Fortune Chapter 35

The next morning Ye Han got up early, played a set of boxing in the courtyard, moved his shins and then took a shower, then took the keys to the car given to him by Lin Baimo and drove away. The car given to Ye Han by Lin Baimo was the Bao Ma x6, which looked stylish and comfortable inside and cost over one million dollars.

The Northwest Medical King senior apprentice will arrive in Shanghai City today, the Lin family arranged to receive him in a gorgeous villa, at this moment, in this villa has gathered in Shanghai City many powerful and noble figures, they are waiting for the arrival of the Northwest Medical King senior apprentice, originally, the Northwest Medical King senior apprentice is invited by the Lin family, there is nothing to do with these people, but due to the pressure from all sides, the Lin family can only allow these powerful and noble people in Shanghai City. The Lin family could only allow these powerful people in Shanghai City to participate.

As the saying goes, the richer and more powerful you are, the more afraid you are of death. These powerful people in Shanghai City all have some major or minor health problems, some of which cannot even be detected by the regular hospitals, so the arrival of the Northwest Medical King's senior apprentice made them excited to come and meet.

Ye Han drove to the entrance of the villa and found that there were already many expensive cars parked here, after making a phone call Tang Haibin popped out from inside, Ye Han walked out of the car and asked; "You guys are here quite early, where is big brother Lin?"

Tang Haibin shook his fat body and said; "Old Lin went to the airport to pick up the plane, he will be back in a while, you haven't eaten breakfast yet, go in first and eat something, you and Old Lin are not here I'm bored to death inside."

Tang Haibin dragged Ye Han into the villa, and when he went in, he found that there were quite a lot of people here, 20 to 30 people, old and young, men and women, all of them were waiting for the arrival of the senior disciple of the Northwest Medical King.

Suddenly, Ye Han felt a strange gaze fall on him, and when he looked along, he found that it was Bai Luofei, who was currently looking at Ye Han grimly, his fists clenched, with an old man and some young people by his side.

"This fellow Bai Luofei is also here?" Ye Han asked as he took a seat in one of the seats and looked at Tang Haibin.

Tang Haibin said disdainfully; "If his old man hadn't also come, just because he wanted to enter here, forget it, don't mention him, seeing him doggone old me makes me sick to my stomach, let's eat, filling our stomachs is most important."

There were fruits and snacks on the table, so Ye Han ate a little bit casually. Not long after, the villa door was opened, and then a man with a dignified appearance walked in with his head held high.

Behind this man, Lin Baimo was carrying a rosewood pillbox, and his calm eyes seemed to have some anger in them, but he hid his anger very well and did not show it.

Seeing the man's arrival, the group of powerful people from Shanghai City inside the villa moved and surged towards the man, as if he was a big international star, everyone was looking for his autograph photo, and being in the limelight like this, the man's eyes became even more arrogant.

"Mr. Shen, I am Li Shanhe from Fanglong Real Estate, welcome to our Shanghai City."

"Mr. Shen, I am Sun Gang, the understanding director of Tianyue Group, your arrival is an honour for our Shanghai City."

"Mr. Shen, I am Bai Jianye of Bai's Enterprise, I welcome you on behalf of Bai's Enterprise."

Around that Shen Tian Ao, a group of powerful nobles in Shanghai City spoke, putting themselves in a very low posture, seeing such a scene, Ye Han also marveled in his heart at the influence of this senior disciple of the Northwest Medical King, probably just one word from him and this group of powerful nobles in Shanghai City would do anything for him.

"Hmph, heck, what's the oxymoron? It's just that he knows a bit of medicine, and he wants Old Lin to carry things for him like a servant, I pooh, seeing that face of his makes me want to give him a kick." Seeing Lin Baimo carrying the medicine box and silently following behind Shen Tian Ao, the fire in Tang Haibin's heart instantly rose up.

"Calm down a little, the Lin family still needs him, can't you see that big brother Lin is holding back his anger." Ye Han said indifferently.

Tang Haibin was still upset in his heart, he coldly snorted and said; "If I had kicked this bastard out of Shanghai City a long time ago, why should he ride on top of us to shit and piss on someone who came from the northwest side?"

At that moment, I saw that Shen Tian Ao spoke up and said proudly; "I am grateful to all of you for being so generous when I first came to Shanghai City, I am very clear about your intentions, I will stay in Shanghai City for a period of time, but those who are familiar with me, Shen Tian Ao knows that the door of medicine is open, no one can enter without money, so I hope you will think carefully before looking for me next time. "

"What Mr. Shen said is true, the next time we meet, we will definitely prepare a generous gift."

"Mr. Shen is a great man, he will definitely surpass the King of Medicine in the future and become one of the few great national experts, which is a blessing for our China."

"Yes, if you look at the whole of China, I am afraid that there is no young master in the Chinese medicine field who can match you."

"But I heard that there is a young man here today who knows a little bit about medicine, and he is very arrogant in Shanghai City because he knows a little bit about medicine, but compared to you, he is the difference between a crow and a phoenix in all aspects. " The person who said this was Bai Jianye of Bai's enterprise, Bai Luofei's father, since Bai Luofei was beaten up severely by Ye Han at the last party, the Bai family already had Ye Han's information in their hands, and naturally knew that Ye Han knew some medical skills.

Hearing Bai Jianye's words, many people looked quite surprised, only Lin Baimo and Tang Haibin's eyes clouded over, Bai Jianye's words were clearly aimed at Ye Han, making him a target.

"Hmph, such a fanatic is naturally not comparable to Mr. Shen, relying on the fact that he knows some medical skills to be uncaring."

"Mr. Shen is a dragon and a phoenix among men, what does he count as?"

"In my opinion, he is just a person who cheats in the marketplace, let's not mention him."

As the saying goes, when the wall falls down, people push, and in order to please Shen Tian Ao, the powerful people in Shanghai City who came here did not mind squeezing a little person who was not well known, and the expression on Shen Tian Ao's face became even more arrogant when he heard these words of compliment. But when he heard their words, Tang Haibin was the first one who couldn't help himself and roared with anger on his face; "Damn your bullshit, my brother knows how to do medicine, so what? You old fucks don't know shit, you're talking nonsense, believe it or not, I'll kick your asses to death."

Young Master Tang's temper was very hot, he said whatever came to his mind, he didn't care who he was talking to, but hearing his words, someone couldn't help themselves; "Young Master Tang, that's a bit much, even your old man Tang Jianguo wouldn't dare to talk to us like that, I need you to apologise."

"Apologise? I'll be damned if I don't kick you in the balls." Tang Haibin gave full play to his rogue nature and cursed out, in terms of mouth and skin, this group of powerful people in Shanghai City were no match for him, one by one, they looked towards Lin Baimo; "Young Master Lin, as the host, don't you think that his words are too much? I think he should be thrown out."

"Right, people without quality don't deserve to meet with Mr. Shen, kick them out."

Hearing these words, Lin Baimo, who had been silent, spoke indifferently; "I feel that my brother's words are not excessive at all, if you don't want to listen, you can leave here, my Lin family did not invite you all here."
