsu, but what Ye Han did not expect was that the Black Widow had come too soon.

Of course, although it was said that the arrival of the Black Widow had caused Ye Han’s initial vision to deviate, but it did not matter, he could still drive the Heavenly Dignity Society out of Jiangzhe, and if it worked well, he might even make a profit.

As the saying goes, speed is of the essence, and in order to prevent a long night's sleep, after the agreement with the white-faced warlord, the Blood Hand Hall, which was used as bait, began to attack towards Wen Hai City, and the third general, Ying Shan, brought two hundred members of the Earth Death Group to kill the Tian Zun Association stronghold, but of course, it was not a real attack, but a feint.

Outside the stronghold of the Heavenly Dignity Society, only to see that at this moment, three to four hundred people were killing each other, the Third General was like a fierce tiger, killing the people of the Heavenly Dignity Society without any fighting back.

"Damn it, how dare this group of remnants of the Blood Hand Hall find their way to the door, I will go and kill them." When the Second Heavenly King saw the Third General Ying Shan killing his people as if they were wolves entering a flock of sheep, he became furious and went straight towards the Third General to kill them.

When the Black Widow saw this, her eyebrows furrowed and she said; "Qin Heavenly King, you go too, the Blood Hand Hall is not good, be careful, they might have other intentions."

"Yes, Madam." After the First Day King answered, he also followed behind the Second Day King and killed the Third General Ying Shan.

When Ying Shan, who was in the middle of a battle, saw this scene, he sneered; "Earth Death Group, retreat!"

With those words, he himself ran towards the distance in a flash, and the people of the Earth Fiend Group were also fighting and retreating, fleeing in haste as if they were defeated generals, as if the appearance of the First Day King and the Second Day King had scared them out of their wits.

"Kill them all, leave no one behind!" The First Day King and the Second Day King ordered at the same time, and immediately, the people of the Heavenly Dignity Society, led by them, pursued towards the people of the Earth Death Group, they were naturally willing to settle this group of remaining villains of the Blood Hand Hall.

"Something is not right." Looking at the Earth Fury Group who were fleeing in a hurry, the Black Widow frowned, it was no secret that she had brought Raging Buddha Vajra to Jiangzhe, the White Faced Warlord should be able to know this, since she knew that she had come, the Blood Hand Hall people even dared to attack the Heavenly Dignity Society stronghold, there must be something wrong here.

"Angry Buddha, you go and take a look too." The Black Widow said decisively.

"Madam, your safety, " Nurse Buddha's hand squeezed the Buddha beads, looking as if he wanted to say something but couldn't.

"Don't worry, I'll be fine with her by my side, remember, go and return quickly, if things change, make sure you pull back in time, the Blood Hand Hall came too suddenly and strangely tonight, find out for me what is going on." Black Widow said calmly, she knew that with the current power of Blood Hand Hall did not have the guts to challenge her, but tonight suddenly attacked and retreated, there was definitely something wrong, but Black Widow only thought out of her head, she could not imagine that Ye Han and Blood Hand Hall had cooperated.

With the enmity between Ye Han and Blood Hand Hall, they were already mortal enemies, it was impossible for them to cooperate, but the Black Widow forgot one thing, she was determined to win Huadong, no matter if she destroyed Ye Han or Blood Hand Hall, it would not do any good to both of them, since there were common enemies and interests, why couldn't Ye Han and Blood Hand Hall come together? Mutual use.

This was something that the Black Widow had not thought of. Of course, the reason why the Black Widow had not thought of it in this way was also because Ye Han had given the Heavenly Dignity Society and the Blood Hand Hall a common illusion when he came to Jiangzhe at the beginning, thinking that he had come to Jiangzhe in order to deal with the Blood Hand Hall.

The Second General had died at his hands, but he had framed the First Day King and caused the death of the First General.

Of course, the Black Widow thought wrongly, so her arrival in Jiangzhe was doomed to failure.

In a dilapidated street, the First Day King and the Second Day King chased the Third General Ying Shan to this place, which was surrounded by no one and belonged to a relocation and development zone. But upon arriving here, surprisingly the Third General Ying Shan stopped, with all the members of the Earth Demon Group standing behind him, looking at the First and Second Day Kings.

"Hmph, Ying Shan, if you come here tonight, you won't be able to leave, kill them for me." The First Day King didn't say much, after a cold snort, he and the Second Day King killed the Third General Ying Shan at the same time.

"Is that so? Who will die tonight, First Day King, you have spoken too soon."

Suddenly, as the First Day King and the others killed the Third General Ying Shan, a cold laughing voice immediately came out in the dark night sky, followed by Ye Han, Foolish Ben, Sun Buwei, Zhou Lie, in addition to the five leaders appearing at the same time, of course, the five leaders had also brought their respective elite forces, although they were not as good as the people from the Earth Death Group and the Heavenly Dignity Society, at least they had an advantage in numbers.

"Not good, I've been fooled!" Seeing Ye Han appear with his experts, this thought flashed through the minds of the First Day King and the Second Day King, and their faces suddenly changed drastically, but at that moment it was already too late for them to retreat, as Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie as well as the Third General's three great experts surrounded them at the same time.

Three against two, no matter how one looked at it, the First Day King and the Second Day King had no chance of winning, not to mention the fact that there was still Silly Ben, a power-type expert who had yet to make his move.

"Silly Ben, you go too, make sure to take down the First Day King and Second Day King in the shortest possible time." Ye Han's eyes looked at the night sky, Raging Buddha did not appear, then Silly Ben did not need to accompany him, with Silly Ben joining in the First Day King and Second Day King two would not last long.

Silly Ben nodded, carrying the Crescent Moon Blade he jumped fiercely and killed the Second Day King.

Four against two, if the Angry Buddha did not appear, the First Day King and the Second Day King would definitely not survive tonight.

Ye Han didn't stay idle either, his body leapt down from the high wall in a single bound, the Dragon Spring Sword blossomed with a terrifying cold light in the dark night, with his strength, the people of the Heavenly Dignity Society couldn't stop him at all, it was a completely lopsided massacre, with the addition of the Earth Death Group, these people would be completely free to go tonight.

Fortune Chapter 298

The battle at the end of the street soon came to a fever pitch. Under the joint attack of the Earth Demon Group and the people brought by the five leaders, the people of the Heavenly Honor Society were killed and injured, not to mention the fact that Ye Han, an expert, was slaughtering them, and blood and corpses were everywhere.

The Second Day King and the Second Day King were gradually outgunned, two against four, how could the two of them possibly compete with the four of Silly Ben, and with Silly Ben and Zhou Lie joining forces, the Second Day King was in a desperate crisis.

The situation of the First Heavenly King was not good either. With Sun Bumin and the Third General Ying Shan joining forces, the First Heavenly King was losing every time.

"How dare you!"

At this moment, a terrifying sound like the Buddha's anger came from the night sky, this was the Buddha's Kung Fu technique Lion Roar, people with poor strength were almost shaken by this sound and vomited blood, the angry Buddha arrived, only to see the night sky a dark weapon's breaking sound shot in the air, a dozen of Buddha beads attacked at Silly Ben and the others, the killing power was extremely terrifying, the

"Roar!" When he saw the Buddha's appearance, Foolish Ben abandoned the Second Day King, and the Crescent Moon Blade in his hand swept away with extremely terrifying power, blocking all those dark weapons that came, but blocking the Buddha's attack, Foolish Ben also retreated a few steps, if we really want to fight, the current Foolish Ben is not a match for the Buddha, but with Foolish Ben's strength, there is no problem to pester the Buddha, as long as we wait for Zhou Lie and the others to settle their opponents, and then deal with the Buddha together Even if the Buddha is strong, the situation will not be reversed.

The appearance of the Buddha was not a surprise to Ye Han, but it was a pity that the cold woman following the Black Widow did not come, if she had come too, the Black Widow would have been unguarded and he could have gone to the Heavenly Dignity Society stronghold and killed the woman directly.

Although the current situation did not go according to Ye Han's vision, it was no longer the time to go into detail about these issues, the Raging Buddha had appeared, and the experts on their side had to settle the First Day King and Second Day King as soon as possible, and then work together to deal with the Raging Buddha.

With a whoosh, Ye Han held the Dragon Spring, he ran directly towards the Second Day King, right now Zhou Lie and the Second Day King were fighting alone, although the Second Day King would fail sooner or later, but Ye Han no longer wanted to let him live another minute.

In the night sky, the cold light of the sword blossomed out, and Ye Han was at full strength as soon as he struck. The Great Free Sword Technique and the Yin-Yang Two Yi Sword Technique were executed continuously, causing the Second Day King, who was fighting with Zhou Lie, to be scared out of his wits and dodge in a panic, but Zhou Lie would not give him the chance, and directly wrapped himself around him so that Ye Han could have the opportunity to attack.

After less than a minute, he was pierced through the chest by Ye Han's sword and turned into a dead corpse with a scream.

After killing the Second Day King, Zhou Lie didn't stay idle, he ran directly towards the Angry Buddha and attacked together with Foolish Ben, with Zhou Lie joining him, the pressure on Foolish Ben was much less, he was facing the Angry Buddha alone, despite his great strength, he felt that he could barely resist.

"Bastard!" The Raging Buddha was furious, his hand of Buddhist palm was overbearing, his terrifying aura made him resemble an enraged vajra, extremely terrifying, the two of them, Silly Ben and Zhou Lie, could only manage to hold him back without being able to pose any danger to him.

Seeing this, Ye Han simply joined the battle against the First Heavenly King, against the Angry Buddha, he thought he did not have the ability to do so, so joining in would be useless at all, compared to the First Heavenly King, who was much better to deal with.

"Ye Han, you insidious villain!" Seeing Ye Han join in to deal with himself, the First Day King's body was filled with a fierce aura of fury, but he was also in a very sorry state, a hideous wound had surfaced on his body.

"Hmph, compared to your madam, this little trick of mine is nothing, First Day King, tonight is your time to die."

Ye Han, Sun Buwei and the Third General, the three of them together against the First Heavenly King, even the First Heavenly King in his prime would not be able to resist them, let alone the First Heavenly King who was already wounded, a tiger without claws and teeth could only be slaughtered by them, with the three of them joining forces, the wounds on the First Heavenly King's body were increasing, his end tonight was already predictable.

In the middle of the streets and alleys, the men of the Heavenly King Association were down to thirty or forty of the hundred or so men left under the killing of the Earth Death Group and the five leaders leading the elite forces, the success of the night was clear.

"Qin Tianwang, retreat!"

Suddenly, just as Ye Han and the three of them were about to take down the First Heavenly King, an indifferent woman came killing with a sword, a merciless sword light swept across, Ye Han and the three of them attacked at the same time, directly forcing the woman to fly back, her face flushed red, how could she alone be a match for Ye Han and the three of them.

But with this delay, the First Day King had time to catch his breath and surprisingly fled towards the distant night sky, the woman also followed behind him, seeing this scene, Angry Buddha bellowed, a terrifying palm was like a row of mountains forcing back the duo of Silly Ben and Zhou Lie, he also left, Ye Han and the other experts were freeing up their hands at the moment, it would be too dangerous for him if he continued to stay.

“Chase!” Ye Han didn’t want to give up just like that, especially since the First Heavenly King had been seriously injured, if they could catch up and kill the First Heavenly King, it would be too big a loss for them for the Heavenly Honor Society, Ye Han and the other experts chased them all the way to the stronghold of the Heavenly Honor Society, but when they arrived here, the place was already empty, the Three Angry Buddhas had also disappeared, and the Black Widow was also nowhere to be seen.

“Quite a quick run!”

Ye Han secretly sighed, although he had defeated the Heavenly Dignity Society tonight and had killed the Second Heavenly King, but Ye Han’s face did not look happy, in fact the person he wanted to kill the most was that sinister woman, the Black Widow, killing two Second Heavenly Kings was not as important as killing her.

“Damned bastard, he has even united with the Blood Hand Hall, I really underestimated him.”

In a building not far from the Sky Dweller’s stronghold, where she could just see the situation inside the stronghold, Black Widow’s face was as deep as water, and the cold light in her eyes flashed, which showed how angry she was at the moment, but of course, there was also a hint of fluke, since she sensed that something was wrong tonight, after sending out Raging Buddha, she left the Sky Dweller’s stronghold and came here, but when Raging Buddha and the others were late in returning, Black Widow She sent her personal guards to check on the situation again, hence the scene just now.

It could be thought that if the Black Widow had not sensed that something was wrong and immediately changed her place, she would have fallen into Ye Han’s hands at this moment. If she had fallen into Ye Han’s hands, she would not have thought that because she was a woman, Ye Han would have shown her mercy and would have killed her!

“Madam!”

The cold woman, Angry Buddha, and the First Day King who was carrying a serious injury came behind the Black Widow, all three of their faces looked as ugly as the Black Widow’s, tonight, their Heavenly Dignity Society had suffered heavy losses, not only did all the people under their hands die in battle, but even the Second Day King had died.

If the Black Widow’s personal guards had not appeared in time, the First Heavenly King would have left his life here tonight as well.

“Good one Ye Han, originally I already took him seriously, I never thought that I would end up underestimating him, the sword went astray and he actually joined forces with his old rival, the Blood Hand Hall, to deal with us.” The Black Widow’s eyes were extremely cold and piercing like cold ice, this time defeated and tragically white, the First Day King didn’t even dare to speak.

“Madam, it’s time for us to go back to Dong Guang, if not this time, there will be another time, it’s too dangerous for you to continue staying.” Angry Buddha said this as he stood behind Black Widow, although he was equally angry at the loss of the Heavenly Dignity Society tonight, he was more concerned about Black Widow’s safety, there were many experts on this side of Jiangsu and Zhejiang, once they were discovered, he was not entirely sure he could protect Black Widow.

The black widow took a deep breath, she looked at Ye Han and the others inside the stronghold of the Heavenly Respect Society at this moment, a cold smile appeared on her face and said; “I lost this time, but don’t be complacent, the competition between you and me is only beginning now, in the end you will definitely die in my hands, I will personally cut off your lifeblood for my collection, just wait, Ye Han

Ye Han naturally did not know that the Black Widow had not yet left, and was only a few hundred meters away from him. At this moment, he was standing inside the stronghold of the Heavenly Honor Society looking at the Third General Ying Shan, smiled lightly and said; “Now the cooperation between me and your Blood Hand Hall has ended, so, Third General, you should leave, Jiangzhe, is not a place where your Blood Hand Hall should stay.”

“Ye Han, what do you mean?” The Third General Ying Shan heard these words, and his eyes instantly turned cold.

Ye Han laughed; “Don’t worry, since I said I wouldn’t stab you in the back I will definitely do it, I actually have some credibility as a person, however, that is if you pull out of Jiangzhe, if you insist on staying in Jiangzhe, then don’t blame me, Ye Han, for turning around and dealing with you without any credit.”

Upon hearing this, the third general roared; “You bastard, villain of your word!”

“Wrong, if I were a villain of my word, then you would be a corpse by now.” Ye Liang laughed; “I did promise not to turn against the Blood Hand Hall, but I didn’t promise to let you continue to exist in Jiangzhe, Jiangzhe is now mine, you should return to Xijiang, that’s where you should stay, go back and bring these words of mine to the White Faced Warlord, I believe he will make the right choice.”

Watching the Third General leave in anger with the Earth Death Group, the five leaders were somewhat puzzled, with their current power, they could have completely wiped out the Third General’s group, could it be that Ye Han was really not going to make a move against the Blood Hand Hall because of that trumped up promise? In the underground world, there was no credibility to speak of, let alone to one’s enemies.

Ye Han said; “The Blood Hand Hall’s losses have reached their limit, leaving them with a little power will at least allow the word Blood Hand Hall to continue to exist, this is not a bad thing for us, if I were to deal with the Blood Hand Hall in the future, do you think that with this current power of the Blood Hand Hall, you would be able to stop me?”

After the five leaders heard these words, they nodded, although they were still a bit confused about Ye Han’s intentions, but Ye Han must have his own reasons for doing so.

In one night, the Heavenly Dignity Society was defeated, the next day the king died in battle, no one was left under his hands, only the black widow was forced to leave Jiangzhe with the first day king and others, the same night, the white faced warlord also evacuated Jiangzhe with the Blood Hand Hall, although evacuating Jiangzhe he was angry, however, Ye Han's words made the white faced warlord know that if he did not evacuate Jiangzhe, then, Ye Han would definitely strike at him, so, he only had to evacuate Jiangzhe this There was only one way to go.

After destroying the forces of the Heavenly Dignity Society in East China, Ye Han did not turn against the Blood Hand Hall, and the White Faced Master knew that Ye Han was already honouring his promise.

At this point, East China's underground world has basically fallen into Ye Han's hands. In the whole of East China, only Xijiang is still under the control of the Blood Hand Hall, while the other provinces have lost their control and are all in Ye Han's hands.

If Jiang Yutang falls, the people below will be broken and the tree will fall, at that time, Ye Han can easily dominate East China.

Of course, the prerequisite for all this was that Ye Han had the strength to get rid of Jiang Yutang, the kingpin.

After these things were done, the five leaders were left to do the rest. Now that Ye Han had completely gained a firm foothold in Eastern China, they didn't have to worry about Blood Hand Hall even if they returned to their respective territories, and by defecting to Ye Han, not only did they not have to fear Blood Hand Hall, they also made a huge profit.

After the matters on the East China side were taken care of, Ye Han was also able to rest for the time being, without the threat of the Heavenly Dignity Society, it also allowed him to breathe a sigh of relief, if the Heavenly Dignity Society had gained a firm foothold in East China, he would have had a bad time, fortunately, this did not happen.

However, just when Ye Han was idle, to his surprise, Principal Zhong of Fudan University called him, roughly meaning that a friendly basketball match would be held between Fudan University and Jiangzhe University tomorrow, and if Ye Han was free, he was asked to go along with the varsity team to Jiangzhe University for a walk.

He had heard of Ye Han's basketball skills, and even Fudan University's dunking maniac Zhu Meng was no match for him, so he had no choice but to shamelessly ask for Ye Han's help in order to ensure that nothing would go wrong.

Ye Han didn't refuse, he was in Jiangsu and Zhejiang now anyway, so it didn't matter if he helped out. Besides, he also wanted to go to Jiangsu and Zhejiang University to see Xiao Yunyan and Li Meiqi, he hadn't looked for them during his time in Jiangsu and Zhejiang.

Jiangzhe University is located in Hangzhou, early the next morning, Ye Han arrived at the hotel where the Fudan University varsity team was staying, the hotel was located near Jiangzhe University, when he saw Ye Han coming, although he lost to him in basketball, Zhu Meng was still happy to see him here and said with a smile; "Ye Han, I heard from Principal Zhong that you would also be coming, at first I didn't believe it, but I didn't expect you to really come Let's join forces later and take down those guys from Jiangzhe."

Ye Han laughed; "It's enough with you, I'm just going to watch the fun, are we going to leave now?"

The person leading the team this time was a basketball coach from Fudan University, he smiled; “The bus will be here in a minute, Ye Han, I’m Zhu Meng and his team’s basketball coach, my name is Fang Wenyan.”

Ye Han smiled and shook hands with him, not long after, a bus drove to the entrance of the hotel, after the Fudan University varsity team got on the bus, the bus drove towards Jiangzhe University.

Fortune Chapter 300

Jiangzhe University, also a well-known university in China, was filled with talented students from all over the world, and could be considered a place with a lot of talents. When the bus drove into the campus of Jiangzhe University, Ye Han found that the facilities, the venue, and the atmosphere inside was not inferior to Fudan University at all.

There was a special indoor basketball court at Jiangzhe University, and the friendly basketball match between Fudan University and Jiangzhe University had already spread inside the school today, so many students had run to the basketball court in advance to watch it. The audience was filled with students from Jiangzhe University, and some students even pulled spokes with the words ‘Jiangzhe University will win’ written on them.

Coach Fang Wenyan took the Fudan University people into the basketball court through a special channel and then went to talk with the Jiangzhe University people, leaving Zhu Meng and the others to move around on the basketball court. It’s not bad at all compared to our Fudan University.”

Ye Han laughed; “You’re here to play basketball, not to see beautiful women, so be careful that you’ll be charmed by them and lose your accuracy.”

Zhu Meng laughed; “It’s okay, we’ll just look at it, it won’t affect the game, besides, my girlfriend is the school beauty of Fudan, why would I be charmed by them?” By the way, Ye Han, how is your progress with the school beauty Li?”

At that, Ye Han was a bit speechless as he said; “Li Xinran and I are not the kind of relationship you think, it’s just a pure friendship.”

Zhu Meng despised him and said; “You’re still embarrassed to admit it, now everyone in the school thinks that you two are a couple, but speaking of which, Li Xinran is really pretty, you guys should seize the opportunity.”

Ye Han didn’t bother to pay attention to him and sat down on the seat outside the line. Today’s friendly match, with Zhu Meng around, he didn’t need to play, he could just watch from the side, and when he was really needed, it wouldn’t be too late to play.

At this time, the basketball team of Jiangzhe University also came, all wearing white jerseys, tall and powerful, looking at Zhu Meng and his team with unfriendly eyes, and some even raised their middle fingers towards Zhu Meng and his team with a disdainful look on their faces.

Seeing this, the Fudan University basketball team were all a little angry, but Zhu Meng was quite composed and didn’t bother with the JZU basketball team.

Ye Han secretly nodded his head, Zhu Meng was mature and stable, if he continued to develop in basketball in the future, he might not be able to become a talent.

However, a tall young man from Jiangsu and Zhejiang University's basketball team caught Ye Han's attention. This man was handsome, with handsome features and a melancholy look in his eyes, a total girl-killer look, he had long hair and tied it up with a hair band.

Of course, Ye Han was not attracted to this man because he was handsome, nor was it because of his accurate basketball shooting, but this man's body made him feel the aura of a martial artist, and it was also the Peiyuan realm, a school that had martial artists of the Peiyuan realm as students, which surprised Ye Han.

After that, Ye Han looked at Zhu Meng and the others, Jiangzhe University had a basketball expert at the Realm of Peiyuan, Zhu Meng and the others would only have a hard time winning, with this person, they could completely suppress Zhu Meng and the others.

When the referee threw the basketball up, Zhu Meng and the long-haired young man with melancholy eyes jumped at the same time, trying to snatch the basketball from him.

"Zhu Meng, don't be dumbfounded, defend quickly"

Seeing that Zhu Meng was actually dazed on the basketball court, Coach Fang Wenyan immediately shouted outside the line.

Zhu Meng was awakened by this voice and hurriedly ran towards the long-haired youth, defending him to death and not letting him have a chance to shoot the ball. Facing Zhu Meng's defence, the long-haired youth smiled faintly, with a sarcastic smile on the corner of his mouth, and then, only to see his body move in and out, the basketball was used freely in his hands. The long-haired young man crossed Zhu Meng's defence and then made a beautiful three-step lay-up, giving Jiangsu and Zhejiang University two points.

Seeing this, the students of Jiangsu and Zhejiang University burst out in cheers, shouting the long-haired youth's name; "Wu Yifeng, I love you, Wu Yifeng, I love you"

Listening to the cheers that erupted around him, Zhu Meng's face was a little ugly, facing his defense, that long-haired youth had broken through so easily, which gave him a feeling like facing Ye Han.

"Shouyi Seven Star Steps."

Outside the court, Ye Han looked at the long-haired youth, his brow furrowed, when this man had just passed Zhu Meng's defence, the kind of step that made it difficult to defend against was clearly the mastery of the Shouyi Sect, the Shouyi Seven Star Steps, Ye Han had likewise learnt it at the hands of Zhao Hengtian, only that this youth knew it too, did someone also teach him the kung fu of the Shouyi Sect?

Seeing that this youth's realm was already at the Peiyuan realm, I was afraid that the person who trained him was not simple either.

Thinking of this, Ye Han's eyes kept looking at the youth. On the court, the youth scored one after another, his bouncing ability was amazing, and all kinds of dunks and shots were performed by his hands, brilliantly, as if he never knew how to get tired, it was completely him alone performing on the court, Zhu Meng lost defensively one after another, Fudan University did not even score a single ball, and morale was low, which made coach Fang Wenyan's eyes red with anxiety. He kept shouting off the line, telling Zhu Meng to defend against the long-haired young man.

However, while Fudan University's morale was low, Jiangsu and Zhejiang University's side was gaining momentum, and the unending cheers of Jiangsu and Zhejiang University resounded around them, which sounded extremely harsh to Zhu Meng's ears.

"Quickly defend, defend, can't let him pass" Coach Fang Wenyan was anxious, how could Jiangsu and Zhejiang University have such a basketball monster, Zhu Meng's heart was crossed and he hurriedly led two players to defend the long-haired youth to death, sticking to his body to death, so that he didn't even He was so close to his body that he didn't even have a chance to dribble the ball.

Seeing this, the long-haired young man sneered, and immediately, without seeing any action from him, Zhu Meng's three bodies actually flew backwards automatically, their bodies sliding four or five metres on the court, while the long-haired young man directly jumped up and dunked at this moment, triggering the applause of the whole court.

Looking at Zhu Meng's condition at this moment, Ye Han frowned, this long-haired youth had just unleashed an attack like a crashing fist with his body parts, although it would not kill Zhu Meng and his men, but it was inevitable that he would hurt his bones, but the referee would not call the ball invalid, because in the eyes of outsiders, Zhu Meng and his three men just flew out backwards by themselves, the long-haired youth had not done anything at all.
