Fortune Chapter 4

Walking out of Zhao Hengtian's courtyard, Ye Han's heart was unsettled, the Southwest King Zhao Hengtian was a figure that even he, a city dweller, had heard of, in the southwest region, he had made a world of his own with his own strength, in the southwest region, he was the absolute king.

But in recent years Zhao Hengtian had disappeared, rumours had many versions, but today Ye Han met this legendary figure in person, the name of the King of the Southwest was true to his name, even with a broken leg no one dared to underestimate him, those eyes made people feel terrifying!

After walking out of the alley Ye Han walked towards the place where he and his sister Ye Qing rented a room, it was now almost dark and his sister should be off work, but before he parted from Zhao Hengtian, Zhao Hengtian had told Ye Han that he could teach him the Thousand Arts and Boxing Arts whenever Ye Han wanted to come to him to learn them, and did not necessarily have to wait until Ye Han had cured his leg to teach him.

When Ye Han returned home, Ye Qing had not yet returned, so he had nothing to do, so he looked up the profound knowledge in his mind. After sorting it out for a while, Ye Han found that the information imparted to him by the Yin Yang Jade Pendant was divided into two kinds, one was a medical scripture, which was very magical and could cure all kinds of diseases. The other was a kind of qi training technique.

The medical scripture was called the Ghost Valley Medical Scripture, a medical book written by Ghost Valley Zi in his later years, which had not been handed down at all and was extremely valuable. The eighteen needles of Ghost Valley were said to be able to live the dead, flesh and bone, one needle for heaven, one needle for hell.

As for the art of Qi training this is a magical method of Qi training, somewhat similar to Qigong, but the art of Qi training is much more sophisticated than Qigong, if this is placed in novels and movies is an extremely powerful martial arts secret book, powerful and extraordinary.

After sorting out this information in his mind, Ye Han was overjoyed, the medical book in it could already guess its power just by reading some of its introduction, if he succeeded in learning it, he might become a divine doctor.

After thinking about it, Ye Han decided to start with the Ghost Valley Medical Scripture, as he would be treating Zhao Hengtian's broken leg in a short while, and if he could learn something in the Ghost Valley Medical Scripture in the meantime, it would be very beneficial for him to treat Zhao Hengtian's leg. The main treatment method of the Ghost Valley Medical Scripture is acupuncture, which is used to treat various illnesses, but of course, if one learns the art of Qi training, it can also be used to help the Ghost Valley Medical Scripture.

If you want to learn the art of acupuncture, you must know the acupuncture points of the human body very well, because if you make a mistake with the needles, it may be fatal, so you cannot be sloppy. Gradually, while Ye Han was learning the acupuncture points of the human body with his eyes closed, Ye Qing came back, carrying some dishes in his hand, all of which were some great tonic things.

When he heard the noise outside his room, Ye Han pushed open the door and looked at his sister, who was busy in the kitchen, a soft look flashed across his face.

“Little Han, why are you up? Go and lie down, sister has bought you something delicious, it will be ready in a while, be good.” Ye Qing came out of the kitchen and saw Ye Han leaning against the door looking at himself gently, she was instantly upset, how could this boy run around when he was still injured, if she knew that Ye Han was not only running around but had also run out to gamble with someone I wonder what she would think!

Ye Han gave a silly smile; “Sister, it’s not a problem, lying in bed still hurts all over, it’s good to get up and walk.”

Ye Qing couldn’t argue with Ye Han, so she nodded and said; “Alright then, but no strenuous exercise, just stand and sit honestly, I’ve made you fish head and tofu soup, drink more later, it’s good for your qi and blood.”

After saying that, Ye Qing went back to the kitchen and went to work, her posture was graceful and beautiful, her features were clean, just like a good wife and mother, Ye Han had time to think that if anyone married his sister, then it must be the ancestors burned high incense, I have to say that although Ye Qing was dressed very ordinary, but really beautiful, if you dress up again is definitely a superb beauty.

It didn’t take long for the meal to be served, Ye Han smiled and sat down, looking at the table of dishes and smiled; “Sister’s cooking is the best, I don’t know who will be so lucky to marry her in the future.”

“All nonsense.” Ye Qing glared at Ye Han; “What is it? You want to marry your sister off so soon, you think I’m tired of taking care of you, right? I’m telling you, I’ll only take care of you for the rest of my life, don’t try to kick me out.”

“Where.” Ye Han hurriedly compensated with a smile; “I can’t wait to be happy that sister wants to take care of me for the rest of my life, right, sister, why don’t you help me quit that job of mine, maybe I won’t even go to work for the recent period of time.”

Ye Qing thought about it and nodded; “Fine, when you are better, sis will help you find a new one, okay, eat, come on, drink more soup .....

After dinner, the night gradually came, Ye Han lay in bed and continued to understand the acupuncture point diagram, the human body acupuncture point diagram depicted on the Ghost Valley Medical Scripture he had actually understood almost, there are raw and dead acupuncture points in the human body, in the number of nine hundred, a total of more than eight hundred acupuncture points, of course, this is also because Ye Han obtained the Yin Yang Dharma Eye, has the ability to never forget the eyes to learn so quickly, now he is close to using Now he was just about to use acupuncture to practise.

In addition to that, Ye Han had almost understood the art of “using acupuncture points to perform acupuncture”, which was a must for the introduction to the Ghost Valley Medical Classic. However, if Ye Han wanted to learn the Ghost Valley Medical Sutra to a profound level, to the point of living the dead and fleshing out the bones, he still had a long way to go.

Ye Han glanced towards the next room, through the wall he found Ye Qing already asleep, breathing evenly, but Ye Han did not dare to use his yin and yang magic eyes to peek at his sister, for him Ye Qing in his mind was the most holy woman, no one could tarnish.

He had been blessed with this magical ability, but he didn't want to tell Ye Qing about it yet, because it was too mysterious to be able to see everything, and Ye Qing might end up worrying about him.

Ye Han went to sleep thinking about it, and woke up at eight o'clock in the morning. Ye Qing left Ye Han breakfast, a bowl of vegetable porridge and a few doughnuts, and Ye Han ate them down before leaving home. The usefulness of the Yin Yang Dharma Eye.

The weather in Shanghai City seemed a bit sultry, and it was now the middle of summer. Ye Han, who was wearing a white body shirt plus casual trousers, looked a bit shabby, but his appearance was quite handsome, with short sharp hair and flying sword eyebrows, he looked energetic.

"Master, go to the antique street." Ye Han stopped a taxi and headed towards the most famous antique street in Shanghai City, the antique industry belonged to a profitable industry, Ye Han used to pay more attention to these when he had nothing to do, he couldn't help it, he had also imagined himself getting rich overnight, antiques were the best shortcut, but this also required eyesight and luck, in terms of eyesight Ye Han already had the biggest cheat, as for luck, Ye Han didn't think that having the Yin Yang magic eye He still needed this.

Half an hour later, Ye Han arrived at the Antique Street, a street that leaned towards vintage, the street curved and stretched from the street to the end, with a lot of shops, of course there were many rich people coming here, they all wanted to find a few treasures here for their collections, this was a bit of a hobby common to many rich people.
