Fortune Chapter 331

“Brother Cheng, sister Huang Ying, long time no see!”

Ye Han walked over and hugged both Cheng Jun and Huang Ying, Cheng Jun laughed; “Ye Han, I finally got you here, when the chief asked me to pick you up today, I didn’t believe you were here.”

Ye Han laughed; “That old man Situ Zhentian is really well-informed, I didn’t inform him before coming to Shanghai City, by the way, Fire Phoenix, why didn’t she come?”

According to Ye Han’s thought, since Situ Zhentian knew that he had come to Yanjing, he should have sent Fire Phoenix to pick him up, but to Ye Han’s disappointment, the woman with a hot body and a demon’s daughter who was a temptress all day didn’t come.

Huang Ying said; “Big Brother Ye, the Fire Phoenix team leader and the girls are on a mission and haven’t returned to the headquarters yet.”

“A mission?” Ye Han frowned, he remembered that when he asked Situ Zhentian a month and a half ago, Situ Zhentian said that Fire Phoenix had gone on a mission, now it was almost two months later, what mission was it that hadn’t ended yet?

“Brother Ye, welcome to Yanjing, let’s go, we have prepared a place for you to stay.” Huang Ying said.

Ye Han nodded, then introduced Lin Baimo, Tang Da Shao and Silly Ben to Cheng Jun and the others, Tang Da Shao and Cheng Jun had met on one side when they were in Teng Chong, he had good social skills and was chatting with Cheng Jun at this moment, but this guy was asking all the questions that made Huang Ying blush.

Half an hour later, Ye Han and the others arrived at a courtyard in a car, which was simply furnished, but looked comfortable, and had flowers and plants planted inside the courtyard.

“Shit, Cheng Jun, how can we be considered guests, let us live here in a broken house?” Tang Da Shao looked at the simple arrangement of the courtyard and immediately had a complaint, Ye Han glared at him and said; “You guy, it’s good to have a place to stay, you still have to pay for it yourself to stay in a hotel, how uneconomical.”

“Hey, hey, just kidding, liven up the atmosphere.” Tang Da Shao also realised that he had said the wrong thing, and immediately laughed awkwardly. Cheng Jun didn’t mind either as he smiled; “Ye Han, you guys stay here first, I’ll take you to meet the chief later, and there are quite a few people inside the base who want to meet you.”

“Okay, Brother Cheng, I’ll collect it and go over with you guys.” After Ye Han put the things he brought inside the house, he left the quadrangle with Cheng Jun and Huang Ying, and Tang Da Shao sat on a recliner in the quadrangle and said; “Old Lin, I always feel that this guy Han Zi is hiding something from us, and Cheng Jun’s group is very mysterious.”

“Come on, don’t think about that, Hanzi must have his own reasons for not telling us.” Lin Bo Mo also saw that Ye Han had something to hide from them, from the words that Cheng Jun and the others spoke without thinking and the actions they made, they were most likely from the state, and, Ye Han might be too.

After they passed through many alleyways and roads in Cheng Jun's car, they arrived at a secret base, which was covered by a heavy metal door. The Security Bureau's base was actually underground!

The Security Bureau's base was actually underground!

Feeling the descending lift, Ye Han slowly counted silently in his heart, until he reached thirty seconds, the momentum of the lift's descent stopped, and Ye Han secretly estimated that they should now be thirty meters underground.

When he stepped out of the lift, the forest inside made Ye Han's eyes light up, only to see that in front of Ye Han, all kinds of devices surfaced in front of his eyes, these things should be some kind of high-tech products, like the scenes inside the movies, magnificent lights illuminated the place as if it was daylight, at this moment, there were quite a few people walking around inside, looking very busy.

Cheng Jun smiled; "Ye Han, how does it feel to be at the base for the first time?"

"Very mysterious." This was Ye Han's first feeling, but as the country's hidden force, it would be strange if the Security Bureau base wasn't mysterious.

Cheng Jun led Ye Han forward, saying as he walked; "Ye Han, these people you see now are the clerks inside the base, they are responsible for handling information, collecting intelligence, index analysis and other duties, further ahead, is our training ground, you will be able to meet our colleagues later."

Not long after, under the leadership of Cheng Jun, Ye Han arrived at a training ground, this training ground was as big as a football field, in this underground base, there was such a large training ground that Ye Han was quite shocked, there were boxing training ground, shooting training ground, there were some seemingly physical exercise apparatus, there were also some cage-type ring, all in all, it was dazzling to see.

At this moment, on this training ground, there were quite a few members of the Security Bureau training. Terrifying sounds of destruction were constantly coming out of the training ground, and even, when he passed by some of the places with the strongest destructive sounds, he felt a slight trembling coming from the metal ground under his feet.

"Cheng Jun, who's this? The newcomer who came?" On the training ground, someone saw Cheng Jun walking over with Ye Han, a new face, and immediately greeted him and asked.

Cheng Jun smiled; "He's not a newcomer, he's been with our Security Bureau for a few months now, but today is his first time reporting to the base, Earth Dragon, let me introduce to you, he's Ye Han."

The member of the Security Bureau called Earth Dragon heard this, his eyes lit up, Ye Han's name was now counted as everyone knew him inside the Security Bureau, of course, it wasn't that Ye Han had completed many missions, but because he was someone the Director had personally ordered to be recruited, and for that reason, the Fire Phoenix Organisation had gone out of their way to do it themselves, so for Ye Han everyone in the Security Bureau had heard of him.

“Hey, all come over and take a look, our Security Bureau’s ‘first genius’ is here!” When Earth Dragon heard Ye Han’s name, he immediately pulled out his voice and roared at the people on the training ground, hearing his words, the people on the training ground basically gathered towards this side.

“First day talent? Is he the one the chief personally ordered to be recruited?”

“What kind of bullshit first genius is he? He wants the Fire Phoenix leader to personally recruit him? I want to see how powerful the person the chief personally ordered to recruit is today.”

“Let’s go and have a look, I’ve wanted to meet this person for a long time, and today he finally appeared inside the base.”

Since Situ Zhentian personally ordered to recruit Ye Han, the people of the Security Bureau were only curious about Ye Han at first, but after knowing that Fire Phoenix personally came out to recruit him, most of the Security Bureau’s hearts were unbalanced, Fire Phoenix was called the number one beauty of the Security Bureau, which member of the Security Bureau did not have a few fantasies about her.

What’s more, during the next few meetings, Situ Zhentian repeatedly mentioned Ye Han’s name to several team leaders. After the news spread, people in the Security Bureau became even more jealous of Ye Han, and under this mentality, they all wanted to challenge Ye Han personally and defeat him.

Fortune Chapter 332

“Earth Dragon, Li Sen, Morning Sword, Steel Blade, what do you four want?” When he saw the Security Bureau members gathered around him, Cheng Jun’s face immediately looked unpleasant, he knew that some people in the Security Bureau had strong opinions about Ye Han, but he did not expect these people to openly bully Ye Han, he had to know that this was Ye Han’s first time to come to the Security Bureau, if this made him have a problem with the Security Bureau, it would be a bit difficult to do.

The member of the Security Bureau called Li Sen looked at Ye Han and gave a cold laugh, then said to Cheng Jun; “Cheng Jun, don’t interfere in this matter today, I’ve heard of his great name for a long time, it’s the right time to learn from him.”

“Li Sen, I advise you to stay out of it, Ye Han is coming to the base for the first time today.” Cheng Jun’s face was quite unpleasant, as was Huang Ying’s; “Hmph, you guys have the ability to bully Tyrannosaurus, what kind of ability is it to bully Brother Ye, a newcomer?”

“Little Huang Ying, it’s none of your business.” The Earth Dragon looked at Ye Han and said; “I’ve heard of his name before I’ve seen him, you’re now a big name inside our base, so what, do you want to play a couple of moves, or let us see what’s so great about the person the chief personally ordered to recruit.”

“Ye Han, do you dare to fight?” Jian Chen stepped forward and looked coldly at Ye Han, in his hand he was also holding an antique precious sword.

“If I were to meet the battle, I should also be the one to go first.” Steel Blade was playing with a sharp long sword in his hand as he looked at Ye Han with a cold smile.

Faced with this scene, Ye Han was a bit speechless, these guys who had first come to the Security Bureau seemed to have a big prejudice against him, these four guys all wanted to give him a trial run.

“Shit, I’ll see who dares to bully brother Ye Han, don’t blame our seven groups for not agreeing.” At this time, only to see the other end of the base, Night Cat, Rat, Crazy Horse, Mountain Chicken and Earth Dog who had fought together at Teng Chong back then came, moreover, behind them were the other members of the seven groups, adding up to more than ten people.

“Seven groups, what? Are we five groups still afraid of you seven groups?”

“That’s right, Night Cat, the people from your group seven can’t eat inside the base, not to mention our group nine and eight, the people from group six are still here, is your group seven trying to challenge us all?”

Night Cat and the others greeted Ye Han, for Ye Han, they had respect in their hearts, then they looked at the members of Group 9, Group 8, Group 6 and Group 5 and said; “In short, whoever dares to bully Ye Han inside the base today, we from Group 7 will not agree.”

Li Sen then looked at Cheng Jun and said; “Cheng Jun, for the sake of an outsider, why should our own people start infighting, today we only want to challenge Ye Han, why are you guys so protective of him? Is it possible that your seven groups have received benefits from others? Or is he simply a vain name and doesn’t even have the strength to meet the challenge?”

Cheng Jun said; “Li Sen, this is not in line with the rules, Ye Han is coming to the base for the first time, and for you to join forces against him like this is too disgraceful to the members of our Security Bureau, isn’t it?”

“Humph, it’s just a challenge, there’s no rule that doesn’t allow challenges in our base, if he doesn’t dare to fight, just say so and we’ll take it as him admitting his weakness.” Earth Dragon said with a cold snort.

“Concede?” Hearing this, Ye Han, who hadn’t opened his mouth to speak when he arrived here, sneered; “There are no such words in my Ye Han’s dictionary, your challenge, I accept it, how would I like to compete?”

“You really dare to answer the challenge!” The Earth Dragon sneered; “Good, if you win against me, Earth Dragon, I will definitely not look for trouble from you in the future.”

Seeing that Earth Dragon had fought this opportunity over, Li Sen, Chen Jian and Steel Blade all secretly hated themselves for being late in speaking up, if they defeated Ye Han, then not only did they raise their fame inside the base, they might even impress the chief, knowing that Ye Han was a genius that the chief had his eye on, but of course, the main aim of these people was to show their faces in front of Fire Phoenix.

Although Fire Phoenix was the leader of the group, it didn’t break these people’s illusions about her.

“Winning you, it’s a simple matter, don’t waste time, let’s begin.” Ye Han looked at the Earth Dragon and said indifferently.

“Oh, Earth Dragon, it seems you’ve been underestimated, don’t disgrace us later.” Li Sen smiled lightly, he was also very upset at how arrogant Ye Han was looking.

“Arrogant fellow, good, everyone inside the base knows that I, the Earth Dragon, am powerful, today I will compete with you in a match of strength to see who is more powerful.” Saying this, Earth Dragon led his group towards an apparatus at the base training ground, and the others followed suit.

The men from group seven followed behind Cheng Jun, who said to Ye Han; “Ye Han, Earth Dragon is extremely strong within our base, he can lift half a ton of objects with his bare hands, in terms of strength competition, only one group of our base members, Tyrannosaurus, can overpower him, when we compete with him in strength later, you better do your best if you want to win.”

“I know.” Ye Han nodded and came to the side of the apparatus, there were many boxing marks on this apparatus, which should be left by people hitting on it from time to time, and next to the apparatus there was something like a pressure gauge, with numbers engraved on the thick glass tube, from one to one thousand, I don’t know what it was for.

The Earth Dragon would look at Ye Han and say; “This is the advanced equipment used to test strength inside our base, a punch on this can test the strength of a person, you’ve never seen it I’ll give you a demonstration first.”

After saying that, as the members of the Security Bureau around him watched, Earth Dragon shouted, like thunder, and threw a fierce punch towards the instrument, as powerful as if he could burst the instrument with this punch.

“Earth Dragon’s previous best score was nine hundred and two, I wonder how much he can hit this time?”

“It shouldn’t be lower than before.” The surrounding members of the Security Bureau had their eyes firmly fixed on the instrument gauge, and then, only to see Earth Dragon’s fist blasting on top of the instrument, a red liquid suddenly soared inside that thick glass tube, like a blood-red water column, this red liquid kept hitting the position of nine hundred and fifty before it stopped.

“Nine hundred and fifty, it seems that the Earth Dragon’s power has become quite powerful again than it was some time ago!” The surrounding members of the Security Bureau were all a little shocked at this, if the Earth Dragon’s score had gone up by twenty values it would have been on par with the Tyrannosaurus’.

“It’s your turn.” The Earth Dragon was satisfied with his score, and then he turned to look at Ye Liang and smiled.

Upon hearing this, the people around him all cast their eyes on Ye Han, and as they watched they only saw Ye Han slowly step forward and similarly blasted his fist on top of the instrument, and there came a terrifying clashing sound, which was like an explosive thunder, and the whole instrument shook.

Feeling the explosive nature of this force, the hearts of the people around them shook, their eyes hurriedly looked towards the top of the instrument table, then, only to see that inside the glass tube, the red liquid surged all the way up, like a red light, in just an instant it surpassed the result that the Earth Dragon had just achieved, and it was still going all the way up.

Pop!

The faces of the surrounding Security Bureau members froze abruptly as the instrument meter blew up!

Fortune Chapter 333

The instrument table blew up!

When the surrounding members of the Security Bureau saw this, their faces froze for the first time, since they had entered the base, they had never seen such a thing before. Among the members of the Security Bureau, Tyrannosaurus, who was known to have the fiercest strength, he had only hit a score of nine hundred and seventy, but Ye Han's punch had caused the instrument gauge to explode when it could not withstand his strength.

This power, how terrifying it should be!

For a moment, the members of the Security Bureau became very quiet, their eyes all looked unblinkingly at the instrument gauge that exploded open, even Cheng Jun and the others were frozen at the moment, they hadn't seen Ye Han for a while, but his strength had become so fierce!

Li Sen, Chen Jian and Steel Blade at this moment after seeing this scene, they also did not dare to speak, such a powerful strength if they really had to fight with Ye Han, jokingly, they would definitely be abused very badly, at this moment, they were all a bit glad that it was fortunate that they were not the ones who were competing with Ye Han in terms of strength, otherwise, it would be them who would lose face.

"Is there anyone else who wants to compete?" Ye Han turned around and looked at Li Sen and the three of them, as for the Earth Dragon, at this moment he had become dumbfounded that he, who was known for his strength, would lose so badly, facing this silent youth, once he showed his strength, he was even more terrifying than even the Tyrannosaurus.

The three Li Sen did not say anything, now, naturally, they did not dare to say the words challenging Ye Han.

"Brother Cheng, let's go."

"Oh, good good" Cheng Jun who reacted immediately led Ye Han towards the inside of the base, leaving behind the group of dumbfounded Security Bureau members.

"Ye Han, nice win, I haven't seen you for a while, you guy has grown really sick, now I'm only afraid that I won't be able to walk a few moves in your hands." Cheng Jun gave a thumbs up to Ye Han and said with a look of emotion, the director's vision was really poisonous back then!

Not long after, after passing through some work areas, Cheng Jun led Ye Han to the door of Situ Zhentian's office, then said; "Ye Han, the chief is inside, go in by yourself, I won't accompany you in, when you come out, we from the seventh group will treat you to a drink."

"Okay." Ye Han responded with a smile, after Cheng Jun left, he directly pushed open the door of the office, without even knocking, and entered inside, he saw a middle aged man with a black face facing him, as if he wanted to come over and teach him a lesson.

"Boss Situ, although we only met for the first time in reality, but you don't need to be so excited to see me." Ye Han smiled and sat down on the chair opposite Situ Zhentian, saw a box of special cigarettes on the table, and took one over and lit it up for himself, slowly swallowing the clouds.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. If the other members see this, how humiliating for me as the director."

Ye Han despised this bastard and said; "Don't worry, there was no one outside when I came in, your Great Director Situ's face will not be lost."

Hearing this, Situ Zhentian's face looked better, then he himself took out a special cigarette and lit it, saying; "Little bastard, you've been making a lot of noise in the south in recent months, let me give you a warning, you kid might be in big trouble before long."

At that, Ye Han laughed; "Boss Situ, I'm a timid person, don't scare me."

"Hmph, brat, I'm not scaring you." Situ Zhentian said; "Have you recently gone to Emei Mountain?"

"There is such a thing." Ye Han nodded, Situ Zhentian was asking this, could he really be in some kind of trouble?

"In the north there is Nalan, in the south there is Ye Han, boy, you are now completely famous, nowadays the ten sects even some people inside this Yanjing city know your name." Situ Zhentian said.

Ye Han was a little surprised, it had only been less than a week, hadn't it, and the words that Master Wu I said that day had spread so quickly?

In fact, Ye Han had underestimated the connection between ancient martial sects, although they seemed to practice in secrecy and did not enter the world, however once anything happened it would spread within that circle of theirs in the first instance, and some people who had crossed paths with ancient martial sects naturally spread the word slowly in the world when they knew about it.

"Boss Situ, could this be the trouble you are talking about?" Ye Han asked somewhat strangely, it's only a matter of making a name for yourself, is it necessary to speak so frighteningly?

Situ Zhentian said; "It seems that your brat is still immersed in this beautiful fame, not knowing that trouble is near, if Nalan Mietian in Yanjing City hears this, what do you think he will think? Although I know that you are extremely talented, why don't you know how to keep a low profile? Let me tell you, Nalan Mietian is already an expert at the middle stage of the Little Ren Du realm, if he wants to teach you a lesson, you kid can just wait for a beating."

Ye Han said indifferently; "Is this the kind of temperament this Nalan Mietian has, that he can't allow someone to be on par with him?"

"It seems that you still don't understand Nalan Mietian." Situ Zhentian sighed and said; "Nalan Mietian is the most outstanding genius in the past hundred years, at the age of twenty-eight he had already succeeded in breaking through the two Ren Du veins and was promoted to the Little Ren Du realm expert, this kind of talent directly surpassed the Sword God and Madman back then, it can be said that he grew up amidst constant praise and developed an extremely domineering and conceited character, he was lonely and arrogant by nature, he always regarded himself as the number one genius in the world. himself as the number one genius in the world, and of course, this is currently the case, so how can he tolerate someone being on a par with him?"

"You mean he wants to step on me?" Ye Han asked with narrowed eyes.

“Hmph, if it was that simple, I wouldn’t have warned you and let you boy go and suffer a bit, I was afraid that he would kill you, as the saying goes, one mountain can’t tolerate two tigers, with his energy, if something like this really happened, there wouldn’t be many people who could protect you when the time comes.”

Looking at the silent Ye Han, Situ Zhentian continued; “You kid keep a low profile inside Yanjing City these days, hurry up and go back to the south after attending the wedding, it doesn’t matter if you really run into Nalan Mietian and admit a goose, a great man can bend and stretch, with your current strength surpassing him is an absolute matter, understand?”

“Tucking your tail between your legs?” Ye Han laughed coldly inside his heart, if he really pissed him off, he would definitely dare to do something that would make the world shake.

“Boss Situ, how is this Nalan Mietian’s power inside Yanjing City?” Ye Han knew very little about Nalan Mietian.

Situ Zhentian said; “Not counting the power behind him, this young man’s influence in Yanjing City, in the north is very small, he created the group of young people basically gathered most of the rich, official and black generation in the north, and the power under his hands is also very strong, the most important thing is that this guy has a great wisdom and nearly demon strategist around him. such great influence in the north, she is to be credited.”

Fortune Chapter 334

“A schemer? What kind of schemer would make you hold it in such high esteem?” Ye Han asked, he had already met two strategists, the White Faced Warlord of the Blood Hand Hall and the Black Widow of the Heavenly Dignity Society, both of which were considered strategists, but in comparison, the White Faced Warlord, a strategist, was much inferior to the Black Widow.

“You will know when you see it later.” Situ Zhentian said; “Kid, the purpose of me finding you here today is to put in order to warn you, keep a low profile inside Yanjing City, it won’t do you any harm, to be honest, your talent is the best I’ve ever seen, you can definitely surpass Nalan Miantian in the future, so I don’t want anything to happen to you.”

“Thanks, I’ll take care of it.” Ye Han nodded, and then asked; “To you, who are the Sword God and Madman you mentioned just now? Are they very powerful?”

Situ Zhentian said; “This is something you kid don’t ask, when you should know you will naturally know them, the real experts of our China, you kid haven’t seen them yet.”

This point, Ye Han agreed, the great country of China, strange people and strange people, the real experts they generally do not like to show their faces.

“By the way, where did this woman, Fire Phoenix, go?” Thinking about Fire Phoenix, Ye Han couldn’t help but ask.

Situ Zhentian glanced at Ye Han and said; “You are really a master who eats from the bowl and looks at the pot, Fire Phoenix has gone on a top secret mission and won’t be back for a while, so you can only wait for another time if you want to see her.”

“What kind of top secret mission is taking so long?” Ye Han was a little curious.

“This mission is a bit special, our security bureau has sent out four teams in a row, as for the content of the mission, I won’t tell you, this is classified, all right, you kid, don’t ask me, I won’t tell you even if you ask.” Seeing Ye Han ready to continue asking, Situ Zhentian hurriedly blocked him with a sentence.

“Cheng, I’ll leave now if there’s nothing else.” Ye Han stood up and said.

“Go away go away.” Situ Zhentian waved his hand, but as Ye Han walked to the door, he had to explain once again; “Kid, remember what I said.”

“Alright, I’ll try to keep a low profile.” Ye Han waved his hand and walked out of Situ Zhentian’s office.

“This kid mustn’t cause me any trouble, otherwise, there will be too many people to alarm!” After Ye Han left, Situ Zhentian let out a bitter laugh, smoking a cigarette and thinking about his thoughts.

“Ye Han, how did it go with the Chief?” Inside the base, after Ye Han came out of Situ Zhentian’s office, Cheng Jun walked over and asked, Ye Han smiled; “It’s not bad, by the way Brother Cheng, let me ask you something, what mission did Fire Phoenix go on?”

Cheng Jun said; “I’m not sure what the specific mission is, but inside our base, a group to four groups of people are out, it should be a big mission, and I heard that for this mission, the director also borrowed a soldier king from the army, this soldier king is a sharpshooter who has shocked millions of soldiers, no false shots.”

Ye Han did not care about this sharpshooter, what he cared about was what kind of mission Fire Phoenix was actually on, but Ye Han did not continue to ask if the process army also did not know.

“Come on, Ye Han, I’ll call up our brothers from the seventh group, let’s go out for a drink together, just as a reception for you.”

Ye Han didn’t refuse, he had a good relationship with the people in Group 7, a get-together to enhance their relationship was a must, then, Cheng Jun took Night Cat and the other twelve members of Group 7 with him and set off in a big way, but Night Cat and the others went to locate the sub first, Ye Han and Cheng Jun returned to the quadrangle to pick up Lin Baimo’s trio.

The place for the gathering was not a luxurious hotel, but an authentic Yanjing cuisine restaurant, where the members of the Security Bureau liked to gather on a regular basis. The private rooms were large, sitting down a dozen people still seemed spacious, and the dishes ordered were all authentic Yanjing dishes, such as roast duck and shabu-shabu lamb, which were famous in Yanjing.

The taste of the north and the south were different, but Ye Han and his group were used to eating these dishes. When the food and wine were served, the atmosphere was immediately lively, and there were eight men and four women in the seven groups, a total of twelve people, plus Ye Han and his group of four, a total of sixteen people.

“Ye Han, come on, let’s go, we haven’t had a drink together for a long time, that punch just now was a good one.” At the table, Night Cat took the lead and drank a glass with Ye Han, followed by Crazy Horse, Tu Dog and other members of the Security Bureau, twelve people took turns to drink a round, twelve cups of two pot heads went down, Ye Han was fine.

Seeing that Ye Han was a great drinker, a few people from the seven groups who claimed to be good drinkers approached Ye Han, and the four of them drank five bottles of two-pot head, and finally those guys went to the bathroom and threw up in glory.

“Shit, what a disgrace to us.” Night Cat cursed with laughter, unable to dry Ye Han’s drinking capacity, Night Cat and the others all set their eyes on Tang Da Shao and Lin Bo Mo, as for Silly Ben, this guy was a non-drinker, Lin Bo Mo was okay, but Tang Da Shao was a master who never conceded at the drinking table, he would not refuse.

But just as the drinks were heating up inside the compartment, the door of the compartment was kicked open and the few members of the Security Bureau who had just gone to the bathroom were thrown in, bruised and battered, so that one could tell at a glance that they had been taught a lesson.

“Fuck me, motherfucker, Zhong Hai, who did this?” Night Cat was the closest to the door and he was furious after looking at the miserable appearance of one of the Security Bureau members who had fallen beside him, Cheng Jun and the others also stood up in anger.

“We did it, what do you Security Bureau people want?” At that moment, only a group of young people walked in outside the door of the box, and as soon as they entered, they instantly made the box, which appeared to be wide, become crowded.

“People from the Ancient Martial Association.” After the people from the seven groups saw this group of people who appeared, that face was instantly incomparably angry.

Cheng Jun spoke in a cold voice; “Chu Haitang, you are bullying people too much, don’t think that the people from our Security Bureau are really afraid of you.”

“Humph, we didn’t bully you Security Bureau people, it was these three guys who pissed on my brothers’ trousers when they were boozing, so, teach them a lesson, so that they can remember.” Chu Haitang coldly snorted and looked at Cheng Jun and the others with disdain, the Security Bureau and the Ancient Martial Arts Association had always been at odds with each other, this was known to many people internally, so privately, members of the two organisations often had conflicts.

“Teaching our Security Bureau people a lesson, Chu Haitang, your Ancient Martial Arts Association people are becoming bolder and bolder, if you have the guts we will go out and fight one on one, if I don’t beat you to a pulp, I am a sick cat.” Night Cat said angrily.

“Single fight, fine, I won’t be called Chu Haitang until I beat the hell out of you lot, pick a place.”

“Night Cat.” Cheng Jun held Night Cat down as he then looked at that Chu Haitang and said; “Chu Haitang, we don’t want to make a big deal out of it today, but you must apologise to us.”

Fortune Chapter 335

“Apologize?”

After Chu Haitang heard Cheng Jun’s words, he sneered and said; “I think you guys should stop dreaming, asking people from my Ancient Martial Arts Association to apologise to your Security Bureau, unless the sun comes out from the west, don’t you guys want to fight one on one? Today I, Chu Hai Tong, will grant you all, if you have the guts, go out and fight with us.”

“Haitang, with this group of people, do they dare to fight with the people of our Ancient Martial Association?” Behind Chu Haitang, one person sneered and said.

“A bunch of gutless cowards, from now on you better give way when you see people from our Ancient Martial Association, or else I’ll beat you up once I see you.”

“What bullshit Security Bureau, only Tyrannosaurus can even see inside your Security Bureau, the rest are all a bunch of trash.”

“Without our sect’s gongfu martial arts, your security bureau is nothing.”

The people of the Ancient Martial Arts Association sneered at the members of the Security Bureau one after another, the fact that the members of the Security Bureau were able to have the size and achievements that they had today had a lot to do with the Ancient Martial Arts Sect indeed, so all along the people of the Ancient Martial Arts Association had looked down on the members of the Security Bureau, but of course, this was not the main reason.

Hearing these words, Night Cat and the others were completely furious, even Cheng Jun, who had been suppressing his temper, was furious that the people of the Ancient Martial Arts Association had insulted them so much.

“Shit, fuck them!” A loud shout was heard, but Night Cat, who could no longer hold back, punched Chu Haitang in the face, and the other members of the Association also struck out.

The sound of fists and feet clashing was incomparably thick, the plates and bowls on the table were shattered all over the place, such a chaotic scene Ye Han did not make a move, he had to protect Lin Baimo and Tang Da Shao, the people of the Ancient Martial Arts Association were a group of ancient martial artists, their casual punches could kill ordinary people.

“Silly Ben, these people let you practice, don’t worry about it.” After hearing Ye Han’s words, Silly Ben didn’t hesitate, his strong body was like a fierce tiger rushing into the melee, his body colliding and his fists striking, he put down four or five people in a few seconds, each of these people had their bones broken by him.

“Bastard!” At this moment, Chu Haitang, who was fighting with Cheng Jun and Night Cat, saw Foolish Ben knocking down the people of the Ancient Martial Arts Association like a wolf into a flock of sheep.

Chu Haitang’s strength was not weak, he had already cleared the Ren line and was on the verge of clearing the Dou line, but he was no match for Foolish Ben.

Because of Silly Ben’s participation, the melee ended in less than a minute, and the dozen or so people from the Ancient Martial Association were all lying inside the box, moaning and groaning.

“Hmph, Chu Haitang, next time, let your moves shine, or you will be beaten even worse.” Looking at the members of the Ancient Martial Arts Association who were helping each other to stand up, at this moment it was Night Cat’s turn for them to despise the people of the Ancient Martial Arts Association, Chu Haitang he looked at Silly Ben with a cold face, in the hands of this big man he couldn’t even walk a single move.

“Who are you?” Chu Haitang’s gaze was fixed directly on Silly Ben as he asked.

Silly Ben spared his head, then he looked at Ye Han, seeing this Chu Haitang's gaze also followed, Ye Han said; "You just need to know that you are not his opponent now, since they are all national forces, originally from the same root, why do you people from the Ancient Martial Arts Association have to bully people like this?"

"Good, I will remember you all, let's go." Chu Haitang's cold eyes swept over everyone inside the box, then led his group of remnants to leave. After watching the people from the Ancient Martial Arts Association leave, Cheng Jun came over and laughed; "Hanzi, this brother is fierce enough, if the group leader didn't fight, I'm afraid that even the seven of us together wouldn't be able to take him down, today was supposed to be a reception for you guys, but this group of people from the Ancient Martial Arts Association ruined it."

Ye Han said; "Forget it, Brother Cheng, we've almost eaten anyway, let's stop here for today, we'll get together again some other time."

"Cheng, next time we will still be the host, give me a call when you have time."

"Okay."

Afterwards, the group left the box and went downstairs, what happened upstairs, the boss actually knew about it long ago, but he didn't have the guts to go up and see, he just reported it to the police, so this time the police came, Ye Han and the group came down just in time to meet this group of police face to face.

When he saw this, Cheng Jun walked over and took out his papers and said a few words, then the police withdrew. Of course, to make up for the boss's loss, Cheng Jun paid several tens of thousands for the meal.

On the way back, Ye Han asked Cheng Jun, who was driving, "Brother Cheng, why do the people from the Ancient Martial Arts Association have such strong prejudices against the Security Bureau? It seems like the two sides have a deep grudge."

At that, Cheng Jun said; "When it comes to our Security Bureau and the Ancient Martial Association, there is indeed a grudge, when the Security Bureau was first established it was because of the support of the Ancient Martial Sects that the current Security Bureau came into being, but since the Ancient Martial Association came into being, these people from the Ancient Martial Sects have always looked down on our Security Bureau members, so there has been a lot of friction, but it hasn't It's just that more than ten years ago, one of the geniuses of our Security Bureau and the people of the Ancient Martial Association clashed and killed a person from the Ancient Martial Association, and from then on, the relationship between the Ancient Martial Association and the Security Bureau was formed."

"So that's how it was, then how was this matter finally handled?" Ye Han asked.

"It was not dealt with." Cheng Jun shook his head and said; "That genius from our Security Bureau killed his way out under the Ancient Martial Association's siege and escaped to who knows where, for this reason, the organization even put a wanted notice on him, but I'm afraid that this matter today will only be scolded by the director again when he returns to the base next time."

Cheng Jun gave a bitter smile, after sending Ye Han and the others home he returned to the base, but Ye Han and the others didn't stay in the courtyard for long, a small car stopped in front of the gate of the courtyard, then two youths came down from it, one of them was none other than Zhang Shaoyu, Ye Han and the others lived here, he had already learned about it from Lin Baimo's mouth.

Fortune Chapter 336

"Brother Zhang, in a few days it will be your big wedding day, so it's too kind of you to bother you to come over personally with such a busy schedule." Inside the courtyard, several people sat at a table sipping tea, Ye Han said like this.

Zhang Shaoyu said; "Hanzi, you guys didn't even give me a heads up when you arrived, if I hadn't called Old Lin I wouldn't have known that you had arrived in Yanjing city.

Ye Han smiled and said; "Brother Zhang, don't bother with the accommodation, don't be too polite, this is our first time in Yanjing City, if you are willing to find us a guide to show us around Yanjing City, just take us around."

Lin Bo Mo also smiled and said; "Shao Yu, Han Zi is right, and it's also troublesome to move around, it's the same wherever we live, but you should really find us a guide to show us around, this is the centre of the country, it's too bad if we don't have some fun everywhere."

This courtyard was arranged by the Security Bureau, if they moved out they would only make people inside the Security Bureau have a problem with it, so naturally there was no need to change the place.

Zhang Shaoyu nodded and said; "Cheng, Hanzi, let me introduce to you, this is Hao Fei next to me, I'm a bit busy these days, so if you want to go out and have fun, let him take you guys there, when I'm done with the matter at hand, we'll have a good get-together."

"Hello guys, my name is Hao Fei, I'm Shao Yu's iron buddy." Hao Fei said with a smile at Ye Han and the others, he was stable and elegant, like a calm scholar, although not handsome, but gave a full affinity.

After both sides introduced themselves, Zhang Shaoyu added; "Hanzi, since you've come to Yanjing City, brother I have a matter to ask for your help, I've been waiting for this for most of the year."

Ye Han knew what Zhang Shaoyu was talking about, he remembered that Zhang Shaoyu had said that his grandfather had come down from the Vietnam War and had been shot in the brain, leaving a dark disease that left his head in pain when it was windy and raining.

Ye Han said; "Brother Zhang, okay, if you have time now, I will go over with you to take a look at the old man."

At these words, Zhang Shaoyu's face was pleased and he hurriedly said; "Good, I'll take you there now, to be honest, my grandfather's condition has worsened recently, even his thoughts have become blurred at times, the whole family was worried about how to get him to attend my wedding, Hanzi, I'm relieved now that you're here."

Hearing this, Hao Fei asked curiously from the side; "Shaoyu, is this brother Ye still a highly skilled doctor?"

The Zhang family's old man's headache was not a secret in Yanjing City, many people in their circle knew about it, at that time, even the divine doctor Liu Buyi could only curb the Zhang family's old man's condition, but could not eradicate it.

Zhang Shaoyu laughed; "Hao Fei, don't look at Han Zi as young, his medical skills are much more powerful than even the Northwest Medical King."

At these words, Hao Fei was shocked, although he did not pay attention to the Chinese medicine world, but he still knew the name of the Northwest Medical King, once the Northwest Medical King also cured many famous people in Yanjing City, although it is said that now the Northwest Medical King is dead, but those who should remember him still remember him.

The matter should not be delayed, so Zhang Shaoyu and Hao Fei finally took Ye Han out of the courtyard and headed for the Zhang family.

The Zhang family is not an ordinary family in Yanjing City. Back then, Master Zhang was one of the nine heads of state and a powerful general in the army. The three sons and two daughters of Master Zhang hold important positions in the system, two at the vice-ministerial level, and are expected to enter one of the nine cores in the future.

The Zhang family compound is not luxurious, it is a spacious courtyard with a serious and solemn feel to it, and apart from the necessary guards, there are not many servants.

Master Zhang has three sons and two daughters, two daughters are already married, three sons except the third is not working in Yanjing, the other two sons are in Yanjing city, and Zhang Shaoyu is the eldest son of Master Zhang's eldest son Zhang Hongye, at this moment, Zhang Hongye is already waiting in the hall, just now Zhang Shaoyu called, said that he found a miracle doctor who can cure Master Zhang, he immediately dropped the matter at hand He returned home.

If he could really cure Master Zhang, it would mean more to the whole Zhang family than anything else.

At this time, Zhang Shaoyu had already brought Ye Han and Hao Fei into the hall, and when he saw Zhang Hongye sitting in his seat drinking tea, Zhang Shaoyu called out; "Dad, why have you come back?"

Zhang Hongye looked up at him and said; "You called me and said you found a miracle doctor who could cure your grandfather too, could I sit still? Your second uncle, your mother and the others are heading home now, your third uncle won't be back for a while."

After saying this Zhang Hongye looked at Hao Fei and said; "Little Fei is here too, you've been working hard behind this boy Shao Yu these days."

"Uncle Zhang, Shaoyu and I are close friends, so I have to help with such a big event as his wedding, it's not hard work." Hao Fei said with a grin on his face.

At this time, Zhang Shaoyu said; "Dad, he is the miracle doctor I mentioned to you guys before, his name is Ye Han, today I invited him here specifically to see grandpa, with his help, maybe grandpa's headache won't be a problem anymore."

"Ye Han, which Ye Han?" Zhang Hongye heard the word Ye Han in vain and he asked in a strange manner.

Zhang Shaoyu laughed; “Dad, you’re asking that, are there two more Ye Han?”

Zhang Hongye did not answer, his gaze was sizing up Ye Han, and very carefully, then said; “Young man, are you from the Southern Shanhai City?”

Ye Han responded; “It is exactly me.”

Upon hearing this, Zhang Hongye’s brow frowned slightly before saying; “Rumour has it that there is Nalan in the north and Ye Han in the south, certain people have a very high assessment of you, even I, who is preoccupied with national affairs, know your name.”

Hearing Zhang Hongye’s words, Zhang Shaoyu and Hao Fei’s faces suddenly changed, they hadn’t paid any attention to this aspect in their daily lives, so naturally they hadn’t heard the phrase ‘In the north there is Nalan, in the south there is Ye Han’, although this phrase was in appreciation of Ye Han, however in a way, it was also pushing him into a dangerous whirlpool.

There was Nalan in the north and Ye Han in the south, Zhang Shaoyu and Hao Fei were both members of the Northern Group, now, how were they going to face Ye Han?

Fortune Chapter 337

“Uncle Zhang is too complimentary, it’s just a rumor, it can’t be true.” Ye Han said calmly, what Situ Zhentian had said Ye Han still remembered, to keep a low profile, but it seemed that it was really like what Situ Zhentian had said, there were already quite a few people inside this Yanjing city who knew his name, whether this was good or bad, Ye Han did not want to delve into it, what he wanted to be in now was that the enemy did not move me, I did not move the enemy, if he wanted to step on Nalan Mietian, the first thing he needed was city manners, low profile.

After all, he was still feathery and could not shake Nalan Mietian.

Zhang Hongye said; “Since you are the divine doctor invited by Shaoyu, and you call me uncle, let’s not talk about anything else, Ye Han, I just want to ask you how sure you are about my family’s old man’s illness?”

Although right now the word Ye Han had spread in a certain circle, his main concern was his own old man’s illness, there could not be any sloppiness in this matter, the relationship between the young people, there was their own to solve.

Ye Han said; “Uncle Zhang, I can only say that I will do my best, Master Zhang’s illness may not be a difficult task for me, but I will not know until I see Master Zhang.”

“Good, I will let you see the old man later, I hope you are sure.” Zhang Hongye nodded, as a decision maker he didn’t like to procrastinate, and of course, no one could meet Old Master Zhang without the Zhang family’s consent.

“Hanzi, I’ll have to trouble you more later.” Zhang Shaoyu let out a deep breath and looked at Ye Han and said, although that remark just now would bring Ye Han to the opposite side of Nalan Mietian, Ye Han was also his good brother, he would not let that remark alienate himself from Ye Han.

“Don’t worry.” Ye Han nodded, at this time, outside the hall, a lady and a man in military uniform walked in, the woman was beautiful, around forty years old, her skin was extremely well maintained, a businesswoman dressed as a strong woman, the man in military uniform walked with the momentum of a dragon and tiger, his resolute face gave a sense of determination and dominance.

“Mom, second uncle, you’re back.” Zhang Shaoyu looked at the two men walking, stood up and called out, Hao Fei also greeted beside him, the woman and the man in military uniform nodded, then looked at Zhang Hongye and asked; “Big brother, which one is the miracle doctor that Shaoyu found? Can he really cure the old man?”

“Hongye, is there really hope for the old man’s illness?” The woman also spoke up and asked.

“He is the divine doctor that Shao Yu found, as for whether he can cure old master, we will talk about it when we meet him.” Zhang Hongye said.

At these words, Zhang Hong Hu and Xie Qiao Xiang both looked towards Ye Han, the man in military uniform was Zhang Hong Hu, the second oldest member of the Zhang family, and the woman was Xie Qiao Xiang, Zhang Shaoyu’s mother.

“Big brother, you’re not kidding, right? How old is he?” Zhang Hong Hu looked at Ye Han’s young face and immediately asked suspiciously, as a soldier he had always spoken straightforwardly, even if the person in question was present he would not care about anything.

Although Xie Qiao Xiang did not speak, but she also had a skeptical expression on her face.

“He is not simple, let him try, maybe there is really hope for the old man’s illness.” Zhang Hongye said meaningfully, the fact that the outside world rated Ye Han so highly proved that he should have some real skills.

“Cheng, let him give it a try.”

Afterwards, led by the Zhang family, Ye Han arrived at the backyard of the quadrangle, where the environment was peaceful and very quiet, and there was no one else apart from the medical team dedicated to taking care of the old man.

“Old Dean Bai, how is Master’s condition today?” When he walked into the room, he saw several doctors in white coats busy, Zhang Hongye entered inside and asked towards the rather old man, Old Dean Bai was a little surprised to see Zhang Hongye bring so many people in, then he said; “Old Master Zhang is still in good shape today, if you want to see him, you can, but you can’t talk for too long, so as not to overuse your brain and have a relapse of your old illness. ”

“Thank you, Old Dean Bai.” Zhang Hongye said, and then he said to Ye Han; “Ye Han, you come in with me, Hong Hu, you guys just wait outside.”

After saying that, Zhang Hongye led Ye Han into the inner room, leaving Zhang Honghu and the others waiting outside.

Seeing that, Old Dean Bai was surprised and asked; “Hong Hu, who is the young man your boss brought in?”

Zhang Honghu said; “Old Dean Bai, I’m not sure exactly, but it’s the old man who is treating the old man, I hope he can be cured!”

“Healing, nonsense.” Old Dean Bai said angrily; “I say you boys are not young, how can you just casually find someone to cure Old Master Zhang, what if something goes wrong?”

On hearing this, Zhang Shaoyu said; “Grandpa Bai, there’s no harm in letting my friend take a look, just in case he’s really sure, the old man is in such a state now, we can’t miss out on any hope.”

“Good, old man I would like to see what kind of godly man you have found.”

In the inner room, when Zhang Hongye brought Ye Han into this, the first thing he saw was an old man lying on top of a hospital bed, this old man was at least seventy years old, the old man had a hard face, if he wasn’t lying on the hospital bed, one couldn’t tell he was a patient in the slightest, at this moment, this old man was reading a book like a genealogy, and was so focused that he didn’t even notice that Zhang Hongye and Ye Han had entered.

“Dad, what kind of worry are you worrying about, Old Dean Bai has said that you should rest more and should not use your brain power.” After Zhang Hongye walked in and saw this scene, he let out a bitter laugh, wanting to take the Zhang clan tree in Elder Zhang’s hand and a bit afraid to.

Upon hearing this, Elder Zhang gave him a look and said; “What are you doing here with me instead of staying well at the organisation? While I’m still breathing, name my future great-grandson, I think the male one should be named Zhang Fei, it sounds overbearing, if the female one, let’s call her Zhang Meng, it sounds elegant.”

Zhang Fei!

Zhang Hongye had a black face, but he did not dare to refute Master Zhang, nodding his head repeatedly, and then said; “Dad, Shaoyu has invited a doctor for you, why don’t you let him take a look at you first?”

“Oh, that boy Shaoyu invited him.” Elder Zhang’s gaze fell on Ye Han’s body, just this instant, Ye Han felt a pressure descend on his body, Elder Zhang was worthy of being a patriarchal figure who crawled out from the pile of the dead on the battlefield, this aura alone was no weaker than some experts.

“Not bad junior, much better than that boy Shaoyu, that boy Shaoyu is like seeing a tiger every time he sees me, young man, what is your name?” Elder Zhang put down the family tree in his hand and looked at Ye Han with an admiring face as he asked.

“My kid’s name is Ye Han, old master, may I show you?” Ye Han said calmly, even when facing the once core figure of the country, he still had the air of a man who didn’t change his expression when his tarzan collapsed.

Fortune Chapter 338

Old man Zhang said; “Young man, did you study Chinese medicine or Western medicine? If it’s Western medicine, it’s not necessary, old man Bai has been treating me for so many years but he hasn’t seen any results, I believe in Chinese medicine more, back then Liu Buyi casually gave me two needles and prescribed some prescriptions and it was much better than these Western doctors.”

Hearing this, Ye Han said; “Old master, what I have learned is exactly the art of Chinese medicine, if you agree, I can help you look at it right now.”

Old Master Zhang looked at Ye Han with a bit of surprise and said; “There are very few young people who study Chinese medicine nowadays, everyone is partial to Western medicine, since you are a student of Chinese medicine, then I would like to trouble you to give me a look, it doesn’t matter if you can’t cure it, even Liu Buyi can only contain the disease, not eradicate it, I don’t even hold much hope myself.”

“Cheng, old master, please lie down first.”

Ye Han walked forward, Master Zhang cooperated by lying down and closing his eyes, then, Ye Han checked on Master Zhang’s head and then used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to see through, immediately he found a dark object was stuck in Master Zhang’s brain, and this dark object was in the brain stem area.

The brain stem is called the ‘life centre’ of the human body by anatomy, because there are nerves that control the heartbeat and breathing here, one mistake and the patient’s heart will stop immediately, so the brain stem is a forbidden area for surgery, even some national treasure surgeons are not absolutely sure about this area, the patient’s Survival rate of patients operating here is very low.

This is precisely the difficulty for those doctors who treated Master Zhang, if they accidentally operated on Master Zhang and had an accident, who could bear the responsibility, even a divine doctor like Liu Buyi was not sure about this area.

After examining him, Ye Han already had an idea in his mind that Elder Zhang’s current situation was actually the same as when Yan Lingjiao was shot in the heart, but it was also a bit different, this bullet inside Elder Zhang’s head had existed for decades and could be said to be completely united with the nerves in the brain, if he wanted to take the bullet out, he had to cut the nerves in the brain that were united on top of the bullet, so that the flesh and blood could be separated from the bullet.

“Uncle Zhang, I’m 80 percent sure about this situation of the old man, I wonder if you are willing to let me give it a try?” After the examination, Ye Han said this to Zhang Hongye. Eighty percent certainty was actually very high, at first Liu Buyi said he was only thirty percent certain.

At these words, Zhang Hongye’s heart was overjoyed, even Elder Zhang opened his eyes and looked at Ye Han with great surprise, in his case, could it really be eradicated?

“Ye Han, are these words true.” After the elation, Zhang Hongye asked in a calm manner.

“There are absolutely no false words.” Ye Han said; “But I need a helper, I see there are a few nurses outside, let one come in and help me.”

“Dad, what do you have in mind?” Zhang Hongye asked as he looked at Elder Zhang.

Elder Zhang laughed; “I’ve reached this point, I’m considered half in the ground, what ideas can I have, since I’m sure, let’s do it, young man, you don’t need to be nervous, just treat me as an ordinary patient, even if something happens, my Zhang family won’t look for you.”

Ye Han smiled and said confidently; “Old master, please rest assured, the patients I have treated have never had an accident.”

“Good, then let’s get started.” Elder Zhang laughed, then quietly lay down on the hospital bed, seeing this, Zhang Hongye hurriedly went out and greeted a nurse to come in and help, then retreated himself, waiting for the results.

“Dad, has the chill started already?” Seeing Zhang Hongye exit, Zhang Shaoyu hurriedly went over and asked, Zhang Honghu and the others also gathered around, if the old man was healthy and alive for a few years, their Zhang family could definitely still rise to a higher level, on the contrary, if the old man was gone, then the Zhang family might slowly fade away.

In a word, the old man is now the pillar of the family, and nothing can happen to him.

Zhang Hongye nodded and said; “It’s already started, now let’s wait for the results, is Nan Ye Han as rumoured outside? I think we can see the difference today.”

In the north there is Nalan, in the south there is Ye Han, I hope you won’t disappoint!

Zhang Hongye looked at the door of the inner room, thinking this in his mind, when Old Dean Bai walked over at this time and asked; “Hongye, what is the name of the kid you invited here? How dare you lay your hands on such a difficult problem.”

“Old Dean Bai, although you are an expert in Western medicine, but I think you should have heard of his name, Ye Han.” Zhang Shaoyu took the words over with a smile.

“Could it be the divine doctor Ye Han who defeated that old man, the Northwest Medical King, in the medical arts!” Old Dean Bai’s expression shook, the matter of the Northwest Medical King’s defeat at the hands of a young Chinese medicine scion in Shanhai City had been so widely rumoured some time ago that even their Western medical community knew about it.

Old Dean Bai still knew how powerful the Northwest Medical King’s medical skills were.

“Not bad, it was him, the day the Northwest Medical King lost to him, it just so happened that I was also a witness.” Zhang Shaoyu’s gaze looked at the inner room, his face rising a little in anticipation.

In the inner room, Ye Han would already be making the incision, of course, before that, he also used the golden needles to paralyze Elder Zhang’s nervous system, putting him into a deep sleep, cutting open the bullet’s injection port, Ye Han took the tweezers brought over by the nurse with rubber gloves, opened his Yin Yang Dharma Eye, and after penetrating the location of the bullet, he used his aura to cut off the nervous system that was bonded to the bullet inside, while forcing the bullet towards the He then used his aura to sever the nerve system bound to the bullet, while forcing the bullet out to the outside.

Of course, this process not only had to be done carefully, but also stealthily, so that the nurse next to him would not discover his secret.

After combining the nerve system on top of the bullet and separating the flesh and blood from the bullet, Ye Han continued to use his aura to let the damaged nerves slowly recover, this process was not short and took a full hour before Ye Han dared to take the next step.

Only after the bullet had already left the brain stem area did Ye Han use tweezers to penetrate deeper into it, and under the penetrating vision of the Yin Yang Dharma Eye, he found the exact location of the bullet and slowly withdrew it by clamping it with force.

With a clang, after the bullet landed on the plate, that nurse next to her had some difficulty believing it, then her gaze looked at Elder Zhang, the bullet was taken out, but was Elder Zhang unharmed or not?

After removing the bullet and stitching up the needle, Ye Han continued to use his aura to recover Master Zhang's wound, using his aura to recover was much stronger than Master Zhang helping himself to recovery, after doing all this, Ye Han wrapped gauze around Master Zhang's head and finally removed the gold needles that were inserted into his body.

No more than a few seconds passed, and then that nurse saw Master Zhang's eyelashes move and he opened his eyes miraculously.

Fortune Chapter 339

Inside the inner room, Ye Han walked out while wiping the blood on his hands.

Seeing this, Zhang Hongye's men hurriedly came forward and asked; "Ye Han, how is the old man doing?"

"Great work is done." Ye Han responded with a smile.

At these words, Zhang Hongye and the others were completely elated, when Old Dean Bai, who was beside him, heard this, he was the first to rush into the inner room, wanting to go and see if Old Master Zhang was really well, Zhang Hongye and the others followed suit, Old Master Zhang was well, this was a great joy!

Outside, it was just Ye Han and Hao Fei who were left.

Hao Fei gave a thumbs up to Ye Han and laughed; "Ye Han, Niu, how many miracle doctors couldn't cure the situation, let you solve it, now, you're going to be famous in Yanjing."

The fact that Master Zhang had recovered from his illness would definitely spread within Yanjing City, and it would be difficult for Ye Han's name not to be known by then, knowing that Master Zhang's illness was beyond the help of Liu Buyi.

In this regard, Ye Han's heart did not feel much joy, in this Yanjing city, wanting to keep a low profile, only afraid that it is impossible.

The fact that Old Master Zhang had recovered from his illness finally made the Zhang family put down a big stone inside their hearts. Under the kind invitation of Zhang Hongye and his family, Ye Han agreed to stay for a dinner. On that day, except for the third member of the Zhang family who was working in the provinces and was not present, Zhang Honghu's son and daughter, as well as the two daughters that Old Master Zhang had married, all came back with their husbands.

At the dinner table, the Zhang family thanked Ye Han one after another, with an appearance that they almost worshipped him as a god. Zhang Honghu, who was a soldier by nature, drank too much and directly pulled Ye Han to call him a brother, causing his wife, sons and daughters to blacken their faces.

All in all, the dinner was a happy one, and at the end, Zhang Hongye even implicitly said that if Ye Han was in trouble in Yanjing City, the Zhang family would definitely be his solid backing, after all, Ye Han was now a great benefactor of their Zhang family.

After dinner was over, Ye Han thanked Zhang Shaoyu for sending him back, and wandered on the road by himself, blowing the evening breeze and clearing his head, in this Yanjing city, he was afraid that it would be difficult for him to keep a low profile, nowadays, many people in this circle already knew his name, and his arrival in Yanjing would definitely not be concealed from some people with a heart.

Moreover, curing Elder Zhang today would only make his name even louder.

Thinking of this, Ye Han smiled bitterly and silently smoked a cigarette, having promised Situ Zhentian to keep a low profile, but now things were going in the opposite direction, becoming more and more high profile.

But things have come to this, Ye Han will not be afraid of anything, Nalan Mietian will have to meet sooner or later, since now can not do low-profile, then let it be high-profile and start.

After leaning on the side of the road and smoking a cigarette, Ye Han threw away his cigarette and stopped a taxi, got into it and headed towards where he lived.

At this time, in a car passing right next to Ye Han, a woman hurriedly pressed the window and looked towards that one taxi, but at this moment Ye Han had already gotten into the car and could only see a blurred back inside the car.

“Zihan, what’s wrong?” Next to Yan Zi Han, sat a gorgeous woman, why do you say she was gorgeous, it was because this woman was too beautiful, the pig-killing knife of age had not left any traces on her face, but made her look more flavorful, this kind of appearance, only Nangong Zi Yun and Bei Gong Xian Er could compare with her.

And she was the number one beauty in Yanjing twenty years ago, Yan Qingmu!

Speaking of Yan Qing Mu, there are still many admirers of her in Yanjing City, and some of them have never married for her, while others are willing to become monks for her.

There is a saying in Yanjing City that as long as Yan Qing Mu exists, there will be no one else in Yanjing.

The meaning of this saying is that as long as Yan Qing Mu exists, no one in Yanjing will dare to claim to be the number one beauty.

And, it was true, although Yan Qing Mu was famous in Yanjing twenty years ago, to this day, she was still the number one beauty in Yanjing City and no one could surpass her.

Yan Zihan shook her head and said; “Little Aunt, it’s nothing, maybe I misread it.”

That night in Shanghai City, Yan Zihan still remembered, but how could that little man appear in Yanjing City anymore, perhaps, she had some difficulty in forgetting about him and was hallucinating!

Yan Qing Mu said with a smile; “Zi Han, this is the first time I’ve seen you distracted, tell my sister-in-law, do you have someone in mind?”

“No.” Faced with Yan Qing Mu’s questioning gaze, Yan Zi Han replied with some evasiveness.

“Still saying no.” Yan Qing Mu shook her head and said; “Zi Han, you are not young, you are already twenty-eight years old and still haven’t married yourself off, the old man doesn’t know how many hairs have turned white because of you, there are many suitors for you in Yan Jing City, why can't you see them?"

"Auntie, I want to find a man who is a great hero like my aunt's husband, who will run through the world and have me invincible!" Yan Zihan's beautiful eyes said yearningly, the situation that she grew up with her aunt's deeds had led to Yan Zihan's strangely high standard of choosing a spouse, which was also the reason why she had been travelling around for the past few years, wanting to find the kind of man she had in mind.

Hearing Yan Zihan's words, Yan Qing Mu's face sank and said; "Don't mention that man to me, just him is still a hero, I think a dog and bear is more like it, none of the Ji family's men are good."

When Ye Han returned home, Lin Baimo and Tang Da Shao were already huffing and puffing, only Silly Ben was still standing stupidly in the courtyard waiting for Ye Han to return.

"You guy, why aren't you asleep yet?" Looking at Silly Ben, who was like a tower of iron, Ye Han asked speechlessly.

Silly Ben spared his head and said; "I'm waiting for you."

"Alright, I'm back now, so you can go to sleep."

"Good."

Looking at this single-minded fellow, Ye Han's dreary mood suddenly got a lot better.

The next day, after Ye Han and the others had breakfast, Hao Fei came over in his car, yesterday at Zhang's house Ye Han had already made an appointment with him, today we all went out for a trip to see the famous places inside this Yanjing city.

As the capital city of many dynasties, Yanjing City naturally has many cultural monuments left behind, such as the Forbidden City, the Summer Palace, the Great Wall and so on, all of which are cultural heritage.

Under the guidance of Hao Fei, on the first day, Ye Han visited the Forbidden City, the Summer Palace and other famous monuments. On the second day, the tour continued and the destination was the Great Wall.

The Great Wall, a massive military project built in ancient China at different times to defend against the invasion of nomadic tribal alliances in the north of the country, was built during the Spring and Autumn and Warring States period, and was first repaired by the King of Yan, with a history of over 2,000 years, and is one of the eight wonders of the world, famous both inside and outside.

Fortune Chapter 340

At the foot of the Great Wall, there were countless visitors, Chinese and foreign tourists who came here in admiration of the Great Wall basically appeared here every day. Ye Han, after they arrived here, looked at the majestic, spectacular wall, and they were quite shocked when they came here for the first time, and when they arrived on top of the Great Wall, looking at it, the winding and undulating wall was like a huge dragon lying across the sublime mountains, and the wall stretched for thousands of miles as the mountain peaks went.

“The Bada high slope is a hundred feet strong.”

“The track even the desert goes to the wilderness.”

Looking at this majestic scene, for a moment Lin Baimo became poetic and recited two lines of an ancient poem out.

Ye Han laughed; “Brother Lin, if you were to go back to ancient times, then you could definitely be a great poet of literature.”

“Being that literary scholar would be exempted, I don’t have that much emotion to express.” Lin Bo Mo laughed, then he looked at Tang Da Shao who looked panting and depressed and said; “I say Hai Bin, you should lose weight, you can’t stand it after just this little climb.”

Tang Da Shao’s two hundred pounds of physique really should be reduced, if he continues to be fat, I’m afraid Mo Shu should be disgusted with him.

“Shit, easy to say, you think I don’t want to lose ah, heck, I now drink a mouthful of water grow meat, can’t, can’t silly Ben, quickly, pull me a hand.”

Silly Ben grinned and directly lifted this guy with one hand, lifting him up as easily as carrying a chicken, looking at Ye Han they all burst out laughing, Hao Fei laughed; “Ye Han, this brother of yours is not simple, in terms of fist, he should be a bully level character, only stronger than those three young masters inside our Yanjing city.”

Silly Ben’s strength might still be a long way from the top experts, but looking at the underground world, he was indeed considered powerful, and this guy grew extremely fast, his strength came from within his body’s bones, constantly developing his own potential, someone with a talent like him, Ye Han had yet to see a second one.

Ye Han smiled and said; “He is indeed very powerful, by the way, Hao Fei, do you know where the Yan family is in Yanjing?”

“Yan family.” Hao Fei glanced at Ye Han and said; “Ye Han, what are you asking about the Yan family?”

“Just curious, I would like to pay a visit if I have the chance.” Ye Han said with a smile, it had been three days since he came to Yanjing City, in fact he quite wanted to meet Yan Lingjiao, but that woman’s phone number had changed and he couldn’t get through at all. And Ye Han didn’t know the exact location of the Yan family.

On hearing this, Hao Fei said; “Ye Han, since you are Shao Yu’s good brother, I’ll be straightforward, visiting the Yan family I don’t see the need for this because if you go to the Yan family, you’re bound to run into someone you can’t match. To be honest, if it wasn’t for the fact that you are Shaoyu’s good brother, I wouldn’t be so close to you, because I am a member of the Qun Ying Society, do you understand what I mean?”

Ye Han nodded, the Group Ying Society was a force formed by Nalan Mietian, which included many young handsome people from the north, and now, Ye Han and Nalan Mietian had vaguely become rivals, if he got too close to him as a member of the Group Ying Society, it was inevitable that he would cause people to criticise him.

“Is Nalan Mietian in the Yan family?” Ye Han asked.

Hao Fei nodded and said; “There may or may not be in, but no matter which case it is, it is not appropriate for you to appear in the Yan Family, the Yan Family and the Nalan Family have already aligned and have settled their marriage, if you appear in the Yan Family you will inevitably enter someone’s eyes directly.”

“Many thanks for the reminder.” It was rare enough for Hao Fei, as a member of the group, to be able to say these words to him, but inside this Yan Capital City because of the presence of Nalan Mietian, he had left Ye Han somewhat tied up, and he was holding a fire in his heart that he had nowhere to vent.

“Oh, Little Fei, you are so free today that you have come to climb this Great Wall, has Shao Yu’s matter been arranged?” As Ye Han was ascending a beacon platform, they heard someone speaking to them, Hao Fei looked up, his gaze changed slightly, then he laughed; “So it’s Young Han, I got free today so I brought a few friends to have some fun.”

Han Xiaotian smiled; “It’s been hard for you these past few days for Shao Yu’s wedding, right, these few friends of yours are?”

Han Xiaotian’s gaze fell on Ye Han and the others, these few people were all new faces.

Upon hearing this, Hao Fei’s expression changed slightly before saying; “These are all guests who have come to attend Shaoyu’s wedding, Young Han, since you have guests, then we won’t bother you.”

Beside Han Xiaotian were two other men and a woman, the two men Hao Fei knew, but Hao Fei didn’t want them to know Ye Han, once he let them know Ye Han’s name, he was only afraid that something bad would happen.

Seeing that Hao Fei had just come and was about to leave, Han Xiaotian was a little surprised, but the moment Ye Han and the others turned around, they only saw the youth standing beside Han Xiaotian sneer and say; “Ye Han, when you see me, shouldn’t you say hello before you leave?”

At those words, Hao Fei’s eyes stared, someone here actually knew Ye Han, this was not good!

Ye Han turned around to look at the youth who spoke and said; “Do I know you well? You’re not a big beauty, why should I greet you?”

Feng Bing sneered; “It doesn’t matter if you don’t know each other well, you will later, today I must get back that punch from last time.”

This youth was none other than one of the Prairie King’s thirteen righteous sons, Feng Bing.

“Old Eight, is he that Ye Han?” The middle-aged man standing beside Feng Bing’s gaze fell on Ye Han, a dangerous signal was released among his eyes, Han Xiaotian’s eyes were also narrowed as he looked at Hao Fei and said; “So it’s him, Little Fei, I can give you a chance to explain.”

Hearing these words, Hao Fei’s face was a little ugly, Han Xiaotian was one of the four vice presidents of the Group Ying Association, and even more so, he was one of the top three young experts in Yanjing City, within the Group Ying Association, apart from the president, Nalan Exterminating Heaven, Han Xiaotian was one of the four real power figures.

“Young Han, I can only tell you that they are guests invited by Shao Yu, this is my explanation, if you are not satisfied, you can go directly to Shao Yu.” Hao Fei said calmly.

“Okay, I won’t make things difficult for you, I will find Shaoyu to ask for clarification on this matter.” After Han Xiaotian finished speaking, he looked at Ye Han and said; “To be honest, your name only entered my ears yesterday, now everyone in my Qun Ying Association can want to meet you personally, Nan You Ye Han, is that really the case? Before you have a match with the president, I will come to meet you first, you won’t refuse, right? Southern Ye Han.”

“Is that necessary?” Ye Han said indifferently.

Han Xiaotian smiled faintly, then his eyes were as cold and stern as a sharp edge as he said; “Whether there is this need or not is not up to you, today you have to agree even if you don’t, if you look at Huaxia, there is no one in the young generation who can be equal to the president, Nan You Ye Han, these four words, you don’t deserve it!”
