Fortune Chapter 32

Adopt a disciple?

Ye Han looked at Zhou Mingshan with some surprise, and then looked at Lin Baimo and Zhou Yun'er, seeing that they both had a calm face, they must have already known before this, Ye Han said; "Grandpa Zhou, I am naturally willing to worship you as my master, just that have you really considered accepting me as your disciple?"

Zhou Mingshan laughed; "I know a little bit about your character, you are definitely not a treacherous person, but now is not the time to worship the master, and I have a test for you before worshipping the master, as long as you pass this test, the ceremony of worshipping the master will be held, and then I will invite friends from all sides to come and witness it."

Ye Han's brow furrowed, a test? What test could it be?

Seeing that Ye Han was silent, Lin Baimo looked a bit restless and touched Ye Han and said; "Hanzi, what are you still considering? Let me tell you, there are many people in China who want to learn from Master Zhou, so don't miss the opportunity."

Ye Han let out a bitter smile and said; "I didn't say no either, I don't know what your test is, Grandpa Zhou?"

"Oh, it's very simple, the 15th of next month is the gambling festival over in Yunnan, I want you to accompany Yun'er there then, and you have to make a name for yourself at the festival."

When he came out of Zhou Yun'er's villa, Ye Han was still thinking about what Zhou Mingshan had said, it was not that easy to make a name for himself at the festival.

"Hanzi, you're so lucky, even Master Zhou is going to take you as his disciple, if the news gets out, I don't know how many people will envy you." Amongst Lin Baimo's car, he looked at Ye Han and said with an envious face. Ye Han laughed and said; "Brother Lin, what is there to envy, is it just to take in a disciple?"

Lin Baimo said; "That's where you're wrong, it's not just about accepting a disciple, do you know how much energy is behind Master Zhou? Being his disciple is equivalent to inheriting his network of connections, that's an intangible fortune, I don't know how many people are grabbing for it."

Ye Han rubbed his nose and said; "In that case, wouldn't I make a big profit?"

"That's for sure, I'm jealous of your kid's good luck." Lin Baimo sighed with emotion and then said; "Right, it just so happens that you're fine now, let's go to the Hai Sha Villa area and take a look at that house, if you fancy it buy it today, move in in a couple of days, I'll go to your house for a drink then."

Ye Han nodded and said; "Then I'll trouble Brother Lin to lead the way."

The Hai Sha Villa area was established in Shan Hai City by the sea, with excellent scenery, pleasant climate and excellent sightlines, it was more famous than even the Jing Shan Villa area where Zhou Yun'er was, to be able to buy a house here in Shan Hai City, one not only had to be rich, but also had to have connections to do so.

Of course, all this was difficult for Lin Baimo, the two of them drove to the Hai Sha villa area and finally Lin Baimo took Ye Han directly to the door of that villa, Ye Han got out of the car and took a look, this villa had three floors, from the appearance it looked somewhat similar to the architectural style of Europe and America, but also had a Chinese retro style, the first time he saw this villa Ye Han liked it.

“Hanzi, how about this villa I found for you, it’s not bad, right?” Lin Baimo said with a smile.

Ye Han laughed; “It looks good from the outside, I like it, it would be nice if I could go in and have a look.”

“Haha, what’s so hard about that, just wait until I make a phone call, someone will send the key over in a few minutes.” Lin Baimo then made a phone call and before ten minutes had passed, there was a man carrying a handbag walking towards the two with a professional smile on his face, saying; “I’ve kept you two waiting, Lin Shao, I’m the business manager of Zhan Teng Real Estate, you can just call me Huang Rong.”

“Well good, my brother has taken a fancy to this villa, open it up first and let us have a look inside, if we are satisfied we will buy it today.”

Hearing Lin Baimo’s words, Huang Rong immediately took out the key from his bag and opened the villa door, under his guidance Ye Han and Lin Baimo toured inside, there were all kinds of furniture inside, as long as they bought it they could move in immediately, the lot on the ground floor was spacious, there was enough space and there was a small garage inside the yard.

Ye Han was alone and came to the first floor, which had an excellent view. When Ye Han went to the balcony, he could see the whole sea and could vaguely hear the sound of the waves.

The third floor is not very different from the second, but the third floor is decorated in the European and American style. After experiencing the Chinese retro style on the first floor, the third floor is decorated in the European and American style, and this transformation has a bright feeling.

The only drawback was that his villa and the villa opposite were too close to each other, and the two villas were almost using a courtyard for work.

“How about it, Hanzi, do you have any intention to buy it?” Seeing Ye Han walking down the stairway, Lin Baimo asked with a smile.

Ye Han nodded and smiled; “Not bad, that’s it, wait and go down and do the formalities, I think I can move in tomorrow.”

“It’s good, it’s time to change your place, it doesn’t fit your status, and it’ll be easier for me to find you in the future.” Lin Baimo said.

Huang Rong likewise laughed at the side; “Since this gentleman is satisfied, we can go through the formalities now, I won’t hide it from you, this villa is definitely worth $5 million, if not for Lin Shao’s golden mouth, we at Zhan Teng Real Estate would have had to buy this villa for at least $7 or $8 million.”

In the end, the three of them went through the closing procedures together, Ye Han paid in full, the last time Zhou Yun’er gave him 70 million dollars, he did not need this 5 million, as long as Ye Han was willing, go around the gambling market, maybe this money will come back.

After accompanying Ye Han to buy the villa, Lin Baimo sent Ye Han home and then left. Ye Han returned home to see his sister cooking, the fragrant smell emanated from inside the kitchen, making Ye Han, who had been hungry all day, his appetite twitched and he put a piece of potted meat into his mouth by hand.

Hearing the movement, Ye Qing turned around and glared at Ye Han; "When did you kid come back without making a sound, you're hungry, right? Go wash your hands first, sis will be sitting down soon."

Ye Han grinned and said; "Sister, your skills are getting better and better, this potted meat is as good as those chefs' skills. Right, sis, I need to tell you something later."

As he spoke, Ye Han went and washed his hands, not long after Ye Qing had already prepared the meal, the two sat down Ye Han gave Ye Qing the matter of having purchased the house, Ye Qing listened with little reaction, gentle like a wife, only saying that everything was at Ye Han's disposal.

Ye Han gave his sister a piece of meat and smiled; "In that case, sister, let's move there tomorrow do you think it's okay?"

"Well, I'll pack up tonight, we'll move tomorrow, it's just that I'm still a bit sad to leave here all of a sudden." Looking at the modest rental house, Ye Qing said with emotion, although it was small and not as good as a villa, it held memories for both of them.

"Well sis, if I said I'd make you a good life I'll do it, let's move there tomorrow and I'll bring my friends over for you to meet then."

The night passed quickly, early the next morning Ye Han took Ye Qing out, they didn't bring much, just some change of clothes, other things were optional. The main thing was that there was a beach not far away, which was the reason she liked it, she could also go swimming at the beach or something when she had nothing to do.
