Fortune Chapter 461

Since he had met the Bai family's father and son here, Ye Han would naturally not let them go.

After hearing this from Ye Han, Silly Ben immediately left the hotel and quietly followed behind Bai Luofei. With Silly Ben's strength, would the bodyguards around Bai Luofei be able to detect him, and seeing this, Ye Han and Kunsang both waited quietly inside the hotel.

After two hours had passed like this, Silly Ben, who had left the hotel, came back.

"Silly Ben, have you found out where that guy lives?" Ye Han poured a glass of water for Silly Ben, who sat down and gulped it in, then said around his head; "That guy lives inside a big house, with many guards around."

Upon hearing this, Ye Han laughed; "It seems that Bai Luofei has had a good time here since he fled Shanghai City, there is still an hour left before it gets dark, let's go and sit at his place at night, it's time for him to pay the debt he owes me."

After all, there were four warlords here, and they were deadly rivals to each other, if the poppies planted in their territory were burned by a fire, it would be a big loss.

The shops and vendors on the streets had not yet closed their stalls at this late hour, but what surprised Ye Han was that the vendors here were basically selling old-fashioned firearms for hunting, with very few guns for the regular army.

The Golden Triangle is a chaotic area and firearms are very common here. Some outsiders sometimes buy some from these stalls for self-defence, but Ye Han and the others don't need these things.

In the four regions of the Golden Triangle, there are also red-light districts and other vice establishments.

The town where Ye Han and the others were now was under the jurisdiction of General Tado, and right now, there was a red-light district opposite them, where some heavily made-up, flamboyantly dressed women were leaning against the door, throwing their eyes at the passers-by.

There was a sense of indifference in the eyes of these women, a sense of being used to it, because the living environment here had already predetermined what they could do, unless they were particularly beautiful women, and if they were liked by a certain officer, it was a step to heaven.

If they were to be liked by a general, they would undoubtedly become a phoenix, and even if they were a lover or a concubine, they would not have to worry about their future.

Soon, under the guidance of Silly Ben, Ye Han arrived at the middle of the town, where the environment was better compared to the place they came from, and the surrounding dwellings were also relatively more gorgeous, with white walls and brick tiles, moreover, there were twice as many soldiers patrolling around this place.

The people who could live here were probably of officer rank in the town.

In the Golden Triangle, if you have money, even if you are rich, you will be eaten to the ground if you do not have the ability to protect yourself.

Quietly, Ye Han and the three of them easily avoided the guards and entered the courtyard, which was still lit up, and the whole house looked bright and magnificent, a style of the rich.

At this moment, in this hall, Bai Luofei was holding a woman in one hand, playing with her body, playing with her hands, opposite Bai Luofei, sat his old man, Bai Jianye. .

“Fei’er, let them out, I have something to say to you.” After Bai Jianye watched for a while, he finally couldn’t take it anymore and said in a low voice, hearing this, Bai Luofei said in disbelief; “Dad, they are not outsiders, what is it that you have to say, I’m listening.”

“I told you to call them out.” Seeing Bai Luofei’s unconcerned look, the fire in Bai Jianye’s heart was even greater, since he had fled to the Golden Triangle, he had been thinking of returning to Shanghai City all the time, but this son of his was too indomitable, what was the use of him getting everything the Bai family had lost before even if he returned to Shanghai City again?

When Bai Luofei saw that Bai Jianye was furious, he had to let the two women sitting next to him walk out.

“Dad, we’re having a pretty good time now, we can sort of get the wind and rain here, do you need to be so down all day?”

At these words, the anger on Bai Jianye’s face intensified, but he forcibly suppressed it and said; “Fei’er, don’t you want to return to Shanghai City again? Do you just want to live your whole life in this shitty place?”

“Dad, there’s nothing wrong with that, is there?” Bai Luo Fei lit himself a cigarette and began to swallow the clouds, “I think we should forget about going back to Shanghai City, Dad, I’ve asked around, that little bastard Ye Han is now the ruler of East China, we will definitely be killed by him if we go back. Don’t you have a headache thinking about returning to Shanghai City all day long?”

“You mindless bastard, is this a place we can continue to stay?” Bai Jianye looked like he hated his iron and said; “We have been extorted by Tado to the tune of 100 million dollars, and we let him use his machete to deal with Ye Han, causing him heavy losses. A place to stay for a long time, we must leave here and return to Shanghai City again.”

“Dad, you’re not crazy, are you? Returning to Shanghai City, aren’t you really afraid of that scum Ye Han?” Thinking of Ye Han, while Bai Luofei’s teeth gnashed with hatred, a look of fear flashed across his face, continuing to fight against Ye Han, he didn’t have that courage now.

Bai Jianye said; “Even if we don’t return to Shanghai City, we can still go elsewhere to develop, in any case, we can’t continue to stay in the Golden Triangle, moreover, right now Tado has offended the Japanese, if Tado falls, we will have no umbrella here, when the time comes, with the financial power we carry, how do you think the other few warlords will treat us? ”

“But, Dad, where else can we go if we leave here? I’d rather live here for the rest of my life than be arrested and put in jail.”

“The big deal is to go to the West, when we develop, then we can deal with that little beast Ye Han.” Bai Jianye said with a scowl on his face.

“This idea, I don’t think you guys will have the chance to make it happen.” Just then, without a sound, three figures appeared inside the living room, three pairs of eyes looking at the Bai family’s father and son with a cold smile.

Fortune Chapter 462

“This idea, I don’t think you guys will have the chance to make it happen.”

At this time, Ye Han and the three of them appeared silently inside the living room, and the moment they appeared, the two of them, Silly Ben and Kun Sang, shot towards the Bai family’s father and son at first, and then, Kun Sang took out the scimitar he was carrying and placed it on top of Bai Jianye’s neck, and said with a cold smile; “I feel that it was you two fathers and sons who caused Han Zi and the scimitar to become mortal enemies in the first place, and even my Kun family also Because of you guys, tonight, I’ll get you guys killed.”

“Ye ..... Ye Han .....

Seeing the person who appeared, the face that was so familiar that they would never forget it even in their dreams, Bai Jianye and Bai Luofei were both scared silly at the moment, trembling their bodies, their eyes all filled with horror, how could Ye Han appear in the Golden Triangle? And even found them? Shouldn’t he be in the country?

“It’s not just me.” Ye Han smiled and sat down on the sofa, then he looked up at the luxurious living room, picked up an apple from the table and nibbled on it and said; “You two, goodbye, I didn’t expect that after not seeing you for so long, you still haven’t forgotten me, it’s not easy to be remembered, it seems that I should feel honoured.”

“Ye Han, what brings you to the Golden Triangle? Let me tell you, don’t mess around, here if I shout, hundreds of people will rush in, then you won’t even be able to leave if you want to.” Bai Luofei felt the big hand of Silly Ben on his body, and while he was afraid, he did not forget to threaten Ye Han, with a view that Ye Han would be able to care a little after hearing this from him, otherwise, if Ye Han really made a move on both their father and son tonight, they would never have a chance to live.

“Threaten me?” Ye Han gave a cold laugh, then he looked at Bai Jianye who was silent for a moment and said; “Mr. Bai, don’t you feel quite sad having such a brainless son?”

Upon hearing that, Bai Jianye said with a sullen face; “Ye Han, what exactly do you want? Here, I advise you not to mess around, if General Tado finds out, you will definitely not be able to leave the Golden Triangle alive, if you leave now, I can pretend that you were never here, know that you are the one who made the Machete in General Tado’s hands suffer heavy losses, if he knew you were here, what do you think would happen?”

Hearing this, Ye Han let out a laugh and said; “Bai Jianye, back in Shanghai City I still felt like you were someone, but now, well, you are nothing in my eyes, just like your brainless son, do you think I would be afraid of Tado if I dared to come? Do you guys think I’m really going to just leave when I come to you tonight?”

Hearing Ye Han's words, the faces of the two fathers, Bai Jianye and Bai Luofei, changed greatly, a flash of fear flashed across their eyes, with these words, Ye Han was clearly intending to settle them tonight, don't look at the fact that the two fathers, Bai Jianye and his son, wanted to retaliate against Ye Han at all times, but, really, when Ye Han appeared in front of them, even if they were asked to do it, they wouldn't dare.

"Ye Han, you shall not ....." Hearing that Ye Han was going to kill the two of them tonight, Bai Luofei shouted frantically in fear, hoping to bring in the people outside, but no sooner had he said half of these words than his throat was tightly squeezed by the large hand of Silly Ben Then with a click, Bai Luofei's neck was crushed by Foolish Ben, and to his death, his eyes were wide open and he kept that look of readiness to shout.

One moment he was spending his time playing with women, and the next moment he was dead, only, Bai Luofei never dreamed that he was lucky enough not to die in Shanghai City, but in this barren place.

"Fei'er ....."

Bai Jianye saw with his own eyes that his son had been killed by Silly Ben, his eyes were suddenly filled with old tears, his fists were clenched tightly, although Bai Luofei was indisputable, but he only had one son, now, the person who gave him his old age was gone, he was left alone in this world.

Ye Han did not sympathise with Bai Jianye, to him, as long as he was an enemy, he had to get rid of him, what's more, this Bai family father and son were still thinking of how to retaliate against him, this kind of enemy was even more impossible to keep, if he let them go today out of sympathy, in the future, these two fathers and sons would come back.

"Bai Jianye, it's not a good feeling to lose your son, is it?" Ye Han gave a cold laugh and continued; "Blame it on you guys for provoking me in the first place and becoming my enemies, I will not be merciful when dealing with my enemies, I was lucky not to die at the hands of Machete in the first place, so today you guys will have to pay the price."

"Ye Han, I curse you to die a good death, I curse you to go to the eighteenth level of hell ....." Bai Jianye gritted his teeth and looked at Ye Han, his eyes were sinister and terrifying, Ye coldly laughed; "So what if I go to the eighteenth level of hell? I just want to live a free life in this day and age, but before I go to hell, you two fathers and sons are going to try the eighteenth level of hell first."

After saying this, Ye Han nodded at Kunsang, who then let out a fierce laugh as the scimitar in his hand wiped at Bai Jianye's neck, a bloodstain surfaced and Bai Jianye reported to the hell of the underworld.

"You can't live with your own sins!" Ye Han shook his head, getting rid of these two past enemies did not make Ye Han feel much relaxed, there were still many more enemies belonging to him, only after getting rid of them one by one, could he relax.

However, just at this time, Situ Zhentian, who was in Yanjing City, called Ye Han.

"Boss Situ, what is it that you are looking for me at this late hour?" Ye Han leaned back on the sofa and asked with a smile.

On the other side of the phone, Situ Zhentian said; "Ye Han, did you kid run away to the Golden Triangle?"

Upon hearing this, Ye Han bristled and said; "I say, Boss Situ, you don't have to follow me all day like this, do you?"

"Bullshit, don't you know that the communication device you're carrying has a positioning system?"

Ye Han looked at the watch he was carrying on his wrist, it was the one that Fire Phoenix had left for him back then, and in Cheng Jun's hand they all carried one of these watches.

Ye Han said; "Alright, just tell me what you are looking for, I am very busy now, I don't have the time to listen to your nagging."

Situ Zhentian said; "Ye Han, since you are over in the Golden Triangle, you have to do one thing for me, there is a warlord called Tado in the Golden Triangle, he has important items that we want, you have to find a way to get them, you must not let the Japanese get them over."

Hearing this from Situ Zhentian, Ye Han was stunned, could this item that Situ Zhentian was talking about be the catnip between the Japanese and General Tado? Just what exactly was this thing? It was surprising that it had moved even Situ Zhentian.

"Boss Situ, what kind of an item is this?" Ye Han asked.

"I will send you the photos later, remember, this item must not fall into the hands of others, the country is imperative for it, even if it has to pay a price for it, it must be obtained."

Fortune Chapter 463

For the first time, Ye Han heard that Situ Zhentian actually cared so much about an item, moreover, it was still something that the country was imperative to obtain, which made Ye Han puzzled and at the same time came to be even more interested.

"Boss Situ, could it be that the Japanese also want this item? They came to the Golden Triangle just for this item?"

"Of course, otherwise you think that group of little Japanese have enough to run to that shitty place in the Golden Triangle?" Situ Zhentian paused and continued; "Ye Han, this mission is very important, right now only the Japanese are involved, so you must strike first, if we let people from other countries also set their eyes on it, then it will be difficult for us to get it, if you don't have enough manpower, I can transfer a group of experts over to help you, after getting this item, you must send it to the country at the first time The first time you get it, you must send it to the country."

"It seems that this mission is quite tricky, but Boss Situ, I can't stay here in the Golden Triangle for long, you know, I still have a lot of trouble on my hands, if I don't go back for a long time, I'm afraid that the demons and monsters in the dark will jump out and make me restless again."

"No, this mission you must guarantee to complete." Situ Zhentian said firmly; "If you are worried about the situation over in Huazhong, you can rest assured, in the country, with me watching out for you, with the state watching out for you, I see who dares to mess up?"

Hearing this, Ye Han thought about it and said; "OK, then you can transfer people over, have them contact me when you arrive, it just so happens that I also want to see what the hell is this thing that the country is taking seriously?"

“Don’t mess it up for me, the Fire Phoenix groups are still fighting in the western world, if you mess this up, I’ll pull your skin off.” Inside the phone, Situ Zhentian said viciously.

Ye Han raised his eyebrows and said with a straight face; “Situ, is the mission that Fire Phoenix went on also related to this thing?”

It had been almost half a year since Fire Phoenix had gone on her mission, and Ye Han could not even contact her where she was.

Situ Zhentian said; “I knew you would ask, I can only tell you that the mission that Fire Phoenix went on is indeed related to this item, they are working hard over there, so you kid must not disappoint anyone! This item is too important to us!”

“Don’t worry, Situ, I’ll handle it carefully.” Ye Han hung up the phone, his brow furrowed, Situ Zhentian had rarely been as solemn as he was today, for this item, he was even willing to come and help him watch over Huazhong in the name of the country, it seemed that that item was definitely very important to the country, whether it was for public or private purposes, Ye Han decided that he would go and take this item over, he owed Situ Zhentian too many favours, he always had to pay them back.

Not even a minute had passed when a photo was sent to Ye Han’s mobile phone. On this photo was a triangular-shaped iron block with rust on its surface and some runes that Ye Han couldn’t understand engraved on it, looking at its age, this iron block should be a long time old.

“Is this the thing?” Ye Han took a closer look at the iron block on top of the photo, he really couldn’t figure out that such an object was something that the country had made sure to get, this object should just look like a somewhat old relic.

However, since Situ Zhentian was so solemn, he thought that this item should not be as simple as it appeared on the surface.

After putting away his phone, Ye Han said to Kunsang and Silly Ben; “Come on, let’s go to General Tado’s residence and take a stroll to see if we can find anything.”

Afterwards, Ye Han and the three of them left the place silently, and the guards outside did not know from the beginning that the owner inside the house was dead.

General Tado’s residence was a luxurious manor at the end of the town, this was where he usually lived, moreover, the military base of the armed forces he kept was located next to his manor, there, was a large military base, inside all kinds of modern facilities, tanks, warplanes, anti-aircraft guns and other firepower heavy weapons were placed inside the base, very intimidating.

Ye Han and the three of them quietly arrived at a short distance from the manor, and if they went further, they would be discovered by the guards patrolling around.

“The guards are so tightly guarded.”

Looking at the manor that was protected almost three layers inside and three layers outside, Kunsang frowned, General Tado’s mansion was too tightly protected, it was a little difficult for them to go in and explore the situation.

Ye Han used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to watch for a while before saying; “General Tado is now at war with the Japanese, so he will naturally be very concerned about his safety, it is normal to have such tight protection, however, even the tightest protection has a hundred things to lose, later I will go in and take a look, you guys wait for my news outside, if something is wrong, leave immediately, I will meet you guys at the hotel. I’ll meet up with you guys at the hotel.”

“Cheng, Hanzi, you take care of yourself then.” Kunsang patted Ye Han’s shoulder and said.

Ye Han nodded, after watching for a few minutes again, he aimed at an opening, his whole body shot out from the night sky like a black light, those searchlights could not shine his shadow at all, immediately after Ye Han entered the manor, several heavily armed patrols came over, if Ye Han was a foot slower, he was going to be discovered by these people.

When he entered the manor, Ye Han watched the inside of the manor from a large tree. Compared to the outside, the inside of the manor was even more heavily guarded, with every entrance and exit and high point being guarded, one post at three steps, one sentry at four steps, and the manor was brightly lit.

Although Ye Han’s speed was fast, there was always a time to slow down, so if he went in like this, he would be discovered sooner or later.

At this time, a group of five people passed under the big tree where Ye Han was lurking, only to hear one person say; “You guys go first, I’ll take a piss, I’ll come back later.”

“Shit, you kid is bold enough to mess around in the general’s residence, hurry up, don’t cut you up if the general finds out later.”

Seeing that those few people had gone far away, Ye Han dropped down like the wind and directly knocked this guy who was hiding under the big tree to pee out, then Ye Han changed into his clothes and started to chase towards that team just now, walking behind this team, Ye Han started to watch the situation inside the manor squarely.

There were at least hundreds of soldiers inside this manor protecting General Tado’s safety. Apart from these soldiers, there were also some ladies walking around inside the manor, these ladies were basically General Tado’s women, in the Golden Triangle, women are the cheapest, those who have power and influence, they can rob and buy, only what they don’t want, there is no woman they can’t get.

At this time, outside the manor, two military vehicles slowly drove into the manor, and then, from the top of these two vehicles came down a tall and imposing soldier, followed by a man with glasses and a tall, thin middle-aged man with a broken arm.

The tall, imposing man who walked like a tiger was naturally General Tado.

As for the tall and thin middle-aged man with a broken arm, he was the number one assassin of the Machete Assassin Organisation, Machete, who had his arm cut off by the old man beside Nangong Zixun in Shanghai City.

Fortune Chapter 464

“General.”

Seeing General Tado approaching, the soldier who was on patrol lowered his head and called out, and Ye Han followed suit and lowered his head.

Without greeting, General Tado walked straight inside, the man with glasses followed him quickly, as for Machete, he looked around and after not finding anything strange he also walked in.

Seeing this, the corners of Ye Han's eyes narrowed, this Machete's vigilance was really strong, and his sense of danger was also extremely keen, just now he had released just a trace of killing Qi and he had sensed it.

Afterwards, this team continued to patrol, however, Ye Han looked for an opportunity and immediately dodged into a dead corner that could not be seen from a high point. After Ye Han cast out his Yin Yang Dharma Eye, the distribution of the guards inside the manor, as well as the manor layout Ye Han had long since figured out exactly what was going on.

A few minutes later, Ye Han avoided several patrols of soldiers and arrived at the first floor of the manor, which had many rooms, most of which were occupied by General Tado's women.

For anyone around him, General Tado did not have absolute trust, so those women would let them go to other rooms after he had finished venting. Perhaps, this was one of the reasons why General Tado could survive in the Golden Triangle, a place of chaos, until today.

"Shakun, these last few days you must keep a dead eye on that group of Japanese, don't lose that item until our guests come, it's our bargaining chip to make a lot of money, humph, the damned little Japanese want to buy that item for a mere one billion, they're just dreaming." At this moment, inside General Tado's room, General Tado had a cold smile on his face.

Hearing this from him, the man with glasses said; "General, please don't worry, I have sent someone to keep an eye on them twenty-four hours a day, whenever there is any movement from them, my side will get the news at the first time."

"That's good." General Tado nodded, then said to Machete; "Machete, I'll leave the matter of dealing with the Japanese to you, don't let me down again, got it?"

"General, please don't worry, I have dozens of assassins at my disposal at all times." Machete said with a calm face.

Shakun looked at General Tado and asked; "General, I wonder what exactly is that item you brought back from outside? Why do the Japanese want it so badly, and, even the Old Maoists want to buy it from your hand over there."

"Not only do the old Maoists want it too." General Tado said with a sneer; "I don't think it will be long before more and more people are interested in this object in my possession, and this object is our bargaining chip. I will give it to whoever pays me the highest price."

"Then I wonder where the General has hidden this object?" Shakun continued to ask.

At that, General Tado gave him a look and said with narrowed eyes; "Shakun, don't ask what you shouldn't know, understand?"

Hearing these words from General Tado, Shakun's face trembled and he hurriedly said; "General, please calm down, what I mean is that General must hide such valuable things, in case they are stolen by some petty thieves, you will suffer a great loss, General."

General Tado said indifferently; "Don't worry, this item is very safe, no one can steal it except me."

Shakun nodded, then wiped the sweat from his forehead, that one look from General Tado just now made him smell the smell of death, if he had shown a little greed for that moving piece, he was only afraid that he would have been killed by General Tado now.

At that moment, he saw an old-fashioned big brother pinned to his waist ringing, and after picking up and listening to a few words, he said to General Tado; "General, the brothers who are watching the Japanese say that the group of guys are coming towards us, but it doesn't look like they are coming for trouble."

Hearing this from Shakun, General Tado sneered and said; "This group of guys in the Golden Triangle may have put out the word that they want to finish me off, but if they really want to do so, they wouldn't dare to do so, now they are only here to negotiate a price with me, let's go, let's go down and wait for them."

Saying that, General Tado got up and walked out with his hat on.

However, what General Tado and his men did not know was that outside the window of General Tado's room, a black shadow slowly appeared in the room after General Tado and his men had left, this black shadow was naturally Ye Han, looking at the neatly arranged room, Ye Han began to use his Yin Yang magic eye to see through all the items inside the room, if he could find the triangular iron block here, the mission that Situ Zhentian had given him would be completed. If he could find the triangular iron piece here, the mission that Situ Zhentian had given him would be complete.

However, to Ye Han's disappointment, there was nothing he wanted in this room, General Tado had hidden the iron triangle somewhere else.

The room of General Tado seemed to be safe, but in fact it was also the most frequented place, and the suspicious General Tado would not hide something in such an obvious place.

If Zhou Lie was here, it would be much easier. With his skill as a divine thief, it would not be difficult to find an item, but at the moment, Zhou Lie was still in Hua Zhong, and the search for the triangular iron block could only be done by Ye Han himself. Afterwards, Ye Han came to the window and prepared to leave, however, just at that moment, a group of people walking outside the manor suddenly caught Ye Han's attention.

There were not many people in this group, only five, but from these five people Ye Han felt a powerful aura, especially one of them, an old man, whose aura was as powerful as Ye Han's, and even, vaguely, a little beyond.

Ye Han's gaze continued to look towards these five people, a man wearing a Zhongshan suit, also with a broken arm entered Ye Han's sight at this time, seeing that it was him, the corner of Ye Han's mouth hung a cold smile, in his heart secretly said; "I didn't expect to see many old acquaintances in the Golden Triangle this time, the Bai family father and son, Machete, plus you, Ichiro Gangmura, since you are also involved in this, so, I'll just say it. I'll see what you Japanese are going to do."

With such a thought in his mind, Ye Han was not prepared to leave for the time being. The Japanese had come to look for General Tado, most likely for the triangular iron block, and Ye Han knew nothing about this triangular iron block.

Fortune Chapter 465

Ye Han came to an empty room on the first floor, which was used for storing miscellaneous items, and it was the closest to that large living room on the ground floor, where Ye Han could hear perfectly well what General Tado and the Japanese were talking about.

"His Excellency General Tado, I wonder what you think?"

Inside General Tado's large living room, the Japanese old man who was the most powerful spoke to General Tado and asked him.

Hearing the old man's words, General Tado sneered and said; "Mr. Yamamoto Takeo, the price you are offering is too low, if you are really sincere, both of us can sit down and continue to talk, if not, it is getting late now, so this general will have to send his guests away."

"Baka!" Hearing these words from General Tado, a cold man standing behind the old Japanese man looked at General Tado with grim eyes, not hiding the murderous intent in his eyes.

"Speak human, I don't understand bird language." General Tado snorted coldly, and the scimitar standing behind him looked at the Japanese man with the same grim eyes, and the two men locked eyes, causing an aura of slaughter to fill the entire living room inside.

At that moment, the old man called Yamamoto Takeo waved his hand, causing the Japanese man behind him to bow his head with a 'hi' and collect the fury in his eyes, Yamamoto Takeo said; "Your Excellency, General Tado, two billion, this is the highest price I can offer, even if the guest you are waiting for arrives, this is all they can offer you. could offer you is just that price, for the sake of the business dealings between my Black Dragon Society and His Excellency the General, why doesn't Your Excellency the General be a man of honor?"

"Mr. Yamamoto Takeo, two billion, are you joking?" General Tado said indifferently; "If it is two billion dollars, I can still consider it, below that price, there is nothing to negotiate between this General and the Black Dragon Society, if you can't afford it, someone else can naturally afford it."

When he heard General Tado's words, Yamamoto Takeo's eyebrows wrinkled unnoticeably, a murderous look flashed in his eyes, then he said; "It seems that His Excellency the General is really unwilling to sell to our Black Dragon Society, I advise His Excellency the General to be too greedy and be careful of losing your life, in that case, it will not be worth the loss."

"Is Mr. Yamamoto Takeo threatening me on my turf?" General Tado's eyes grew cold as he said; "In this part of the Golden Triangle, no one can threaten me Tado, those who threatened me have all been killed by me, although the Black Dragon Society is one of the top underground organisations in the world, but in this part of the Golden Triangle I, Tado, will not be afraid of you, even if the regular army comes in, I can make them lose their lives here, here, I, Tado I'm the king here, whoever comes here will have to behave."

At these words, Yamamoto Takeo said; "Your Excellency the General misunderstood, perhaps we had a bad time before, here I, Yamamoto Takeo, apologize to you, I hope you accept my apology, my humble self came to your Excellency the General with sincerity, I hope your Excellency the General can give more consideration to the ko."

"Sincerity?" General Tado sneered and said; "If Mr. Yamamoto Takeo really had sincerity he would not have offered only two billion, how much I want, I think Mr. Yamamoto Takeo should know clearly, if the Black Dragon Society really cannot afford to give it, I think there are many friends who are now vying for this item in my possession, they will naturally give me what I want."

Yamamoto Takeo said; "Three billion, this is already the highest price I can offer, if Your Excellency the General is still too little, then I will really have to take other actions."

"Humph, I Tado will not be afraid of anyone in the Golden Triangle, since Mr. Yamamoto is not sincere, then please go back, in five days, our guest will arrive, at that time, this General will hold an auction, the highest bidder will win, send the guest away." General Tado grunted coldly and gave the order of expulsion.

"Baka, is your looking for death?" The man standing behind Takeshi Yamamoto could no longer stand General Tado's arrogance, his fists clenched so tightly that as soon as Takeshi Yamamoto nodded his head, he would strike General Tado dead with a single blow.

"Trying to kill me." General Tado sneered; "This general is not afraid to tell you the truth, there is a detonation system installed on me, this system is connected to my heart beating frequency, as long as I die, then that thing will be blown into pieces, no one will be able to get it then."

Yamamoto Takeo smiled, his brow furrowed and his eyes looked slightly gloomy at General Tado, if it was really like what General Tado said, then he really couldn't lay his hands on General Tado and kill him, of course, even if what General Tado said was false, Yamamoto Takeo didn't dare to gamble on the importance of that item, it had already caught the attention of the Emperor, and the Black Dragon Society made sure to get it for the Emperor.

Yamamoto Takeo said; "I did not expect the General to be such a careful man, but you misunderstand, His Excellency the General is a friend of our Black Dragon Society, we in the Black Dragon Society do not treat our friends with arms, I am the one who has disturbed you today, I will come to pay my respects to His Excellency the General another day."

"Hmph, the road is not that far, this General will not see you off." Looking at Yamamoto Takeo who stood up, General Tado had no intention of standing up to see him off, to which Yamamoto Takeo did not mind, he bent down to General Tado, then with a veiled glance at the corner where Ye Han was hiding, he led the group of Japanese experts to leave General Tado's manor.

Feeling this Yamamoto Takeo's gaze looking over, Ye Han, who was hidden inside the utility room, frowned, this old man was only afraid that he had sensed his presence.

“Mr. Yamamoto, Tado is so contemptuous of us, why don’t you let me kill him?” Outside the manor, the Japanese man from earlier asked with an ugly face.

“Foolish, if we kill him, will we still be able to know the whereabouts of that item?” Yamamoto Takeo gave him a look and his face began to look gloomy, he had been holding back just now inside the manor; “If Tado has really installed such a detonation system on him, we can’t kill him, then we would be making a trip to the Golden Triangle for nothing, moreover, the thermal weapons that Tado possesses are very powerful, we can’t mess around with this matter, we still have to think of a new way.”

“Teacher, do you mean to capture General Tado? Force him to ask where that item is?” Next to Yamamoto Takeo, Ichiro Gamura, who had a broken arm, spoke up.

Yamamoto Takeo nodded appreciatively and said; “Ichiro still knows my mind, there are still five days left before other forces get involved in this matter, so keep an eye on Tado for the next few days, as soon as there is an opportunity, we will capture him, then I am not afraid that he will not reveal the whereabouts of that item.”

Ichiro Gamura said; “Please don’t worry Sensei, leave this matter to me and Shushita-kun, we will never let you down.”

“Well, Ichiro both you and Shushita are now top ninjas, this is something I believe you can do very well.”

Fortune Chapter 466

“I will definitely live up to my teacher’s expectations!” Ichiro Gangmura nodded solemnly, now he was much more composed compared to the past, and his strength had also changed from a middle ninja to an upper ninja, equivalent to a master of the Little Renju realm, such a natural strength was also a very powerful genius in the Japanese martial arts world.

He was inspired by Takeshi Yamamoto, and his achievements today have nothing to do with him.

Ichiro Gangmura had always remembered the revenge of his broken arm, and he had worked hard to improve his strength so that one day he could kill the young man who had cut off his arm and avenge the broken arm.

“By the way, Shushita-kun, you can help me find out what kind of experts General Tado has around him, just now I felt a strong aura inside, and I don’t know if this person is an enemy or a friend?” Thinking of the aura he had just felt at General Tado’s residence, Yamamoto Takeo said in a deep voice, the person in the shadows was an expert, he had to find out who that person really was?

“Mr. Yamamoto, do you mean that just now at General Tado’s residence, apart from Machete, there was a powerful expert hiding in the shadows?” Treeshade asked with a frown, a situation that neither he nor Ichiro Gamura had discovered.

Yamamoto Takeo nodded silently, that expert in the shadows would most likely be his biggest obstacle in dealing with General Tado.

At this time, Ye Han had silently come out from General Tado’s residence, the whereabouts of that item had not been found, and at the moment, he could not kill General Tado, which made Ye Han feel a bit tricky, the thing he came to the Golden Triangle was to destroy Machete and kill Tado, but now, he could not kill Tado unless he got that triangular iron piece first.

General Tado had not lied just now, a detonation system had indeed been installed on his body, something that Ye Han could see clearly using his Yin Yang Dharma Eye.

“Hanzi, how is the situation? When are we going to strike at General Tado?” Seeing that Ye Han had returned, Kun Sang and Silly Ben, who were prostrate on the ground, immediately stood up, Ye Han glanced at the guarded military base and then said; “This is not the place to talk, let’s go, let’s go back and talk.”

However, just as Ye Han and the three of them had returned to the hotel, a group of strangers with powerful auras came inside the hotel where they were temporarily staying.

“Distinguished guests, may I ask if you are staying or dining?” Ang Ming cheerfully walked over to the group of people and asked.

“What kind of good food can you get by coming to this shitty place of yours?” A tall man with a full heavenly court and a strong external kung fu master said; “Prepare five rooms for us and don’t come and disturb us without anything.”

“Honourable guests please don’t worry, Ang Ming will not disturb, you please follow me.”

Ang Ming took the five men to the first floor and it was just below Ye Han’s room with them.

“Second Brother, although the few warlords of this Golden Triangle are rich and powerful, but this place is really poor, it doesn’t even have a decent hotel.”

Hearing this, the tall man with great external kung fu said; “Old Fifth, we are not here for tourism, we must do well in what our righteous father has given us, let’s rest tonight first, tomorrow we will visit that General Tado’s residence and explore the reality, I heard that there are many people interested in the ‘Divine Plate’ I’ve heard that there are many people interested in the ‘Divine Plate’, we must not be careless, understand?”

“Don’t worry, big brother, this time besides you and I, my father has also transferred three Wolf King experts from the ‘Divine Eagle’ to us, I don’t believe anyone can stop us in this Golden Triangle.” Old Five said with an arrogant face.

This was the power formed by the Northern Grassland King, which dominated the grassland, and these two people came from the Divine Eagle, so their identities were obvious, the second and fifth righteous sons among the thirteen righteous sons under the Grassland King.

The second righteous son said; “That said, we can’t be careless, recently in the north, that northeastern tiger has also been moving a lot, I’m afraid they have also smelled something and will probably follow the scent and come here.”

“Humph, if the people of the Northeast Tigers dare to put their feet in, I will let them leave their lives in this barren land forever.” The Fifth Righteous Son said with a murderous look on his face.

Upstairs in the room, Ye Han, Kunsang and Silly Ben were talking to each other.

Ye Han said; "Brother Kunsang, this matter of dealing with General Tado has to be put off for the time being, he can't be killed yet, I still have to find something I need from his body, right now the Japanese are desperate for this item, so whether it's the Japanese or General Tado we have to keep them under surveillance and see what they will do in the dark? "

"What a nuisance, it looks like we'll have to spend more time here." Quinsan said.

"There's nothing that can be done about it." Ye Han said; "Now it has become even less easy to kill General Tado, not only does he have a hot weapon with great firepower to be feared, but also, the people in the shadows will definitely not let him die, if we make a move to kill him, those bullies and snakes in the shadows will definitely jump out to stop us, this way, Silly Ben, you go to the Japanese camp tomorrow and keep an eye on it, remember, that group of Japanese There is a very powerful master inside, you must be careful, you must not let him know about it."

Silly Ben nodded and said with a simple smile; "I will be careful."

Ye Han believed in Silly Ben's strength as he continued; "As for General Tado's place, I will send another person to spy on him, once we know the whereabouts of the item I want, we will immediately strike at General Tado, kill him as fast as possible and then leave the Golden Triangle."

With that, and having arranged the plan, Silly Ben headed straight for the Japanese camp.

The Japanese camp was in the wilderness of the town, where several military tents had been set up. This time, more than ten people had come from the Japanese side, and apart from Yamamoto Takeo, a 'Ten-nin' master, there were six upper ninjas and eight middle ninjas below him, and this kind of strength was also very terrifying.

Silly Ben went to spy on the Japanese, Ye Han naturally asked the Heavenly Dragon Guards to spy on General Tado, the twelve Heavenly Dragon Guards had arrived in secret, where they were hiding was not even known to Ye Han, only when Ye Han contacted them would the twelve Heavenly Dragon Guards appear.

As the day passed, Ye Han and Kunsang both basically stayed at the hotel and did not go out wandering, and had all the food delivered to their rooms by Ang Ming.

However, in the midst of Ye Han and Kunsang's boredom, a message came from the Heavenly Dragon Guard that made Ye Han frown.

Someone from the domestic side had actually gotten involved, and it was a group of very powerful experts, and this group had gone to General Tado's residence.

Fortune Chapter 467

"There are actually people involved on the domestic side, it seems that they are also interested in this triangular iron block, however, I wonder who exactly this group of people is?" Ye Han's brow furrowed, to him, the more forces involved, the more difficult it would be for him to complete his mission, he had to do it ahead of time as soon as possible, if he continued to delay, he was only afraid that the more bullies and snakes would appear by then.

“Right, Hanzi, this morning Ang Ming said to me that a group of people from the country had come downstairs from us, do you think this group of people could be the same group as the ones visiting General Tado?” At this time, Kunsang suddenly remembered what Ang Ming had said this morning when he brought them their meals.

Upon hearing this, Ye Han’s sword eyebrows raised, then said; “The Golden Triangle is not a tourist destination, and it is exceptionally chaotic and dangerous, war could break out at any time, people from the country usually don’t run this side of the Golden Triangle with nothing to do, maybe this group of people is really the same group of people that the Heavenly Dragon Guards have been spying on.”

Kunsang said; “Then should we go and find out more about them?”

“Naturally there is a need for that.” Ye Han said; “According to the news from the Heavenly Dragon Guards, this group of people are still at General Tado’s residence at the moment, we will wait for them inside the hotel, as long as they come back, we will be able to know their identities.”

“Makes sense.” Kunsang nodded.

At this time, on Ye Han’s wrist, a red light lit up above the electronic watch-like device, emitting a dripping sound, after seeing this, Ye Han pressed on top of that watch, then a woman’s voice came through; “Where are you?”

Ye Han laughed; “Since this device is able to locate me, you should know where I am, come to the Ang Ming Hotel, I am in the fifth room on the third floor.”

After saying that, Ye Han turned off the device, if this thing was constantly on, it would attract the attention of enemy satellites.

“Hanzi, this thing in your hand can still make calls?” When Kunsang saw this, he felt new and strange, Ye Han laughed; “Don’t underestimate this small thing, although it is small, it is very useful, Brother Kunsang, get ready, there will be domestic experts coming over here later, with them joining us, it will be much easier to do things on our side.”

Half an hour later, a knock sounded outside Ye Han’s room, Kunsang went over and opened the door, then a total of six figures walked straight in, Ye Han was sitting and drinking tea at the moment, he looked up and saw that all six of them were familiar faces.

When he went to meet the white-faced scholar at Jiangdi Park, this old man came in a small boat and finally pinned down the first and second generals with a fishing rod, so that they did not dare to make a move against Ye Han.

“Ye Han has met senior!” Upon seeing this old man, Ye Han immediately stood up, this old man had kindly saved his life in the first place, he could not lose his manners.

On hearing this, the old man nodded his head gratefully and smiled; “In the martial world, a master is a master, right now your strength is a tier better than mine, I wouldn’t dare to take the word senior, Ye Han, for you to grow to this point in such a short period of time really shocked me, it seems that my move to save your life at the beginning was not wrong, and now, there is a first genius in the ancient martial world. ”

“Senior Liao praised you, please have a seat.” After Ye Han invited the old man into his seat, he looked at Cheng Jun and the others and smiled; “Brother Cheng, a few of your colleagues, it’s been a long time, no need to be so polite, let’s sit down and talk.”

Cheng Jun grinned, sat down with Earth Dragon and the others, and said; “Ye Han, I didn’t expect that the person the head asked us to come to the Golden Triangle to rendezvous with was you, this time with the empty old man from the Martial Hall coming with us, and with you as an expert, this mission will definitely be completed successfully.”

Earth Dragon and the others nodded, nowadays, how powerful Ye Han was was no longer something they could speculate on, let alone someone they could challenge, nowadays, this young man in front of them was almost unknown in the martial world of China, apart from Nalan Mietian of the North, the young generation, who else dared to show their battle intent in front of him.

The Martial Hall, which was a mysterious institution belonging to the state, was filled with mostly strong figures, for example, there were quite a few experts like Elder Kong in the Martial Hall.

Ye Han also knew more or less about the Martial Hall, having heard Situ Zhentian mention it once, but of course, how many hidden powers the country had, Ye Han was actually not sure.

“Ye Han, we came here, didn’t you find something different?” At this moment, he only heard Elder Kong smile mysteriously, and Cheng Jun and the others also grinned, hearing this, Ye Han looked stunned, his gaze swept past Cheng Jun and the others, immediately, he suddenly remembered that the one who had contacted him just now was a woman’s voice, but at this moment, there was clearly no woman inside this room.

“It seems that the famous Chinese martial arts world’s Ye Han is not good either, I’ve been here for so long that I haven’t even found me, if I were to kill you I’m only afraid that you would have died several times.” While Ye Han was in a daze, a woman’s voice rang out from behind him, then a soft boneless hand was placed on his shoulder, in that hand was also a sharp knife, as long as Ye Han had moved around, this sharp knife would slit his throat.

“Alter Ego.” Ye Han felt the aura coming from the woman behind him, his sword eyebrows raised, the aura from this woman was the same as the scimitar shifter assassin he had killed back then.

“Alright, Shadowless, sit down, let’s listen to Ye Han talk about what’s going on here.” The woman called Shadowless was of the cold type, with a melon face, willow eyebrows and a cold sharp aura emitting from time to time in her eyes.

Shadowless sat down on the stool beside Ye Han, she was wearing a tight black leather jacket, her figure was tall, this kind of dress, like a female agent inside a movie, her appearance gave people a desire to conquer.

“What are you looking at, are you not convinced?” Seeing Ye Han looking at himself, Shadowless said indifferently; “Right now many people are rumoring how powerful you Ye Han are, likely to surpass Nalan Miantian inside Yanjing City, but after meeting you, I realized that such rumors are actually somewhat exaggerated, at least, if I were to kill you just now, you would already be dead.”

Hearing this, Ye Han touched his nose and smiled, not bothering to argue about anything, there were many people in this world who could kill him, but Shadowless was by no means in this category, if Shadowless had just released a hint of killing energy towards him, Ye Han could definitely have pulled her out in the first place.

If Shadowless had just unleashed her murderous aura on him, Ye Han would have been able to find her out at the first opportunity. Shadowless was a psychic, a member of the National Hidden Power Psychic Association, her psychic ability was stealth, even with advanced instruments she could not see through her stealth psychic ability, but after seeing the power of Shadowless' stealth psychic ability, Ye Han was eager to see if his Yin Yang Dharma Eye could see through her stealth psychic ability?

Fortune Chapter 468

Seeing that a group of experts had come inside this house, Kunsang said sagely; "Hanzi, you guys talk, I'll go outside to help watch."

"Thank you, big brother Kunsang."

Kunsang patted Ye Han's shoulder and then walked out, he knew that there were some things that he shouldn't know, even if he and Ye Han were close iron buddies, among other things, some hidden secrets and some people were not for him, an ordinary person, to pry into.

After Kunsang left, Ye Han didn't bother to pay attention to this Shadowless, he sat down and said to Elder Kong; "Senior, according to my investigation in the past two days, it's not that easy for us to get that item, right now, although only the Japanese are involved, but I just got the news that someone in our country is also involved, and, it's also an expert."

"Someone in China is also involved!" Elder Air pondered and said; "Right now this thing has spread in certain circles, it is normal for some domestic forces to know about it.

Ye Han shook his head and said, "I don't know yet, but I think it won't be long before these people show up at this hotel, then we will know their identities, but that's not the main thing, I haven't investigated clearly where General Tado hid the item, and the suspicious General Tado has installed a detonation system on his body. If he dies, then the item he hid will be blown up, so in the meantime, while we look for the item, we also have to prevent others from taking desperate measures, if once General Tado dies, then all is lost."

"What a cunning fellow, this detonation system is his catalyst and also his life preserver." Cheng Jun said with a cold face, the crowd also nodded silently, after knowing this, only after knowing this, I am afraid that no one who has thoughts about this item will go to kill General Tado, it is not important to kill General Tado, what is important is that it will destroy that item.

"It seems that we have to enter General Tado's residence to investigate properly before we can do so, moreover, we have to send someone to put General Tado under surveillance to see if he will reveal himself." Elder Empty pondered and said this.

Ye Han said; "Senior, I have already checked General Tado's residence, but I have not gained much, but I can enter again and check it out carefully, as for the surveillance of General Tado, I have already arranged it, moreover, I have also sent people to monitor the Japanese side, as long as they have any movement, I can get the news here.”

“That’s good, it’s you young people who have thought of everything.” Elder Air nodded with a smile.

“But ……” Ye Han pondered and said; “Elder, we have to move fast to do so, right now, apart from the Japanese, there are also people in the country involved, and, according to General Tado himself, within a few days there will be buyers coming to negotiate with him, and I think there will be more than one set of people coming in time, and then we will have some trouble in trying to get this thing.”

“So, time is short, we have to move fast.” Empty Elder narrowed his eyes and said, the people of the Martial Hall were all of the category of consecrated figures, they would not appear easily, right now Empty Elder, a consecrated figure of the Martial Hall, had appeared, and there was also fierce fighting in the western world, so one could imagine how much the country valued this item.

Ye Han said; “I will go into General Tado’s residence once more at night time to see if I can find any other new clues.”

“I think it’s better for me to go.” Shadowless spoke up at this time, then she continued; “My supernatural ability is invisibility, it’s easy to enter General Tado’s residence, I can come and go as I please, I won’t be noticed at all, and it’s much easier to investigate.”

“No, it’s too dangerous for you to go alone.” The empty old man shook his head and said; “General Tado can stand in this chaotic place of the Golden Triangle, he himself has some strength, moreover, he also has the King of Killers, Machete, Shadowless girl, if you go in and are discovered, your situation will become very dangerous, if anything happens to you, how can I explain to your grandfather, during the night operation, you and Ye Han both go in and cooperate with each other, we will meet you outside, so as to ensure that nothing will go wrong.”

“Okay.” Shadowless shrugged his shoulders and his eyes gave Ye Han a faint look, seemingly mocking, seemingly disdainful.

To be honest, Ye Han didn’t even understand what exactly he had done to piss this chick off, why did he always look at him with a look of displeasure?

After Ye Han had finished discussing business on their side, a knock sounded outside, and then Kun Sang, who had left, walked in and said; “Han Zi, those guys are back and will be coming to this side of the hotel soon.”

Hearing this, Ye Han immediately got up and walked to the window, from this position he could just see what people had entered the hotel.

Below the hotel, at this moment, the second righteous son as well as the fifth righteous son in addition to the three wolf king experts inside the divine Eagle were walking quickly, just by looking at them, one could feel that they were a group of very powerful experts, especially the first righteous son, he cultivated what should be a very powerful external martial art, the aura on him was only comparable to the fourth in the Tiger Ranking, Shi Jing Jie.

“So it’s the Grassland King’s old man’s people.” Elder Empty stood beside Ye Han, who had likewise seen those five people below.

Hearing these words from Empty Elder, Ye Han's sword eyebrows raised, these five people were actually the people of the Northern Grassland King, these guys were really bold, they dared to grab food from the country, they weren't afraid of being exterminated by their roots.

The man next to him is the fifth righteous son, this person is a typical developed mind and simple limbs, as for the three guys behind them .....

"It should be the most powerful force under the Grassland King, right?" Ye Han picked up the words.

The empty old man nodded and said; "This is the most powerful wolf king under the grassland king, the grassland king is cruel by nature, these people were all sent by him to live with the wolves on the prairie when they were young, learning the character of the wolves, and only those who could survive in the end could become the wolf king, be careful when you fight with these people."

Ye Han nodded, from the bodies of these three Wolf King experts, he all felt an aura of danger.

"Senior, why does the Grassland King also want to obtain this one thing?" This was the doubt in Ye Han's heart, if it was just a fight between countries, Ye Han was not surprised, but the underground forces were also involved, that was a bit different, proving that this item was also useful to the Grassland King.

"Not only are these underground forces like the Grassland King, if the Ancient Martial World gets wind of it, there's no guarantee they'll all step in." Elder Empty said with a heavy voice.

Fortune Chapter 469

After hearing this from Elder Kong, Ye Han became even more curious about that triangular-shaped iron block, what exactly was this thing? Listening to what Elder Kong said, not only did the state want to get it, but even people from the underground world and the ancient martial world also wanted to get it, such a huge temptation, I'm only afraid that there must be very powerful interests involved.

Otherwise, with the state looking at something, and with other countries involved, the Grassland King would not dare to mess around.

Only, the empty old man did not say exactly what this thing was, and Ye Han was not good at pursuing the root of the matter, perhaps, there was some secret that could not be exposed.

The Grassland King's people were staying in this hotel, and Ye Han and his men were more careful.

However, staying in the same hotel, Ye Han and his men could just keep an eye on the Grassland King's men from the shadows.

When it was time for the evening, Morning Sword, Steel Blade and Kunsang stayed behind to keep watch, while Ye Han, Empty Elder, Shadowless, Cheng Jun, Earth Dragon and Li Sen arrived outside General Tado's mansion.

"Young Ye!"

Once Ye Han and the others arrived, a Heavenly Dragon Guard appeared silently not far from Ye Han, his eyes emitting a gleam of blood under the dark night sky, his hostile aura strong.

Seeing this appearing Heavenly Dragon Guard, Ye Han nodded and said; “What direction are the other brothers in? Is there any new movement here?”

“Back to Young Ye, the other brothers are all around this mansion, everything is calm here, General Tado is in the military camp right now and has not returned yet.”

“Good, keep monitoring, don’t let them find out.”

“Yes.” After answering, this Heavenly Dragon Guard slowly hid in the darkness, blending in with it as if he had never appeared again.

Elder Empty said; “Ye Han, this group of people under you is very good, all of them are experts, I don’t know how you kid trained this group of people!”

The Heavenly Dragon Guards had grown up in day and night fighting and killing, in that forest in Tengchong, there were crises everywhere, one mistake could kill them, if the Heavenly Dragon Guards wanted to survive in there, they had to work hard to develop their own potential, even if they were exhausted, they could not fall down, after half a year of bloody killing, plus Ye Han’s pill support, the Heavenly Dragon Guards had become as strong as they were today.

Ye Han said; “The Heavenly Dragon Guards are certainly good, but they still lack some abilities, after they have been honed in the underground world for a period of time, they can really be put to great use.”

Right now, Ye Han had the strength of the battle group around him, but the guards and war generals were still lacking, if these people were able to stand alone in the midst of the grinding, after he had fought as many rivers and mountains as he could, in the future, the Heavenly Dragon Guards would split up and go to their respective sides in his place, then, the strength belonging to him would be truly formed.

Although He Yaozong and the others could hold it for the time being, it would never last long.

For General Tado’s residence, he had already been inside once, so Ye Han was more familiar with the place, and he said; “Senior, you will meet us outside, so Miss Wu Ying and I will go in first.”

“Ye Han, keep an eye on Wu Ying, go ahead, be careful yourselves,”

Ye Han nodded, then, only to see a mysterious aura suddenly released from Wu Ying’s body, this aura wrapped around Ye Han, the next moment, Ye Han and Wu Ying disappeared from Elder Kong’s sight at the same time, his whole body was covered by Wu Ying’s invisibility powers, making Ye Han feel a strange energy flowing through him, he was now a transparent person, just walking past, only afraid that those guards would not even find them. They would not be able to find them.

Under the effect of the invisibility ability, Ye Han and Shadowless easily passed the guards and entered the courtyard, then, under Ye Han’s guidance, the two of them breezed to the first floor.

So, this time, Ye Han was going to focus on checking out the other rooms.

“Let’s split up, it’ll be more efficient this way.” When she came to the second level, Shadowless was going to act alone, she didn’t like to act with Ye Han.

“No way.” Ye Han said; “Although your stealth powers are good, but unfortunately, your combat power is too weak, if once someone finds out, we will be exposed then, so we must act together, moreover, I also need to use your stealth powers.”

“Coward, what a nuisance, let’s go.” Shadowless said impatiently, then gently opened the door of a room and dodged in, Ye Han also followed behind her, after entering inside the room, the two of them started to look carefully.

This room should be General Tado’s woman’s room, there was a faint fragrance inside, and the clothes hanging there were all worn by women, Ye Han didn’t go through the boxes like Shadowless did, he just used his Yin Yang Dharma Eye to sweep through it before he knew there was nothing he wanted here.

“Alright, stop looking, there’s nothing we’re looking for in here, go to the next room.” Ye Han said to Shadowless who was rummaging around. However, just then, the sound of the door opening rang out, after hearing this movement, the faces of both Ye Han and Shadowless changed, Shadowless hurriedly cast out his invisibility powers to cover the two of them, and then hid behind the curtains.

“Damn ghost, how dare you come at this time, if Tado finds out, the two of us will be dead.”

After the door to the room opened, a man and a woman came in and the two began to cuddle and rolled onto the bed in no time. The man was then heard to say; “That old thing is still inside the barracks, he won’t be back for another hour, Ana, I’ve missed you so much .....”

“Shakun, I miss you too, take me away, I don’t want to serve that old man anymore either.”

“Not yet, Ana, you are Tado’s favourite woman, I asked you to find out news of that item for me, have you found out?”

The woman called Ana said; “Tado’s mouth is very tight, if I ask just a little he will beat me up, Shakun, don’t ask me to ask around any more, I’m afraid he will really kill me.”

Shakun said; “No, Ana, you must inquire about the whereabouts of this item, this is the only chance for the two of us to get away from that old thing Tado, if we get the item and sell it, we can leave this hellhole of the Golden Triangle and then I will take you somewhere else to live a better life.”

Fortune Chapter 470

However, this scene of living springtime doesn’t last long, it’s over in a few minutes.

Sha Kun was so useless that the woman called Ana was obviously not satisfied with him and rubbed herself against his body in the hope that Sha Kun would revive her virility, but Sha Kun was not lusting after this woman’s beauty when he was cheating on her with Tado’s woman, he had come for other purposes.

If he could sell it, he would have nothing to worry about for the rest of his life, and he could go out into the world and live like a rich man.

“Ana, I have to go, it’s time for that old thing Tado to come back later.” Seeing that he couldn’t get any useful information out of Ana, Shakun wasn’t prepared to stay on, women, he had plenty of them around.

“Hmph, I knew you didn’t really love me, go away, I had another clue here, forget it.” After hearing this from Shakun, Ana’s face fell and she lay down on the bed with a cold face.

After Shakun heard this, his eyes lit up and he turned to pin Aana down and said with a smile; “Aana, how could I not really love you anymore, if I get that thing, I’ll take you away right away, I swear to God.”

“Really?” Ana asked with some uncertainty.

“Really, I, Shakun, will be damned if I lie to you.” In order to get that clue out of Ana’s mouth, Shakun swore a direct oath, a trick that worked well with women, at least with Ana, she obviously believed Shakun’s words, and then said with wintry eyes; “Shakun, that old thing Tado has a mistress outside, no, to be precise that woman is his real wife in name, if that thing he didn’t hidden at home, it is likely to be with that woman, there is another place, the armoury of the barracks, the key to the armoury is only available to that old thing Tado, even you can’t get in, and it is full of mechanisms, it is also a good place to hide things.”

“I didn’t expect that old thing Tado to have a woman outside, Ana, if you hadn’t told me, even I, his most trusted crony, wouldn’t have known this.” Shakun narrowed his eyes, this was indeed an important clue, and perhaps, he could start with that.

As for the armoury, he couldn’t go into it just yet.

Ana continued; “Anyway, these are the two places I can think of, Shakun, go check it out yourself and remember that you must take me far away when the time comes.”

At those words, a look of contempt flashed in Sha Kun’s eyes, but he still said; “Ah Na, don’t worry, the good day that belongs to both of us is coming soon. As soon as I find that item, I will take you far away, but until I have it, you will have to test Tado to see if he is hiding somewhere else.”

“Well, for both our happiness, Shakun, I will.” Ana leaned into Shakun’s arms with an emotional look on her face.

Seeing this, Ye Han and the red-faced Wu Ying slowly left the place, just now the two of them had watched a live spring festival in the open, Ye Han was embarrassed but didn’t feel anything, after all, he was a man of the past, but Wu Ying was different, she was still a yellow girl.

“Hmph, men are all the same, when they are in bed they are full of flowery words, when they get out of bed, they forget everything when they lift their trousers.” The two of them came inside another empty room, and Shadowless gave Ye Han a somewhat disgusted look, feeling that what Sha Kun had just done had made her classify Ye Han to be the same way as Sha Kun.

Hearing this, Ye Han was a bit speechless, where in the world did this woman get off, people cheating on each other, what does it matter to him? Now instead, she was hating on him.

Ye Han said; “I say, Shadowless girl, you are knocking over a boatload of people with one rod, there are still good men in this world.”

“Could it be that you are?” Shadowless gave Ye Han a disdainful look.

These words made Ye Han not know how to reply, he was indeed a good man, for the sake of his woman, he dared to make a vow to step on a strong enemy like Nalan Miantian, however, Ye Han was not considered the most perfect good man, because there was more than one woman by his side, he did not have the means to give all his love to one woman.

“I’m too lazy to care about you.” Ye Han said indifferently, then added; “What that woman said just now is an important clue for us, since we already have a clue, there is no need to investigate here, Tado is not that stupid to hide something here and wait for us to find it, let’s go, go and meet up with Air Elder and the others.”

Shadowless knew that what Ye Han said was the truth, and did not want to argue, after which, the two of them left the place.

However, as Ye Han and the others were preparing to leave, Elder Kong and the others who were waiting outside suddenly noticed that several military jeeps had driven into General Tado’s residence, and in that vehicle, there were not only General Tado, but also Japanese people.

“The Japanese are here!” Elder Air’s brow furrowed, there was a very powerful expert among that group of Japanese, right now Ye Han and the others were still in there, the appearance of the Japanese at this time was not good news for them.

At this time, Cheng Jun’s communication device also rang, after listening to it, he frowned and said; “Elder Kong, there is news from the hotel, the Grassland King’s people have left the hotel, they should be coming towards General Tado.”

Upon hearing this, Elder Kong’s frown increased as he said; “All these deserving and undeserving ones are all coming together at the moment, I hope Ye Han and the others can come out quickly, if they are found out, things will be a bit unpleasant.”

Cheng Jun said; “No matter what, Ye Han and Shadowless must not have an accident here, if they are really discovered, we will rush in, with our strength and the Heavenly Dragon Guards hidden around, I don’t believe we can’t do anything to them.”

“I hope so.” Elder Empty nodded and continued; “We’ll see what happens later, without my orders, we can’t appear until the last resort, Ye Han is no simple person either, this kid must have something exceptional if he can break out in that bloody place in the Underworld.”

Cheng Jun and the others nodded, their eyes gazing intently at General Tado’s mansion, from here, they could just see the situation inside General Tado’s hall.

Not long after, the Second Righteous Son and the others also entered General Tado’s villa, and at this time, Silly Ben, who was watching the Japanese, and the three Kunsang, who were watching the Second Righteous Son and the others at the hotel, also arrived beside Elder Kong and the others.

At this moment, General Tado, the Japanese and the Second Righteous Son, what did these three forces want to do together?
