Fortune Chapter 34

Ye Han opened the iron gate of the courtyard for Tang Haibin, the first time he saw Ye Han, Tang Haibin gave Ye Han a punch and said; "What have you been up to lately, I haven't seen you go out either, I'm dying of boredom."

Ye Han laughed; "The first few days were indeed busy, but it's over."

Tang Haibin took a glance at the villa opposite Ye Han, fiercely gave him a thumbs up and said; "You guy is enough of a bully, you even dare to mess with the iceberg police woman. But Hanzi let me tell you this woman is not that easy to take down, the slightest mistake will lead to fire, my old man specifically warned me not to mess with her, it's something that will lead to big trouble."

Ye Han said; "Alright, I have nothing to provoke her for, let's go, go in first, Brother Lin and the others will be here in a while."

It didn't take long for Lin Baimo to arrive, Ye Han introduced him to Ye Qing, and then the three big men talked together, at that moment, Lin Baimo handed a set of keys to Ye Han and said with a smile; "Hanzi, there's nothing to give you for your housewarming, I see you haven't bought a car yet, this car will be a congratulatory gift for you."

Seeing this, Ye Han smiled bitterly and said; "Brother Lin, why are you being so insensitive, I wouldn't dare to accept such an expensive congratulatory gift."

"I've driven the car over and parked it in your yard, go and try your hand at it sometime. By the way, tomorrow the senior disciple of the Northwest Medical King will arrive in Shanghai City, I will introduce you to him then, you are both national experts in Chinese medicine, you should have a lot to talk about." I think tomorrow will be a very lively day in Shanghai City, but in my opinion, the senior apprentice of the Northwest Medical King, this name is loud enough, whether he has the goods in his stomach is still to be seen. I've heard that this guy is so proud and arrogant that it's harder for people to meet him than the president of the country."

"All capable people are like that, let's go and meet him tomorrow, he is also a guest invited by my Lin family." Lin Baimo finished, and then looked at Tang Haibin and laughed; "Fatty, today is Hanzi's housewarming, my gift has already been given, don't you guy want to show it?"

"This I left in a hurry today and forgot to bring it with me, but I did bring the things that Hanzi needs most, nah, I've got the driving license you need for you, it just so happens that this guy Lao Lin gave you a car, so tomorrow we can both take it out for a drive." Tang Haibin smiled heatedly and placed a brand new driving licence in front of Ye Han.

"Thanks, fatty." Ye Han didn't say anything more and put the driving license away.

At this moment, a doorbell rang outside the villa, and Ye Han walked over to see that it was Zhou Mingshan and Zhou Yun'er who had arrived.

"Oh, Grandpa Zhou, Miss Zhou you are here, please come inside."

Zhou Mingshan smiled; “You can now be considered my half disciple, can I not come, well, this villa is not bad, here, this piece of jade will be my old man’s congratulatory gift.”

Ye Han hurriedly accepted it, then invited the two into the house, Ye Qing saw another guest coming and took the initiative to come over to greet them, Ye Han had to introduce them to each other again, finally Zhou Yun’er pulled Ye Qing into the kitchen, the two were talking and laughing, not at all like the kind they had just met, from this it could be seen that there was always a lot more to talk about between women and women than with men.

However, just after Zhou Mingshan and the others arrived, the doorbell rang outside the villa once again, Ye Han didn’t need to guess to know who was coming, and as expected, after Ye Han opened the door to the room, Zhao Hengtian, who was dressed in a Zhongshan suit, arrived with Zhao Youyou, who was also well-dressed.

“Brother Zhao, I’ve finally got you guys here, please come inside.” Ye Han said with a happy face.

“Haha, Hanzi, how can I not come today on your housewarming day.” Zhao Hengtian laughed out loud and walked inside the villa, since his leg injury was cured, he had regained his old Zhao Hengtian appearance, walking with an aura that people could not ignore.

When they saw Ye Han walking in with the two of them, Zhou Mingshan’s eyes fell on Zhao Hengtian’s two siblings, telling them that Zhao Hengtian was not an ordinary person, Zhao Hengtian’s eyes also fell on the three of them, suddenly he looked at Zhou Mingshan and smiled; “So Elder Zhou is also here, I haven’t seen him for a few years, but Elder Zhou is much older than before. ”

“We know each other?” Zhou Mingshan stood up and looked at Zhao Hengtian with a puzzled expression.

“Haha, time flies like an arrow, the sea has changed, like a white horse passing by, sinking for several years, it seems that Master Zhou has forgotten about Zhao.” Zhao Hengtian said rather emotionally, hearing this from Zhao Hengtian, Zhou Mingshan suddenly exclaimed; “Could it be that you are Mr. Zhao?”

Mr. Zhao, this was what people who knew Zhao Hengtian called him in the open, secretly people preferred to call him the God of Gambling, or the King of the Southwest.

Zhou Mingshan’s name Mr. Zhao also gave Lin Baimo and Tang Haibin a shock, back then Mr. Zhao was a real bull in the southwest region, his prestige shook the sky, no one knew him, no one knew him.

“Haha, so Master Zhou still remembers me, it’s an honour for me.” A few people sat down on the sofa, as for Zhao Youyou was very sensible to run to the kitchen, the topic between men women will always choose to give them some space to chat.

“So it really is Mr. Zhao, you have disappeared from China for several years, I could hardly recognise you, but when I saw you today, Mr. Zhao is more energetic and poised than ever, it seems that the rumours outside are not entirely believable.”

Zhao Hengtian laughed and said, “The rumours are true, but thanks to my brother’s wonderful hands, otherwise I would still be an invalid.”

After saying this, Zhao Hengtian took out a cloth wrapped item from his pocket and said to Ye Han; “Hanzi, I don’t have any heavy gifts to give, this dagger is incredibly sharp and indestructible, it is rumoured to have been forged by Ou Yezi, it is called Dragon Scale, so I will give it to you as a congratulatory gift.”

“Dragon Scale Dagger!” Zhou Mingshan suddenly exclaimed when he saw this, the Dragon Scale Dagger was a famous weapon handed down from China, exceptionally precious, and he never thought it would be in Zhao Hengtian’s hands.

“Brother Zhao, this is too valuable, I can’t accept it.” Ye Han shook his head repeatedly, although he also liked this dagger, the preciousness of this dagger was only more expensive than even this villa of his.

Zhao Hengtian said; “Hanzi, I can turn from a ruined person to a normal person thanks to you, so don’t push back, and this Dragon Scale Dagger can’t be of any use in my hands, if I give it to you it might be able to make it blossom into a million light.”

“This is fine.” Hearing Zhao Hengtian say this, Ye Han did not push back and accepted the Dragon Scale Dagger.

No long time had passed, the three women had already sat down a table of meals, the three women cooked at the same time and made something very rich, and after spending time together in the kitchen, the three women had already called out sister long sister short, that relationship was as good as bosom friends.

“Sister Ye Qing, your house is so big!”

“Oh, sister Yoyo, the house is so big it feels empty and lonely, you must come over to play from time to time when you have time. And you too, Sister Yoonee.”

“Sure, we’ll have to come over from time to time then.”

The three women talked and laughed, two or three hours passed, the dinner was over, the guests who came to Ye Han’s home had gone back, Ye Han also made an appointment with Lin Baimo to meet the senior apprentice of the Northwest Medical King tomorrow, sitting on the sofa in the living room, Ye Han took out the Dragon Scale Dagger, he liked this dagger, it was easy to carry, but also very sharp and indestructible, in the future, when he fought with other people, he also had a weapon that he could use.
