Fortune Chapter 351

Ye Han, who had never knelt in front of anyone, knelt for the first time in front of a person, those knees hit the ground with a bang, a powerful force that caused the ground around him to dent.

In his heart, he harboured a terrifying rage, this kneeling today would be a great humiliation in the history of his life!

However, he had to swallow this humiliation now, and could not resist in any way, because his brother's life and death were still in that man's hands, and if he did not kneel, his brother would die.

If someone violated his scales, he would retaliate like a hungry wolf, but for the sake of these scales, he could also give up his pride and dignity.

Looking at the young man kneeling in front of Nalan Mietian, the hearts of the people inside the courtyard were shaken, Ye Han, he had really kneeled! Just now, when he faced Nalan Mietian, he would rather die than give up his pride, it was hard to imagine that he would kneel down and give up his dignity for a person.

In this era where self-interest is paramount, this kind of love, while moving and shocking, also can not help but be a little touched, some envy, in this life, can get such a friend, is not in vain in this world to walk a life!

“Ye Han”

Nangong Zixun covered her chest and sobbed uncontrollably, her delicate body trembled, her eyes could not bear to look at Ye Han at this moment, she knew that his heart must be very angry at this moment, but form is stronger than people, Nalan Mietian took hold of his vital point, and for this vital point, he lost his dignity.

Yan Zihan she was also in tears, heart-wrenching pain spreading inside her body, this man, perhaps not up to the level of the great heroes she imagined across the world, but he, however, was worthy of anyone's reliance, a man could give up his dignity for his brother, for his woman, he could definitely give up his life.

The Zhang family's people were collectively silent, they swallowed the anger in their hearts forcefully, today's shame, in the future, the Zhang family's descendants will definitely take down the Nalan family as their own mission, this shame, and only in this way can they wash away.

“This kid ah” Situ Zhentian sighed, did not know what to say, can only silently watch a scene, perhaps, after today, Ye Han will understand a truth, facing strong enemies, when necessary, dignity this thing is not so important, some time to lose dignity, perhaps you can get more.

“O brother”

At the bottom of Nalan Mietian's feet, Tang Da Shao howled, he was in his twenties, at this moment he was crying like a child, for his own sake, Ye Han had actually knelt down to Nalan Mietian, at this moment, he really hated himself, he hated himself for being useless and making his brother suffer humiliation for him.

Underneath Han Xiaotian's feet, Lin Baimo, who was lying on the ground, also had tears in his eyes. This kneeling of Ye Han was worth ten thousand gold to them, because it represented priceless brotherly love.

At this moment, both Foolish Ben and Xiao Jianli's fighting also stopped, they all looked at Ye Han who was kneeling in front of Nalan Mietian, Foolish Ben's face had a shocking anger and killing intent, coming outside this flowery world, he only knew Ye Han alone, and only Ye Han treated him the best, he treated Ye Han as a relative like his grandfather, but at this moment, his relative was being humiliated by a person like this.

With a bang, Foolish Ben's strong body also knelt down, but he did not kneel to Nalan Mietian, or to anyone, but only to look at each other and kneel with Ye Han. In his mind, a man with a single brain, he thought that if his loved ones were kneeling, he had to kneel too, and he had to bear the burden with them, so that he would not be left alone to receive the world's blank stares.

"Silly Ben, stand up." Ye Han's voice was cold; "You have to remember, in this life, apart from your relatives and brothers, you cannot kneel to anyone, because you are Huang Ben, a strong man who will cross the world in the future, I will not allow any stain on you, this shame today, it is enough for me to carry it alone!"

Foolish Ben was obedient, so, he stood up, but, his murderous eyes looked at Nalan Exterminating Heaven and said; "Your life, I don't want, but your Nalan family, will definitely be exterminated by my Huang Ben."

For the first time, Silly Ben's face was no longer as naive as it used to be, there was only an indescribable coldness, and he, for the first time, officially said his name in front of others, his name was Huang Ben, and in the future, the Nalan family would definitely be exterminated by him!

These words, which could not be overstated, were described as aspirations higher than the sky, but, looking at the big man's cold face, at this moment, no one wanted to laugh, his words were equivalent to an oath, from today onwards, the northern underground world remembered a name, Huang Ben, a stupid big man who vowed to destroy the Nalan family!

When Nalan Mietian heard these words, he smiled coldly; "Exterminate my Nalan family, you can't do it even if you are given a hundred years, but I will wait for you to put it into action, I will show the world how ridiculous your words are, today."

After saying that, he looked at Ye coldly and laughed; "Today, if I can make you kneel in front of me once, I can make you continue to kneel a second time, so I will give you a chance, next time, I will trample your dignity to the bone, now, get the hell out of Yanjing."

After saying that, he kicked Tang Da Shao over and smashed him directly onto Ye Han's body, but Ye Han caught Tang Da Shao's body steadily and stood up directly with his back, that look in his eyes was ancient and calm like a pool of stagnant water, as if at this moment, Ye Han swallowed all his humiliation and anger.

Foolish Ben also walked over and carried Lin Baimo on his back. The two of them had just received a blow from Nalan Mietian and were already seriously injured, so they had problems even walking.

Neither Ye Han nor Foolish Ben spoke, and under the watchful eyes of the crowd, they each carried one person on their backs towards the outside of the Zhang family compound. This trip, they were carrying not a person but a strange shame on their backs, and although their figures looked somewhat fallen, they were as upright as pines, not bending at all.

Situ Zhentian also followed behind with the people from the Security Bureau, the fact that Ye Han was alright was more important to him than anything else, with Ye Han's potential, it was inevitable that he would surpass Nalan Mietian in the future, such a formidable genius had never appeared within the state forces, so, in order to let bail him out, Situ Zhentian had talked the Military God into it.

"Nalan Mietian, the next time I enter the capital, the sky will not be shocked, the earth will not move, I, Ye Han, am a human being in vain"

At the gate of the courtyard, Ye Han's calm voice had a proud and overwhelming ambition, causing the people inside the courtyard to be incomparably moved, although the voice was calm, it was full of ambition.

Although this voice was calm, it was full of ambition. If the sky is not frightened and the earth is not moving, one is a human being in vain!

If this young man can withstand this disgrace today, perhaps when he enters the capital again in the future, it will really be the time when the heavens will be shocked and the earth will be shaken!

Fortune Chapter 352

"If the sky is not frightened and the earth is not moving, you are a man in vain."

Looking at Ye Han's back, Nalan Miantian laughed arrogantly, then he muttered to himself; "Ye Han, you dare to set foot in the north, I will make it difficult for you to even think about being a human being, ignorant, pathetic mole."

"Xiaotian, has it all been recorded?" Nalan Mietian looked at Han Xiaotian and asked.

Han Xiaotian smiled and raised the phone in his hand, inside, there was the video of Ye Han kneeling down to Nalan Mietian just now.

"Good, pass this video out to me, I want everyone in the North and South Underworld who has a face to know how South Ye Han kneeled to me, North Nalan, I want him to lose face in the North and South Underworld." After saying that, Nalan Mietian walked away, and so did the people from the group of heroes.

"Qing Mu, your heart is in turmoil, is it because of that young man just now?" Elder Yan looked at Yan Qing Mu who was standing beside him with a sad look on his face and asked this with a frown, Yan Qing Mu nodded and said with a sigh; "Dad, I don't know why, seeing him being bullied like that, it's hard for my heart, I"

"Do you feel that he is very much like a person, no matter the eyes, the look, the body type, they are all too similar to him back then!" Master Yan said this as if he was asking his daughter, but also as if he was asking himself, but after saying this he left, that young man just now, made him intensely interested, so he was going to find out everything about that young man.

Yan Qing Mu was a bit stunned, what did the old man mean by this? That young man, who did he look like?

Ye Han left, the four brothers, with anger, with endless humiliation left Yanjing, left the north, took a special plane back to Shanghai City, the humiliation they suffered in Yanjing, they remembered it in their hearts and never forgot it, but, one day, they would set foot in Yanjing again to get everything back.

The shame they had suffered in Yanjing would be doubly returned in the future.

After returning to Shanghai City, Ye Han went straight into his villa and did not see anyone, even if Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie wanted to report to him on the recent happenings in the underground world of Eastern China, Ye Han did not even see them. He chatted with his family and felt that rare affection, only the power of affection could repair the scars on his soul and purify his violent heart.

Ye Han tried his best to behave as usual, telling Ye Qing and the girls about the scenery inside Yanjing City, and said that he would definitely take them to Yanjing next time, to see the central city of the country.

He did not see anyone for two days, because he had to plan his future carefully, and he had to kill Nalan Mietian, the enemy who had brought him great shame.

Whether it was for the sake of a woman or for the sake of a man's dignity, he had to kill Nalan Mietian.

At first, Ye Han only wanted to step on Nalan Mietian, but now, he would kill Nalan Mietian.

"What, a little setback in the north has struck you down like this?" Ye Han appeared on top of the roof of the building, it was night time, and the scruffy old dao looked at the night sky, his back turned to Ye Han and said.

"Old man, you also underestimate me too much." Ye Han came to Old Dirt's side as he looked at the night sky and said; "I remember on the eve of going north, you said that I also had dark hair in my hall and that something would happen on this trip, old man, it seems that you really have the ability to tell fortunes."

The scruffy old Taoist didn't respond to this as he said; "Kid, what are you going to do next?"

"Next, take down the South." Ye Han's eyes were filled with Peng Bai's ambition and desire, Nalan Mietian had already established his prestige and a power in the north that no one dared to underestimate, so it was time for him to officially rise in the south as well.

The scruffy old dao nodded approvingly and said; "It's good that you haven't had your ambition worn down by the Nalan family's brat, but the southern forces are intricate, so if you need any help just say so."

"Old man, why are you helping me like this?" Ye Han looked at the scruffy old dao, this was a question that had been puzzling him in his heart, facing this inquiring gaze from Ye Han, the scruffy old dao shook his wine gourd and said a few words that left Ye Han speechless; "This is a heavenly opportunity that must not be revealed."

If the old man didn't say anything, Ye Han didn't bother to ask, as long as the old man didn't have any malice towards him.

However, what Ye Han did not know during his two days at home was that what had happened inside the Zhang family compound in Yanjing City had swept through the underground world in the north and south like a tornado, and the video of him kneeling to Nalan Miantian had spread throughout the Chinese underground world, even among the ancient martial arts sects.

With Nalan Miantian's ability, it was naturally not difficult to do this, and his move was to bring Ye Han's reputation into disrepute, what with South Ye Han being nothing in front of him, Nalan Miantian.

So, for a while, all the dignified figures in the North and South underground world basically accepted the video. At the moment, people in the East China underground world were on edge, and Ye Han's kneeling made those who had him as their backbone not know what to do.

The next day, Ye Han took the initiative to call Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie, asking them to come to the villa, he had not paid attention to anything for the past two days, and now it was time for him to start his deployment.

When they received Ye Han's call, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie rushed to the villa in a hurry, because they were also aware of what had happened to Ye Han in the north and were afraid that Ye Han would never recover from this, and more importantly, there were changes in the underground world of East China again, so Ye Han had to make a decision personally.

Arriving at the villa, seeing Ye Han sitting calmly inside the courtyard, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie both breathed a sigh of relief, fortunately, Ye Han was still the same Ye Han they knew, and did not appear to have that dishevelled look they had imagined.

"Elder Sun, Brother Zhou, have a seat." Ye Han greeted the two men and poured them tea, as Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie sat down, the first one who couldn't help but speak was Zhou Lie, who asked; "Hanzi, are you really alright?"

Ye Han smiled and said; "Brother Zhou, do I look like I'm not alright to you?"

At these words, Sun Buwei put his heart down and said; "Little Han, in life, everyone has to bow down at times, it is good that you are able to not be influenced by Nalan Miantian, right now there is a change in the underground world of East China once again, you must be the one to preside over the big picture."

"Elder Sun, tell us." After his return, Ye Han had not bothered to pay attention to anything, so he did not know what had happened in the Eastern China Underworld recently.

Sun Bu Dui said; "Right now, the Heavenly Dignity Society is making a comeback, their main forces have once again moved into Jiang Zhe, eyeing this resource of the East China Underworld, and on top of that, the Blood Hand Hall has re-established its stronghold in Jian Fu Province, Jiang Yu Tang had also swept through the territories of the other four leaders by himself since he killed the Lin Changshou leader last time, right now, the other four leaders are waiting for you to bring them back to kill and take back everything."

Fortune Chapter 353

"Where are the other four leaders now? Can Jiang Yu Tang make any new moves?" Ye Han asked.

Ye Han was not surprised by the move of the Heavenly Dignity Society, since word had spread about what had happened to him in the north, it was normal that the Black Widow would take advantage of this juncture to take the initiative, right now, Ye Han was more concerned about Jiang Yu Tang, the Blood Hand Hall could already be considered to have run out of breath, if Jiang Yu Tang broke the pot, then he would be even more terrifying than the Heavenly Dignity Society.

Sun Buwei said; "The other four leaders are following your wishes, right now I have all of them in Shanghai City, as for Jiang Yutang, he has nothing to do right now, he probably wants to watch us and the Heavenly Dignity Society kill each other, and he's fishing for profits behind the scenes."

"Not necessarily." Ye Han shook his head and said; "Jiang Yutang, the lord, is very conceited, so he will definitely make moves, keep a close eye on Blood Hand Hall for me, also, tell He Yaozong and the others that as long as I, Ye Han, am still alive, what belongs to them will definitely return to their hands, give me a week, I am going to make a trip to Tengchong, when I return from Tengchong, I will definitely officially dominate East China, no matter if it is the Blood Hand Hall or the Heavenly Dignity Society, they should not appear in my territory."

Ye Han's eyes flashed with cold light, now he was at the juncture where he wanted to vent his anger, since the Heavenly Dignity Society had stuck their necks out, then, let's kill them first.

Hearing Ye Han's words, Sun Buwei's and Zhou Lie's eyes were warily aglow, were they finally going to dominate East China! This day, they had been looking forward to it for a long time!

While Ye Han and Sun Bu Mian were discussing with them, a phone call came in, after Ye Han picked up the phone, a cold smile spread across his face as he said; "Old John, since they have made another move, it looks like we have to trouble you again, eat as much as you can, right now I am very hungry, my appetite is so big that I can swallow a cow."

Upon hearing this, Old John laughed inside the phone; "Ye, don't worry, with me around, these people can't make much of a splash in the stock market, since you have asked, then I will eat up all of these people involved, so you can have a full meal."

Ye Han said; "Old John, I'll trouble you, when I'm done with the matter at hand, I'll immediately proceed to treat you for the third time."

"No matter, this life of mine has been saved by you for now anyway." Old John laughed; "Ye, we are friends, your business is my business, just wait to hear my good news."

When Ye Han hung up the phone, Zhou Lie asked; "Hanzi, what's wrong?"

Ye Han said; "It seems that Murong Tiandu also wants to take advantage of this time to give me a stab, surprisingly he wants to attack me from inside the stock market, but he has made the wrong plan, last time he lost a Wen Chao Group, this time I will make him lose even more."

After saying this, Ye Han continued; "Elder Sun, how is the training of the hundred or so people going?"

Sun Buwei said; "With the strong support of your pills, right now that group of people has already had more than forty people break through to the Peiyuan realm, and among them, nine have broken through to the middle stage of Peiyuan. As for the others, they are also at the peak of the Qi Sense Realm, and it won't take long for them to break through to the Pei Yuan Realm as well."

“Good.” Ye Han nodded and said; “Elder Sun, hand these people over to Yin Yifei, and it’s time for the Tian Long Bodyguard Group to officially operate.”

From the time the Tian Long Group was established, Ye Han had been throwing money into it to expand the market first, but now, these people had almost grown, and it was time to line up for use.

Sun Buwei nodded and said; “When the time comes, I will make a statement analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of these people, with Miss Yin’s intelligence, she will know how to arrange this group of people most appropriately.”

These were matters that Ye Han would not bother with, since he had given the Tian Long Group to Yin Yifei to take care of, he would not interfere unless it was something beyond Yin Yifei’s ability.

However, with this batch of people put in, Ye Han only has 25 people in the forest on hand. Although these people can grow up to be able to take charge of their own, it is not a matter of having a general but no soldiers, so he must recruit people again.

But where to find such talents?

After thinking about it, Ye Han’s first thought was Situ Zhentian. With his ability, it should not be difficult to recruit a group of talents within the army, and finally, Ye Han dialed Situ Zhentian’s phone number.

“Kid, I heard you’ve been closed at home for the past few days, tell me, what do you want from me now?” Situ Zhentian’s voice rang out inside the phone, Ye Han said; “Situ, is the Zhang family alright?”

“Don’t worry, the Zhang family is still the same as before, no matter how bold Nalan Zhentian is, he wouldn’t dare to destroy them, although Master Zhang is bedridden, there is nothing serious wrong with him, you don’t need to worry.”

“That’s good.” Ye Han put his heart down, then he said with a straight face; “Situ, I want to ask you to do me a favour, help me recruit a group of talents inside the army, I want elites, I don’t know if you can help me?”

Upon hearing this, Situ Zhentian was silent for a moment and said; “Kid, I can help you, but you must remember that you are a member of the Security Bureau, and even more so, a member of the country, when there is a need, you must contribute.”

“Don’t worry, Situ, I won’t let you down.” After saying that, Ye Han hung up the phone, for Situ Zhentian, he did not treat him as a director, but as a relationship similar to a buddy, although the two were surprised at their age.

After arranging everything, Ye Han was ready to leave for Tengchong, but before he left, he had a good reunion with his family and loved ones, after this trip to Tengchong, he was only afraid that it would be difficult for him to have leisure days with them next.

“Ye Han, the company’s stocks were blocked again today, but who are the people helping us in the shadows? A dozen large companies in the south have joined forces against us, and surprisingly, they have struck a blow that they are powerless to fight back, at this rate, it will only take a few days for the company’s crisis to be lifted.” Inside Ye Han’s room, Zhou Yun’er said as she lay in Ye Han’s arms.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; “The person who is helping us is naturally a bullish figure inside the stock market, I will take you to meet him when we have the chance, with his help, there is no need to worry about things inside the stock market, you can go ahead and do it without worrying.”

“You guy, you’re still hiding something from me.” Zhou Yun’er gave Ye Han a flirtatious white glance.

Next, the two of them turned off the lights and went to bed.

Early the next morning, before Zhou Yun’er and the girls had even woken up, Ye Han took Silly Ben out, taking the earliest flight to Tengchong, this time to Tengchong, he wanted to make those people into the most powerful killing force in the underground world.

Fortune Chapter 354

Arriving at Tengchong once again, Ye Han did not inform Kunsang and ran to the forest alone with Silly Ben.

Three hours later, Ye Han and Silly Running had appeared at the entrance to the forest, and unsurprisingly, the little tiger appeared again, and it shot straight out of the forest and pounced into Ye Han’s arms.

“Little fellow, this time I’m here to take you home.” Ye Han stroked the little tiger fur, this little thing had recently grown fat again, it was all much heavier, with these words of Ye Han, the little tiger seemed to understand, it nodded and shook its head, but in the end it nodded, although it was at ease inside the forest, it always felt less fun, back home, although it would be bullied by a few women, it was a little livelier than here.

Ye Han smiled, and then carried the little tiger into the forest with Silly Ben in his arms.

Ye Han came again, causing Zhao Hengtian to be a little surprised, counting the time, Ye Han had only come here once half a month ago.

“Hanzi, could it be that something has happened outside?” Zhao Hengtian asked in confusion.

Ye Han calmly said; “Brother Zhao, gather all these people together and see how many late Peiping Yuan realm experts there are, I want to perform the reversal technique for them.”

At these words, Zhao Hengtian nodded in silence, from Ye Han’s body, he felt that something must have happened outside, he just didn’t know it inside the forest, then Zhao Hengtian gathered the twenty-five Heavenly Dragon Guards, compared to some time ago, the fierce aura on these people was heavier and thicker, they were gathered together as if they were like a dark cloud covering this sky overhead.

Ye Han was watching the Heavenly Dragon Guards, and the Heavenly Dragon Guards were also watching Ye Han. They were looking forward to seeing Ye Han again, because the last time Ye Han had said that the next time they would see each other again would be when they went out to conquer the Underworld.

Having trained for half a year inside this forest without sleep or death, they were now eager to go out and show their fangs and make their enemies shudder when they heard the name of their Heavenly Dragon Guards.

“Very well, twelve of you have already reached my expected goal.” Ye Han looked at the Heavenly Dragon Guards, he nodded in satisfaction, twenty-five people, except for the four people from last time, Ah Jun, Gao Hu, Fang Youliang and Qin Bing, eight more people had managed to reach the late stage of Peiyuan realm.

However, Ye Han could not afford to wait any longer, he had to perform the reversal method for these twelve people to help them break through the Ren and Du veins and become experts of the Small Ren and Du realm.

As for the remaining thirteen, he could only let them train for a period of time and wait until they had broken through to the late stage of Peiyuan.

Twelve Little Ren Du realm experts, entering the underground world of East China and stirring up the clouds, would be enough to shock any power in the southern underground world.

In the end, Ye Han selected these twelve people to enter the innermost part of the forest, that is, the canyon, where it was very quiet and it was perfect to use the reversal method to help them break through the second meridian.

When the rest of the thirteen saw that the twelve had such generous treatment, they were envious and at the same time, they trained even harder and more frantically, without any need for Zhao Hengtian to supervise them, because they were also eager to leave this place, eager to gain more powerful strength and eager to get Ye Han’s approval.

Silly Ben also joined in the training, the battle inside Yanjing City made him know that his strength was still far from enough to help Ye Han, so he also needed to be even stronger, and this forest was the best place for him to improve his strength, where he could unleash his power endlessly and frantically.

It was not something that could be done in a short period of time, and it was extremely energy and aura consuming. What was more important was whether these twelve people would compete or not, if they did, they would advance together, if not, they would have to stay inside the forest and continue their training.

The first target of Ye Han’s needle application was Ah Jun, a man whose bones were filled with the desire for revenge.

Seeing that the breakthrough Ah Jun was so powerful, the remaining eleven men’s hearts were filled with anticipation.

After Ah Jun came Gao Hu, who also took eight hours to perform the reversal method, and then Fang Youliang.

A day and a night had passed, and three Little Ren Du realm experts had been born in Ye Han’s hands, which was like a miracle.

However, in order for the three of them to make a successful breakthrough, Ye Han was almost exhausted and deflated, so he went directly inside the cave to cultivate and replenish the depleted spiritual energy, and so on, every time the spiritual energy in Ye Han’s body was depleted, he would enter the cave to replenish his spiritual energy and then continue to perform the reversal method for the next person.

After all twelve of them had broken through, it was already the fifth day that Ye Han had arrived in the forest. In the five days, Ye Han had been performing the reversal method without sleep, which had exhausted his mind and spirit to a critical point.

In the valley, as the twelve Heavenly Dragon Guards watched Ye Han drag his tired body into the cave, a touch of emotion could not help but pass through the eyes of these extremely fierce men, as Ye Han nurtured them so wholeheartedly, and made them vow in their hearts that in this life, they would follow Ye Han to the death and clear all obstacles for him.

Although Ye Han was very tired, he was very happy that he finally had a force on his hands that no one dared to underestimate.

After breaking through for these twelve people, it was Ye Han's own turn next.

In the battle with Nalan Mietian in Yanjing City, although Ye Han had lost badly, but his strength had been furthered by Nalan Mietian's blow, and the continuous casting of the reversal method for the past five days had made his progress even faster, as long as he attacked the Governor's Vein now, he could also become an expert of the Little Ren Du realm.

Therefore, Ye Han did not hesitate and sat down inside the cave, after recovering the depleted spiritual energy in his body, he began to mobilize his spiritual energy to impact his Governor's Vessel, impacting the Governor's Vessel was the same as impacting the Ren Vessel, there was no difference.

Inside the cave, under Ye Han's cultivation, a majestic stream of spiritual qi began to gather and all of it entered his body, helping him to impact his Governor's Vessel again and again.

At the moment of the breakthrough, a vast power swept out from within Ye Han's body, overwhelming and terrifying, a power that was already comparable to that of an expert at the middle stage of the Small Ren Du realm!

Fortune Chapter 355

There was no surprise on Ye Han's face when he successfully broke through to the Little Ren Du realm, because his current strength had already met the requirements for breaking through to the Governor's Vein, and it was only natural for him to successfully break through.

However, after the breakthrough, Ye Han's combat power was different from that of ordinary Little Ren Du realm experts, because he was cultivating spiritual qi, so his combat power was much stronger than those who had just entered the Little Ren Du realm, and when he exploded, it was enough to clash with experts of the middle Little Ren Du realm.

However, despite this, Ye Han knew that there was still a big gap between him and Nalan Mietian, even if he fought another battle with him now, he was still no match for Nalan Mietian, and he still had a long way to go to catch up.

Ye Han arrived outside the cave, at this moment, the twelve Heavenly Dragon Guards were standing outside the cave like twelve iron towers, their bodies emitted an aura that was incomparably frightening, a combination of terrifying fierce aura and super strength, only afraid that ordinary experts at the early stage of Little Ren Yu were no match for them, because, they were strong people who had come out from the endless bloodshed.

“Young Ye!” Seeing Ye Han come out, the twelve Heavenly Dragon Guards called out in unison, their voices incomparably respectful and worshipful, they were all blessed by this god-like youth to have such great power as they did now.

Ye Han nodded, then he looked at Ah Jun and the four of them and said indifferently; “Heavenly Dragon Generals, now I order the four of you to strike at me, no half-hearted reservation is allowed, let’s begin.”

At those words, Ah Jun and the others froze, but out of the clause of unconditional obedience, they agreed; “Yes, Young Ye!”

As their voices fell, the four Heavenly Dragon Generals swept towards Ye Han’s position as if they were four terrifying storms of destruction, although their moves were learned in various martial arts, after killing for most of the year, they had removed the tedious moves and what remained were the most direct and simple killing techniques, striving to deliver a fatal blow to their opponents with a single move.

Therefore, at this moment, the attacks of the four Heavenly Dragon Generals were incomparably terrifying.

But facing the four Heavenly Dragon Generals, Ye Han’s eyes remained unchanged, his fists likewise greeted him in the simplest, most brutal manner, splitting fist, drilling fist, collapsing fist, cannon fist, horizontal fist, the various fist techniques in the Five Elemental Fists were executed by Ye Han to the fullest extent, five of them, fists clashing with fists, crisscrossing the four fields, the bang-bang-bang sound was like the dull beating of a drum, and with the exchange of blows, the terrifying qi energy spread rampantly in the surrounding void .

As they watched Ye Han and the four Heavenly Dragon Generals exchange blows, the remaining eight Heavenly Dragon Guards’ eyes stared unblinkingly, although they worshipped Ye Han, they did not know how strong Ye Han was, as they had never seen him strike a blow.

At this moment, however, they saw that although the youth they regarded as a believer was young, his strength was extremely terrifying, and the four powerful Heavenly Dragon Generals in the Heavenly Dragon Guard could not even combine their hands to defeat him.

Boom boom clashes rang out continuously, clashes of flesh, the kind of battle that was sound and dripping, whether it was Ye Han or the four Heavenly Dragon Generals, they were all giving their all while their battle spirit was high, now, Ye Han was their enemy, when treating an enemy, one could not leave any room for error, this was what Zhao Hengtian had taught them.

In a matter of moments, Ye Han had already exchanged hundreds of strokes with the four Heavenly Dragon Generals, fighting one against four. While Ye Han sensed that the four Heavenly Dragon Generals were powerful, the four Heavenly Dragon Generals were also shocked at Ye Han’s strength.

The four Heavenly Dragon Generals were very powerful, single against single, they could even kill an expert who had just entered the realm of Little Ren Yu in seconds, if the four of them joined forces, then even an expert of the middle realm of Little Ren Yu would lose his life at their hands.

In the end, Ye Han could not defeat the four Heavenly Dragon Generals, and the four Heavenly Dragon Generals could not defeat Ye Han either, and the encounter thus ended.

Ye Han looked at the four Heavenly Dragon Generals and said; “Now, you have the strength to venture into the underground world, but don’t be arrogant because there are many more powerful people than you in the underground world, once you are lightly defeated, you may lose your lives. The beasts in the forest are clueless, but the people outside are a hundred times more cunning than these beasts, you are the sharp swords in my hands, I don’t want to see things like dying before I can get there, I hope that in the future when I stand on high ground, you will still be around.”

At these words, the eyes of the Heavenly Dragon Guards emanated a blazing flame as they roared in unison; “The Heavenly Dragon Guards will remember the teachings of Young Master Ye.”

Ye Han nodded and said; “Go, go to Jiangzhe, find the stronghold of the Heavenly Dragon Guild, wait for my news, no one is allowed to move until you hear from me, Ah Jun, you are familiar with Jiangzhe, when you arrive there, you know what to do.”

“Yes, Young Ye.” Ah Jun nodded heavily, Jiangzhe, he, Ah Jun, was back once again, but this time when he returned, he would make the underground world of East China tremble and make everyone tremble when they heard the name of Tian Long Wei.

The four Heavenly Dragon Generals left the forest with eight Heavenly Dragon Guards, with their strength at the moment, this trip, one could imagine how much storm clouds would be stirred up in the underground world of Eastern China.

Watching the twelve men leave the place, Zhao Hengtian said; “Hanzi, it seems like it’s time for you to prepare for a big move, unfortunately, I can’t go out yet.”

Ye Han said; “Brother Zhao, it’s soon, after all thirteen of these remaining people inside the forest have advanced to the late stage of Peiyuan, it will be the time for you, Zhao Hengtian, to reappear in the world, when that time comes, we brothers will take down the Southern Underworld together.”

“I look forward to that day coming soon.” Zhao Hengtian’s eyes shone with a strong ambition.

The matter of coming to Tengchong was over and Ye Han left the forest, but this time when he went back, apart from Silly Ben, Little Tiger was also taken away by Ye Han. In the past, this little thing was sent to the forest so that those who trained inside the forest would have fewer casualties, and fortunately, this little thing did a good job, and none of the people who entered the forest for training had casualties.

Now, after the cruel life and death training, these people were already capable of defending themselves in the forest, so there was no point for the little tiger to stay.

After leaving the forest, Ye Han did not stay in Tengchong, the Heavenly Dragon Guards came out and had already gone ahead of him to the Jiangzhe Underworld, he could not be too slow, the Heavenly Dignity Society dared to extend their hands to the East China Underworld again, this time, Ye Han would make them hurt until they had no tears to cry.

Moreover, apart from that, there should not be any other forces existing in the East China Underworld, and on the side of the Blood Hand Hall, it was time to settle them as well, keeping this lingering wolf around all the time would lead to changes sooner or later.

“Wow, little tiger, sister missed you so much, you’re finally back!”

When Ye Han returned home from Tengchong and he appeared with the little tiger, inside the villa, several women were overjoyed, Little Qingcheng had gone ahead and snatched the little tiger from Ye Han’s hand very roughly, hugging it in her arms and refusing to let go, that look was like she had found her long lost toy.

“Brother, this little thing has grown fat, I can barely hold it anymore.” Little Qingcheng rubbed the little tiger’s head with one hand and rubbed its belly with the other, as if she wanted to find out what good things the little thing had eaten that had made it grow so fat.

Hearing this, Ye Han laughed; “Come on, this little guy has just come back and you are bullying it, in case it runs away, I am not responsible for helping you find it.”

Hearing this, Little Qingcheng spat out her fragrant tongue, made a face at Ye Han, hugged the little tiger and went to play inside the courtyard.

Seeing Little Qingcheng leave, Ye Han said; “Sister, tomorrow I am going to Jiangzhe for a few days, I may not be able to return for a while, so you should not go to the medical school during this period of time, with Little Tiger accompanying you, it won’t be too boring.”

This trip to Jiangzhe, Ye Han was going to play a big game, if someone doggedly wanted to move his backyard, it would also be a troublesome thing, although there was a scruffy old dao guarding the place, but being careful was a good thing.

Knowing that Ye Han was busy, Ye Qing didn’t say anything, just nodded and said; “Little Han, be safe outside, sister will be waiting for you inside the house.”

Just as Ye Han was preparing to leave for Jiangsu and Zhejiang, the stock market was also in full swing, attracting the attention of many people in the southern business community, because this time a dozen listed companies joined forces to block a listed company, but the battle was a shocker, a mysterious force came from nowhere, with its powerful capital to forcefully sweep these dozen listed companies, from the first day of this stock market battle, there were two The stocks of the listed companies plummeted, with retail investors from all over the world selling off, while this mysterious force took advantage of this opportunity to buy up as many as they could.

In just one day, these two companies declared bankruptcy, and in the following days, several companies continued to be unable to withstand this stock market shock and fell into economic crisis.

By today, seven of the more than ten listed companies that were blocking Zhou Yun’er’s company had already declared bankruptcy, and the remaining companies were trapped in the stock market, making it difficult for them to pull out, making them like ants on a hot pot.

“President, we can’t hold on any longer, there are already many members inside the alliance who are unhappy with our decisions.” On the top floor of a high-rise building, Murong Tiandu sat on a large sofa chair with a cold face, at the moment, on the desk in front of him was a laptop computer with a graph of the stock market displayed on it.

In this office, apart from Murong Tiandu, there are also several successful businessmen with extraordinary bearing, they are all directors of the Southern Business Alliance, at this moment, they are all looking at Murong Tiandu with a worried face, the dozen listed companies are naturally under their operation to block Zhou Yun'er's company.

Last time, the two companies went out, although it ended in failure, and also lost a Wen Chao Group, but this time, they sent out more than a dozen listed companies, however, this ending still did not change, now, the bosses of those bankrupt companies are already in trouble below, other members are also in fear, want to quit the Southern Business Alliance, the reason why they follow Murong Tiandu, that is to make money, not under his command. The reason they followed Murong Tiandu was to make money, not to go bankrupt under his command.

"Have you found out where the people who helped that company inside the stock market came from?" Murong Tiandu asked with a cold face.

Several directors shook their heads, the force that appeared inside the stock market was so terrifying that a dozen listed companies combined together could not even fight them and suffered losses one after another, yet they had not even touched each other's shadows.

The chairman of Ng's International said; "I've asked the technicians below to check, this mysterious force is using some domestic shell company as a springboard to enter the stock market, their real location cannot be found out at all, behind this force, there must be a powerful hacker team supporting it, Chairman, we can't hold on any longer, sell off."

At these words, a look of exhaustion flashed across Murong Tiandu's face, this battle of the stock market over the past few days had made him feel like his heart was on the verge of exhaustion.

"Sell off!" Murong Tiandu waved his hand feebly, then several directors left the office, looking at the car-like scene below the high-rise building, a terrible coldness flashed across Murong Tiandu's slightly tired face; "Ye Han ah! Ye Han! It seems that I still underestimated you, behind you, there is still such a powerful financial team helping you, but it doesn't matter, the competition between us is not over yet, since the northern Nalan Miantian can step on you and make you lose face in China, I, Murong Tiandu, can naturally do the same, right now in this battlefield of Jiangsu and Zhejiang, let us have a good competition to see who is qualified to be the first in this south."

The next day, Ye Han took Foolish Ben, Sun Bumiputra and Zhou Lie to Jiangzhe, all the forces he had on hand were deployed, this time, he vowed to take down the underground world of East China, in which, there could not be the Blood Hand Hall, let alone the existence of the Heavenly Dignity Society, it was enough to have him, Ye Han.

As for He Yaozong and the others, they had already rushed to Jiangsu and Zhejiang first, since Jiang Yu Tang had swept through their territory last time, they had been cowering in Shanghai City, keeping their core forces hidden to avoid being poisoned, this time when they went back, the first thing they had to do was to gather their hidden men and keep a firm eye on the Heavenly Respect Society and Blood Hand Hall, because Ye Han had already told them that this time when they went back, the East China Underworld could only be surnamed Ye.

Right now, this part of Eastern China has actually become the focus of many people's attention, such as Murong Tiandu, Jiang Yutang, Chen Family Chen Taigong and other people who have prestige in the south, they have all set their eyes on Eastern China, as for the reason, it is also because the humiliation that Ye Han received in the north has now become a matter of public knowledge in the underground world of China.

So, many people are watching Ye Han and his next move. Will this young man never recover under the oppression of Nalan Mietian? Or would he rise strongly?

However, since the Heavenly Dignity Society showed up in East China, Ye Han had not made any moves for a week straight, which made those who had their eyes on East China a little disappointed, perhaps that youth had already been ruined.

However, today, those who had their eyes on East China suddenly discovered that Ye Han had appeared.

The news of Ye Han's appearance at the Hangzhou Tianlong Club, a newly established club less than a month old, instantly drew the attention of many people after the news spread.

In a flash, the underground world of East China became the focus of attention from all sides, everyone had their eyes firmly fixed on Ye Han, even the Heavenly Dragon Club, this youth who had just been trampled on by Nalan Miantian, what would he do next?

Fortune Chapter 357

"Hanzi"

Inside the Hangcheng Tianlong Club, Xu Qing and the four young men of Hangcheng were all there, although Xiao Yunyan had joined the Tianlong Club, but she only appeared once a week, and she was still managing the finances, the flow of money in the Tianlong Club was all operated by her, Xu Qing and the others now had to reach out to her for money.

Looking at Ye Han who was standing in front of the window without saying a word, Xu Qing's face wanted to say something.

Ye Han turned his back on him and said; "Xu Qing, just say what you have to say, we are friends, there is no need to hide it, besides, I don't like that."

Xu Qing nodded and said with a straight face; "Hanzi, we already know what happened to you in the north, I, Xu Qing, just want to tell you that you can throw away your dignity and kneel down to people for the sake of your brothers, I, Xu Qing, will not look down on you, even though everyone is waiting to see your joke right now, but you still have me, Xu Qing, and this group of good brothers in Hangcheng behind you to support you. So, you must not fall down, I, Xu Qing, already consider you as my best friend, I don't want to see my friend fall down."

"Yes, Young Ye, you still have brothers like us behind you, we stand by you." Wu Yu, Hong Sen and Zhang Xu also looked at Ye Han's back and said firmly.

Hearing these words, Ye Han smiled as he said; "Don't worry guys, I will not fall until I kill Nalan Mietian in this life, since you guys treat me as a true friend, then I, Ye Han, will treat you guys as true brothers, how I treat my brothers, everyone in the world knows how I treat my brothers, for the sake of my brothers, even if I lose face in front of the world, what's the harm?"

Hearing these words, while Xu Qing and the others breathed a sigh of relief, a touching and fervent blood flowed through their hearts, from today onwards, they vowed to be Ye Han's good brothers for the rest of their lives, there was no shame in being his brothers, for he was a man who could kneel down for the sake of his brothers, who wouldn't want to have such a brother?

"Hanzi, what are we going to do next? The Heavenly Dignity Society has once again reached out to the East China Underworld." Xu Qing asked.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han said; "Since they have come again, then they will not want to go back, don't worry, I already have an arrangement in mind, right, how is the development of the Heavenly Dragon Club?"

Xu Qing said; "Although the Heavenly Dragon Club has only been established for less than a month, but we have already unblocked the network on this side of Jiangsu and Zhejiang Province, moreover, the rich and powerful in Jiangsu and Zhejiang have already become members of our Heavenly Dragon Club under our operation."

"That's good." Ye Han nodded and said; "After I officially take over the East China Underworld, you guys continue to expand, if the funds are not enough, I can provide them, yes, in terms of needing talents, you can ask Xiao Yunyan to recruit a group of people inside Jiangsu and Zhejiang University to help you out, Jiangsu and Zhejiang University, there should be no shortage of elites."

At these words, Xu Qing's eyes lit up, this was indeed a good method, after the clubhouse started, he felt that he was too busy to do it alone, although there was still Wu Yu and the others helping out on the side, but it was still not enough, according to the current momentum development, the management side still needed to recruit a large number of people, to make a reserve of talents for the future Tian Long Clubhouse.

This method was in fact the result of Ye Han's experience in recruiting people at Fudan University, and he was now passing it on to Xu Qing.

After arriving in Hangzhou, Ye Han did not make any moves for the time being, as He Yaozong and his men had gathered their men to cast their nets in the underground world of East China, so he had to give them some time.

In this quiet wait, Murong Tian appeared in Jiangzhe, his appearance also attracted the attention of many people, now Murong Tian appeared in Jiangzhe, everyone knows what he wants, the last battle at West Lake, Murong Tian was defeated by Ye Han, this revenge, he will not fail to revenge.

Moreover, now is the right time for him to take revenge, as the Heavenly Dignity Association is coming back with strong soldiers, and the Blood Hand Hall is secretly eyeing him, together with him, Ye Han's situation is now in danger.

After knowing that Murong Tiandu had appeared in Jiangzhe, Ye Han smiled; "Keep checking, Murong Tiandu can't help but all appear, this old fox Jiang Yu Tang will definitely not let go of such a good opportunity, for me and the Heavenly Dignity Society, as long as any of them are solved, it will be a profit for him."

He Yaozong nodded and said; "Mr. Ye, Murong Tiandu's whereabouts are already under our control, he brought few people with him to Jiang Zhe this time, only one person followed, the assassin mythical war knife, I just don't know if there are any more of his people in the shadows?"

Ye Han said; "As long as we control their whereabouts, you guys don't need to worry about the rest, since Murong Tiandu is here, it's time for me to meet him, this pool of water in Jiangsu and Zhejiang, he can meddle if he wants to, but, he better be able to bear that kind of price."

Murong Tiandu had come to Jiangzhe, and the place he was staying was a large hotel, so Ye Han appeared here.

On the third floor of the hotel, this was the place for dining, but there was no one else on this floor right now, only Ye Han and Murong Tiandu, and the experts they each brought with them, the Battle Sword stood steadily behind Murong Tiandu, not saying a word, and behind Ye Han stood the three great experts, Silly Ben, Sun Buwei, and Zhou Lie.

Looking at the situation at hand, Ye Han had the advantage, but Murong Tiandu's face was not a bit fearful, or rather emboldened.

Ye Han's gaze was directed towards the sky outside, his face had an ancient expression, and under such a quiet atmosphere, Murong Tiandu could not help but speak up, he sneered; "To be honest, I have to admire you, you are in a situation where you are in trouble on all sides, but you still have the leisure to come here to watch the scenery with me. have you been scared silly under the blow from Nalan Mietian?"

Ye Han withdrew his gaze as he looked at Murong Tiandu and said indifferently; "Take a look at the scenery here more often, you might find it hard to see it in the future."

At these words, Murong Tiandu let out a wild laugh, then he said with a sneer; "It seems that you have indeed been scared silly by Nalan Miantian, even your words are confused, could it be that you think that you can still kill me here, big joke, if you were not sure, do you think that I, Murong Tiandu, would appear in Jiangzhe?"

"Oh, in that case, you have other preparations?" Ye Han smiled lightly and said.

Murong Tiandu's face was very cold and icy as he said; "Since you came to me yourself, then, I will completely settle you here today, I will show the world that if Nalan Mietian can step on you, I, Murong Tiandu, can kill you, Death Squad, appear!"

Fortune Chapter 358

The Death Squad is another powerful force in the Murong family, apart from the Murong Guards, and generally speaking, they do not appear easily.

Back then, the Death Squad had made a name for itself in the southern underground world, killing an unknown number of experts and leaving their enemies in fear, thus achieving the Murong family's position as the martial arts allies.

Ye Han looked at the eight men with fierce eyes that appeared on this floor, these were dressed in black night clothes, their eyes were as cold as ice, and the muscles on their faces were very stiff, as if their faces could not even smile except for this expression.

However, this group of men was indeed powerful, among them there was also an expert of the realm of Little Ren Du, the other seven were also at the realm of having opened up the Ren Veins, these seven men combined together were definitely equivalent to a Little Ren Du expert.

In this way, Murong Tiandu's side would have two Little Ren Du realm experts, plus War Dagger, a powerful killer myth.

In order to deal with Ye Han, Murong Tiandu had indeed made sufficient preparations, he had already counted what experts Ye Han had around him, and even if Zhao Hengtian was added today, he was still sure to finish Ye Han off.

So, this was the reason why he was emboldened, Ye Han had come to his door on his own, which was just what he wanted.

The appearance of the Death Squad caused the aura of this floor to change completely, filled with a terrifying killing intent and fury, Silly Ben and the three of them were also suffused with fury, ready to strike at any moment, and the War Daggers, who did not say a word, had their eyes on Silly Ben and the three of them at this moment.

The killing scene was on the verge of being triggered.

In this situation, Ye Han laughed, laughed so much that Murong Tian didn't know what to do, laughed so much that his heart was very angry, Ye Han, this was nakedly defying him.

"Ye Han, laugh, laugh as much as you want, after today, you will never be able to laugh again." Murong Tiandu's face was covered in gloomy clouds, his eyes were cold, then he slowly retreated, personally dealing with Ye Han, he naturally wouldn't do it, because he knew that he was not a match for Ye Han at all.

As Murong Tiandu retreated, the Death Squad stepped forward in unison and stood with the War Daggers, their gazes coldly staring Ye Han and the others down with murderous intent, Ye Han slowly stood up as he looked at the War Daggers and said; "War Daggers, how certain do you think you are that you can keep me today?"

At those words, War Dagger's gaze tightly watched Ye Han, although this young man in front of him had been stepped on by the Northern Nalan Mietian and had become the laughing stock of the North and South Underworld, however he never underestimated Ye Han, this young man's potential was limitless.

Warblade was silent, he did not reply to Ye Han's words, however the battle intent and killing intent on his body was getting thicker and thicker.

"It seems that you are not completely sure of yourself either." Ye Han smiled lightly, and then his eyes turned cold; "Since you all want to take advantage of me being laughed at by the world to step on me, then today you, Murong Tiandu, are the first person I will kill after coming to Jiangzhe."

"Kill!"

As soon as the word kill was uttered, Foolish Ben, Sun Bumo and Zhou Lie all made their moves, all three of them attacked at the same time towards War Dagger, this killer myth was very powerful, none of the three of them were completely sure that they could keep War Dagger, as for the Death Squad, they naturally left it to Ye Han, with Ye Han's strength, he might not be unable to deal with the Death Squad.

The War Daggers and Silly Ben exchanged blows, the Death Squad's gaze was coldly watching Ye Han, in an instant, a pair of terrifying fists suddenly blasted towards Ye Han, the sky was filled with fist shadows that enveloped Ye Han, that kind of attack was like a thousand hands like a Buddha, as dense as rain, terrifying and horrifying.

This man who dared to call out to the young master of the Murong family, they vowed to kill him.

The moment the Death Squad attacked, Ye Han also struck out, the Dragon Scale Dagger turned into a cold light sweeping across the four directions, the blade qi was crisscrossing, the terrifying sharp power burst out in an instant, then, only to see several Death Squads that had already approached Ye Han were instantly killed, they could not even withstand Ye Han's slash.

Seeing this, the expert of the eight Death Squad who belonged to the Realm of the Lesser Renge let out a low roar, and the explosive power belonging to the Realm of the Lesser Renge was violently released, and his fist with a thick, mountain-like breath had already come into contact with Ye Han's body.

Boom!

Ye Han's body took the punch hard, but his body only took two steps back, then, he once again shot out his sword and blasted towards the Little Governor's Realm expert, and the Death Squad members around him were unable to block the sharp short blade in his hand, and their broken hands and blood spilled all over the ground.

When he saw this, a look of horror flashed across Murong Tiandu's face. Eight Death Squad members, including a Little Governor expert, were equivalent to two Little Governor experts, but they were unable to pose any danger to Ye Han, and were instead killed one by one.

"Realm of Little Ren Du!" Murong Tiandu's face was appalled, Ye Han, he had definitely opened the Governor's Vein and become an expert of the Realm of Little Ren Du, thinking of this, while Murong Tiandu was angry and jealous, his heart was emboldened, he had calculated a thousand things, but he had not calculated that Ye Han had opened the Governor's Vein, and his combat power was so terrifying that the eight Death Squad could not even stop him.

"Die!"

A terrifying blade light suddenly spilled down, the vertical blade qi was like a laser sword reaping the lives of the Death Squad to its heart's content, right now, except for that Little Ren Yu realm expert who could still continue to fight Ye Han, the rest of the seven Death Squad members had already returned to the embrace of the God of Death.

But without the assistance of the other seven Death Squad members, the remaining Little Governor expert was naturally even more unable to stop Ye Han, and it took less than a minute for the two to exchange blows before this man also died under Ye Han's blade.

It came suddenly, and it died suddenly too!

The Death Squad was indeed very powerful, and the only force that had such a powerful squad in the underground world was the Murong Family, the Southern Martial Alliance, but compared to Ye Han's Heavenly Dragon Guards, the Death Squad was still far behind.

Looking at the corpses that had fallen to the ground, and then coming into contact with Ye Han's gaze, at this moment, Murong Tiandu had the feeling of being targeted by the God of Death, causing his whole body to stiffen up, in Ye Han's hands, he had once again failed miserably!

"Murong Tiandu, what else do you have to fall back on now?" Ye Han approached Murong Tiandu step by step, his eyes were filled with killing intent, even after destroying the Death Squad, the anger he held in his heart was still not completely released, coming to Jiangzhe, he wanted to release something painful, killing was the best way to release it.

If Murong Tian even dared to put his hand out in his anger, he dared to cut off his head.

Fortune Chapter 359

"Ye Han, you have opened up the Governor's Vein?" Murong Tiandu asked with a very ugly look in his eyes.

"It seems that you are not stupid." Ye coldly laughed as he continued to approach Murong Tiandu with the Dragon Scale Dagger in his hand, a terrifying killing intent had enveloped Murong Tiandu, hearing this answer from Ye Han, despite having guessed this Murong Tiandu's heart still could not stop being shocked.

A miracle genius! What is a marvelous genius?

At the age of twenty-eight, Nalan Mietian had broken through the Governor's Vein and was called a rare talent in the martial world for a hundred years. At less than twenty years old, he had already broken through the Governor's Vein, so if Nalan Mietian was a genius, then what was Ye Han?

A demon, a monster?

At this moment, Murong Tiandu's heart felt a sense of powerlessness and frustration. In the south, he had healed himself to be the most powerful genius, and in the whole of China, the arrogant and conceited man also thought that not many people could match him.

Now, Murong Tiandu somewhat regretted coming to Jiangzhe, of course, it was not that he was afraid of Ye Han, but after knowing Ye Han's strength, the fighting spirit within him was almost worn out.

"Murong Tiandu, suffer death!"

Suddenly, only Ye Han was seen killing Murong Tiandu with his sword, that terrifying sword aura spilling down, the powerful sword qi causing the tables and chairs to split in pieces, this stream of sword light forced straight towards Murong Tiandu's position.

"Ye Han, you can't defeat me." Looking at the terrifying blade light that was slashing towards him, Murong Tiandu roared furiously, and the powerful force within his body rushed out wildly, like an invisible sharp sword, striking out bravely.

Boom!

However, how could Murong Tiandu be Ye Han's opponent? His body was directly sent flying by this slash and hit the wall hard, falling down, spitting out blood from his mouth, his expression was depressed.

Compared to Nalan Mietian, Murong Tiandu was far worse.

"Ye Han, stop!"

Suddenly, just as Ye Han was about to make his move again, the figure of the War Dagger appeared in front of Ye Han, like an unbreakable wall, directly blocking him, Silly Ben, Sun Buwei and Zhou Lie also immediately swept over, their gazes coldly looking at the War Dagger, the three of them fought with the War Dagger and were completely unable to take him, the War Dagger's strength was only comparable to a lordly figure like Jiang Yutang.

Ye cold eyes looked at the War Dagger and said; "War Dagger, you want to challenge the four of us?"

War Dagger's eyes were calm as he looked at Ye Han and said; "Challenging the four of you, even if I don't have a good chance of winning, I can still kill one of you, Ye Han, stop here and let me take Young Master Tiandu away, it won't do anyone any good to continue, not to mention, you have already wiped out the Death Squad, your talent is fantastically high and you have already opened up the Governor's Vein, you shouldn't take this risk here."

At those words, Ye Han became silent, the strength of the Warblade was indeed terrifying, if the four of them went together in the end even if they could severely injure or even kill the Warblade, but their side would definitely have to pay a heavy price.

"Fine, I will leave him Murong Tiandu alive, next time I meet him, I will kill him." Ye Han looked at War Dagger and said; "War Dagger, you can protect him for a moment, but not for a lifetime, one day, Murong Tiandu he will die by my hand, now, take him and get back to Jiangcheng, don't let me see you in Jiangzhe."

War Dagger didn't say anything, he was silent by nature and didn't know what to say, he picked up Murong Tiandu and left the hotel directly and left Jiangzhe.

However, the news that War Dagger had taken Murong Tiandu out of the hotel and left Jiangzhe also spread in an instant, especially since Murong Tiandu was still injured, and for a while, many people were speculating that Ye Han and Murong Tiandu had definitely exchanged blows, and that something as strong as War Dagger had failed to stop this from happening.

After coming to Jiangzhe, Ye Han did not make a move against the Heavenly Dignity Society, instead he was the first to move Murong Tiandu, which was really surprising, so right now many people were expecting if Ye Han should make a move against the Heavenly Dignity Society next? Although the Heavenly Dignity Society had not made a move against Ye Han even now, it did not mean that this situation could continue, in East China, between Ye Han and the Heavenly Dignity Society, they could only exist one family.

The reason why he would deal with Murong Tiandu first, Ye Han also had his own plans in mind, he had already mapped out the situation of the Heavenly Dignity Society, Angry Buddha Vajra, the First Heavenly King as well as the Third Heavenly King had all come, such a combination, if to the previous Ye

Han, it would definitely be a very powerful formation, but now, not only had he himself broken through the Governor's Vein, but also, in the dark he had a powerful force that shocked people, so he didn't have to worry about the Heavenly Dignity Society at all.

Ye Han was waiting, waiting for news from Jiang Yutang, right now in this pool of water in East China Jiang Yutang would definitely get involved, because this was his last chance, Ye Han and the Heavenly Dignity Society in the end no matter who won, it would not be good for Jiang Yutang, he would definitely come in and stir the pot, only, right now Ye Han did not have exact news from Jiang Yutang, so he was not in a hurry to deal with the Heavenly Dignity Society.

"Hanzi, Murong Tiandu's side has already been settled, should we take on the Tianzun Society next?" Inside the Tian Long Club, Zhou Lie looked at Ye Han and asked this.

Ye Han asked; "Has He Yaozong and the others still not found out about Jiang Yu Tang's movements?"

Zhou Lie shook his head and said; "From the information on the surface, Jiang Yu Tang should still be at the West River headquarters and has not left, He Yaozong and the others can only check this, moreover, Blood Hand Hall is also acting calmly and has no intention of getting involved at all."

"Forget it, we won't wait, tomorrow night prepare for the operation, we will respond to every change with no change, if Jiang Yu Tang wants to get involved we can't stop him at all, we can only take precautions, Tian Zun Hui, Jiang Yu Tang, I don't believe they can stop my Heavenly Dragon Guards." Originally, Ye Han wanted to find out Jiang Yutang's movements first, and then deal with the Heavenly Dragon Guards after he had taken care of him.

Jiang Yutang was hiding deeply, but did he, Ye Han, not hide?

Up to now, everyone thought that only the four of Ye Han had come to Jiangsu and Zhejiang, no one even knew that in the dark, Ye Han was still hiding a powerful killer, the Heavenly Dragon Guard, and once the Heavenly Dragon Guard struck, it would be a thunderbolt solution to the current situation of Huadong.

Hearing Ye Han's words, Zhou Lie and the others all nodded. Tomorrow night is the time for them to show their mighty power to the world, and tomorrow night's battle will certainly shock the world!

Fortune Chapter 360

Everything was ready, just waiting for the battle tomorrow night.

In the past, he lacked power in his hands, so even in the matter of dealing with the Heavenly Dignity Society, he could only pull down his face to make an alliance with the Blood Hand Hall, but now it was different, he was fully capable of facing any crisis on his own.

Just after Ye Han and the others finished discussing things, Xiao Yun Yan came inside the clubhouse, she had also heard that Ye Han had come to Jiangzhe, so she came over to take a look.

"Yun Yan, you're here." Looking at Xiao Yun Yan who walked in, Ye Han stood up and smiled, facing his friend, he always had a sincere smile, very affectionate.

Xiao Yun Yan looked at the group of big men in the room and smiled; "Ye Han, it seems that I came at a bad time and disturbed your business talk?"

“How could that be, please sit down.” Ye Han greeted Xiao Yunyan and said; “Yunyan, why did you suddenly want to get up to the clubhouse, don’t you have to go to school?”

Xiao Yunyan laughed; “I just heard that you, the great wealthy man, had come, so, I came to ask you for some money to spend.”

“Could it be that the clubhouse doesn’t have enough money?” Ye Han asked, this was something Xu Qing and the others had not told him, and last time he had taken out five hundred million.

Xiao Yunyan said; “That’s not true, I suddenly had an idea, although establishing the clubhouse can bring us strong connections, but the source of funds is very slow, moreover, it’s not a matter if we only enter or not for a long time, so I want to establish a Tianlong Hotel under the clubhouse, this hotel must be perfect in all aspects of facilities, leisure, entertainment, fitness, housing, catering these What we want to build is not a hotel, but a home where our customers feel they belong. If this plan is implemented, the revenue we will get will be huge, and then we won’t have to ask you for money for the clubhouse.”

Upon hearing this, Ye Han nodded and said; “Yun Yan, this plan of yours is very good, there is no precedent for this in the hotel catering ranks, but to establish the Tian Long Hotel, our eyes cannot be limited to Jiangsu and Zhejiang, where the Tian Long Clubhouse develops in the future, the development of the Tian Long Hotel will definitely benefit us if it can keep up.”

“I was thinking the same thing.” Xiao Yunyan said; “It’s just that the capital required to establish the Tianlong Hotel is very large, I don’t know if you can take it out all at once?”

“How much do you need?” Ye Han looked at Xiao Yunyan and asked.

“Four billion.” Xiao Yunyan smiled and waved four fingers in front of Ye Han’s face, hearing this, Xu Qing and the others sucked in a breath of cold air from the side, building the Tian Long Club only cost five hundred million, Xiao Yunyan had to drop in four hundred million for one Tian Long Hotel, this was a huge amount of money.

Ye Han nodded, according to Xiao Yunyan’s vision just now, forty billion was actually not much, moreover, once the Tian Long Hotel was established, this amount of money could be earned back within a year.

Therefore, Ye Han agreed and he said; “Good, I can give you the start-up capital now, how exactly to operate it will require you to bother yourself.”

Ye Han still had more than six billion on him now, having given Xiao Yunyan four billion, there were still more than two billion, the vast majority of this money, was the proceeds from the natural jadeite, counting up, for his own business, Ye Han had almost dropped in more than ten billion.

The night sky project is five billion, the sky dragon group is fifteen billion, the sky dragon club is five billion, right now in addition to the sky dragon hotel this forty billion, exactly eleven billion, but in terms of capital, Ye Han will not worry for the time being, in old John’s place he also invested eight hundred million, in another period of time, these eight hundred million may be ten times.

Moreover, Zhou Yun’er’s jewellery company was already in the money, with four to five billion coming in every month. The Tianlong Group was already on track and could be self-sufficient, and by the end of the year, the money invested in the Night Sky Project should also be coming in.

Xiao Yunyan smiled; "Don't worry, I have already enlisted a group of talents inside Jiangzhe University, I can definitely set up the Tianlong Hotel."

"Good, then I'll wish you success on your horse." Ye Han smiled and said.

"That's natural, you don't even look at who's running this." Xiao Yunyan raised her head proudly, then said; "Ye Han, how many days are you planning to stay this time in Jiangsu and Zhejiang?"

"Not sure for now, let's see how it goes." Thinking of the Heavenly Dragon Club and Jiang Yu Tang, Ye Han couldn't stop the coldness from emanating from his eyes, however, just after Ye Han said these words, the door to the room was violently opened and in walked the security manager of the Heavenly Dragon Club.

"What's the matter, so panicked, get out." When Xu Qing saw this, his eyes went cold, fearing that Ye Han might be displeased with him because of this small detail.

"Chairman, there are people barging in outside, the brothers can't hold them back." The security manager said while wiping his cold sweat, this room was full of big shots, if it wasn't for an emergency, he wouldn't dare to panic so much.

Immediately after the security manager said this, there was a commotion outside, mixed with the sound of fighting.

The people who came were an old man and a young man, the old man Ye Han did not know, but the young man, Ye Han was somewhat familiar.

"Wu Yifeng, how is it you?" Xiao Yunyan saw the appearance of Wu Yifeng, her brow furrowed, belonging to the same Jiangzhe University, she naturally knew Wu Yifeng, the popular figure of Jiangzhe University, but now Wu Yifeng was no longer the popular figure of Jiangzhe University, his popularity had been struck without a trace by Ye Han last time, which made him hate Ye Han, so he had always wanted to take this revenge.

"So it's schoolmate Xiao Yunyan." Wu Yifeng walked inside the house and he was a little surprised to see Xiao Yunyan, but he had come here to settle a score with Ye Han, so he gave a cold smile at Ye Han and said; "You are really here, it seems that I have found the right place."

"What do you want from me? If you have something to say, if you have nothing to say, get lost." Ye Han couldn't say anything good about this Wu Yifeng, perhaps because of Zhao Hengtian, he didn't have a good feeling about anyone who practiced Form Yi Quan.

"You" Hearing Ye Han's words, Wu Yifeng's face was furious, then, only to see the old man beside him patting his shoulder and saying; "Disciple, this is the one who bullied you, isn't it? "

"Yes, Master, I am also troubled to ask your old man to step in and do me justice."

The old man nodded and said; "You are my disciple, I naturally have to do justice for you, young man, I don't care who you are, I'll give you a chance to apologise, otherwise don't blame me for bullying the young with the old."

"Apologise?" When Ye Han heard this, he sneered and said; "Who are you again? He was not as skilled as me and lost to me, so who am I to apologise to him?"

“I am Li Changfeng, the elder of the Form of Will Sect, if you don’t apologise, I don’t care who the master behind you is, today, I will have to teach you, a young junior, a lesson.” The old man’s eyes were indifferent, and an incomparably thick aura gradually spread out from his body.
